PIONEER DEAD.—Captain John Cook, one of the oldest citizens of The Dalles, died April 28, of a sudden second attack of paralysis. About eleven years ago, during the terrible fire which visited The Dalles, from over-exertion he suffered a partial stroke of paralysis, and never fully rallied. He was born in Brooklyn, N. Y., in 1812, and in 1846 was on the police force in New Orleans, La. In 1847, during the Mexican war, he sailed in a convoy to the city of Vera Cruz, and joined the forces which were besieging that city. In 1849 he came to California, and in 1864 came to The Dalles, where he has resided ever since. For many years he was a mate on the river boats between that city and the Upper Cascades, but of late years, even before his affliction, he had given up steamboating.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Captain of Police Harry Minto last night found H. P. Campbell and Wm. Brown enjoying themselves on Commercial street in the style intended to be made popular by Sullivan and Jackson. Harry gave them safe lodging for the night and this morning introduced them in the austere presence of City Recorder Conn, who, after a plea of guilty on the part of the offenders, transferred their allegiance to Sheriff Croisan with proper credentials for two days' board under the court house. Joseph Busts was another applicant for Recorder Conn's merciful consideration, the charge being d. and d., and was only charged $5 and costs for his presence. He is expecting to pay it.

LECTURE WORTH HEARING.—Rev. C. C. Bateman, one of the most eloquent ministers in Portland, will deliver a lecture at the Baptist church in this city to-morrow (Friday) evening, his subject being, "Wit and Humor in Life and Literature." Mr. Bateman is recognized as one of the most entertaining and instructive lecturers on the Coast, with a fund of practical knowledge, and he will without doubt, as he should, be greeted by a large audience.

GOOD MILK.—Everybody patronizing Kelley Bros. for milk was satisfied, and now the usefulness and reliability of their wagons have been increased. B. J. Kelley has bought out his brother and has partners, A. C. Fairchild and W. C. Burch. They have secured a fine pasture of over 300 acres one mile and a half from the postoffice and also bought the Belmont dairy, so that the new company has excellent pasture for plenty of cows and their patrons can be assured of the best quality of milk.

CONCERT COMPANY. - Fowler's "Tableaux d'Art" and Concert company will furnish the next and most enjoyable entertainment for Salem theater visitors. They have a varied program, in which Miss Carrie Northey Roma is the leader as soprano singer, Miss Miriam C. Jehn, the recitationist and there is a grand exhibit of artistic poses. It promises to bring more genuine pleasure and amusement than any performance to which the people of Salem have been treated for a long time. Tuesday night, May 6th, is the time and Patton's the place for tickets.

FIRE COMPANY MEETING.—A meeting of Capital Fire Engine company will be held at their hall this evening, at which all members are requested to be present. There will be important business.

IMPORTANT CONFERENCE.

Marion County Will Insist on Having a Trail and Road Through Minto Pass.

Hon. George G. Bingham, deputy district attorney and the republican candidate for the principalship, took last evening's train for Corvallis to consult as an attorney for Marion county with the officials of the Oregon Pacific railroad with a view to securing the construction of a highway along the track of that company through the upper Santiam valley, where the road and trail have been destroyed by the building of the railroad.

That upper country is settling up rapidly and people want a chance for ingress and egress. There has been an immense petition filed with the county court asking for the establishment of a highway and the court has been hunting up the law. Recognizing the fact that the Oregon Pacific officials are men of brains and desirous of doing what they believe to be right, the court has employed Mr. Bingham to consult with them and if possible obtain amicable action, and it is hoped he will be successful, as those mountain settlers are entitled to all the privileges the law guarantees.

The railroad company has destroyed the old trail through the Minto pass in many places and occupies with its right of way the only available avenue of travel, and yet it is said from official sources that no legal right of way has ever been obtained through the government lands in the upper Santiam valley. This would indicate that the O. P. or W. V. & C. company had neglected a very important step.

But even though the company had filed its proper papers and secured a right of way, there is a statute of the United States in relation to highways which will protect the traveling public and bring the company to time. It reads as follows:

Act of March 3, 1875, section 2: The location of such right of way (of any railroad) through any canyon, pass or defile shall not cause the disuse of any wagon or other public highway now located therein, nor prevent the location through the same of any such wagon road or highway where such road or highway may be necessary for the public accommodation; and where any change in the location of such wagon road is necessary to permit the passage of such railroad through any canyon, pass or defile, said company shall before entering upon the ground occupied by such wagon road cause the same to be reconstructed at its own expense in the most favorable location, and in as perfect a manner as the original road.

The intention is, of course, to obtain a peaceable settlement of the difficulty and an answer to the demands of the numerous settlers interested, but in case the railroad company refuses to respond, the county will take the necessary legal steps to enforce its rights.

In the Supreme Court.

Allen & Krosel app., vs. Geo. M. Rowe et al; appeal from Clatsop; reversed.

C. B. Rostel, resp., vs Raphael Morat, executrix, app.; appeal from Jackson; affirmed.

H. C. Lewis, vs J. G. Birdseye & W. G. Cooper; remanded for new trial.

Kam vs. Rippy & Amy; reversed and new trial ordered.

