

THE CAPITAL JOURNAL.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:—$5.00 per year in advance. Single copies, 10 cents. The Evening Capital Journal is published daily except on Sundays and public holidays. It is published at the office of the publisher, 100 State Street, Salem, Oregon. The publisher is not responsible for the loss or non-receipt of copies. The publisher is not responsible for the loss or non-receipt of copies.

SOME COMING EVENTS.—[No free ads. inserted in the JOURNAL. Notices of religious services, charitable, religious or educational organizations, that charge no admission, advertised at half price. Events of local importance announced free under this head.]

GILBERT & PATTERSON.

Dealers in Groceries, Crockery, Glassware, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Brushes, Windowglass, Etc. Sole Agents for Epicure Tea and Big Can Baking Powder.

COMMITTED.—Mrs. Priscilla Miller, aged 67 years, who was here about a month ago and acted so strangely, returned to Salem yesterday afternoon and put up at the Oregon house. While eating supper her peculiar talk and actions frightened the ladies, Mr. Sharp being away to the depot, and she sent for Police-men Dille and Lake, who took her in custody and placed her in the county jail, believing her insane, which was so decided upon examination to-day before County Judge Shaw by Drs. Cusick and Richardson and Attorney M. W. Hunt, and she was committed to the asylum. She claims to have a son, Harry Miller, at Vancouver and a brother, W. H. Hunter, near Brownsville. Her husband was a confederate officer and killed at Shiloh. There are several wound marks on her head which she said she received during the bombardment of Charleston, where she then was. These wounds are the probable cause of her wandering and disposition, the latter being the immediate cause of her trouble.

A FINE ESTABLISHMENT.—The new rooms occupied by J. W. Crawford next to Bush's bank are large and commodious, affording an opportunity to display his large stock. Upon raised platforms on the floor are three long rows of handsome cooking stoves of the latest patterns and most serviceable styles, such as have been tried and are known to be reliable. The high shelves one side are loaded with tin and copper ware in every form; the other side partly shelved and these filled with granite ironware, brass faucets and all kinds of plumbing goods; then comes a stack of iron pumps, while in the front stands a showcase well-filled with cutlery. The workshop, which is a busy scene, occupies the upper floor. He is finely stocked, has a fine room and will be pleased to serve his friends as always.

THE ODD FELLOWS.—Monday next at Portland commences the annual session of the grand department of the order of Odd Fellows. On that day will be held the B. C. convention; on Tuesday the G. and Encampment and on Wednesday the Grand Lodge, N. A. Jacobs, who started the Valley Record, at Ashland, and A. D. Hillman, district deputy grand marshal, both of Ashland, were in the city to-day, on their way to these important meetings. Hon. Geo. H. Burnett, of this city, is now deputy grand master and will probably be elevated to the highest position this year.

ENGLEWOOD DRIVING ASSOCIATION.—There will be a meeting of the members of the Englewood Drivers every once in a while at the corner of 7th and "D" street. This is inevitable for you can't keep people who love to drive on good roads from using these popular thoroughfares. Early in the morning before most of you are awake the crack of reins and the sound of wheels speeding their fine steeds and of an evening buggy loads and carriage loads enjoy these roads as smooth and quiet as a race track.

COLT INJURED.—Freight train No. 12 going north yesterday on the Southern Pacific, struck a fine bay colt about 18 months old, who had foolishly allowed himself to try the strength of the cowcatcher. Strange to say the animal was not killed, but one hind leg was broken in several places—literally mashed—and of course he will have to be killed. This would have been done yesterday but the owner was not known. The accident occurred in Watt's pasture south of the depot.

IMPORTANT MEETING.—There is to be an adjourned meeting of the board of trade next Monday evening at the usual place and time and it is important that every member be present, as also every merchant and business man. There are matters before the board touching the progress and prosperity of the city vitally and they should be carefully and earnestly considered. Let all come out.

THAT CONCERT.—The open air concert of the 2d Reg't. band at Marion Park, advertised for last night, will come off this evening. The boys were all prepared to start last night, but the fire alarm so broke up the crowd that they deemed it best to postpone the same until this evening.

Hairdressing made to order Court street jeweler, corner Court and Liberty.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

The Movements of Persons, Socially and Otherwise, Among the Journal's Readers.

Geo. P. Terrell, of Mehama, came to the city this morning.

Hon. J. D. Lee, of The Dalles, was a Salem visitor last night.

Mr. Wm. Sargent is a business visitor in Portland this morning.

Mr. James Farley took the morning train for a visit at Gervais.

