LEVY TO-NIGHT.—Those who have not secured tickets for the Levy concert to-night will miss an unusual entertainment, for a good purpose—a benefit to the Second Reg. Band. Jules and Madam Levy are musical exotics of rare culture and deserve more than an ordinary house. We take the following notice from the Philadelphia, Pa., "Press": "Cornetist Levy's popularity was well tested last night. His benefit was announced at the Mannercher Garden, and in justice to the occasion, the price of admission was doubled. The public, however, came with a rush. It not only filled every available space in the garden and balconies, but overflowed into the adjoining hotel and hung out of the windows. Outside were rows upon rows of people who could not get inside, and they stood patiently four or five deep on the pavement, and mingled their hoarse shouts with the applause with those within, when Levy stepped forward with his jeweled cornet and began the Echo song of Eckert, which Patti created. Levy himself gave full evidence of the marvelous dexterity of lip and finger, which has made him the unrivaled master of his instrument." Reserved seats at Dearborn's.

THE BIG DISCUSSION.—The Alka-Hesperian and Philodorian societies have completed final arrangements for their joint debate, the question being Bellamy's theory, with the University boys on the affirmative and the Alkas in opposition. The date fixed is Saturday, April 19th, and the judges chosen are Geo. H. Burnett by the Philodorians, and Rev. C. L. Corwin by the Alkas, these two to choose a third. There are six speakers chosen on each side as follows: Alkas—Davis, Starr, Kaiser, Davey, Crandall, VanDersol; Philo. The Alkas elected officers Saturday night, with the following result: President, J. O'Shea; vice president, G. Stolz; secretary, Frank Daye; assistant secretary, S. Vanderson; treasurer, N. R. Gaylord; librarian, C. B. Brown; sergeant-at-arms, W. M. Kaiser.

AT THE METHODIST CHURCH.—Rev. Wire delivered a sermon appropriate to the occasion and the sacrament was administered. The Easter floral decorations were very fine, and creditable to the ladies committee. In the evening there was a highly appropriate and interesting Easter concert, program being prepared by Rev. Rollins, consisting of music, anthems and recitations, in which the young people took prominent parts. The whole concert was very successful, and was expressly devoted to the cause of missions, which were fully presented in a short address by Rev. Rollins. In about 30 minutes $550 was subscribed for this purpose.

MORNING VIEW.—Those who sleep calmly through a portion of the morning hour cannot see the evidences of our city's progress and prosperity which appear to the eye of a newspaper rustler who is out with the dawn. The scene proclaims a city of plenty and constant work. You cannot pass along any street without meeting a large number of the human family—men, boys and ladies—traveling toward some of Salem's beehives of industry, with dinner pails on their arms. The sight is such as to make Salem people realize its near approach to metropolitan proportions.

AT St. JOSEPH'S Church.—Rev. Father White celebrated an Easter mass, and new music appropriate to the occasion was rendered by the choir. Suitable floral decorations were provided by the sisters from the academy. At the vesper service a strong argumentative discourse on the historical claims of the church was delivered.

While time goes gliding swiftly by and you a pilgrim stranger, do not forget us when you buy, be you a dude or grainger. We have a bargain closed in for plaiting, also a small farm, cheaper than dirt; a neat little home on High street; property in Englewood, North and South Salem and a good home on the garden road. WHO THEY ARE.

Detailed List of Delegates Who Will Nominate Republican Standard Bearer.

The JOURNAL has taken a good deal of pains to secure as early as possible a complete list of the delegates chosen in precincts Saturday at the republican primaries, and takes some pride in the quick and accurate responses of those who were in position to send the news, whether requested to do so or not. It returns those gentlemen sincere thanks.

The lists given below contain good names from every precinct and after looking them over it becomes impossible to consider that any "jobs" can be successfully pushed through their hands or that they are "owned" by any person or combination. In fact they are thoroughly representative of the active, working republicans of Marion county, which, by reason of its position—the capital county of the state—should lead with the purest men and purest politics.

A few of the delegations have been chosen with direct purpose and will appear at the convention to carry that out, but a glance over the lists will convince any person closely acquainted in the county that their final action will be with a view to the general good rather than to the success of any individual.

