SOME COMING EVENTS. June 4. Supreme court meets at Salem. June 4. Grandest celebration in Oregon at Salem.

GILBERT & PATTERSON,

Dealers in Groceries, Crockery, Glassware, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Brushes, Windowglass, Etc. Sole Agents for Epicure Tea and Big Can Baking Powder.

GRAND PICNIC.—At Howell picnic last Saturday the Grangers' picnic was held. Early in the day people were to be seen, with their conveyances of all kinds containing well filled baskets, making their way to the scene of pleasure, which, after some difficulty, the JOURNAL reporter found located on the John Newsome camping grounds, northeast of Howell postoffice.

TUNE UP.—Every person, male or female, who has a voice to sing and can use it is requested to meet at the basement of the M. E. church, Wednesday evening, and join the chorus for the Fourth of July singing. The more the better.

A FINE GAME.—A large crowd witnessed the game of baseball Saturday afternoon at the Chemawa Indian training school grounds, between the club of that institution and the Mt. Angel college club.

WILL BE WELCOMED.—The Eugene Guard says: "It is probable that by the election of Judge Bean to the bench of the supreme court, Eugene will lose a good and active citizen."

CAMPMEETING VISITORS.—A large number of carriages, cabs, buggies and other modes of conveyance were utilized yesterday in conveying quite a percentage of Salem's population to the camping meeting in progress at Turner.

OH, SAVE US!—Carl Jensen, a native of Ireland, is a good one. The Statesman has evidently not found out that the Danes were driven out of Ireland by Brian Boru several hundred years ago.

EXPLOSION PARTY.—Prof. A. B. Keer, the geological engineer, with a corps of assistants, passed north this morning on the way to Alaska on a summer's tour of exploration around Mount St. Elias.

GRAND LODGE MEETING.

The Good Templars of Oregon Meet in This City To-morrow in Grand Lodge—Grand Supper. The grand lodge delegates from the several subordinate lodges of Good Templars throughout the state will meet at the hall of the Capital lodge, this city, to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock and will be in session probably three days.

At Saturday night's meeting, Capital lodge appointed Chief Templar A. T. Yeaton, Wm. Driver, Mrs. John Knight and Mrs. C. W. Scriber a committee of reception, to meet and receive the delegates as they arrive and make them feel at home as much as possible.

The delegates to represent Capital lodge in the grand lodge are A. T. Yeaton, Mrs. D. A. Miller and Mrs. Frank Cooper. Capital lodge has also appointed a committee consisting of Frank Davey, E. C. Minton, Fred Staiger, Miss Bunn, Miss Schott and Miss Litchfield, whose duty it is to arrange a supper of ice cream, cake and other delicacies for Thursday evening to follow a musical and literary program, which has been prepared by the standing lodge committee on such exercises.

It is quite an item for Salem to have such a respectable gathering here from all parts of the state and they should receive genuine hospitality. The work in which they are engaged is a meritorious one and every encouragement and appreciation cheers them on.

There is talk of another lodge being started in this city, a petition having been already gotten up with eighteen names asking for means to organize. GRIEVOUS OMISSION.—By one of those oversights which the hurry and bustle of a daily newspaper office make possible, the names of Miss Annie Graham and Miss Ella Briggs did not appear in the list of public school graduates in Saturday's JOURNAL.

INCIDENT BLAZE.—The cadvas awaiting shading the door and windows of Reinman's grocery store on State street was discovered on fire yesterday forenoon about 11 o'clock and was quickly extinguished by some of the Capital hose boys who were in the vicinity and attached the hose to the hydrant.

WEIGHT MAKES WAITERS.—The overland from the south this morning was an hour and a half late. It was learned that Col. Crocker and a half dozen other railroad magnates were on board and some fellow at the depot suggested that the weight of those gentlemen kept the train back and made waiters of those in waiting. The punster is alive, but had a narrow escape.

CAMPMEETING VISITORS.—A large number of carriages, cabs, buggies and other modes of conveyance were utilized yesterday in conveying quite a percentage of Salem's population to the camping meeting in progress at Turner. The roads are in good condition, the day was cool, and, aside from the religious influences which were of course powerful in taking them there, the drive was a pleasant one.

PIONEER ASSOCIATION.—Several of our older citizens intend to go to Portland to-morrow to attend the pioneers' association held there Tuesday. Among the speakers for the occasion are Editor Scott of the Oregonian, and Hon. Seymour W. Condon, of Eugene.

