TO-DAY'S TELEGRAMS!

Congressman Hermann Argues for Public Lands.

WHISKY SMUGGLING IN CANADA!

An Earthquake Shakes Up the Ground in Los Angeles County California.

THAT TEARFUL WEATHER BUREAU OF CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 7.—Rain predicted for Oregon and Washington until to-morrow morning.

GONE UP FOR HALF A MILLION.
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., March 7.—Belloc & Co., one of the oldest banking firms in the city assigned for half a million dollars.

SMALL FIRE.
PASADENA, Cal. Mar. 7.—A destructive fire was caused by a lamp exploding and destroyed the Nevada house early this morning. Loss $6,500; insurance $4,500.

RESTORATION OF PUBLIC LANDS.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Mar. 7.—Congressman Hermann appeared today before the house committee of public lands in favor of bill forbidding land grant of Northern Pacific railroad, from Wallula Junction to Portland. He showed that the 3,500,000 acres would be restored to public domain and settlers greatly relieved.

SLIGHT EARTH TREMOR.
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal. March 7.—There was a shock of earthquake here last night. No damage done, but fears are entertained of recurring shocks. This city is located in the valley 30 miles north of Los Angeles. Los Angeles has felt many slight shocks. An earthquake in October 1868 shook down many chimneys and light firewalls.

MEXICO THINKS IT WOULD NOT PAY WHISKY SMUGGLING.
OTTAWA, Can., Mar. 7.—Attention has been called in parliament to the fact that house smuggling purposes have been built on the boundary line between Canada and the United States. Bowell, minister of customs, said his department made efforts to secure co-operation of the United States government in dealing with such resorts. Whisky was frequently stored in those houses on the Canadian side, and on the approach of Canadian officers it would be removed to the United States side where it could not be touched, and vice versa.

RECORDER'S COURT.—John Kennedy was arrested last evening upon a warrant from Recorder Conn's court, charging him with the larceny of $50 from August Vierow. It appears that Mr. Vierow had been around the city since Monday evening, when he came from Portland, and had exhibited his money freely. On Wednesday night he was about to go to the Chemekete for a bed, when Kennedy told him not to go to that expense; that he (Kennedy) had a good room and bed which he was willing to share for the night. Accordingly Vierow, with $50 in gold in his inside vest pocket accompanied Kennedy to Mrs. Starr's boarding house at the foot of Court street, and went to bed with his new "partner." When he arose yesterday morning, the money was gone and he, of course, accuses Kennedy of taking it. The examination of the latter commenced at 2 o'clock this afternoon before the recorder, and while the evidence pointed strongly to the accused as the right man, it is not considered sufficiently conclusive to bind him over. Vierow is an honest looking German, formerly an engineer of one of the Portland boats, but he filled up on whiskey on this occasion and has paid dearly for it.

UNNECESSARY CRUELTY.—THE JOURNAL does not believe in publishing details of social scandals whose only effect can be the laceration of the hearts and feelings of innocent women and children. Where blame is attachable it will be visited surely and swiftly enough, and those who are innocent should not be made partakers of the odium where it is possible to avoid it.

CHINESE MUST GO.—Alka-Hesperian eloquence will make the rafters ring to-morrow evening in discussing the question whether or not the Chinese exclusion act should be repealed. This should bring out a large attendance. Ladies and gentlemen invited.

DR. GOLDEN HAS BEEN TREATING OTHER PEOPLE'S EYES FOR 18 YEARS but now has a chance to stand treatment himself, a slight cold having a grip on his left pepper. If the genial Dr. looks at his friends in an inflamed manner for a few days they will know the reason why.

BILL NYE—With his inimitable humor, assisted by a talented company of musical stars, Miss Olive Forlett, the Violinist, Mr. Gustave Thubey tenor, Mr. Frank Dornay, pianist, will appear at Reed's opera house March 25. A great attendance may be expected.

THE EVENING JOURNAL has now reached a daily circulation of 700 copies. It is the paper that all citizens are reading with interest because it aims to be fair, honest and independent of all outside influences.

YOUR LAST OPPORTUNITY—To consult Dr. A. L. Cole, the eminent touring specialist, of New York, is now at the Chemekete. He will leave the city Saturday. Consultation free. Office hours 8 to 12; 2 to 5 and 7 to 10. Call early. 1d.

THE JOURNAL still hopes it may be a two hundred thousand dollar steel railway and wagon bridge, in which the two counties, the city, the state if necessary, may help in building. It would not be money sunk. It would be an object of pride.

