To Ask Again, but His Frank Letter

Got It for Him. A few months ago one of the unfortunate famates in the San Francisco Almshouse in the newspapers with the belief that Joy's a big line of new suits and pants without money, how to get it was the question. Finally he wrote to the Edwin W. Joy Co. appealing to their generosity, and it was not unheeded, the coveted preparation being sent by the next parcel delivery. Its effect is best told in a subsequent letter, from which we quote the following:—

which we quote the following:

"I suppose you know me by this writing, and my circumstances and condition. Although improving, I ask of your generosity for abother bottle of your Joy's Vegetable Sarasparille. Its laxative action is perfection itself. It has so thoroughly regulated my system that my catarrh, rheumatism, construction, and headsches are all better. I feel achamed to ask in this way, but what shall I do? I thought I might not need any more, but I am now so anxious to keep it up, but you see how it is.
