THE EMERGENCY COMPANY.

This efficient fire within Salem's borders met last night and elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: President, John Knight; secretary, Richard Henry; treasurer, Thos. Holman; chairman, Fred Rice; first assistant, R. B. Glaser; second assistant, H. P. Minton; board of fire delegates, R. E. Critchlow, C. A. Waller, E. C. Cross, A. E. Strang, A. H. Wright; finance committee, E. Nichols, Chas. Nordlund, Arthur Glover. Fire chief engineer of the Salem fire department, Walter Lowe was nominated. No nomination was made for assistant chief.

FINE NEW RESIDENCE.

Courtdelman George Collins could not be content unless he was making some improvements of a substantial character. He has now the plans and specifications ready and the contract to-day for a beautiful residence, to be erected at a cost of $4,000 on his lot on Church street just north of the residence he recently sold to Dr. W. H. Byrd on the corner of Court street. It is to be a frame of most modern style of architecture, supported by a substantial brick wall, and will be one of the handsomest structures in that fashionable part of the city.

EVENEY WILL BE HERE.

T. A. Howard, foreman of Capitals, is in receipt of a letter from the foreman of how town No. 1, Eugene, asking for particulars of the meeting here on the Fourth, and whether outside teams will be allowed in the race, saying also that if everything is satisfactory the Eugene boys will probably be present and take part. Mr. Howard will answer the letter to-day, giving all particulars and a strong invitation to come.

EXCURSION RATES.

In view of the fact that the 4th of July falls on Friday this year, which is likely to run the building over Sunday, the S. P. railroad company has provided for pleasure excursions that may be made by the city on that occasion. Between all points not more than 100 miles apart, the rate for the round trip will be a regular single trip rate. Tickets will be sold Thursday afternoon, July 2nd, and on Friday, the 4th, good for return passage until Monday, the 7th, included. This will be a fine opportunity for pleasure trips at low rates.

BOY'S FIDELITY.

W. E. DeL., justice of the peace for Butteville precinct, has filed his bond in the county clerk's office, with Francis Fuller and Joseph James Ryan as sureties, in the sum of $100. James Bartholomew, justice for Salem precinct, has done likewise, with J. W. Crawford and H. A. Thomas as sureties.

ANOTHER BASK BALL CLUB.

A number of Salem's young gentlemen met last evening and organized a new basketball club, with the following members: H. S. Jordan, Bert H. Miller, Chas. Fenton, Willard Sappington, M. W. Hart, W. L. Savage, Oscar Taylor, Jay Phillips, Frank Hatch, and W. S. Rogers. All members of the club are requested to meet at the office of W. W. Hart, to-morrow evening at 7:30 for permanent organization.

ARTICLES FILED.

In the secretary of state's office to-day the following articles of incorporation and similar company filed articles of incorporation, with J. A. Sattler, N. G. Seward, of Eugene, and J. S. Fleming, of New York, incorporators; object, mining and smelting; principal office, Portland; capital stock, $200,000, in shares of $10.

ANOTHER.

Chas. DeLeon's new son of a barber shop has had such a run of business that he has had to put in another chair. He arrived to-day, and is a duplicate of his other set, costing about $200, the best in the city. 130 State St.

There was a heavy rain out in the Padlock River country yesterday.

PERSONAL MENTION.

W. E. Her, the Butteville hop grower, was in the city last night. Dr. J. M. Keene made a flying trip to Albany last evening on the overland.

McKinley Mitchell and Dr. Scott were Gervais visitors at Salem over night.

Lot Pearce, bookkeeper at R. M. Wade & Co's, went to Portland this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Adler are visiting friends and relatives in Portland to-day.

Senator Jeff Myers, of Lincoln county arrived in the city this afternoon and will remain over night.

Hon. T. McF. Patton went to Portland this morning to attend the closing exercises of Masonic grand lodge.

Ed. Crawford and Jay Phillips took the afternoon train for Portland on business connected with the bank.

P. A. Krossus, of Caledonia, Minn., is a new arrival in the city with his family yesterday, and thinks of locating.

Col. Robert A. Miller, of Jackson county, attended the Alumni reunion at the Willamette—his alma mater—last night.

Hon. Timon Ford went to Portland this afternoon. He has a case to try in Judge Stratton's court to-morrow morning.

Hon. John G. Wilson took the afternoon train north on his way to Heppner to visit his large stock ranch in that part of Morrow county.

Mrs. I. L. Berry and little daughter, who have been visiting relatives in Jacksonville, returned home this morning and the turkey's smile is much broader and more cheerful.

Rev. L. Diehlman, formerly Catholic pastor here, now of Astoria, returned home this morning after a pleasant visit with Father White. Father Diehlman owns a nice piece of land near the Catholic cemetery.

Miss Nellie Gillett took the afternoon train last evening, accompanying Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Gardiner, for a summer's visit in Los Angeles. Miss Gillett will be much missed from Salem society, of which she is such a pleasing and popular factor.

Messrs. Harley and Smoker, two Indian friends of Prof. D. W. Yule, our county superintendent of schools, have been visiting that gentleman since yesterday, after a tour of the Sound country. They will return home by way of Caledonia.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY.

The little town of Milwaukie, this side of Portland, was the scene of a shocking tragedy yesterday, or rather the neighborhood about a mile east of Milwaukie. Infant Harvey, aged 15 years, shot and killed his mother, Mrs. Chas. Burnett, aged 42 years, and then shot himself fatally. Daniel Harvey was an uncle and Mrs. Burnett the grandmother of Mrs. W. E. Nichols, of this city and they have gone to the scene of the awful occurrence. It is generally supposed Harvey was insane, as the policeman's relations had always raised between mother and son.

NOTABLE FUNERAL.

W. E. Bagley, Salem J. L. Barlock, Emily, Lillian, and S. Edmund, Esq. Portland, Mrs. L. M. Barlock, Portland, and Mrs. J. M. Bagley, Monmouth, were to-day appointed trustees for the funeral.

MARRIED.

WILSON-WATT.—Married at the Methodist parsonage by Rev. Wm. Rollins, on Wednesday evening, June 11, 1890, at 8:30, Mr. Arthur Wilson and Miss Laura Watt. Mr. Wilson is a printer and Miss Watt is one of Salem's most accomplished as well as beautiful young women. Everybody wishes them well, and the Journal hopes their married life may be one of contentment, happiness and prosperity, and that in all things they may seek the reward of an upright, righteous life.

The young couple took their departure this morning for Independence, where Mr. Wilson is engaged at his trade, and where they will settle down to housewifery.

DEED.

CAUFFIELD.—At the residence of Percy Hill, Salem, Thursday, June 12th, 1890, Thomas Cauffield, aged 36 years, 3 months and 19 days. The announcement of this death, though not entirely unexpected, caused a wave of genuine grief to pass over the city, and expressions of sorrow were heard on every hand. It appears that the applicant, which gave a little hope to his family and friends was but the final battle of nature, which, in rigorous nature, is so often seen before death.

ARTIST.

Mr. Cauffield was born in the parish of Killarney, County Roscommon, Ireland, December 21, 1853. He came to the United States at an early age, and arrived in Oregon in April, 1875. The family first settled in Park county near Dixie on a large farm which he still owned at the time of his death, but they moved to Salem about twelve years ago and have lived here continuously since.
