Dallas Observer: All of the candidates will be readily endorsed, except, perhaps it may be Thompson, for governor, who has "a hard row to hoe." Mr. Thompson is a good man, but we believe that another could have been found who would have polled a larger vote at the coming election and could have easily beaten Pennoyer, who is certain to be the democratic nominee.

Portland Telegram: The democrats will put their best material forward, with Governor Pennoyer in the lead, with the hopes only of reducing the great republican majority in this state. The republicans will see that this is not done. Oregon must maintain her position as one of the strongest republican states in the Union. The prospects for the party are very bright.

WISHES HARMONY.

Meeting of the Executive Committee of the Irish National League.

TO FIX DATE OF NEXT CONVENTION.

President Fritzgerald Wants All Local Dissensions Forgotten.

ST. LOUIS, April 19.—The members of the national league of the United States are here in response to a call of President Fitzgerald to fix the date for the next national convention of the league and which was postponed last fall as a result of the division in the ranks by the Cronin murder, and also to transact other important business connected with the organization. In his address to the members throughout the country, President Fitzgerald says:

"A general election in Great Britian is impending. With us are marshalled the liberal hosts of England, Wales and Scotland, led by the Grand Old Man, whose marvelous vigor is sustained by the inspired consciousness of coming victory. Parnell, the sagacious and unswerving leader, maintains unassailable his touch on the minds and hearts of our devoted people. Sacrifices will be demanded of them and to meet this supreme emergency so as to preserve and even strengthen the integrity of Irish representation in the British parliment. Two years at the most and possibly two months, will bring us face to face with this crisis. In this last ordeal that your patriotism may be called upon to undergo, we, ourselves, the liberal masses of Great Britain and the people of Ireland, confidently rely upon you. Therefore, we entreat you, as honest, loyal, supporters of the cause of Ireland, eschewing all local issues, ignoring all distinctions of American national politics to rally in your integrity and associate in your might and again give us practical evidence of your devotion to the dear old land."

It is said that subscriptions to the league funds which fell off materially after the Cronin murder, are coming in again in numbers and amounts that indicate renewed interest in the cause.

Union of Presbyterians.

GETTING A MOVE ON.—The Southern Pacific will present a petition before the next meeting of the council to have the alley in the postoffice block vacated, preparatory to building a new freight depot. All the property owners in the block are said to faovor the move which makes it a mere formality. Agent Skinner informs the JOURNAL that as soon as this is done the work of building will go on. He does not know just what style or size of building will be erected; says it must of necessity be three or four times the size of the present one, and that the style will be in keeping with the size. This is an improvement which will be greatly appreciated by our merchants, and is in keeping with the general progress of the city.

The Pulpit and the Stage.

rev. F. M. Shrout, Pastor Church, Blue Mound, Kan., says: "I feel it my duty to tell what Dr. King's New Discovery has done for me. My Lungs were badly diseased, and though I could live only a few weeks. I took five bottles of Dr. king's New Discovery and I am sound and well, gaining 26 lbs. in weight."

Arthur Love, Manager Love's Combination, writes: "After a through trail and convincing evidence, I am confident Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, beats 'em all, and and cures the greatest kindness I can do my friends is to urge them to try it.' Free trail bottles at Frys Drug Store.

A VIGOROUS KICK.

A Merchant's Wife the Bone of Contention—A Denunciation.

A well known merchant who has been greatly benefitted by Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla, desired to give it to his wife, who was very delicate, but out of caution first consulted his physician, Dr. W. H. Griswold of 850 Market street. The doctor, who is one of our leading practitioners objected, saying he had never seen a sarsaparilla that did not contain potash, which thinned the blood; that his patient did not have any vitality to lose, and that what delicate people need is not decreased vitality, but more blood. He however consented when assured that Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla was opposed to the blood thinning idea of other sarsaparillas, and that on the contrary by specific vegetable alteratives it promoted digestion, and repaired nutrition, hence created new blood and was the very thing for feeble people. The above explains the many cases in which aged, delicate and run down people, have been built up by Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla after the potash sarsaparillas failed. Its effects are creating a sensation.—S. F. Examiner

DIED.

HAWTHORNE.—In St. Louis, Mo., April 19, Anna Hawthorne, only daughter of Dr. S. W. and Alice H. Dohl. Deceased went to her home with Jesus after an illness of ten days, aged ten years, six months and nineteen days.

Astoria and Albany papers please copy.

HARTMUS.—In this city, April 21st 1890, Mrs. M. E. Hartmus, wife of G. D Hartmus, at the residence of S. D. Cole, on Liberty street.

Deceased was born in Michigan, on May 1st, 1844, being 46 years of age at the time of her death. Her mother, sister and other relatives of the family were with her at the time her spirit was transferred to the other world. She was a Christian woman, and a beautiful character. She leaves two sons and one daughter to mourn her death. The funeral takes place this afternoon at 4 o'clock, and the remains will be taken to Fox Valley cemetery to be laid beside those of her little son, who died last winter.

McFADDEN.—At South Salem, April 20, 1890, of paralysis, David McFadden, Sr., at the age of 79 years, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Rennie.

Deceased was born at Enniskillen, Ireland, and came to the United States in 1866, coming to Salem, by way of Canada, where the family had resided about twenty-five years, mostly at London, Ontario. Mr. McFadden was a shoemaker by trade. He leaves children as follows: Mrs. Jas. Rennie, of South Salem; Mrs. David McFadden, Mrs. Z. Craven, of Salem; Mrs. A. Erwin, of Murray, Idaho. His wife died on Feb. 21, 1889. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar D. Rennie of Independence, came on the steamer Orient last evening to be present at the funeral; also Mrs. L. Rennie, of Portland.

Mr. McFadden was a member of the Methodist church in Canada, and always a regular attendant upon church here, tho' not connected with it in this city. He was at heart a Christian man and died in full belief and knowledge of his salvation. While in Canada he was connected with the Orangemen. He was a man of deep convictions and earnest character, tho' reserved and uncommunicative except to his own family upon most matters.

He was stricken with paralysis about two weeks ago. All his life he was a temperate man and highly respected. Rev. Rollins conducted the funeral from the South Salem M. E. church at 2:30 this afternoon. The services were attended by a large number of old friends of the deceased, who attended the remains to the Odd Fellows cemetery.

Deceased leaves no property of any great value and was all his life a poor man. He was one of the great number who go through life humbly maintaining a character for uprightness and integrity, loving his family and returning the confidence of his neighbors.