S. A. Clarke is moving onto his fruit farm from his old Salem home, where he has lived for over thirty years.

THE FIRM OF SITLER, PHELPS & EVANS will dissolve copartnership and A. Phelps and J. A. Evans will continue the real estate business at their office in the new bank block, under the firm name of Phelps & Evans.

These 5000 Extra Weeklies.

Real estate men and competent judges of good advertising matter are satisfied with the large extra edition of the weekly JOURNAL. Some go so far as to say that no better means can be employed to direct immigrants and investors to our city than this style of a paper. It has the regular weekly matter and then plain common sense estimates of the great advantages our city and county offer. Copies still to be had at five cents.

FROM OHIO.—Messrs. T. J. and C. W. Cherrington, of this city, were agreeably surprised last evening by the arrival from Cambridge, Ohio of their brother, W. M., who is here on a visit of inspection with a view of locating. Mr. Cherrington is a railroad man of long experience as engineer, conductor and superintendent of construction, and will probably have no difficulty in finding a proper field for his talent in the Willamette valley.

COUNTY COURT.—In the matter of a change in the Silverton and Willamette river county road where the same passes through the land of S. W. and M. L. Jones, E. W. Chapman, William Collard and A. G. Perkins were appointed viewers to meet with County Surveyor Culver, March 10th at 10 o'clock a. m., and enter upon their duties.

WORK COMMENCING.—Several teams are busy to-day hauling the heavy timbers to the ground east of the fruit evaporator, for the frame work of the big cannery, work upon which will be pushed vigorously and completed as rapidly as possible. Thus the new enterprises are progressing with cheerful regularity.

BIG BREWERY.—Messrs. Adolph Bros. of Salem, and some moneyed men of this city are arranging to organize a company to establish a $50,000 brewery here, says the Albany Herald. The site has already been purchased in the eastern suburbs near the river. An ice factory will be run in connection with it. It will be built during the coming summer.

ASKS LEGISLATION FOR THE BRIDGE.
To the Editor of the Capital Journal:
Sir: I was opposed to the action of our county court in granting an appropriation from the treasury of Polk county to aid in building the bridge across the Willamette at Salem; not because I thought it unimportant, or unworthy work, but for other reasons, two of which only I shall state. In the first place the public had no right of way where the Polk county end of the bridge was to be located; and consequently, the court had no jurisdiction to expend the public funds upon it. And again, I did not think the plan of the proposed bridge sufficient to stand the strain of the river for a single winter. I expected to see it swept away by the first rise in the stream. I was astonished that the structure stood as long as it did; and I began to suspect that I had not calculated its strength correctly when the recent flood came and away it went. It was a better bridge than I thought it could be. But it was not sufficient. It is gone; and every one feels the loss is great, not only to Salem, and to Marion and Polk counties, but to the whole state.

I think nearly everyone will agree that a bridge ought to be built to replace the one that is gone. But it ought not to be a "cheap-iron" affair. Means enough ought to be employed to make a structure that will be a good bridge for a hundred years or more, and one that will stand any freshet that may come against it. And it ought to be a free bridge by all means.

Why should not this matter be urged upon the attention of the legislature? It is an important internal improvement, at the capital, and upon the principal river of the state; an improvement that is of at least some interest to the people in every part of Oregon, even to the remotest borders; and of great importance to the Willamette valley. It would be of as much consequence I should think, as the "late lamented" fish way at Oregon City. The legislature has to my certain knowledge made many appropriations of, far less importance and much more doubtful propriety and utility than this. I think the state ought to aid largely and liberally in replacing the lost bridge. If not, why not?

Wonderful Results

Results often follow the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Severe cases of scrofula, upon which other preparations have been powerless, yield to the peculiar curative powers of this medicine. Distressing cases of dyspepsia, excruciating complaints of the kidneys and liver, agonizing itch and pain of salt rheum, disagreeable cases of catarrh, and aches and pains of rheumatism, are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It purifies the blood, and at the same time tones the stomach, creates an appetite, and gives strength to every function of the body. Give it a trial.

General Debility

"For four years my wife suffered with large tumor bunches on the glands under the arms, and general debility of the whole system. She became so poor in health that we were on the verge of despair regarding her recovery. Physicians did not seem to understand her case; at all events she never derived any benefit from their treatment. She finally concluded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. The immediate effect was so marked and satisfactory that she continued to take it, and this is the result: She has gained in weight

From 84 to 111 Pounds and is stronger and in better health than she has been for years. The bunches under her arms have diminished, and we believe Hood's Sarsaparilla will be too much for them in time." J. J. Noncross, 226 Commercial Street, Boston, Mass.
