

"OUR PATRONS"

—Say We Sell—

CLOTHING CHEAPER

than any other Dealer in the city. Perhaps we do. We sell as cheap as any body can. All we ask is a fair margin on the goods. We buy for cash, and our expenses are light, consequently we can Sell at a Low Figure.

We have our stock now almost complete, although goods are arriving almost daily. Come in and inspect Our Goods and Prices.

Everything Marked in Plain Figures at

W. H. CONRAD,

"The One Price Clothier."

257 Commercial Street.

YES, THEY ALL TALK!

Neglectfully of the patent fact that it's money that talks loudest.

—IS THAT SO?—

That is a fact. Money talks loudest and will buy more and better

BOOTS and SHOES

—AT—

James Denham & Co.'s

—Than any other place in the city. Come and see—

HIGHEST QUALITY, LOWEST PRICES.

118 State street, opposite terminus of electric car line. Repairing done. Shoes to measure.

JAS. AITKEN.

Groceries and Produce.

—The Best Canned Goods.—

Choicest Fruits and Vegetables in Season. None but First-class Goods Handled. Every article guaranteed as represented. If you would be well served patronize

The Grange Store.

26 State Street, Salem, Oregon.

W. M. SARGENT,

—Dealer in—

Wall Paper, Mouldings,

Pictures Frames, Window Shades, Baby Cots, Express Wagons, Notions and Toys of all kinds.

A Fine Line of Etchings and Engraving, Oil Paintings and Chromos.

Full Lot of Fire Works. 50-1m

A. B. BUREN.

—Dealer in—

Furniture and Carpets,

298 Commercial Street,

Salem, Oregon.

J. F. JACOBSON,

—Dealer in—

Lumber, Lath and Shingles, at the old Dorrance Yard, Salem.

Special attention given to furnish Kiln dried and Superior

Finishing Lumber.

TAILORING

E. SCHOTTLE, 272 Commercial street, merchant tailor. The fine suits to order at the lowest prices. A perfect fit guaranteed. Repairing and cleaning done. The only first-class tailoring establishment in the city.

The Oregon Land Co.,

—with its—

Home Office at Salem, Oregon.

(In the State Insurance Building) and branch offices in Portland, Astoria and Albany.

Has for sale a large list of Grain, Stock and Fruit Farms; also

City and Suburban Property.

The Oregon Land Co. was especially organized for the purpose of buying and subdividing large tracts of land, and has during the past two years bought and subdivided over 3,200 acres into Five to Twenty Acre Parcels.

The success of this undertaking is shown in the fact that out of 280 tracts placed on the market, 225 have been sold. We claim that ten acres of choice land in Fruit,

Will Yield a Larger Income than 100 acres of wheat in the Mississippi Valley. We also make valuable improvements in the way of roads, clearing the land, fences, etc. We can sell a small tract of land for the same price per acre as you would have to pay for a large farm.

Send for Pamphlet and Price List.

S. B. CATTERLIN. W. T. RIGDON. W. E. CATTERLIN.

CATTERLIN, RIGDON & CO.,

REAL ESTATE

We now have for sale on easy terms the most desirable Farms and City property.

The celebrated Ankeny tract, comprising over 4,000 acres of the finest grain, fruit and pasture land in the Willamette valley has been surveyed into small tracts to suit purchasers.

You need not buy of us. We will send you direct to the owner of any land we have for sale, and you can make your own bargain.

J. E. BAKER & SONS,

Manufacturers of Cigars,

State Street, Salem.

GENERAL STOCK OF DOMESTIC AND IMPORTED CIGARS.

We make a specialty of Tobacco Store Fixtures. When in the city give us a call.

Only Abstract Books

IN MARION COUNTY. Work promptly and reliably executed by the SALEM ABSTRACT & LAND CO., FRANK W. WATERS, Manager

First National Bank

SALEM OREGON

WM. N. LADUE, President. DR. J. REYNOLDS, Vice President. JOHN MOIR, Cashier.

GENERAL BANKING.

Exchange on Portland, San Francisco, New York, London and Hong Kong bought and sold. State, County and City warrants bought. Farmers are cordially invited to deposit and transact business with us. Liberal advances made on wheat, wool, hops and other property at reasonable rates. Insurance on such security can be obtained at the bank in most reliable companies.

PRINTING.

ONE OF THE LARGEST ESTABLISHMENTS in the State. Lower rates than Portland. Largest stock of legal blanks in the State, and biggest discount. Read for price list of job printing, and catalogue of legal blanks. E. M. WATTS, Steam Printer Salem, Oregon.