Same vs. same; reversed and costs to abide result.

State of Oregon vs. George Chastain. Judgment affirmed. Court holds that where one sells spirituous liquors as agent of another, neither having license, he is liable personally to indictment, and that a prohibitory statute, where party has no license, is in nature of a fiscal or police regulation, and violation thereof is indictable irrespective of guilty knowledge.

In Fred Schetter et al resp. vs S. Or. Co., court holds that a person who has taken a contract in writing for lands, but has paid nothing, and taken no deed, is not a bona-fide purchaser for value.

In W. D. Pugh, resp., vs Geo. E. Good, app., motion to retax cost, etc., overruled.

Linn W. Wood, vs town of Prineville, overruled.

E. S. and Fannie Schieffelin, vs William L Weatherred, affirmed.

State of Oregon, vs E. J. Kaiser, reversed.

Mr. H. C. Watson was admitted to practice.

Central Committee Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the republican central committee of Marion county, at the parlors of the Chemekete hotel in Salem, on Saturday, May 3d, 1890, at 1 o'clock p. m. All members and candidates are requested to be present.

4-28-6t-dw Chairman.

There will be a meeting of the members of the Christian church at 7:30 this evening in the church parlors. As business of importance is to be considered, every member is urgently requested to attend. Thursday.

The Voice of the People.

EDITOR JOURNAL.—It is a strange thing to see the once boasting press of the country on the defense. Kicking in all directions suggests either no corruption fund or the renewal of a once active conscience, and let us hope the latter. An aspiring senate and congress confronted by a long waiting constituency demanding certain legislation in the interest of the people at large, while the lynx-eyed capitalist stands behind them shedding crocodile tears for the dear people, and whispering soft and low, and in a very beguiling manner that "we will use the entire accumulated wealth against you" in case you pass any laws that do not leave us, at least, masters of the situation, and able to regulate the financial situation; in short if you don't observe the time honored land marks, eternal banishment awaits you. It is to be hoped the people may win in this struggle although the skirmishing on the silver bill shows signs of weakening, so far as it goes. This is certainly the proper time for an adjustment of any discriminating laws that may be in operation. It would be far better to accede peacefully to what must be done. "The greatest amount of good to the greatest number of people," must and will be the order of things in this happy country, although wealth, talent and even force may be used. The marks are on the wall. It matters not what a law maker's former condition of servitude may have been, nor whose money may have elected him, the result will be the same, either obey the edict or go. Like a pendulum drawn too far they may swing too far the other way, but time will right the whole matter. *

If Your Liver Reminds You

Of its existence by dull pain or sharp twinges in the right side, or beneath the dexter shoulder-blade, accept the reminder as a warning, and regulate the organ without loss of time, by the use of Hostetters stomach Bitters. The above symptoms are usually accompanied by yellowness of the skin, constipation, furred tongue, disorder of the stomach, sick headache and morning nausea. But a reform is promptly instituted by the Bitters, the best possible substitute for calomel, blue pill, and other super-potent and hurtful drugs erroneously designated as remedies for billiousness. Appetite and digestion are restored, and the bowels resume activity, when an impetus is given to the functions of the health by this sterling anti-bilious medicine, which also has the effect of enriching and purifying the circulation, and fortifying the system against malarial infection in air and water. It is also highly beneficial for rheumatism, kidney and bladder troubles. e o d-1w

CLEAR YOUR FACE.

It is now known that a pimply skin is not the result of blood disease, but is caused by impaired digestion, for which they now give vegetable correctives instead of minerals. Two short testimonials are given to contrast the action of the potash sarsaparillas and Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. Mrs. C. D. Stuart of 123 Mission street, S. F., writes that she took one of the leading sarsaparillas for indigestion and dyspepsia. Its only effect was to cause pimples to appear on her face. Upon taking Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla the first effect was the disappearance of the pimples and she was subsequently relieved of the indigestion and dyspepsia.

Robert Stewart also writes from Petaluma, Cal., that being troubled with boils he found that one of the leading sarsaparillas actually increased the eruptions, which responded at once to Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla and disappeared immediately

"Heroes of the Dark Continent" is equally as authentic and as much Mr. Stanley's "own book" as the one the Messrs. Scribner propose to publish. The history of the last Stanley or Emin Pasha relief expedition, as it appears in "Heroes of the Dark Continent," is composed of matter furnished by Mr. Stanley himself for publication, over his own signature, as any one can see by referring to that department of this great book. This history is complete and exhaustive, every item, incident, discovery and adventure from the day of Mr. Stanley's departure on his heroic undertaking until his triumphant return, is recorded in full.

Have you been satisfied in the heating of your home during the past winter? If not, and you desire health and comfort, we should like to make an examination of your building, to ascertain what remedy can be adopted, sending an estimate which will be as low a figure as is consisent with a thorough job. Our experience and reputation in this line of business has given us the confidence of our patrons in doing first-class work. Beware of goods represented to be similar in name to those handled by us. Would advise our former patrons that we can supply whatever repairs are needed for furnaces already put in by us.