Following are the delegates as far as reported:

A SURE THING.—A beautiful piece of glassware and a chance to draw an elegant gold watch given away with every can of golden state Baking Powder at J. G. Wright's.

ONE OF THE JUDGES OF THE CITY OF CHICAGO, when questioned on the subject of divorces, stated that five times as many women as men apply for divorce. Lawyers generally suggest a cause for divorce to women who consult them. The prospective clients simply want a divorce on general principles, but they are informed that the statutes provide that one or more sufficient causes must constitute the complaint. In order to enable them to bring out their grounds, the assistance of their legal advisers is invoked.

H. Krusi, vice-president of the San Francisco Bridge company, is in the city, and we understand want an opportunity to bid on Salem's new bridge. This is the company that built the last one, which to say the least was not a creditable structure. It behooves the authorities in charge to look a little out for this firm's representations in the future. Whoever builds the next bridge should be compelled to give good and sufficient bonds as a guaranty of good work.

SCHOOL POPULATION—A

Compliment of the County Superintendent's report shows the following: The number of children in Marion county between the ages of 4 and 20, upon which the apportionment of school funds will shortly be made, is shown by the report to be 7948 an increase over the enumeration of 1889 of 584, and over 1888 of 1293. This represents a total increase in population for the two years of about 7000. The enumeration of district No. 24 (Salem) shows 2500 between the ages of 4 and 20, an increase of 240 over that of 1889. There are in the county 99 organized school districts, in which are employed 135 teachers. Number enrolled in public schools 4648, of which 2503 are male and 2155 female. The year's expenditures amounted to $54,343.64.

A SUNDAY FIGHT.—Wm. Cross and old man Sherwood, the latter nearly 95 years old, live on adjoining property in North Salem, and Sunday morning they had some difficulty about a cow belonging to Cross which crossed the line into Sherwood's yard. The result of the quarrel, as reported to the JOURNAL, was the beating of Mr. Sherwood by his younger neighbor and there is said to be a good prospect for a lawsuit, and considerable indignation exists in the neighborhood on account of Cross attacking such an old man.

AT THE EVANGELICAL CHURCH.—Rev. Bollinger preached an Easter sermon in the morning, and in the evening there was a mixed musical and literary program. The old Easter hymn was sung by a large chorus directed by the pastor. There was a ten-minute address on the resurrection and the old hymn of Octavianus, composed in the 6th century and sung in the cathedral at Athens, was rendered with great gusto, followed by a few remarks on the history of the hymn. A general good time was had.

LECTURE.—Rev. Mr. Bushong, of East Portland, will deliver a lecture this (Monday) evening in the university chapel. He will also speak again to-morrow evening. Through some mistake it was announced from the pulpits yesterday that he would speak Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, instead of Monday and Tuesday. Dr. Bushong is a good speaker and all should hear him. These lectures are free and all are

A GOOD PURCHASE.—Joseph Albert, of the Capital National Bank and H. V. Matthews, of the Salem Land Co., purchased of John Savage, Sr., 124 acres south and west of Hampden Park, for $12,400. This is a fine piece of land, and an excellent bargain.

DELAYED TRAINS.—The overland train from California did not arrive to-day until 2:30 this afternoon, the Eugene local going north on her time in the morning. The trouble is in the Cow Creek canyon region.

BIG SALE.—Ishelp & Evans, real estate dealers, have this day sold the fine Savage tract of land on Salem prairie, to Joseph Albert for $12,400, cash.

One of the judges of the city of Chicago, when questioned on the subject of divorces, stated that five times as many women as men apply for divorce. The prospective clients simply want a divorce on general principles, but they are informed that the statutes provide that one or more sufficient causes must constitute the complaint. In order to enable them to bring out their grounds, the assistance of their legal advisers is invoked.

"Somehow or other the people are gaining confidence in the JOURNAL" is the remark of several leading advertisers who are doing a big real estate business. The reason may be that the JOURNAL has confidence in Salem and some confidence in itself.

Remarkable Rescue.
Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a victim of consumption and no medicine could cure her. She continued its use and now does her own housework and is as well as she ever was. Free trial bottles at Frys Drug Store, large bottles 50c. and $1.50.
