SALEM, OREGON, TUESDAY, JANUARY 28, 1890.

NO. 283.

SALEM?

HAS THE BOTTOM DROPPED OUT

One would think to read the advertisements of some of the merchants on trial for poisoning her husband, that this is a very poor place to do business in. They are continually SELLING OUT AT COST. How do the keep up? Are they supported by charity, or are they and their advertisements frauds?

Hear the Truth!

Salem is a prosperous and growing city, and all its merchants are doing well and making money, and any right-minded man knows that when a a merchant advertises to sell "at cest," that it is always at what it "costs the buyer." Men do not go into business for fun or for their health, but to make money.

never advertise to sell off at cost, yet we are constantly 20 to 30 per cent. lower than any other house in Salem. Why? Because we buy from first hands and for cash, and get our goods cheaper. Now during the months of January and February only we propose to reduce our prices on all good and show the people of Salem and the surrounding country how we can SELL GOODS and not Telegraphic Troubles.

PORTLAND, Jan. 28,-The Western Union lines to San Francisco direct, are still disabled. The lines follow the course of the Southern Pacific through Cow Creek canyon, where the blockade is as impenetrable as ever. A large force of -men are steadily at work doing all in their power to repair the damage. As soon as the linemen step off the well beaten path to make their way to a damage I pole, they go in up to their necks, and sometimes of a prominent attorney of this city, deeper. They then have to waddle and force their way through to the pole, which is not only slow work, but very laborious, and soon exyears and several times before, when hausts the strongest man. Just when the difficulty will be overcome by the lines being connected, is a question which the mapagers cannot answer. The damage to the lines has been so great-150 poles in a distance of 50 miles being down has been acquitted.
