FOR THE CAMPAIGN OF 1890.

Activity among the republican workers is being manifested all along the line, and the democrats and nationalists and prohibition parties are all alive and stirring. But republicans are wide awake at an early day and propose to roll up their old-time majorities at the capital city and in Marion county. They propose to do more than their share in electing the straight republican county, legislative, state and national tickets by good round majorities. To do this all must work. Every republican must keep posted. THE JOURNAL from now until election will have all the announcements of candidates and committees, the calls for conventions and full proceedings thereof, as well as sound republican doctrine, good for all citizens irrespective of party.

In the WEEKLY JOURNAL for March 14th will be found the call for the Republican county convention. The day is set for the primaries, and from now until June 2nd, the contest for the political control of the state will go forward.

The circulation of some republican papers from now until election will secure an increased vote for the straight party ticket. There is no better way to rally the rank and file of the party, to gain the young voters, and establish the doubtful and wavering voters, than by placing in their hands good republican reading. This preliminary campaign work can be done by anyone at odd times, or by taking a few hours you can canvass your entire neighborhood. THE DAILY and WEEKLY CAPITAL JOURNAL will be found to interest all kinds of readers, and some democrats like to read a fair and reliable republican paper that tells them the truth about their party. We wish to ask friends to get up a campaign club for the WEEKLY JOURNAL—the cheapest paper in Oregon. For less than 25c. a week any voter can be kept fully posted on the progress of the state canvass. Keep fully read up on republican principles, and keep track of what the enemy are up to. Counting on the reaction and apathy that always follow presidential campaigns, the democrats hope to carry Oregon at this election. They want to capture the state ticket, and our representative and senators in congress. Every copy of a carefully edited republican paper that is taken from now until election will aid in preventing this political calamity from overtaking our rapidly developing state. Let Oregon follow in the wake of the new Northwest and go solidly republican. You can aid in accomplishing this by sending us a campaign club, at the rate of 25 cents for three months. By a little effort you can pick up from one to a hundred names and help the cause of republicanism. Read up our announcement elsewhere and go to work in your neighborhood. If the JOURNAL does not suit you, get up a club for some other good republican paper. Many a voter is going to take a campaign paper to keep himself posted, and will subscribe if only asked.

Read the JOURNAL'S campaign club offers and note the character of premiums we offer. If you cannot get the first prize, you may be able to get the second or third, and they are nearly equal in value. If you get none you have the satisfaction of working for a good cause. The name of every person sending in a club and the number shall be published in the weekly JOURNAL. Let no republican underestimate the vigilant opposition. Encouraged by hard times, flood, severe winter, and profiting by distress of any description, the democratic party in Oregon is preparing to succeed by coalition with any third party that will help it to get the spoils of office, its appetite for office, being its only animating principle. Let us sustain the efforts of the nation to restore the prosperity that was lost under four years of democratic rule. Let us uphold the republican party in Oregon and in all the branches of the national government at Washington, by rolling up the biggest majority in June next that this state has ever given. Let us sustain the principles that have always brought prosperity, freedom and equality to the people. Sample copies will be sent you free to work with.

CAPITAL JOURNAL Pub. Co. Salem Oregon. POLITICAL RESTLESSNESS. It is an era of political restlessness, says the New York Voice. That is true but that restlessness is mainly confined to the members of the third and democratic parties. There is very little dissatisfaction or restlessness among the republicans. Their party is grappling with tariff reform, ballot reform and all problems to which it is committed. There is, as a result of the restlessness among the democrats and prohibitionist third party men, quite a movement toward the nationalist parties.

RUINED BY POKER. Recently the democratic state treasurer of Missouri was found to be short in his accounts. Speculation was rife as to the cause of his downfall, but the St. Louis Republic, a leading democratic paper, offers this explanation, which must be regarded as the correct one: One of the bondsmen of Treasurer Noland gave a reporter of the Republic the true inwardness of the shortage. In brief it is that there is a deficit of about $30,000, due to poker playing; that the bondsmen have made the amount good; that Noland has been suspended, and the governor will appoint a new treasurer.

PROGRESS IN TURNER.

A Thriving Town, Good Schools, Good Hotels and Prosperous Business Generally. The beautiful city of Turner is pleasantly situated on the Southern Pacific railroad about seven miles south of Salem, Oregon's capital. It is laid out regular city style and will some day be one of Marion county's booming little cities. It has all the natural advantages that could be wished for and is nicely located on an elevated site, high and dry from every flood. The Santiam runs through the heart of the city, furnishing an abundance of water power and much yet to be utilized. The hotel accommodations are splendid, the demand being supplied by two well and neatly kept houses. S. S. Martin is proprietor of one and the other is presided over by I. H. Small.

