GILBERT & PATTERSON, Dealers in Groceries, Crockery, Glassware, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Brushes, Windowglass, Etc.

A NOBLE SENTIMENT.—One of the best and most approvable expressions of American manhood was made Saturday afternoon at Macleay by "our village blacksmith," John Knight, chairman of the republican county central committee.

AN IMPORTANT ERROR.—Hon. W. H. Byars and Alonzo Geaner are surveying State street and all the streets south of State and east of 12th, and it is discovered that State street is some ten feet too far south from the Gray residence, on the east, and all the streets between State and Oak, are too far south by ten or more feet.

AN OPEN DEED.—Wm. Wayland who has kept the city police on the lookout for the past few days rid the city of his presence for a time by stealing a few packages of tea from Matthews & Hoover last Saturday which he endeavored to sell to Steeves Bros., but detecting the scam of Matthews & Hoover they investigated the matter which resulted in the arrest of Wayland who was held over to await the action of the grand jury.

AS AN INVESTMENT.—One hundred thousand dollars donated to secure an independent line of railroad into Salem would prove a better investment than anything else that could be attempted to-day. It would be but a mile for our taxpayers, and in years to come they could point back with pride, and say from that moment dates the era of our wonderful prosperity.

ENUMERATOR.—James Batchelor of the Capital City restaurant has been appointed census enumerator for Labish and Gervais precincts. He will begin work on June 23, the day set for enumerating, and everybody will be prepared to meet the representative of the government on that date.

A BIG BAGGAIN.—I will offer for sale a No. 1 Shoninger organ which has been used about six months, but is as good as new. Cost when new $150. This is one of the best make of organs in the market. Will sell at a bargain for a few days for cash. For particulars, call on or address A. W. Bowersox, Salem.

GOOD IMPROVEMENT.—A stucco-work coating will form the future exterior of the M. E. church, as was decided at the last regular meeting. It will cause that immense building to resemble the state house, and will cost the M. E. society several thousand dollars.

AT THE THURSDAY EVENING RECITAL.—Messrs. J. B. Starr and J. H. Ross will sing Cooke's famous duet, "Love and War." It is seldom these two fine voices are heard together, and those to whom they are known will need only an intimation that they will sing to be present.

WORK TO BEGIN.—Contractor G. D. Goodhue has the contract for furnishing the rock, sand and gravel for the big bridge, and work will begin this week. He will run a line of scows night and day and push the business with his accustomed vigor.

NEW WALKS.—The Methodist church block, along State street, is to receive new cement and concrete walks. Messrs. Moore and Breyman will also put them in.

The balloon ascension in West Salem yesterday drew a large crowd, the balloonist making the leap of about 300 feet in safety.

HOT SHOT!

Opera House in Salem, To-Night. Admission Free. Everybody, including the ladies, invited.

HON. T. H. TONGUE, one of the ablest orators of the Pacific Coast will fire hot shot into the Democratic camp to-night, Monday, May 26, at 8 o'clock, p. m.

The Macleay Picnic. Co. I of Macleay was greeted by about 2500 cheerful countenances on Saturday at the picnic. After a few selections of national airs had been rendered by the University band, Superintendent Irwin, of Chemawa, the orator for the occasion, was introduced by the chairman; he delivered a fine oration on the military element in our government, and compared our standing army to those of European nations as being insignificant, yet in an emergency, we could rally into the field a million noble and true soldiers.
