

UNIVERSITY NOTES.

The Philodorian and Philodorian societies have arranged for a reunion to be held at the close of the school year.

Miss Carrie Hall of Independence visited the school Friday, and seemed well pleased with what she saw in educational work.

Katie Emmett, in the celebrated new play, "The Waifs of New York," will appear at Reed's opera house, next Saturday night.

Prof. John M. Peebles, of the class of '87, was seen shaking hands with the boys during the week. John thinks of stopping in the capital city during the summer and reading law.

Miss Effie Burnette of Sea, Wash., is the latest arrival at the Woman's college. She came late in the year but will put in the summer vacation in the conservatory pursuing the regular studies in that department.

The most remarkable feature about the University now, is the quietude. Ye reporter, after making his rounds, finds little to say. This tranquility is an evidence of prosperity or rather of stolidity, which is the most striking example that meets us, every student seems to have plenty to do, and to be doing it.

The museum recently received a horned toad from Goldendale, Washington. This species of animal organism is more celebrated than the famous "glass eater" of the circus yesterday which was claimed to live on glass. This little animal can live for an undetermined time without eating anything.

Not a Republican Sentiment.

Editor Capital Journal.

An editorial of the Statesman of to-day, in comparing the merits of the candidates of the republican and democratic parties, without mentioning the elements of fitness or unfitness in the particular candidate for state superintendent of public instruction on the democratic side, takes occasion to make a bemoaning statement about preachers. I refer to this: "We have had enough preachers in politics in Oregon." If the republican party, for which the Statesman speaks, has had enough of preachers, I believe a large number of preachers are willing to withdraw from that party and seek franchise in a party where they are welcome. However, I think the Statesman in its natural antipathy to preachers and their work in Oregon, has spoken a little more than the sentiment of the party which it tries to represent. All persons who are not under the influence of narrow prejudices will see at once that such innuendoes as those, flung into the face of a class of men who have had vastly more to do in founding the commonwealth of Oregon, in its ineffectual struggle for an existence, than any other class, can only act as a boomerang. Preachers, the first upon the soil of Oregon, were here suffering out their lives to organize society into civilizing and political forms before the Statesman or its illustrious editor were in their swaddling clothes. If preachers have no rights of franchise in Oregon, what class of professional men have?

PREACHER.

BRIDGES AND BRIDGE CONTRACTS.—The county board has let a contract to Royal & Dimick, of Salem, to erect an 83-foot Howe truss bridge over the Pudding river, on the road between Salem and Silverton about 12 miles from this city. The bridge will be set on a pair of Cedar pile piers and will cost $625. The former bridge went out last winter, and this contract provides for a much needed improvement.

COMPLAINTS

are made by pedestrians at the condition in which a bridge over Mill creek on State street out near the "Pen" is left. Timbers about a foot high project over the plankings, and there is no guard rail on the outside. Persons are not only liable to fall, but children are liable to fall into the creek. Whoever is in authority should look after this before the city suffers loss. Royal & Dimick have also a contract from the county to erect a pile bridge on Chemeketa street over Mill creek between the state house and the "Pen." It will be 120 feet long and cost $3 per lineal foot.

Casno, son of Altamont, the beautiful standard-bred horse, owned by Thos. How, of Salem, will make the season of 1890 as follows: Fridays and Saturdays at Ellis & Whitley's stable, Salem; Monday noon to Tuesday noon, Silverton; Tuesday evening at Mt. Angel; Thursday until noon at Gervais. Casno has been driven in the presence of witnesses at a 2:16 gait. All admirers of a fine horse should make it a point to patronize Casno. 4-18-91

JUDGE THAYER DECLINED.

The Present Judge of the Supreme Court Refused the Nomination.

From the Oregonian's report of the Democratic state convention we take the following: Holmes, of Curry, placed in nomination for supreme judge the present incumbent, W. W. Thayer, passing high encomium upon his official career. J. N. Teal, of Multnomah—rose to perform an unpleasant duty. I hold in my hand a letter from W. W. Thayer, in which he positively declines this nomination. I should be happy to support him. I remember that twelve years ago he was nominated at The Dalles and led his party to victory. Six years ago, to my positive knowledge, the nomination for judge of the supreme court was forced upon him. He now desires me to thank the Democrats here assembled most heartily and cordially, but to say that he feels entitled now in his old age to rest from those labors which have been entrusted to him by his own party. I can only regret, as all who know him must regret, that he has been severely and unjustly maligned without cause, merely for the purpose of hurting the party. The declaration contained in this letter is meant to be final, and I hope it will be so considered. [Cries of read, read.] Mr. Teal read the letter, whose contents he had essentially outlined.

Wooditch, of Jackson, nominated Judge B. F. Bonham, of Salem. The nomination was seconded by Ben Killen, of Multnomah, and on motion it was made by acclamation.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Henry Barendrick, of Jefferson, was in the city to-day, on business.

General Alger, Mrs. John A. Logan and suite, passed through Salem this morning.

J. W. Pate, a farmer of Jefferson precinct, brings encouraging crop prospects from his neighborhood. All fall sown grain is very encouraging.

Hon. John Looney, of Jefferson, was a passenger of the morning train, headed for Woodburn, where he is to participate in the grange exercises to-day.

