SOME COMING EVENTS. July 4. Grandest celebration in Oregon at Salem.

GILBERT & PATTERSON, Dealers in Groceries, Crockery, Glassware, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Brushes, Windowglass, Etc.

BASEBALL INTERESTS.—The exhilarating game of baseball has been somewhat neglected in Salem of late years, but the growing interest in it throughout the country has again taken hold here and the prospect now is for an exciting season of sport in that line.

RIGHT AND WRONG WAYS.—The taking of the census is an important work. It is a work in which the pride of every locality is touched, and people generally are very anxious and watchful about it.

STEALING A RABBIT.—Geo. W. Cook, a rather notorious hard case, a half-breed Indian, was arrested last evening by Policeman Minto and placed in jail, on complaint of Louis Chantille, an Indian also.

A WILD RIDE.—Driver Price and Assistant Foreman Welch, of the Capitals, had a mighty risky ride to last night's fire, but they held to their places with the true grit necessary for such positions.

A SMALL BLAZE.—At 11:20 last night the shrill tone of the fire bell called out the fire department to put out a small fire in a shed used for a barn by A. Bradshaw on the corner of Summer and Chemeketa streets.

GOOD NEWS.—The telegraphic columns of the Oregonian contains the information from Fairhaven, Wash., that a big railroad deal has taken place whereby the Fairhaven & Southern railroad with all its rights and franchises, including the northern division which connects with the Canadian Pacific at New Westminster, has been transferred to the Great Northern Railway company.

DIED ON THE ROAD.—Geo. G. Bingham, of this city, district attorney elect, was awakened at 2 o'clock this morning by a noise coming from McMinville, who brought the sad intelligence that Mr. B's father, W. H. Bingham, had died the previous evening on the road between his home at McMinville and the coast, to which he was going for a summer visit.

CHANGE OF MANAGEMENT.—With this week's issue the Oregon City Enterprise changes hands, E. M. Rands retiring and Chas. Meserve taking the head of the column as publisher and proprietor, with Keefer H. Gabbert a assistant editor.

THREATENED TO SHOOT.—Nick Miller, who resides near Woodburn, was arrested yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Wrightman, on a warrant from Justice Goodell's court.

INCORPORATIONS.—In the secretary of state's office to-day articles of incorporation were filed by the Port Angeles Improvement company, with J. C. Boyd, Ivan C. Terry, Joseph Waddell and W. H. Countiss, incorporators; object, building and equipping street railway and telephone lines, and an electric light plant in Port Angeles, Wash., and other places in Oregon and Washington; capital stock, $50,000; principal office, Portland.

MORE CARE NEEDED.—Young America is beginning to ventilate patriotic enthusiasm through the medium of the Chinese bomb and skyrocket, and if a little more care is not exercised in firing them off there is likely to be some damage done.

FINE PROGRAM.—At the band concert in Willson avenue, announced in yesterday's JOURNAL, which will take place this evening, the following program will be rendered: March, R. W. D.—W. H. Thomas; overture, Impromptu—Dally; scherzo, M-Ginty's Fairy Love—Thorn; waltz—Petty; melody, I Owe $10—Parazzi; overture, Euclyptus—Dally; march, Naut—Thomas; Electric lights have been placed in the band stand and there will be no trouble hereafter to the players in keeping track of their notes.

CHANGES.—All the way stations on the Southern Pacific will soon be provided with mail catchers, and the through train will only stop at county seats and crossings after July 1st. The only stops between here and Portland will be Woodburn and Oregon City.

ON PLEASANT BUSINESS.—Yesterday evening County Clerk Babcock issued a marriage license to Dr. C. M. Cartwright, of this city, and Miss Florence Byrne, recently of California. The doctor met his intended bride at the overland train this morning and accompanied her to Portland, where they will be married to-morrow noon by Chief Justice Thayer, of the supreme court.

BOUQUET OF ARTISTS.—This evening at 8 o'clock Prof. Parvin will in a fine delegation of singers in the basement of the M. E. church for a rehearsal for the Fourth. Any other who can sing are invited and your presence is greatly desired at the church this evening.

WOOLEN MILL STORE.—A new store is to be opened up in the city for the sale of the products of the Thomas-Kay woolen mill. Ready made suits, suits made to order, blankets, flannels and gents' furnishing goods will be handled.

NEW REPORT SCHOOL.—The architects, Robert & McNally, have completed the plans and specifications of the State Reform school with a full front view of the building as it will look when completed. The picture is on exhibition at Dearborn's bookstore for the benefit of the boys who may think of making it their home.

LOOKS LIKE BUSINESS.—A large raft of the piling for the big bridge arrived down the river a little after one o'clock this afternoon.

ON HAND AS USUAL.—A large crowd of Salem people, ladies and gentlemen, boarded the afternoon train and are present at the exercises of the Chemawa Indian school, four miles north.

NOT COMPLETE.—The program for the Fourth of July celebration, as published, is not complete and will have to be corrected by the committees before it can be announced with authority.

REDUCED RATES.—The Southern Pacific will furnish tickets to Portland to-morrow and next day, good for return Monday, at reduced rates for the purpose of inducing persons to attend the first championship game of baseball between the Tacoma and Portland Sunday afternoon.

FOR LIFE.—Clinton Pennington, whose sentence was recently commuted by Governor Penney from hanging to imprisonment for life, was brought to his future home, the penitentiary, yesterday.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Joe Aiken went to Portland this afternoon.

Mr. Hugh Harrison, of Jefferson, was a visitor in Salem over night.

Guy Hirsch was a passenger for Portland on the morning train with business in his weather eye.
