What is the Matter With SALEM?

HAS THE BOTTOM DROPPED OUT?

One would think to read the advertisements of some of the merchants that this is a very poor place to do business in. They are continually SELLING OUT AT COST. How do the keep up? Are they supported by charity, or are they and their advertisements frauds?

Hear the Truth!

Salem is a prosperous and growing city, and all its merchants are doing well and making money, and any right-minded man knows that when a merchant advertises to sell "at cost," that it is always at what it "costs the buyer." Men do not go into business for fun or for their health, but to make money.

The Capitol Adventure Company

never advertise to sell off at cost, yet we are constantly 20 to 30 per cent. lower than any other house in Salem. Why? Because we buy from first hands and for cash, and get our goods cheaper. Now during the months of January and February only we propose to reduce our prices on all good and show the people of Salem and the surrounding country how we can SELL GOODS AND NOT

"Sell at Cost"

Either, but actually make money at the low prices given. Read what follows:

It is not so hard to keep up with the procession. To get ahead of the procession is another matter.

ACCORDING to some Oregon papers Willamette valley assessments are very light. We have smart assessors.

UNLESS a man is a dead block he will keep up with the procession. It takes some life, tho', to get ahead of it.

THE Albany Democrat asks: "Who would be President?" Since November 1888 this office has grown very distasteful to the democrats.

We are not through with floods yet this year. The signs indicate a flood on the second of June that will carry some of its victims down as far as Portland.

The postoffice corps have had easy times of late, but they have the pleasant satisfaction of knowing that work is piling up for them in the future. There is no easy time had in this world without paying for it somewhere.

An exchange that does not believe the democratic party in Oregon is dead says: The good die early, but the democratic party is not that kind of a party. Like sin, it rattles down the ages from generation to generation, and is hardened by age. It will bear watching, and will stand a great deal of clubbing and thrashing yet before it crawls into its hole permanently and pulls the hole in after it. Let the republicans keep their powder dry and "keep an eye on" democracy.

We have received Vol. I, No. 1, "Educational Compendium," printed at Roseburg, Or. J. R. N. Bell, a gentleman of energy and experience and widely known in the state, is editor and proprietor. If earnestly devoted to education as a science and willing to substitute the broad ideas of the new education for pedagogic egotism and talent for self-assertion, it can do a great deal of good. Teachers should try this paper. Monthly, $1.00 a year.

STATE SUPREME COURT.

Large Grist of Business—No Consolation for Hawkins—Court Adjourned.

All members of the supreme bench were present this morning, Judge Strahan having come from Albany yesterday on a handcar, and all the cases except three or four which have been argued were decided, and the court adjourned until Monday, February 24th. Following are the decisions:

State of Oregon vs. Robbins; appeal from Polk county; judgment reversed and Robbins ordered discharged. Opinion by Thayer, C. J.; Strahan, J., dissenting.

This is the famous Polk county inquest case, which has been in court for the past five or six years.

State vs. Pennington; appeal from Baker county; judgment affirmed. Opinion per curiam.

In this case the court holds to the doctrine previously enunciated by it, that when two persons are jointly indicted and obtain separate trials, the one cannot testify for his co-defendant.

Patterson, respondent, vs. Hayden, appellant; appeal from Marion county; judgment affirmed. Opinion per curiam.

J. B. Parker vs. Mary A. Newitt, et al, appeal from Multnomah county; petition for rehearing denied. Opinion by Lord, J.

Rosenberg & Meyers, appellants, vs. Croisan and Skiff, resp; appeal from county; judgment affirmed. Opinion Lord, J.

A. H. Jewett, resp, vs. Wm. Olsen, app; from Multnomah county; judgment reversed and new trial ordered. Opinion by Lord, J.

E. A. McAllister, appellant vs. city of Albany, respondent; from Linn county; judgment reversed and cause remanded for new trial. Opinion by Lord, J.

P. A. Moses, respondent, vs. S. P. R. R. Co., appellant; from Linn county; judgment affirmed. Opinion by Lord, J. Thayer, C. J., dissenting.

Rich'd Everding, respondent, vs. Henry McGinnis, appellant; from Multnomah county; petition for rehearing refused.

State vs. A. J. Cody; from Multnomah county; judgment reversed and cause remanded for new trial. Opinion by Thayer, C. J., Lord, J., dissenting.

F. P. Hembree, et al, respondents, vs. I. R. Dawson, et al, appellants; appeal from Yamhill county; affirmed. Opinion by Thayer, C. J.

L. R. Dawson, assignee, appellant, vs. E. M. Croisan and T. B. Patton, respondents; from Marion county; decree reversed and cause remanded with directions to make the injunction perpetual as prayed for. Opinion by Thayer, C. J.

Lewis Helmick, respondent, vs. I. N. Davidson, et al, appellants; appeal from Polk county; decree reversed and cause remanded with directions to dismiss the complaint without prejudice to either party to recover costs.

Purvis, respondent, vs. Kroner, appellant; from Multnomah county; affirmed. Opinion by Strahan, J.

State, respondent, vs. Gallo, appellant; from Multnomah county; affirmed. Opinion by Strahan, J.

State, respondent, vs. W. E. Hawkins, appellant; from Marion county; judgment affirmed. Opinion by Strahan, J.