PETZEL & BERNARDI,

in basement, under Weiner & Bowers.

Plumbing & Fitting

of all kinds. Low prices and GOOD WORK. bids on contracts of all kinds made on short notice. 427-1m

$12,680

Will buy one of the best half-section farms in Marion county, situated near Turner, Oregon. Terms easy.

H. C. & J. H. PORTER,

Real estate agents, Astoria, Or. 44-1m

THE CAPITAL JOURNAL.

PUBLISHED DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

Capital Journal Publishing Company.

Office, Commercial Street, in P. O. Building. Entered at the postoffice at Salem, Or., as second-class matter.

HOFFER BROTHERS, - - - Editors.

SALEM THE SUCCESSFUL.

Salem knows how to celebrate! Everybody who was here July Fourth says so.

All other towns in the valley may as well prepare to acknowledge the corn.

Salem is a city that is just learning her strength and powers. She is not boastfully saying "we are the people," but Salem is saying: "We are a city. We know how to conduct a celebration. We are not any longer dependent upon whether other towns shall feel like assisting at our demonstrations. We can carry them out successfully. If other smaller towns wish to celebrate, good. We shall go them one better on that or anything else, because Salem is big enough to stand on her own bottom."

Salem should emulate the spirit of vim, push and enterprise that has characterized this celebration in all things. Then she will become a great, big, lovely metropolis, blooming like a rose in the midst of her rich rural surroundings. Our city has entered upon a career of public enterprise that will make her the Glorie de Paris among the beautiful bouquet of Willamette valley municipal roses.

A number of small celebrations were held in the Willamette valley. A number of towns thought Salem ought not to celebrate. This feeling has all passed away since it has been shown what Salem can do when she sets out to do. The phenomenal success of this great celebration places Salem in a new light towards other towns in the valley—in the light of a city set on a hill by its own enterprise and that fact cannot be hid. No comparisons will hereafter be made between Salem and other towns in the valley. None are necessary. Salem can celebrate.

The celebration cost our citizens $2000 in cash. Some paid who never expected to get back a cent. Others made back all they subscribed and some a good deal more. One confectioneer took in $603. There is not anyone who regrets his contribution or labor for this celebration. Some of Salem's glorious working women were at the front, too, and helped make it a grand success.

Salem is not only proud of the great success of her celebration in a financial sense. The day was also spent in an orderly manner and was devoid of nearly every offensive feature, such as drunkenness and fighting. That such crowds can gather, enjoy amusements and exciting contests and depart in peace is the highest eulogy upon the American people. It is the real apotheosis of American freedom and liberty! Salem is a city of enterprise. She is also a city of law and order.

WAS IT THE OLD MAIDS?

A lady reader of the EVENING JOURNAL wants to know if our editorial, "Worship the Late Roses," was not really a tribute to the old maids? We never explain. It had not occurred to us, until so delicately suggested, that it could be taken in that sense. We can now see that our article on the later roses could be construed in a figurative manner as a tribute to the charms and virtues of young women who are passed by in the hasty manner in which matrimonial selections are usually made, but continue to please society in general by their many graces.

The Greeks had a beautiful fable of the roses and concerning their origin. Flora, the goddess of flowers, losing a favorite nymph, entreated the gods to change the fairy into a flower sweeter and prettier than any other. Her wish was gratified, and each of the gods bestowed upon the newly created rose some special charm, so that she could reign as queen over all other flowers.

We do not retract a word we said in admiration of the late roses. A little deeper inquiry into our article may reveal that we also hinted at the charms of those married ladies who retain their sweet dispositions long after the honeymoon.

NOT RIDING DEAD HORSES.

Mr. James G. Clark writes us from Grant's Pass, July 6:

"Dear Brothers: Two copies of your paper came to me this morning, for which I salute you. And I congratulate you on the good strong English you employ in the statement of views that are bound to triumph. Glad you are not riding a dead horse, but a live one that will surely win on the home stretch. I discover fire and vim in your editorials. Always your friend, etc."

PUBLIC SALE of Shorthorn cattle at Whiteaker, Oregon, on July 10th, next, at 2 o'clock p. m. Sale by: Rose, a shorthorn cow of the best milk strain; color, red. One yearling heifer, Red Heavily, dark Rose, sired by a Pink Bull, one bull calf, Regulus, No. 4 Farm Register, dark Rose, sired by a registered bull. Terms of sale—Twenty months credit with approved security at 8 per cent. interest. 42-111m

THE DOCTRINE OF SUBMISSION.