TOO TEMPTING.—"What is the good, Maria," said Mr. Squizzle, "of saying 'lead us not into temptation,' every night, when you go to J. G. Wright's store you'd better change your petition, or keep away from J. G. Wright's where the stock is enough to tempt any woman."

FINED FOR ABUSIVE LANGUAGE.

Ben Turner, a barber, was fined $15 and costs by Recorder Conn Saturday evening for using abusive language to Willis Jordan, in which he used a foul name toward the latter's mother. Jordan is not a very sweet scented society pink, but a few examples of punishment for indecent language may have salutary effect. If the law in this respect were more strenuously enforced the ears of ladies passing along the streets would not be so often greeted with the language of the broche and the low bar-room from lips scarceable to read large print.

REMEMBER YOUR FRIENDS.—If you will to post your friends about Salem, the Willamette valley or Oregon send them the WEEKLY CAPITAL JOURNAL, only $1.00 a year. It will be as good as a letter each week, and they will also be interested in our special write-up editions that appear once a month. Orders by mail or at office, next door to the postoffice.

CHILDREN'S DAY.—The Evangelical Sunday school celebrated this day yesterday. The church was handsomely decorated and the services attracted full houses both morning and evening. The singing was greatly assisted by Mr. Cadwell's excellent performance with the organ.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION.—Articles of incorporation were filed in the office of secretary of state today by the Portland Parcel Delivery Company with a capital stock of $12,000; principal office Portland; Geo. C. Sears, W. S. Stevens and J. W. Shafford incorporators.

G. A. R. MEETING.—Gen'l Jas. A. Varney, Commander of the Dept. of Oregon, G. A. R., is in the city, and will meet with the G. A. R. boys to-night. All members of the order, as also the members of the W. R. C. and Sons of Veterans are requested to attend.

SENTENCE COMMUTED.—The Governor to-day commuted the sentence of Hazel Nelson, sentenced from Multnomah county, Jan. 30, 1890, for two years for robbery. The Governor acted upon the recommendation of the physician, on account of her delicate health.

Do you want a satine dress cheap? Buy it at Holmerson's satine sale this week. COUNTERFEIT MONEY.—It is said that there are quite a number of counterfeit dollars being put in circulation in some localities in the state. Parties receiving this kind of coin would do well to "look a little out" as they may be imposed upon.

DISMISSED.—By agreement of parties the case against Geo. Townsend for assault and battery on John Minger was this morning dismissed, each party paying his own attorney and the county paying the costs. Thus endeth the great cow-catching case.

UNSURPASSED.—Such a crowd as will be in Salem on the Fourth, and such a complete and pleasurable celebration were never witnessed in the Willamette valley. Prepare to come and enjoy it.

NEW CARS, BETTER TIME.

The Salem street railway company received three new cars to-day, two closed and one open car, of the same general make as those now in use, which enables the company to give a much better service than heretofore. They were manufactured in St. Louis by Brownell, Wight & Co., and have been a good while on the road. The company commenced this morning starting their first cars out at 6 o'clock to enable mechanics and other workmen to get from one end of the city to the other in time for work at 7 o'clock. There is no better service on the coast than the people of Salem will have as soon as the new cars are set up and placed on the track.

LARGE CATTLE TRAIN.—A heavy train of fat stock passed through going north last night and two more followed to-day, all from Southern California, on their way to Portland and the Sound.

NEW RESIDENCE.—John McKinney, of Turner, is about to have built a handsome new residence, to cost some $2,500, and A. Olinger, of this city, has the contract to do the work.

SPECIAL SATINE SALE THIS WEEK AT Holmerson's. 6-16-91. MARRIED. TAGGART-CUTLER.—At the altar of the M. E. church, Sunday, June 15th, at 7 o'clock p. m., Jas. Taggart, of Tillamook, and Miss Jessie Cutler, of this city, Rev. Wm. Rollins officiating.

STEWART-BUTLER.—Sunday, June 15th, at 4 o'clock p. m., at the residence of Mrs. Rono, in this city, F. D. Stewart, of Salem, and Miss Mary Butler, of Astoria, Rev. Wm. Rollins officiating.

HALES-PRICE.—At the residence of the bride's parents on Piety hill, this city, Monday, June 16, 1890, Miss Nellie Price, of Salem, and Mr. Newton A. Hales, of Umatilla county, Rev. Rollins officiating.

After a sumptuous wedding lunch the young couple took the 1 o'clock train north. They will visit for a short time with the bride's sister at Walla Walla and then settle down to the realities of life on the farm, where they will have earnest wishes for success and happiness.