This is the case of W. E. Hawkins, convicted last July for the killing of Harvey Ogle on the 1st day of May, and sentenced to the penitentiary for life. It was the hope of his counsel to obtain a new trial and thus endeavor to clear him or secure a lighter sentence, but this decision of the highest tribunal of the state cuts off all hopes in that direction.

The funeral of the late E. H. Bellinger was conducted from the family residence this afternoon at 2 o'clock and the body buried in the Odd Fellows cemetery, under the auspices of that order, of which he was a member.

The way some women at the theater toss about and abuse their magnificent wraps leads to the inference that they are being paid for on the installment plan.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Doings of the Second Day—Not Much Life Yet Manifest.

Circuit court resumed its session this morning at 9 o'clock with the customary promptness of Judge Boise.

District Attorney Hewitt was present this morning, having made the trip from Albany yesterday afternoon on a handcar, where he "worked his passage," like a veritable midshipman. Judge Strahan, of the supreme court, was also a passenger, but they do say he wouldn't "pump." Mr. Hewitt took charge of the grand jury and is assisting that body in its arduous labors.

The following disposition of cases was made so far during the day:

TUESDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

A C Roberts vs Robert Ford, damages; affidavit of John Reynolds filed; also motion for continuance.

Sylvester Pennoyer, governor of Oregon, vs. E M Croisan, sheriff of Marion county; injunction; amended complaint filed.

Joseph W Warner vs Augusta Warner; report of referee filed and sale confirmed.

B F Moody, treasurer of the C P church, vs C W Scriber; action for money; demurrer to complaint was argued this forenoon, and overruled.

A O Snyder vs J V Snyder, divorce; default; referred to S L Hayden to take testimony.

State vs Holtzclaw and Dickenson; indictment for larceny in dwelling; defendants arraigned and given until to-morrow to plead.

S B Catterlin vs A W Benson; on trial to the following jury:

T. J. Hall, David Steiner, T. H. Wilson, Wm. Jory, Robt. M. Cooley, Geo. W. Johnson, W. E. Her, Geo. W. Eoff, C. W. Barkhurst, H. Cosgrove, Jr., Chas. Lembke, James Bachelor.

Uncertained Authority.

John Lewis is one of those large sized, good natured Oregonians so prolific in Polk county. His present occupation is that of a teamster at the state penitentiary. but his capacity for business enables him to take a place in almost any department. The grip, during the past week, has had a free field among the officers of the penitentiary, so John has had about full command of the ship of correction. Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Smith, the Salvation Army preacher from East Portland, arrived at the office of the prison and finding John in charge, thus accosted him.

"Where is the superintendent?"

"Sick abed."

"Where is the warden?"

"Sick abed."

"Where is the turnkey?"

"Sick abed."

"Who's in charge, then?"

"Madam, I am endeavoring to discharge the duties in an humble way."

"Well, sir," said the lady preacher, "I am sent here by God to preach to the poor benighted prisoners to-morrow morning."

"Well, madam," said the affable John, "you can come and preach to them and welcome."

The sermon was delivered Sunday morning and it is presumed John was an interested listener.

Speaking of Building and Loan Associations, the Roseburg Plaindealer says: "If you have a dollar or two to invest do not be running off after strange and unknown gods but invest your money in your own community and thus help to make every body prosperous and happy."

The women of the Russian telegraph service are raising a great outcry in the press against the hardship of the law in force in Russia that they may only marry telegraphists and that, too, only those who are engaged at the same station.

It requires a pretty girl to wear one of those enormous hats which have the appearance of having been used by elephants for footballs.

George Crabtree, of Marion, was a caller to-day.

Irvine Potoam, of Turner, is in the city to-day on business.

Stephen Fred of Marion, is reported very low with pneumonia.

CLIPPINGS FROM THE PRESS.

Oregon State Journal: The telegraph reports that Senator John H. Mitchell of Oregon delivered an able speech in the senate last Wednesday, Jan. 29th, in favor of the bill for free coinage of silver. He is not in favor of any half-way policy on the silver question, but advocates free coinage for silver, which is exactly what a vast majority of the people of the United States demand.

Albany Democrat: Governor Pennoyer makes his mistakes as other governors of the state have done. The Democrat regrets that he did not veto the wagon road swindles. Of course the people who received these large appropriations were pleased to receive them, but the Democrat believes such uses of public funds, raised by taxing the people, are not only impolitic but unconstitutional.

Albany Herald: Just at present one cannot but wish that the inventive genius of a German, who has succeeded in making butter out of cocoa nuts, would bring his invention over here. Cows butter is scarce and oleomargarine not exactly palatable. Give us German cocoanut butter by all means.

Roseburg Review: The re-election of Governor Pennoyer is assured. The great work yet to be done is the election of a legislature which will be true to the interests of the people.

Polk County Observer: The big bridge spanning the Willamette at Salem, and connecting Polk and Marion counties, has been washed away, thus severing a strong link that unites mutual interests; and it is the opinion of "The Observer" that it voices the sentiments of a large majority of the people of this county when it says that Polk and Marion should replace the destroyed structure as soon as circumstances will permit.

The Sign: Dr. Felix Adler says it is impossible to teach religion to children. No doubt he finds it so. But a religion which is unfit for children, or which children are unfit to receive, is not worth much to any one. Why does not Dr. Adler seek the religion which is hid from the wise and prudent and revealed unto babes?
