SALEM WILL CELEBRATE!

Ten Bands of Music and all the Military and Fire Companies of the Valley

WILL BE IN SALEM JULY 4TH.

The Committee Laboring Hard to Make Salem's Celebration Immense.

The general committee appointed to arrange for the proper celebration of the 4th of July in Salem had a meeting this forenoon to consider the numerous matters to contribute to the success of that event.

The soliciting committee made a favorable report as to the amount subscribed; the citizens are responding liberally and when through they hope to have sufficient to conduct the celebration in grand style.

THE SPEAKER invited for the occasion has not yet responded, owing to his absence from his home, yet we are assured that a superior man will be had for this position.

THE READER will be W. J. D'Arcy, which insures a man with a trained voice and a good pair of lungs.

BRASS BANDS. The committee has made arrangements to secure at least two good brass bands for this occasion, and in addition to paying for their services, have appropriated a liberal sum for a prize to be contested for by the various bands present.

MILITARY Prizes will also be offered for the finest military display, and through their liberal awards the committee hopes to interest and get out all the military companies of note within a reasonable distance.

FIRE COMPANIES. The fire department of our own city and surrounding towns will be offered liberal awards for a grand contest of engine and hose companies. A magnificent display is expected.

BASE BALL. A prize game of base ball will be provided for, although it is not yet known just what clubs will participate.

BICYCLE TOURNAMENT. Prizes will also be given for the benefit of expert wheelmen. The Salem club will prepare a fine track, and hopes to give such a display as was never before witnessed in the State.

OTHER AMUSEMENTS of various kinds will be liberally provided for, and in fact nothing will be left undone to make this celebration the greatest event of the kind in the history of our city.

MARION PARK will be used for the speaking and other ceremonies of the day, while Wilson avenue and other attractive places about the city will be opened for the public.

R. R. EXCURSIONS. will be conducted from each direction, while the nearer towns on the river will be induced to run steamboat excursions to accommodate the people. The committees are all busy perfecting arrangements in detail, and from present indications there is a great surprise in store for even our townpeople. Salem will outdo herself to make this coming 4th a great success.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

Two Persons Dangerously Injured by a Runaway Sunday Evening, on State Street

About 5 o'clock Sunday evening, there was an unusually heavy traffic on State street. On the rear of an open Yew Park addition car stood Chas. Craven, P. H. D'Arcy and Wm. Dumar. The former stood with their backs against the hand-rail, and Mr. Dumar, looked eastward up the street. Mr. Z. Craven had been driving leisurely along from Yew Park and had kept at a distance behind the crowded car. He was driving a spirited family horse, or animal pretty hard on the bit, but at a slow pace as he must have, to not overtake the car. When passing the state house another buggy carrying two young men overtook Mr. Craven at a rapid gait. As they came alongside his horse picked up and struck a high trot, keeping right abreast of his rival. Both rigs were trotting at a good stiff gait but no danger was anticipated until they overtook the car in front of Mr. Waite's house and both tried to pass the car on that side of the street.

AN EXCITING SCENE now took place, that but few people in the crowded car witnessed until the crash was over and the buggy was wrecked, and the four persons in the Craven buggy were thrown out headlong upon the street.

The young men, Wait and Holman, had not any intention of racing, they came up with Craven so suddenly that it threw his horse into a high state of excitement. The vehicles ran with wheels locked until right up even with the car, the young men slightly in the lead, when they turned their horse right in front of the street car horse almost crowding that animal off the track. The sidewalks were full of people out taking a Sunday airing, and the wonder is that some pedestrians were not hurt. As the boys turned their horse to get free from Craven's rig, Mr. Craven's horse turned in towards the sidewalk.

A TERRIBLE CRASH followed and Mr. Craven's buggy struck a small cross-walk that runs out from Mr. Laech's gate. It runs out across the gutter and the buggy struck it with such force that the single-tree was smashed to splinters and the harness was literally torn from the horses, which escaped and ran down the street. The unfortunate inmates of the Craven buggy were Mr. and Mrs. Craven, a little boy two years of age and a little girl still smaller. All four were thrown clear out of the buggy and fell to the ground with great violence. The buggy also struck a post standing by the edge of the walk.

Mr. Craven was wrapped right around a post about six inches in diameter, his head and heels coming together. He was picked up unconscious, with his head all bloody and apparently terribly injured internally. But no bones were found broken, and in half an hour he was restored so as to be taken home in a cab.

HE WAS INJURED of the terrible injuries sustained by his wife and was still in a semi-delirious condition when taken home.

Mr. Craven's two grown sons were on the ground and helped to pick up their father and mother and send them home. Mrs. Craven was taken home on a stretcher unconscious, and it had then been found that one leg was broken and she was severely bruised about the face. She received prompt medical aid, as the two young men no sooner realized the terrible accident that had occurred than they drove right on and returned with a doctor at once.

TO-DAY Mr. and Mrs. Craven are somewhat restored, and Mr. Craven is not thought to have sustained any very great injuries unless internal difficulties appear. He is badly cut about the head and face and will not be able to push his business for some time. He is a large contractor and a prominent business man. Mrs. Craven's leg was badly crushed at the knee and broken just below the joint. She will be more or less crippled for life. It is a terrible mishap to this family but might have been worse.

THE LESSON would seem to be that persons in driving should be careful about their rate of speed, and also about overtaking and passing others. It would not be a bad idea to have all posts, and private walks that extend into the street removed, and the law against fast driving enforced by our police. This does not apply to Mr. Craven, who has been very unfortunate and was not driving fast, nor racing, and the accident was forced upon him by a combination of circumstances that he could not well have foreseen or avoided.

THE QUESTION SETTLED.

This is a faithful picture of the establishment of Thomas Price & son, at 524 Sacramento St., S. F. As the leading chemist of the west, they were asked to settle the question as to what sarsaparilla were in fact purely vegetable. We present their report. We have made careful chemical analyses of several well known brands of sarsaparilla, and have found them all with the single exception of Jay's to contain iodide of potassium. As a result we are enabled to pronounce Jay's to be the only purely vegetable sarsaparilla now on the market, which has come under our observation. Modern medicine has proven that all ordinary face eruptions are caused by indigestion and sluggish circulation, which call for vegetable alternatives, instead of mineral blood purifiers like iodide of potassium. Jay's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is the best to clear the old notions and proceed under the modern theory. Its cures are the talk of the hour.
