EASTERN NEWS.

McKinley Insists on Expediting Matters.

ANOTHER BLAINE WEDDING.

Horrible Suffering in Russia from Fire and Storm.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 17.—A House conference was ordered on the Senate Anti-Trust bill. The House then went into committee of the whole on the tariff bill. McKinley asked that the committee would act promptly upon the amendments offered by the committee on ways and means, then, the other gentlemen who had substantial benefits to offer might be recognized. McMillan of Tenn., declared that the manner in which this bill was being considered, was fair neither to the house nor to the tax payers of the country. It was utterly impossible to consider and debate the bill carefully in the few days allowed.

MISS BLAINE MARRIED.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—Miss Margaret Isabelle Blaine, daughter of the secretary of state, was married at one o'clock this afternoon to Walter Damrosch, of New York, at the residence of the bride's parents in Madison Place.

Three hundred friends are in attendance, including President and Mrs. Harrison, the cabinet officers and the ladies of their families, members of the supreme court, the entire diplomatic corps, many members of congress and other representatives of official society at the capitol.

FIRE AND STORM SUFFERERS.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 17.—Horrible scenes are reported to have occurred during the burning of the Tomb capital of Western Siberia.
The place has been visited simultaneously by conflagration and cyclone, the result being the destruction of three-quarters of the town, and a loss of hundreds of lives. The Cathedral is in ashes. The walls falling crushing the adjacent hospital, burying many inmates, who were roasted alive. The garrison brutally refused to render assistance in saving lives and property.
Bishop and priests marched through the burning city with sacred emblems administered absolution to the dying, and blessed the dead. The panic-stricken sufferers are huddled together in the streets firmly believing the end of the world has come. They abandoned themselves to the storm in despair. The storm was followed by a sudden fall in the temperature, and soon the devastated city was buried beneath a mantle of snow, which added stinging cold to the suffering thousands of shelterless men, women and children.

THE FREE SUGAR FIGHT.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 17.— A heavy pressure is being brought to bear on the ways and means committee as to the tariff, by conflicting sugar interests. Representative McKenna has announced that he will submit a proposition relating to a cut of thirty-three per cent. in sugar duties, restoring the dividing line No. 16 to No. 13, the Dutch standard. California sugar men will accept this heavy cut rather than have the bounty plan adopted.
Recruits are expected from the Southern States; meanwhile some western representatives are preparing to lead the crusade in favor of free sugar.

ued for that on catechism, which was done.

Southern Pacific officials have at last decided on a policy regarding the snow shed system of the Sierras.
It has been decided that sheds be present structures will all be placed possible moment.

MEXICAN-PACIFIC RAILROAD.

CITY OF MEXICO (via Galveston), granted General Sturm, of the United States, concessions on the railway from this city to the Pacific coast via Cuernavaca and Oaxaca.

The Carpenters Organize.

The carpenters met last night at Good Templar's hall, pursuant to their advertisement printed in the JOURNAL. About thirty men were present.

Mr. Watts, of Portland, called the meeting to order. He contrasted the present situation with the first form of government and the resistance to tyranny. The evils of the present, the people were to blame for, and if men did not organize to remedy them, they must bear the consequences. He was not a speech-maker, but a simple worker. The Union had appointed him state organizer for carpenters and there was but a limited time to act and he called on others for remarks.

Mr. Grant, of Portland, spoke.
He said this was a matter of great importance. Every branch of trade was organized. No branch was more abused than this. Carpenters were the poorer paid class in the states. This was their own fault.
The only remedy was organization.
Carpenters were not paid as they should be. They were a class of slaves, made so by their employers.
In the east they had better pay and shorter hours of labor, giving them more time for recreation, to spend with their families. This trade required more study and knowledge, and was compelled to carry five times as many tools as any other trade. His tools were expensive to keep in order. Bricklayers got from $4 to $6 a day, carpenters $2 to $3. Plasterers got twice this. The carpenters were hard to organize and preferred to work for whom they pleased and for what they pleased.
None had a right to cut under another's wages. The bosses had organized to grind down the carpenters to pauper wages. We must organize as a body and demand our wages and get them, and crowd out all who will work for less when we are strong enough.