Putnam & Co. run a first-class livery stable, and accommodate the traveling public. Wittschen & Schmidt are now conducting the exclusive dry goods and general merchandise store of the town. Small & Lewis are the proprietors of the city meat market, and supply the demand with a well kept stock of meats, fresh and salt. Their shop is first-class in every respect. The Oregon Milling company's mill, located here, runs night and day, Sunday not excepted. The demand is greater than the capacity. Mr. John Hallman is the genial manager. H. M. Miller is conducting a thriving hardware business, and his stock is quite large at present, consisting of hardware, tinware, stoves, farming implements, wagons, etc. Mr. Miller is a hustling business man and deserves success. J. T. Brown conducts the blacksmith shop and does all work in this branch of business. Dr. J. W. Ransome has a neat office at the corner of 3d and D streets and is enjoying a good practice and has the confidence of his patients. The doctor has lately taken unto him a better half and is quite himself at present. Mr. M. Howe, of the city, is one of the JOURNAL'S daily readers. J. E. Shanks, successor to P. Jenny, is running a neat boot and shoe store, and also carries a good line of harness. He will soon add a line of groceries his to stock. Mr. R. O. Thomas, postmaster and railroad agent, is an enthusiastic JOURNAL reader. Mr. Thomas is one of Turner's prominent men and is always working for the advancement of the city.

dents well under charge, and a visitor is agreeably surprised at the brightness and general appearance of the scholars. Everything is orderly and conducted properly. A new wing should be added to the present building and the school graded. The people have faithful workers in the two gentlemen above named with a zeal for the interest of all concerned. The JOURNAL'S subscription list is growing rapidly at this beautiful thriving town of the Willamette valley and more will be said regarding its future prospects later on.

Oregon State Sunday School Convention. The fifth annual convention of the Sunday school workers of Oregon will be held in the Christian church, at McMinnville, commencing Tuesday, April 15, and closing Thursday, April 17, 1890. While this is a mass convention, and all interested in Sunday school work are most cordially and earnestly invited to be present, yet, to insure representation, each Sunday school in the state is requested to select two or more persons pledged to attend. The friends of the work at McMinnville will open their homes and hearts and take care of all who may attend the convention. That they may know who are to be entertained, all those expecting to be present will confer a favor by sending their names to Rev. J. Hoberg, McMinnville, that a place may be assigned them. This is done that Oregon may fall into line with our sister states in a chain of conventions arranged by the International Executive committee. Mr. Wm. Reynolds, president of the first International convention will be present at the convention and take a prominent and active part. Arrangements have been made with the S. P. R. R. in Oregon and the O. P. R. R. for the usual reduced rates. That we may know the number of schools and pupils, and the work being done by the Sunday schools of Oregon, the superintendent or secretary of each school is requested to send Prof. Henry Sheak, Philomath, Or., statistical secretary, a full report. E. M. ALLEN, President. W. N. HULL, Sec., Corvallis.

Mrs. Earheart, of Albina, has come to stay with her brother, Byron Pottoff. Fred Knight is driving cattle for the new sawmill located in Dinmore canyon. The neighbors have met and repaired the school house in good condition for the spring term. A road petition has been circulated with good success for a road leading to Salem via Silver Creek Falls. Arnold and Mr. Brown are contemplating a trip to Salem in the near future if the weather permits.

Now, Give Attention

To the purification of your blood, for at no season is the body so susceptible to the benefits to be derived from a good medicine, as in March, April and May. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the people's favorite spring medicine. It stands unequalled for purifying the blood, curing scrofula, salt rheum, etc., regulating the kidneys and liver, repairing nerve tissues, strengthening and invigorating the whole body, as well as checking the progress of acute and chronic disease, and restoring the afflicted parts to a natural, healthy condition. If you have never tried Hood's Sarsaparilla for your "spring medicine," do so this season.

A Scrap of Paper Saves Her Life.

It was just an ordinary scrap of wrapping paper, but it saved her life. She was in the last stages of consumption, told by physicians that she was incurable and could live only a short time; she weighed less than seventy pounds. On a piece of wrapping paper she read of Dr. King's New Discovery, and got a sample bottle; it helped her, she bought a large bottle, it helped her more, bought another and grew better fast, continued its use and is now strong, healthy, rosy, plump, weighing 140 pounds. For fuller particulars send stamp to W. H. Cole, Druggist, Fort Smith. Trial bottles of this wonderful Discovery Free at Fry's Druggist.