Rev. Mr. Cline of the St. Paul M. E. Church Portland, will deliver a free lecture in the chapel on next Wednesday evening, he will be followed on the following week by Rev. Ross C. Houghton.

Judge R. P. Boise and Hon. John Minto were passengers on this morning's train for Woodburn where they take part in the exercises of the Marion Co. Pomona Grange to-day.

J. A. Cresswell, who was with Cox & Boggs the past year, has taken a position as salesman with the new clothing firm of Johnson, Boothby & Co. He is a competent man and his many friends will know where to find him.

C. F. Yeaton, of Seattle, who has been at San Francisco on business, and has been in the city the guest of his brother since yesterday and left for home to-day. Mr. Yeaton has bought an interest in the Eagle Oil and Refining company of San Francisco, and will immediately take charge of their branch office in Seattle.

ZENA.

Rev. Wm. Clyde will preach next Sunday.

Chas. Phillips, of the Silverton appeal, is spending this week on the farm engineering the spring work.

Miss Chapman, who was teaching in the Burley district, has been called home to Balston, on account of the sickness of her mother.

A. H. Coyle has rented J. C. Lewis' farm, and Mr. Lewis will devote his time to building the railroad from Falls City to Salem via Zena.

We hear that Orange Pomeroy is slowly recovering from his sickness in Portland, and that Chas. Purvine was seen last Sunday gathering up the pieces of a bicycle.

S. S. Gumble has purchased property in Salem and will move there as soon as he can dispose of his real-estate here. If it would not be self-wrapping paper the read of Dr. King's New Discovery, and get a sample bottle; it helped her, she bought a large bottle, it helped her more, bought another and grew better fast, continued its use and is now strong, healthy, rosy, plump, weighing 140 pounds. For fuller particulars send stamp to W. H. Cole, Druggist, Fort Smith. Trial bottles of this wonderful Discovery free at Dan'l. J. Fry's drugstore.

JUSTICE COURT BUSINESS.

Important Suits Before His Honor Justice Chase.

Yesterday there was being tried before Justice Chase the case of S. S. Vandorsol vs. G. M. Irwin. The case is simply this—last October Mr. Vandorsol called at the training school and introduced himself to the superintendent, Mr. Irwin, as the agent for certain maps, Mr. Irwin in turn introduced him to Prof. Lane, since deceased, who examined the maps critically and pronounced them such as were needed in the school. The maps were taken on Dec. 4th to the school by Mr. Vandorsol and left, and on Jan. 5, 1890, he sent his bill for $17.50, for the same which was not paid. The difference appears to be here: Mr. Vandorsol claims that Superintendent Irwin agreed to take the maps if Prof. Lane approved them. In his testimony he is corroborated by Mrs. Henry Rogers, whose husband was so recently dismissed. Superintendent Irwin claims that his action was subject to the approval of the government. A number of witnesses were called and after hearing all the testimony, the case was taken under advisement until this morning at 10 o'clock, when judgment was rendered in accordance with the complaint. The case was immediately appealed to the higher court. John A. Carson appeared for the plaintiff and Ford & Kaiser for the defense.

John A. Carson appeared for the plaintiff and Ford & Kaiser for the defense. Gid Steiner sued J. S. Graff in Justice Chase's court yesterday, attaching def's personal effects on part of shipment to Seattle for $15. Salem Dray & Truck Co., also attach for $9.

A Scrap of Paper Saves Her Life.

It was just an ordinary scrap of writing paper, but it saved her life. She was in the last stage of consumption, told by physicians that she was incurable and could live only a short time; she weighed less than seventy pounds. On a piece of wrapping paper she read of Dr. King's New Discovery, and got a sample bottle; it helped her, she bought a large bottle, it helped her more, bought another and grew better fast, continued its use and is now strong, healthy, rosy, plump, weighing 140 pounds. For fuller particulars send stamp to W. H. Cole, Druggist, Fort Smith. Trial bottles of this wonderful Discovery free at Dan'l. J. Fry's drugstore.

Ordinance No. 191. An ordinance bill to amend section 7, title 2, chapter IV, of the City laws relating to nuisances.

Be it ordained by the common council of the city of Salem:

That section 7, title 2, chapter IV, of the city laws be amended so as to read as follows:

Section 7. Any privy or cesspool within the city limits which shall be maintained on any block in which there is a public sewer accessible thereto, without connection with the city sewer, as provided by ordinance No. 171, and any privy, cesspool, toilet or drain within the city limits, not accessible to a public sewer, shall be, in such connection as to constitute a nuisance, and upon being so declared by vote of the common council, the marshal shall immediately notify the owner of the premises where such nuisance may be found, to abate the same within ten days from the date of the service of such notice, and in case the order is not obeyed within the time limited the marshal shall abate the same at the expense of the city, and such expense when ascertained shall be charged to the owner of the premises where such nuisance existed, and the recorder shall enter the same against him on the docket of city taxes, and such expense shall be a lien on said premises as provided in subdivision 6 of section 6 of the city charter. Provided however that the time for connecting with such sewer may be extended by the council for good cause shown to him, and then only for a reason to be stated.

Attest: L. F. VAN N, Recorder. Passed the common council, April 23d 1891 and approved by the Mayor April 24th, 1891. G. W. WILLIAMS, Mayor.

Published by order of the council.
