FIREMEN'S ELECTION.—At their last regular meeting, the members of Engine Company No. 3, of North Salem, elected officers for the year as follows: F. J. Babcock, president; A. M. Clough, secretary; W. L. Wade, treasurer; E. A. Kaiser, foreman; W. F. Brown, first assistant foreman; F. B. Farrell, second assistant foreman; T. P. Welch, R. H. Rossitter, and J. C. Reed, board of fire delegates. C. N. Churchill was nominated for chief engineer, the election to be considered at the first regular meeting in July.

NOT INSANE.—Special officer Geo. Townsend arrested a man by the name of J. W. Ellis, this morning. He was passing up Commercial st, with a knife in his hand which he was waving in a dangerous manner, and was acting rather queerly. He claimed to have come to this city, from Portland with his parents a few days ago, and now resides on Front street. He was released on the application of his father, who took him home. He claimed that he was an invalid and subject to attacks of St. Vitus Dance, and is harmless.

POSTAL MATTERS.—The month of May has been a busy one at the Salem postoffice. The total number of letters and newspapers and packages handled by the carriers for the month, 38,423. They delivered 88 registered letters, and 13,488 letters, 1641 postal cards and 11,268 newspapers, and collected 372 local letters, 9753 mail letters, 106 local postal cards, 494 mail postal cards and 1212 newspapers. The postage on local for the month was $58.08.

A PETTY THIEF.—A German, who has been working on the fruit farm of ... south Salem, suddenly disappeared the first of the week, taking with him ten dollars and some personal effects belonging to a fellow workman. The man is of short and stout stature, with sandy complexion, and not very intelligent. He is thought to be in the country south of Salem and will soon be captured.

SAWDUST.—Sportsmen say the Santiam is running so full of sawdust that a pint cup of water contains a teaspoonful of the shavings. There is a law against turning sawdust into streams, and yet the mills at Mill City and other points are turning it in regardless of the U. S. statute, and to the death of the fish.

REMEMBER YOUR FRIENDS.—If you want to post your friends about Salem, the Willamette valley and Oregon send them the WEEKLY CAPITAL JOURNAL, only $1.00 a year. It will be as good as a letter each week, and they will also be interested in our special write-up editions that appear once a month. Orders by mail or at office, next door to the postoffice.

EXCURSION.—Co. F, of Albany, in command of the excellent steamer Hoag, bringing about 200 excursionists, tied up at the O. P. wharf in this city at 11:30 this morning. The Albany band was with them and rendered some fine music. They left at 4 o'clock this afternoon after having seen the sights in the Capital city and having a good time in general.

Explanatory.

When I took charge of the Diamond Watch club, instituted and conducted by Mr. C. A. Burbank, there had been three numbers drawn, viz. 5, 23 and 24, which were entitled to watches of the value of $25, $40 and $50, and on last Monday evening No. 42 was drawn, which called for a $25 watch. Now, up to this date there has been only $10.25 paid to me by the entire membership, consequently it worked a hardship upon me to deliver so many high-priced watches at one time, when I had to go down in my own pocket to do so. But I am happy to state that all the watches that have been drawn, viz. Nos. 5, 23, 24 and 42 are at this moment here and ready for delivery. Now I will say to all members of the club who are in arrears, if you desire to save the money you have paid in come forward and pay up back dues or a part at least, otherwise you will be debarred from the drawings and of course lose what you have paid in. I shall carry out my part of the obligation to the letter and in future goods will be delivered promptly when drawn. I will say to the club positively that I am not responsible for one cent of money paid to Mr. C. A. Burbank, but if you keep up your dues what you have paid to him will be worth one hundred cents on the dollar to you. Respectfully,

J. E. ADCOX, the Court street jeweler.
