SAURDAY DECEMBER 28

The telegraph brings us word of the appointment of Mr. Green B. Cornelius as farmer for the Chemawa Indian school. This is somewhat unexpected by Mr. Cornelius, but equally pleasing to his friends and republicans generally. The appointee is a brother of County Commissioner A. H. Cornelius, and a man who stands well in his home community near Turner. He is a practical and successful farmer, a good business man, and in every way fitted for the important position. THE JOURNAL is pleased to chronicle this event, and congratulates the public and the school upon their good fortune.

A PAN-AMERICAN RAILROAD. One of the incorporators for West Virginia of the Columbia Railway and Navigation Company, which is at the head of the most gigantic railway scheme in history, and the details of which have not yet been published, described the project to the World correspondent to-day. Said he:

"The plan is nothing less than the construction of a railroad from the shores of Colombia on the Caribbean sea down through the heart of South America to Buenos Ayres on the Atlantic coast and to Iquique on the Pacific coast.

"This movement grows out of the same feeling in this country that inspired and called together at Washington the Pan-American Congress, and is in reality a part of the programme for cementing in close commercial union the States of North and South America.

THE MAMMOTH UNDERTAKING. "The details of the great movement have not yet been given to the public, but they are known to embrace a line of steamships from the gulf ports of the United States to the mouth of the Magdalena river, in South America, in the republic of Colombia, and the railroads up that river to the mountain spurs of the Andes that separate the waters of the Magdalena river from those of the Amazon, and thence branching down through Brazil, Chili and Peru to the mouth of the La Planta in Buenos Ayres.

"This is to be an international project," said the World's informant, "and is expected to interest a great number of stockholders in this country and South America.

ALREADY MANY STOCKHOLDERS. "The incorporators are citizens of Virginia, West Virginia and other states, and the books of subscription to stock of the company are to be opened to the people of all countries embraced by the routes to be included in the project. The scheme meets with favor on the Pan-American delegation and of Secretary Baile on behalf of the Federal Government.

Colonel H. C. Parsons, and intimate and personal friend of Blaine, is the leading spirit of the enterprise, and at his back are some of the leading railroads of the country, especially those who have terminal on the gulf, whose lines will connect with the proposed steamship lines at Key West, New Orleans and Galveston.

"Statistics show that such a railroad would traverse large areas of exceedingly rich country; that its traffic would simply be enormous. Passenger travel, which is now large and growing rapidly, would leave the sea and seek the railroad, as the time between New York and Buenos Ayres or Lima would not exceed ten days. This would be quick travel, as compared with the present tedious sea voyages. The immigration to South America from Europe, which is now heavy, would also be diverted to this route.

BLAINE'S INTEREST. "Blaine has long discussed the possibilities of this new era. He is bending his abilities and experience in public affairs to the accomplishment for this country of a complete commercial supremacy on this continent. The South American republics will ratify the charter and supplement it by land grants and postal subsidies. The United States Government will also, no doubt, make liberal postal arrangements with the company."

Mary Anderson is again visiting Lord Teunyon.

THE wife of Jeff Davis is entitled to a pension as the widow of a Mexican soldier, and it will only be necessary for her to ask and receive.

THE knowledge that the mines of Alaska turned out $825,000 in gold last year will give a great impetus to the development of whatever resources our Arctic territory may possess. Where gold can be dug there will always be population. Human ingenuity and endurance will be taxed to the utmost to maintain a footing in the most inaccessible regions where the yellow metal offers even a gambler's chance of making a fortune. It may cost more to mine the gold than it is worth, but as long as an occasional lucky find is made, so long will the hunt be kept up.

A COMPOSITOR in a printing office was setting in type this verse of scripture: "And Daniel had an excellent spirit in him." But he made it read, "And Daniel had an excellent spine in him." Mr. Spurgeon said that it was not much of a mistake. All good men now-a-days need "an excellent spine." They require to hold the truth in its integrity, to believe it upon the word of its divine author, and then stand erect and unflinching whatever opposition befalls them. This was the case with Daniel. His excellent spirit revealed itself in the texture of his backbone. The lion's den confronted him but he did not yield an inch. And he went into it with far more composure than the king went to his sleepless bed.

THE San Francisco Examiner speaks of the two great Southerners who have just passed away—Jefferson Davis and Henry W. Grady—as typical representatives of the Old and New South. To the average reader the names mark the very antipodes of thought and action. And yet Grady was as heartily devoted to his section as Davis. But he had a clearer vision of its true welfare. He saw that nothing was to be gained by brooding over the past, and that if the destiny of the South, as even Davis admitted, lay within the Union, the thing for the South to do was to accept that destiny frankly, cheerfully, unreservedly, and go forward in the determination to make the prosperity of the Union its own. He spoke for the young men who have grown up since the war, and who had no part in the wrangle over slavery. His influence was wholly good, and the regret at his loss is bounded by no sectional lines.