Mr. Thos. Sims, the big sawmill man at Mill City, is a Salem visitor to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Pearce were morning passengers for the down river metropolis.

Rev. L. Brossier, of Gervais, and Rev. L. Metayer, of Albany, were visitors with Father White yesterday.

W. J. Herren took the afternoon train for a business trip to Astoria to be gone a few days.

Miss Grace Gillingham and Miss Ruth Matthews took the morning train to visit with young friends in Portland.

Mr. L. Abnsworth came in on this morning's train from Southern Oregon. He thinks he has seen no place equal to Salem.

Hon. Richard Williams and wife returned to Portland this morning after a pleasant visit with Salem's worthy mayor and family.

Hon. Seymour Condon, of Eugene, one of the brilliant young statesmen of Oregon, passed through this morning on his way to Umatilla county to open his canvass on behalf of the republican ticket.

Mrs. W. H. Smith, who has been visiting her old-time Santa Rosa friend, Mrs. R. B. Cannon, returned to her home in Portland this afternoon after what she expressed as a most enjoyable visit. She is much pleased with Salem.

MILITARY PICNIC.—Next Saturday, May 24th, Co. I, Second Regiment O. N. G., will give their second annual picnic at Macleary. The program will consist of military parade, battalion drill and literary exercises in the forenoon.

The county candidates will speak in the afternoon. Governors Penoyer and Thompson, besides many other prominent men are expected to be present. A prize of $10 will be given to the champion base ball club. Everybody invited.

CLOSE OF THE SEASON.—The members of the Motor Whist club met Wednesday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Waite for the closing meeting of the season and had their usual full measure of enjoyment. A vote of thanks was tendered to all the officers of the club and an adjournment was taken to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Keller, on Tuesday evening, October 14th 1890, at the usual hour, when the pleasures of the new season will be resumed.

OLIVE LODGE L. O. O. F.—The members of Olive Lodge of Odd Fellows expect a glorious time this evening. There are eight candidates for degrees and several visiting brethren from Turner, Silverton and other neighboring lodges are expected to be present and take part. After the ceremonies a supper will be spread and the full fraternal friendship of the three links will be enjoyed.

SCHOOL PICNIC.—The Sisters of the Academy of the Sacred Heart gave to their pupils a delightful picnic in Yew Park yesterday. About 9 o'clock several street cars were filled with the merry throng and landed in the cool shade of the majestic trees surrounding Arbor Spring, where they jumped and played and tumbled on the clean, soft grass to their hearts' content. About noon their basket luncheon was spread and the morning sport gave all good appetites, after regaling which they resumed their amusement and kept it up all the afternoon. They were accompanied by several of the Sisters, who directed the movements of the young folks and kept them out of harm's way. The children may have tired themselves, but they enjoyed the day immensely.

AMERICAN AND FRANCO-GERMAN PICNIC.—Several ladies representing nationalities above described planned a nice picnic to themselves—the men were to have no part in it—so Wednesday they chartered street cars, loaded themselves with baskets and proceeded to Highland park, where they had a glorious time. There were present, Mrs. E. S. Lamport and children, her mother and a visiting lady friend, Mrs. F. Levy and daughters and Mrs. Layman Mayer; Mrs. L. S. Haines and children, Mrs. S. Friedman, Mrs. Prof. Diamond and children. But behold, just as they were in the midst of most festive enjoyment, what do they see! Those horrid men of theirs, under the leadership of Mr. Friedman, were squatting in another part of the park spreading their own out door lunch and not deigning even a look in the direction of the ladies. But the latter wouldn't stand that, so they swooped down on the male camp and captured it by storm, appropriated the scanty supply of provisions which the husbands had gathered together, and forced them to pool their issues at the common board. They had a most delightful day of it, taken all together.

WANTED.—Two girls for laundry, at Cheukets hotel. 5-17-90.

A GRAND DAY FOR SALEM.

(Continued from first page.)

THE TEACHERS.

In charge of the marching and other exercises by the children of the schools deserve the highest praise. They did their part well and indeed furnished the most interesting and main part of the show. It was really children's day as well as flag day, and what more inspiring sight can be witnessed than that of the American people dedicating their youth to the cause of education beneath the folds of the starry emblem of our liberty. The fathers and mothers and teachers may well be proud, but the public officials in charge have the highest honors of all—they are the fathers of the future of this nation.

THANKS.—State Supt. McElroy returned thanks to all those who had assisted to make it a grand success, and especially to the visiting bands. Rev. Doune pronounced a benediction and the procession moved back to its starting point in good order.

THE JOURNAL will in a further report present the other speeches in full.

