GILBERT & PATTERSON,

Dealers in Groceries, Crockery, Glassware, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Brushes, Windowglass, Etc. Sole Agents for Epicure Tea and Big Can Baking Powder.

EXCITING RUNAWAY.—Peter Rasmussen, who lives in the Red hills south of Salem a few miles, came to the city this morning and tied his team, hitched to a heavy wagon, to an electric light pole on the north side of the Court house square.

HOMER and Clara Hilleary entertained a number of friends at their home on Thursday the 12th in honor of their cousin, Miss Clara Perry, late of Burlington, Iowa.

THE WALLACE-LADUE TEA.—Mrs. R. S. Wallace and Mrs. W. N. Ladue, Wednesday, June 11th, three to six, tea.

RAILROAD SURVEYING.—Major S. L. Lovell started this morning in response to a telegram to resume the work of surveying a railroad line past Mt. Hood on the south side, where he discovered a most feasible pass recently at a point where no way of getting through was ever known to exist before.

NO CHANGE HERE.—There is much talk of the change in the time table of the passenger trains on the Southern Pacific railroad, but the JOURNAL is enabled to assure its readers that the change will not affect the time of the trains passing here.

INSANE COMMITMENT.—John Campbell, aged 46 years, was brought in from the Waldo Hills this morning and examined before County Judge Shaw as to his sanity.

ACQUITTED.—John Minger, whose trial for assault and battery on Geo. Townsend was mentioned in our evening's JOURNAL, was, after short deliberation on the part of the jury, acquitted.

NEW CITIZEN.—Carl Jensen, formerly a subject of the King of Denmark, and Anders Sjoberg, a former subject of the King of Sweden, have declared their intentions before County Clerk Babcock to throw off that allegiance and transfer it to the United States.

BALLOON ASCENSION.—There will be a balloon ascension in front of Benson's palace of sweets on State street this evening, and bananas, oranges, nuts, candies, lemons, and soda, will be sold cheap.

BURTON BROS. have just contracted to furnish brick for the new two-story building of Klueger & Beck, and also the new bakery to be put up by Amos Strong.

SOCIAL HAPPENINGS. The Week Rich in Intellectual and Social Pleasures—Body and Mind Feasted to Satiety.

YOUNG FOLKS' PARTY. Miss Jennie McKinnon, daughter of Warden McKinnon, at the prison, gave a very pleasant party to a bevy of her young schoolmates last Saturday afternoon.

ENJOYABLE PICNIC. The children of the Presbyterian Sunday school are enjoying themselves this afternoon in the unalloyed pleasures of a picnic among the cool shades of Yew park, in the vicinity of Arbor springs.

THE HILLEARYS AT HOME. Homer and Clara Hilleary entertained a number of friends at their home on Thursday the 12th in honor of their cousin, Miss Clara Perry, late of Burlington, Iowa.

THE WALLACE-LADUE TEA.—Mrs. R. S. Wallace and Mrs. W. N. Ladue, Wednesday, June 11th, three to six, tea.

BREYMAN-BROWN LUNCHEON. During the past week several hundred invitation cards were issued among the society ladies of Salem as follows:

by Mrs. VanScy, is also a very good piece of art. The large picture 4x5 feet, "La Tosca," by Miss Albert, which represents an Italian shepherd at the foot of the Alps, giving a tune from his flute to the lonely surroundings, has a naturalness indescribable.

CLOSING EXERCISES PUBLIC SCHOOLS. Long before the hour at which the curtain was to rise the opera house last evening was crowded to close standing room by an audience of old and young to witness the closing exercises of the year by the graduating class and other pupils of the Salem public schools.

THE WALLACE-LADUE TEA.—Mrs. R. S. Wallace and Mrs. W. N. Ladue, Wednesday, June 11th, three to six, tea.

Style is the Thing. People may sneer at styles as they like, but no one, young or old, wants to go dressed in an outlandish manner. Whether it be hats, gloves, tie or suit, whatever the season, or grade of goods, Johnson, Boothby & Co., will give you the latest.

Ten Acre Fruit Farms. The Sunnyside tract of farm lands, four miles south of Salem, is growing in public favor, because of its eligible location and the choice quality of the land. Those settlers who have gone onto their tracts to make themselves homes have shown diligence in improving their farms, and it wants but a few years to make this one of the most attractive spots in the whole Willamette valley.

LADIES.—You have been cleaning house. Buy a nice pair of lace curtains for a dollar, at the Capitol Adventure Co. On the line of the electric railway.

JUST REMEMBER.—That Geo. F. Smith keeps a full supply of tents, camping and lawn goods. Also a full line of fireworks and flags, 307 Commercial street.

Don't allow yourselves to be deceived into the belief that bricks are scarce at Burton Bros., because they are not. First-class brick always on hand.

Drop in at J. G. Wright's and get acquainted with some of that genuine imported Swiss cheese. You will never regret it.

First-class brick at Burton Bros. at all times, and in any quantity, and don't you forget it. Reprised brick made to order.

LADIES ATTENTION.—Summer chaises at the Capitol Adventure Co., for 75 cents a yard. All shades and patterns. Call and see them.

Salem is slowly but surely advancing; it is coming up by degrees and in twelve months more the oldest settler will hardly realize it is the same town. The cause of this prospering condition lies in actual worth. There is no worthless boom.