From Sherman County. EDITOR JOURNAL:—Having just returned from the Bunchgrass Prairie, of Eastern Oregon, I will endeavor to furnish a few items which may be interesting to the many readers of your valuable columns. The eastern part of Oregon has just experienced the driest season known to its history, in fact hundreds are hauling water even now, and the indications are that they will be compelled to do so until the snow melts in the spring, and even then, if the snow fall is not greater than at present, the supply of water will be inadequate. Coupling this fact together with their almost failure of crops, and the limited circumstances of the majority of families, it would not be a wonder if they were altogether discouraged. But such is not the case. Although money is scarce, and the matter of obtaining credit is out of the question with a great many, yet I do not believe there is a family in Sherman county that will suffer for want of the real necessities of life. It is true that some are very anxious to dispose of their interests and leave the country. That, however, is the case with a portion of the population of any place in the bounds of civilization. And another fact to be taken into consideration is the rapid growth and prosperity of that country during the last five years, which is largely the cause of the dissatisfaction now existing among the wheat-growers, for its a well-known fact that quite a number of people are found wherever you go that abuse prosperity whenever it smiles upon them. It is a very deplorable condition, not only for the parties themselves, but of course their influences are felt to a certain extent, by all with whom they come in contact, but taking all things together, the people there are in better circumstances than is generally believed by the people in this valley. The greatest difficulty that the people in this new part of our new state, is the matter of foresight. It only requires a single glance for the close observer to fully understand the great importance to the producers of this vast and productive region, the necessity of the early completion of the Cascade locks, and the construction of the much talked of heat-railway, or locks, above The Dalles, which would facilitate good transportation and very materially cheapen the rates, which at present seems almost too much for the grangers to bear.

The county seat question is still...

other feature that is working a hardship on all the actual settlers in the county, as they are ill prepared for the fight and at present it promises to be a very hotly contested struggle. It is reasonable to conclude, however, that the temporary quarters (Wasco), is the proper place for its permanent location, and in the event of this locating it, the value of the best portion of the wheat-growing sections will be very much enhanced and the early development of the county assured. As the locating of the county seat at Grant's Station would only be temporary at best. F. S. BARZEE.

She Danced With Our George. Senator Geo. T. Thompson, of Walla Walla, was one of the legislative committee sent to inspect the asylum. There was a dance on the night the committee spent in the investigation, and Mr. Thompson took for a partner one of the fair unfortunates, to whom he was introduced. "I don't remember having seen you here before," said she; "how long have you been in the asylum?" "Oh, I only came down yesterday," said George smiling, "as a member of the legislative committee." "Of course," returned the lady; "how stupid I am. However, I knew that you were a member of the legislature or an inmate the moment I looked at you. But how was I to know? It is so difficult to know which is which in this strange place."—Walla Walla Journal.

AN UGLY DISCOVERY.

A Report that should Be Read. "A recent analysis in Philadelphia by a celebrated chemist of ten popular brands of Sarsaparilla discloses the astonishing fact that these ten samples of blood purifiers (7) contained in the aggregate sixteen different minerals, eleven of which were active poisons. Iodine of Potash was discovered in every sample, mercury was found in all but two, which were entirely free of the same. Not one brand was true pure article." A reporter took the above clipping to E. W. Joy, the manufacturer of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. Mr. Joy exhibited no surprise. He said druggists know it. He said he long ago saw the crying need for a safe and absolutely pure vegetable preparation of Sarsaparilla, hence his was named Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. He said it contained nothing but pure syrup of sarsaparilla, combined with the pure juices of California's vegetable alteratives. Unlike potash sarsaparillas, it does not force impurities through the skin, but stimulates the various secretory organs, thereby correcting functional derangements and eliminating all impurities through the natural channels.—San Francisco Examiner.

Jute and cotton were brought into competition recently as articles for the manufacture of bagging for the cotton crop, and jute came out ahead, having established its adaptability for that purpose above that of cotton.

Children Saved from Severe Sickness. Dr. Holden: I notice by the papers that you are placing your valuable Etherical Cough Syrup before the public. It is a charitable act. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla 100 Doses One Dollar

The Chief Reason for the great success of Hood's Sarsaparilla is found in the article itself. It is merit that wins, and the fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla actually accomplishes what is claimed for it, is what has given to this medicine a popularity and sale greater than that of any other sarsaparilla or blood purifier. Merit Wins before the public. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures Scrofula, Fall Rheum and all Humors, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Biliousness, overcomes That Furred Feeling, creates an Appetite, strengthens the Nerves, builds up the Whole System. Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold by drug dealers. $1.00 per box. Prepared by C. I. Hood & Co., Apolthecaries, Lowell, Mass.

The Best Residence Localities

In the city of Portland and other prosperous towns are those owned by men or corporations who have the disposition and ability to improve them.

HIGHLAND ADDITION

—IS OWNED BY—

THE OREGON LAND COMPANY!

And this Corporation is determined to Make It The Most Attractive Addition

To the city of Salem. They have at this time fifteen teams employed and the contemplated improvements have scarcely begun. It is intended to make the drive leading from Commercial street through Riverside and Highland additions and around Highland Park

THE FINEST DRIVE IN THE STATE

Of Oregon. The line of the Salem Street Railway Company runs through the middle of this addition, and no lots will be more than two blocks distant from the line. Highland Park will in the near future be

THE MOST POPULAR RESORT

ABOUT THE CITY OF SALEM.

Lots in Highland Addition are High and Dry and Well Located; Most Excellent Drainage

The soil is black and rich. From all points a fine view is obtained of the public buildings and our highest mountain peaks. Arrangements are already being made for the location of two churches in this addition, and a number of residences are soon to be built. Buildings only of the best class will be permitted. Residence lots within the limits of the city of Salem are worth on an average over $1000. We can sell you better lots in Highland addition for one-third of the money, and being directly on the line of the street railway they are practically not half so far from the public buildings and the business part of the town as the majority of the so-called "inside lots."

Buy a Lot in Highland Addition for Three Hundred Dollars,

And let some other fellow pay $1000 for an inferior lot not so well located. With the difference of $700 you can build a beautiful cottage, or put it out at a rate of interest that will buy you nearly two thousand street car tickets every year.