Mr. Watts read a paper setting out the purposes of the order, which was to fight against low prices and botch work. It was a kind of protective and mutual benefit society.
It had already added over $5,000,000 to wages of carpenters. It paid a funeral benefit and sick support. It was a day and age of pools, combinations and trusts. One could not buy a pound of sugar or coal without buying against a trust and workmen were fools if they did not get their rights.

A number of members arose in response to a request for members.
The general initiation fee is $2.00 to $5.00 and the Portland carpenters talk of raising the fee to $10 as soon as their strike is over. The charter for here will be whatever it is made.
The secretary read the names of all those who had signed the call, and the doors were closed to give the members of the new union their obligations. All others retired including the reporter.

Prof. S. A. Starr, of the University, went to Hubbard this morning to attend quarterly conference of the M. E. church, and take the place of Presiding Elder Wire, who is sick at his home in this city.

Another big line of goods will arrive at Calvert's on Monday morning. Bought cheap and will be sold cheaper than ever.

FLIGHTY TEAM.—A runaway was had this forenoon by a team hitched to a load of lumber at the Capitol mills. They started with the front wheels of the wagon, and after damaging a couple of rigs in front of Scriber & Pohl's and breaking the wagon tongue, were stopped on Commercial street.

PROMOTE.—In the matter of the guardianship of Clyde and Pearl Schell, minors, Mary E. Schell, guardian, presents to the court and files her second annual report, which is approved.

UNIVERSITY NOTES.

C. Cleaver, of Mt. Angel, is visiting his son and daughter, who are attending the university. Mr. Cleaver is the nominee for assessor on the Republican ticket, and is on his way to Marion, where the campaign opens to-day.

After next Friday the seniors will have a vacation until commencement, in which to prepare for their final ordeal.

The various programs for commencement are about completed and all necessary arrangements are being perfected and those who take part in them are being specially drilled.

The University band will go to Salem to furnish the music for the picnic to be given next Saturday.

D. Williams who has been a student of the university during the winter left this morning for Wisconsin.

S. C. Deaton of the sophomore class will begin teaching at Clem.
Graham Co., Monday.

The annual catalogue of the university will be out in a few days.
The catalogue this year will make a splendid showing.

J. B. Putnam, state librarian, who was a student of the university for several years, visited chapel Wednesday.

A. W. Bowersox, of Jefferson, and R. G. Brown, of Turner, both old time students, were visiting among the boys yesterday.

The cantata which is to be rendered by the Philharmonic society next Wednesday evening promises to be a delightful affair and all should hear it.

THE COLT SHOW.—The streets of Salem again present a metropolitan appearance today, being thronged with busy people. The colt show has much to do with this, having brought in a large number, although not near so many as it had been properly advertised. At 1:30 Secretary Hodson had three entries in the thoroughbred class, 27 standard bred, 7 grade roadsters, 13 clydesdales, 9 grade draft, 5 percheron and one shire. The show was held in front of the court house.

THAT POSSIBLE FIRE.—In relation to the Smith fire reported in yesterday's JOURNAL, it has to say that no further action has been taken or is likely to be by the authorities. The doctor's friends firmly maintain that he is innocent and upon invitation to state his case fully say that they prefer to wait further developments. It is sincerely to be hoped that the terrible suspicion now hanging over him may be satisfactorily obliterated.

COMMITTEE MEETING.—The general committee of arrangements will meet Monday morning at 10:30 at Simon's cigar store to take the final steps for the Fourth of July celebration. All members should be promptly on hand.

WHO WILL GET THE WATCH.—J.
G. Wright having sold 250 cans of Golden State Baking Powder will break the seal containing the winning number at 8 o'clock Saturday evening. Call and see who gets the gold watch.

HEART DISEASE.—Word comes to the city of the death by heart disease last night of old man Hogue, who resides on the Ankeny place, ten miles south of the city.

SUBJECT OF UNCLE SAM.—German U. Beer, a former subject of Switzerland, to-day declared his intentions to become a citizen of the United States.

LEAVE TO WED.—County Clerk Babeok issued a marriage license to-day to Frank Bowen and Ida Harding, of Silverton.

to Col. Muller but to that line of table delicacies at J. G. Wright's.

Mr. D. A. Hendricks, of Athens, Or., was in the city over night. He has sold his interest in the Press there and has just ordered a complete new outfit to start a paper of his own. His friends are all glad to notice Dave's prosperity.