Mr. E. B. DuBois, a full-blood African, was one of the six members of the Harvard graduating class who were permitted to deliver orations at commencement. We make the following extracts from his noble effort:

"Through the glamour of history, the rise of a nation has ever been typified by the strong man crushing out an effete civilization; that brutality buried aught else beside Rome when it descended golden-haired and drunk from the blue north has scarcely entered human imagination. The Teuton met civilization and crushed it—the negro met civilization and was crushed by it. The one was the hero the world has ever worshipped, who gained unthought of triumphs and made unthought of mistakes; the other was the personification of dogged patience bending to the inevitable, and waiting. In the history of this people we seek in vain the elements of Teutonic deification of self and Roman brute force, but we do find an idea of submission, apart from cowardice, laziness or stupidity, such as the world never knew before. This is the race which, by its very presence, must play a part in the world of to-morrow; and this is the race whose rise, I contend, has practically illustrated an idea which is at once the check and complement of the Teutonic strong man. It is the doctrine of the submissive man.

"The Teuton stands to-day as the champion of the idea of personal assertion; the negro as the peculiar embodiment of the idea of personal submission; either alone tends to an abnormal development; toward despotism on the one hand which the world has just cause to fear and yet covertly admires, or toward slavery on the other which the world despises and which yet is not wholly despicable. No matter how great and striking the Teutonic type of impetuous manhood may be, it must receive the cool, purposeful 'Ich Dien' of the African for its round and full development. In the rise, then, of negro people and development of this idea, your whose nation was founded on the loftiest ideals, and who many times forgot those ideals with a strange forgetfulness, have more than a sentimental interest, more than a sentimental duty. You owe a debt to humanity for this Ethiopia of the outstretched arm, who has made her beauty, patience, and her grandeur, law."

WILL SULLIVAN MEET JACKSON?

For various reasons a greater than common interest attaches to the question we propound. It is an interest that contaminates the minds of persons even who despise and deplore prize-fighting generally. THE JOURNAL is interested only in the ethnological features of the case. It will be recalled by all who have read the public prints that the great Bostonian has undergone several changes of opinion towards his colored antagonist. At first the great Irish-American biter declined to entertain the idea of a match with Jackson, because the latter had no record as a pugilist. To accommodate his professional objections in this respect the man of color went to work to get a record. He won his way slowly to the top of the ladder, fighting round by round until only the renowned John L. stands between him and the world-championship—the topmost round of pugilistic fame.

Mr. Sullivan's next objection was to Peter Jackson, (not for a want of record to be sure), but that he was a man of color. Getting a record, Mr. Jackson met this objection, and Mr. Sullivan must now meet the man of color. The meeting can now only be obviated by some technicality and there is evidently a disposition on the part of Mr. Sullivan's managers to take advantage of this and not allow a meeting to take place if it can be avoided. The San Francisco papers repudiate the pretense that that city is unfriendly to the prize-fighting fraternity.

There seems not the remotest possibility that Jackson can stand before Sullivan for five rounds, on the other hand there is just a fraction of a possibility that the Boston giant shall meet his doom at the hands of a black man. Sullivan and his backers are evidently hedging against taking this chance: It cannot be said that Sullivan is afraid of Jackson, and it cannot be said that Jackson has ever shown a particle of fear at standing before Sullivan. There is a vein of moral courage about the colored pugilist that invests his fate with a halo of interest.

They do have some real fun in the grave senate once in a while. The other day there was a resolution offered by Call, directing the secretary of the senate to prepare a table showing the number of bills introduced by each senator and the number of them passed. It was taken up, and Mr. Edmunds moved to lay the resolution on the table, remarking (ironically) that as the test of a senator's value was the number of bills introduced by him, and as he found that under that test he (Mr. Edmunds) was of not much value, he wished to have the resolution laid on the table.

CAPITAL JOURNAL JOTS.

It augurs ill to be bored with religion.

"In the rose of the year", is a new song.

Salem is the Mecca of all true Oregonians.

What a plum this summer is to the fruit man!

Why remain in a dead town when Salem is on earth.

Stick to your property till your property sticks to you.

A cool night is the refreshing afterthought of a hot day.

It is pretty hard to use brains when you haven't got 'em.

A number of additions to the Congregational church at Salem.

The man who dies summarily is numerous in hot kind of weather.

Some would carve their fortunes as a blind man prunes a rotten tree.

Albany is mourning for a big hotel. Don't get it too big, gentlemen.

The only fresh telegraphic news of the same day is found in the JOURNAL.