HON. BINGER HERMAN'S LETTER.—I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your kind invitation of recent date, and to thank you for the suggestion in reference to the flag raising over the public school building in Salem.

Your ceremony by the Grand Army of the Republic is exceedingly appropriate. There is more than a sentiment involved. There is a reality of the grandest combination: the public school, the flag of our country, and the Grand Army of the Republic.

The common schools of the nation, may be said to be its corner stones. The public school is the dispenser of education to the rich and the poor alike—and like the great ocean, which it educates, all within it are equal. Here every young American is enabled to read and understand the constitution of the Union of States, and the magna charta of our liberties. The common school is the beacon light to the Nation. It also lights the way of freedom.

The star spangled banner is the flag of freedom and the emblem of our Republic. Wherever its ample folds float to the breeze, there we behold the symbol of the power, the glory and majesty of the greatest nation on the globe. Forty-two stars are emblazoned upon its field of blue, and forty-two sovereign states watch with jealous care that each star in the grand constellation shall have just and equal protection of the whole.

The Grand Army of the Republic stand by with patriotic hands to unfurl this flag of freedom and raise it aloft above the edifice of the public school. Who of all others are better entitled to unfurl this sacred banner than those who wore the blue, and bore it amid its baptism of blood and war, offering life and limb in defense of its insulted dignity.

To the Grand Army which is to raise the flag, we look to find the brave men who rushed to arms and proved to the world that they loved it better than their lives. They raised the same flag once before, but it was when the world stood by, a witness to deeds of sublime heroism, of exalted patriotism and of indescribable sacrifices, of which the historian records no equal.

Let us, then, who are the immediate inheritors of the priceless legacy they preserved to us and our posterity, bear for these gallant men our grateful remembrance and veneration for the brief period they shall yet survive, and then let us have for all time to celebrate in thanksgiving and in song the glorious blessings they fought for and won.

These raise the dear old flag, and with it pronounce the prayer that it may forever float in triumph as a protecting aegis over the liberties of the people, and the school houses of the Republic, and when the patriotic hands which preserved it shall all have crumbled to dust, may the example they set continue to inspire, with patriotic ardor, endless generations of freemen yet unborn.

SENATOR DOLPH'S LETTER.

It is proper that our flag, the emblem of our nationality and freedom, should float over the building where the youth to whom in a few years, must be instructed for safe keeping, the grandest and best government ever devised by man, are being educated.

Our government is founded upon the will of the people, and is subject to change in accordance with their will, orderly and lawfully expressed. It has become an axiom in our politics that the best guarantee of our liberties is to be found in the intelligence and virtue of the people, and so the destiny of the nation is intimately connected with its schools. No matter how great the national prosperity may be, it will not necessarily tend to the perpetuity of our free institutions. Vast territory, great wealth and population, the multiplication of the means of transportation, development of our great resources, and the increase of our internal and foreign commerce, all blessings, if properly used, may prove to be sources of national weakness. The character of its citizens.

To make good citizens, the children must be educated and instructed in the principles of morality and virtue. They must be taught the character of our institutions, that they may appreciate their value. They must be intelligent that they may know and be prepared to perform their duties as citizens; and understand, and be able to defend their rights.

There is connected with the ceremony of raising the national flag, a sentiment which is one of the loftiest that can animate the human breast, and which should be early and persistently inculcated in the young—the sentiment of patriotism—a sentiment which inspired all the noble deeds in the service of country, and the accounts of which adorn the history of the world; which inspired the fathers of the revolution, and the brave men, who in every hour of peril in our country's history, have performed deeds of valor, the glory of which is not eclipsed by the splendors of the heroism of a Horatius, a Leonidas, a Wallace or a Tell, that sentiment which inspired the Father of his Country, and led him to prefer his country's welfare to his own aggrandizement, his country's honor to life itself.

This sentiment should be inculcated in the young upon the mother's lips. It should be breathed in from the atmosphere of home, to stimulate it should be the object in part of the instruction of every school. In the enjoyment of the blessings of liberty and good government, we should not forget what the liberty and tyranny which preceded the settlement of this continent, the oppression which drove the Pilgrim fathers from Europe to seek a refuge in the new world; the heroic deeds of the fathers which secured the independence of the colonies and the patriotic sacrifices which have preserved the independence and union of the states against every assault.

The flag which you shall give to the breeze will not be a mere piece of bunting. It is the emblem of the Nation, one nation but composed of forty-two states. It is the symbol of a power which, within its constitutional limitations, operates upon every foot of national soil, and upon every citizen of the Republic—a symbol which, upon every sea and in every port, commands the respect of the civilized world. It was, a few years since, raised by an unauthorized agent of the government over Apia in the Samoan islands, and the act staid the encroachments of the great German nation.

