Why's.
To the Editor of the Capital Journal:
Why is it that members of the state exchange, real estate dealers, complain about those who are not members of that organization, because they visit hotels and do street talk to secure patronage, calling all non-members bushwhackers and curbstone dealers, when almost every day may be seen these astute gentlemen perusing the several hotel registers upon the arrival of each train? Information is what we seek.

CITRUS PLANTING.
A Large Amount of Oranges to Be Planted This Year.

POMONA, Dec. 21.—A canvass of fruit-growers in this part of the state has been made by the Pomona Progress, which reports that during the next four months the greatest planting of deciduous and citrus fruit trees ever known in this part of California will take place. Reports from horticultural societies in Riverside, San Bernardino and Ontario confirm the statement that in the Pomona valley alone over 200,000 acres of land will be set out to orchards, and the same rate extends to other localities. The nurseries have begun work and have orders for thousands of trees. This great movement in orchard planting has been brought about by the starting of fruit-packing houses and canneries in this region and the particularly good prices the fruit-growers have had for two years.

Two-thirds of the orchard planting will be confined to navel orange trees, which pay very handsomely, but a large acreage will be planted to figs, olives, lemons and prunes. The Progress is unable to find any one in Southern California who is going to plant apricot, peach or nectarine orchards this season. Many acres of wine grapes will be pulled up.

THE INFLUENZA.

Symptoms of the Terrible Disease Now In the East

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—Recent advices indicate that the influenza, now prevalent in Europe, is of Asiatic origin, and that it reached Russia over the caravan routes, as did a similar epidemic in 1830. It is known in Russia as a Chinese malady and in Germany as the Russian catarrh. In St. Petersburg the epidemic was coincident with heavy clouds, semi-darkness and bad weather. The victims of the malady are taken suddenly. On the first day the symptoms are mental depression, feverish cold and gastric disturbances, followed on the next four days by somnolency. The latter characteristic disappears on the fourth and fifth days and is succeeded by vomiting. After this the patient recovers rapidly enough. Men and animals are attacked by the disease, but few women have been affected by it. Half the Russian Government has been disabled by the influenza.

A BURIED TRAGEDY.

Suicide of the Last Supposed Witness to It.

HELENA, Mont., Dec. 21.—The suicide of J. C. McDonnell at the Grand Central Hotel the other day recalls the Moore tragedy of February, 1886, the details of which are still fresh in the minds of the public. The dead bodies of William Moore and his wife were found in their house on the Benton road, each riddled with bullets. The tragedy was not witnessed, as far as known, and the theory at the time was that the couple had quarreled, appealed to firearms and killed each other; or that possibly one had killed the other and then committed suicide.

The mystery attending their death, however, was never cleared up. Mr. and Mrs. Moore had lived unhappily for some time previous to the tragedy, and the woman's infidelity to her husband was the subject of common talk. The object of the faithless woman's affections was a school teacher at Dearborn, whom many people thought knew more of the tragedy than he cared to tell. That teacher was J. C. McDonnell, the man who has now committed suicide, so the last supposed actor in the most awful domestic tragedy enacted in Montana has passed out of the world, adding by his unexplained act of self-destruction another mystery to that already connected with the Moore tragedy.

WORE THEM JUST THE SAME.

This is considered the festive time of the year for marriages. This morning a JOURNAL reporter was standing in a large Commercial street establishment when his attention was called to a supposed newly made bride. At any rate the young lady bore all appearances of bearing that distinction as she was togged out in "dying colors" and notwithstanding the muddy condition of the streets she was sporting a white pair of slippers. Her supposed hubby was close to her side ready to render any assistance necessary. Such things will happen despite storms, rain, mud or heaven only knows what.

TROUBLE IN THE CHINESE CAMP.
—Just now Marshal Ross and the other police force are having their hands full looking after the Chinese in the city. A few days ago several highlanders arrived in the city and demanded of the Chinese merchants of this city a certain sum of money. The celestial brothers could not see the point and refused to "dive up." The highlanders then made open threats that they would burn every one of them out and have since been causing a source of trouble among the coolies. Private citizens who employ Chinese have become aroused over the matter and fear that some attempt of depredation will be committed. In one instance one of our citizens has placed a night-watchman on his premises. The authorities are keeping a sharp look out and will promptly arrest any one of them who makes the least miss-pass.

ANOTHER PRISONER.—This morning Earnest M. Roten, of Jacksonville, Or., was brought to the penitentiary to serve a term of one year for robbery. Sheriff Birdsey conveyed the unfortunate victim here.

KEEP IT.—Geo. D. Goodhue, No. 95 State street keeps on hand constantly all kinds of wood, sawed and unsawed.

GRANGE NOTES.

The following resolutions were adopted by the Marion County Pomona Grange, at their meeting, held Dec. 21st.
Resolved, That this Grange is opposed at this time, to the county court appropriating any of the county funds, or giving an obligation of this county to pay at some future time, for any but the current expenses of this county.
Resolved, That this Grange ask the Oregon State Board of Agriculture to increase the premiums on cereals and vegetables, especially when made as Grange or county exhibits.

On motion, Messrs. R. P. Boise, Wm. Hilleary and J. P. Robertson and Messdames M. A. Minto, I. L. Hilleary and E. A. Boise were appointed a committee to make arrangements for an exhibit for the Marion County Pomona Grange, at the next State Agricultural Fair.
Whereas, One of the conditions under which Marion county purchased the land on which the Oregon State Fairs have since been held, was that the grounds would be useful as a place whereon to hold meetings of the militia; and
Whereas, We understand that the militia company located at Salem desire an armory building of such a character as to be sufficient as a meeting place for an annual meeting of the entire militia of the state.
Therefore

Resolved, That we claim that the citizens of Marion county have an equitable right to ask at the hands of the Oregon State board of Agriculture and the State Agricultural society, that the grounds and unoccupied buildings be opened for meetings of the militia at the state fair grounds.
Resolved, That a committee of this Grange be appointed to confer with the committees of the State Board and Agricultural society, in order to secure facilities for meetings of the state militia of this county and state, and John Minto, J. B. Stump and R. P. Boise were appointed committee to carry out above resolutions.
Whereas, At the last session of the state legislature, there was appropriated for the laying out, opening and working on highways established by various laws of that session, about the sum of $125,000, which legislation is in violation of section 23 of article 11 of the constitution of Oregon.
Therefore, resolved, That such legislation is wrong and imposes an illegal and unjust burden on the taxpayers of Oregon.