Be it ever so warm, it's ne'er too warm to live thro', sings the easterner.

False humor is based on the Darwinian theory. It springs from a monkey.

Don't lay everything on the weather. Sometimes the cat is to blame.

When the red-top and the clover grow more honey than the bee can pilfer it's a good season.

A neighbor suggests that on hot nights it's a wonder we don't all "awake dead" with the heat.

If you would learn the most important events in the world the same day read the JOURNAL.

Stories that would make the cold shivers go down your back would be very agreeable for hot weather.

If men would bathe lavishly and drink no whiskey it would change our national politics not a little bit.

If you like the JOURNAL as an occasional new subscriber or corral a fact of news for its columns. Ads. not refused.

The red-headed boy is as popular as ever. A Philadelphia firm advertises for boys and only red-headed ones need apply.

There is no show for wind in this country, except the faint breezes one strikes in the booming newspapers occasionally.

Property right in Salem have grown in values to almost remarkable prices. In the country about Salem values are still very reasonable.

The Oregon Vindicator of East Portland has been changed into a 5 column quarto publication, removed to a new office, and has opened a branch office.

In spite of the drawbacks and overstatements made by certain parties, this country has real resources that will never attach to the Puget Sound region.

Before you believe everything you hear nowadays first learn if the reporter has taken his annual taste at angling. Blessed is the fisherman who can tell a story without arousing suspicion.

"The Wimodaughais" is the name of a new organization for the education of the fair sex in political science, art, literature and physical culture. The divination of that word would puzzle an adept philologist. Women, daughters and sisters try your hand.

DO YOU WANT A JOB?

If you are really in earnest, do not wait for some fancy employment. Do not wait for a clerkship, or some easy job. A "soft snap" will never make a man or woman of you.

If you are a young man, begin at shoveling, sawing wood, or as a farm hand. If you are a young woman, get employment in a kitchen, as waiter, or in a factory. If you are fit for higher duties these tasks will not keep you down. Garfield began as mule driver on a canal. The rising vocalist of Chicago began as a dish-washer a few years ago.

Work will give you three things: A physical constitution; durable qualities of character; a knowledge of the value of money. These are the trinity of success; without any one of them your life will be materially an utmost failure.

Take Hood's Sarsaparilla 100 Doses One Dollar

The Chief Reason for the great success of Hood's Sarsaparilla is found in the article itself. It is worth that wine, and the fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla actually accomplishes what is claimed for it, is what has given it to this medicine a popularity and sale greater than that of any other sarsaparilla. It builds up the Whole System. It Wins for her before the public. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures Scrofula, Salt Rheum and all Humors, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Biliousness, overcomes That Nervousness, creates an Appetite, strengthens the Blood, builds up the Whole System. It is sold by all druggists. Prepared by C. L. Hood, Lowell, Mass.

REED'S OPERA HOUSE,

One week and Saturday Matinee, commencing Monday July 7th.

CHICAGO COMEDY CO.,

The strongest company on the road, in a repertoire of the latest Eastern successes. On next Monday evening, July 7th, will be presented the Great English Melodrama in Five acts, entitled

"The Black Flag."

Change of Play nightly. Popular prices,

20c, 30c, and 50c.

Reserved seats without extra charge, now on sale at F. S. Dearborn's Book Store.

Pioneer Bakery AMOS STRONG,

271 Commercial Street.

French and German Wheat and Rye Breads in City Styles.

Vienna Rolls.

SPECIALTY OF FANCY CAKES.

Pastry and Confectionery

Baking in Full Stock.

My new bread and cake bakers are first-class artists in their line, and I aim to have Everything as Fine as the Finest.

Capital City Restaurant.

Jas. Batchelor, Prop'r.

Warm Meals at All Hours of the Day

None but white labor employed in this establishment.

A good substantial meal cooked in first-class style.

Twenty-five cents per meal.

RED FRONT.

Court street, between Post Office and Mint's Livery.

COOK HOTEL

Center and High Street.

G. W. ANDERSON, PROP.

Successor to W. H. COOK.

The Cook Hotel is opposite court house convenient to business part of city and street car line running past the door. Rates $1.00 to $3.00 a day, according to special terms to boarders and families.

DUGAN BROS.,

"The Plumbers,"

266 Commercial St.

—Dealers in—

Steam and Plumber's Goods,

California Firestone Sewer and Fire Clay Chimney Pipe, etc.

JAPANESE BAZAAR.

204 Commercial St., opposite Postoffice, Salem, Oregon.

—Direct Importers of—

Japanese and Chinese Curiosities and Novelties