It represents to us Republican Government, free institutions, free schools, universal education and the right of every boy and girl in the Nation to acquire an education, and, upon an equality with all others, to strive for the topmost round of the ladder of success in every profession and vocation of life, and to aspire to the highest honors in the State under our form of government.

It has been carried to victory upon land and sea. It has been bathed in the blood of heroes. It speaks of great achievements in war. It speaks of greater achievements in peace. It represents the greatest, freest and happiest people upon the face of the earth. We should teach the children to love it and reverence it for what it represents, so that our liberties and the symbol of them—the flag—shall never lack a defender in the latest generation. Who does not rejoice that the Union was preserved, that our country to-day extends from the great lakes to the gulf, and from the Atlantic to the Pacific, that the National flag is the symbol of National unity and power, the flag of the union of States, and not of a fragment of a dismembered union!

SOUL GRAPES.—You have no doubt met old "Soul grapes." He wanders about in every country and in every clime. Last week he went out on the garden road and his sour nature was so shocked by coming in contact with the beautiful country, "the fine gardens with such rich tropical growth," the luscious and abundant fruit, and the perfume of thousands upon thousands of flowers, that he is laid up for repairs. He can hardly resist the temptation of reforming and live with a view to the enjoyment of his surroundings. Are you inclined to live or do you prefer to exist? If the former, come and let us show you the place for an ideal home. We can please you. We have two ten acre tracts with five new houses and barns, new fences, everything neat and clean, finest vegetable, grain and fruit land in the market, planted to acre and vine fruit, the best bargains in the market, also 10 acres small fruit and grain, first class in every respect. Also 4 acres near Savage's hot house with tree fruit in bearing and other substantial improvements. 5 acres, house, barn and fruit, fine condition on Fairview Ave. 5 and 10 acre tracts, the best in the country and 17 acres which will double in price within one year. This country will be traversed within 60 days by the steam motor belt line and you can go to town in a few moments. The air is pure, the water clear, cold and healthful—buy where you would like to live, and buy now or pay more after awhile. Salem Land Co. Postoffice block.

JOHN HUGHES, Dealer in Groceries, Paints, Oils and Window Glass, Wall Paper and Border, Artists' Materials, Lime, Hair, Nails and Shingles, Hay, Feed and Fence Posts, Grass Seeds, Etc.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—THE COLORED JENNY LIND! MISS FLORA BATSON, The Greatest Colored Singer in the World, at the M. E. Church, Wednesday Eve., June 3.

The Peerless Mezzo-Soprano.—New York Sun. The Colored Jenny Lind.—New York World. A mezzo-soprano of wonderful range.—San Francisco Examiner. Has earned the fame of being the greatest colored singer in the world.—Vicksburg (Miss.) Post. The sweetest voice that ever charmed a Virgin's ear.—Lynchburg (Va.) Daily Advance.

All her numbers were sung without effort as the birds sing. Mobile (Ala.) Daily Register. A highly cultivated mezzo-soprano, of great sweetness, power, and compass, and of dramatic quality.—Charleston (S. C.) News and Courier. Her vocal register has a wonderful sweep, from lowest contralto notes to soprano heights.—Los Angeles (Cal.) Eve. Express. Her articulation is so perfect her rendition seems like recitation set to music.—Kansas City Dispatch.

Tickets 50 cts; Children 25 cts. Reserved without extra cost on and after May 24th, at DeBor's book store. 1d

Notice to Contractors.—The undersigned directors of school district No. 24, county of Marion, and State of Oregon, will receive bids at their office in Salem, on Tuesday, May 27, 1890, for the following work to be done according to the plans and specifications on file in the office of W. M. Sargent, Architect, Salem, Oregon: 1. For the building of an eight room school house in North Salem, and the finishing of the same on the outside and also all of the four lower rooms, and the laying of the floors, setting of the partitions, etc., for the second story floor. 2. For the remodeling of the Central School building, finishing the same throughout on the outside, and for the completion of the two lower rooms, and for laying the floors, and setting of the partitions on the second story.

The undersigned reserve the right to reject any and all bids. E. M. WAITE, Board of Directors, Salem, May 17, 1890.

J. W. CRAWFORD has Removed His Stock of Stoves, Tinware and Plumbing Goods to the store recently occupied by J. C. BROWN & CO.

Call and See Him! TOWN LOTS AT AUCTION.

—TITLE PERFECT—Thirty-two lots in Frickey's addition to Salem, will be sold at auction, to the highest bidder, for cash in hand, on Saturday, May 24th, at 1 o'clock p. m.

—Sale to take place on the premises.—You who want single lots, on hand and bay for once at wholesale prices. Call upon the undersigned for free tickets on the electric line to these high, clear and accessible lots; also for any particulars.

the partnership estate, of E. H. Hollinger, deceased, State St. Salem, Or. SHAW & DOWNING, Auctioneers. 5-14 9td-wit

GEO. G. VAN WAGNER. Has just received a fine stock of Wall Paper and Picture Mouldings, Lounges and Mattresses. Picture framing done with care and neatness. Prices as Low as the Lowest. 5-10-90

LOOK HERE SOLE AGENTS —FOR—

Anti-Rusting Tinware! EVERY ARTICLE Warranted not to Rust —AND—

THE WORLD'S FAVORITE! Superior Cook Stoves and Ranges!

EVERY ONE WARRANTED. J. C. BROWN & CO., 234-236 Commercial St., Salem Or.

TWO LOTS on Church Street, two blocks from Court House $1,000 each. Also HALF LOT AND RESIDENCE on Center Street, and on same block, $1,250.

60 ACRE FARM three miles from town at $25 per acre.

Five, Ten and Twenty Acre Tracts near Salem. For sale on favorable terms. Enquire of Willis & Chamberlin, Real Estate and Insurance Agents, Court Street, Salem, Oregon.

Only Abstract Books IN MARION COUNTY. Work promptly and reliably executed by the SALEM ABSTRACT & LAND CO., FRANK W. WATERS, Manager

BROOKS & COX, 100 STATE ST., SALEM, OR.

PURE DRUGS, MEDICINES —AND—

Chemicals, FINE PERFUMERY AND TOILET ARTICLES! —O—

Physicians' Prescriptions and Family Recipes carefully compounded. A full line of choice Imported and Key West Cigars.

W. M. SARGENT, Dealer in Wall Paper, Mouldings, Pictures Frames, Window Shades, Baby Cabs, Express Wagons, Notions and Toys of all kinds. A Fine Line of Etchings and Engraving, Oil Paintings and Chromos. Prices the Lowest. 5-10-90

REMOVAL We Have Removed to Bush's New Brick Corner, Corner of Commercial and Court, And will continue to carry the finest line of Dress Goods and Trimmings, Ladies and Gents Furnishing Goods, Clothing, Hats, Ladie Wraps, Etc. in the City. We are agents for several specialties. J. J. DALRYMPLE & CO.

$10,000 $10,000 For Sale

Ten Thousand Dollars —worth of—

Fancy and Staple Groceries. For prices and terms enquire of WELLER BROS., 201 Commercial St.

Goods delivered free to all parts of the city.

A. KLEIN, Continues the Business formerly conducted by Krause & Klein, at the old Stand on Commercial street.

BOOTS AND SHOES! Will be pleased to receive calls from my old friends and new.

Mammoth New Stock! at Living Prices:

BROOKS & HARRITT, DEALERS IN FINE FISHING TACKLE,

RODS, BASKETS, FLIES, LEADERS, REELS, BABY CARRIAGES, VELOCIPEDS, SHELLS, PRIMERS, NOVELTIES, GUNS, CUTLERY, SPORTING GOODS, Base Balls, Hammocks, Croquet. No. 94 State Street, Salem, Oregon.

PIANOS AND ORGANS, Violins, Guitars, Mandolins, Banjos, SHEET MUSIC, Music Books, and all kinds of Musical Merchandise at EASTON'S, Eldridge Block, Commercial St. THE ONLY MUSIC STORE IN SALEM.

BAKER & STRANG, —Successors to—

A. E. STRANG, —dealer in—

Stoves, Tinware and House Furnishing Goods, Plumbing, Steam and Gas Fitting.

Agents for the Celebrated Peninsular Stoves and Ranges.

No. 302 Commercial St.

The New Success, BOYTON & RICHARDSON Furnace.

Have you been satisfied in the heating of your home during the past winter? If not, and you desire health and comfort, we should like to make an examination of your building, to ascertain what remedy can be adopted, sending an estimate which will be as low as a figure as is consistent with a thorough job. Our experience and reputation in this line of business has given us the confidence of our patrons in doing first-class work. Beware of goods represented to be similar in name to those handled by us. Would advise our former patrons that we can supply whatever repairs are needed for furnaces already put in by us.

J. F. JACOBSON, —Dealer in—

Lumber, Lath and Shingles, at the old Dorrance Yard, Salem. Special attention given to furnish K'n dried and superior Finishing Lumber.