THE JEFFERSON CASE.—An announced in the JOURNAL's telegraphic columns yesterday, the preliminary examination of L. Rayburn, section foreman, occurred before Justice Penton Bagley at Jefferson in the afternoon.

COAL IN DOUGLAS COUNTY.—Another coal mine has been discovered in this county, says the Roseburg Phisician, and soon if this sort of a thing keeps up the county will be found to be one vast bed of coal.

THE COAST AND MOUNTAINS.—Almost daily parties are made up for a trip to the mountains or to the sea. Now is the season when there are boys in the harvest fields and business men and their clerks get from a week to a couple of months vacation.

WILL RIDE.—Ben Taylor, one of the city's mail carriers, received this morning a new safety bicycle just from his shops, and will hereafter make his rounds on a wheel instead of tramping.

A SOCIAL RIVALRY.—A social addition from Salem society people is one Miss E. Callan, who came here a few months ago from New York City and has been much sought after by our best people.

PLEASANT PICNIC NEAR LINCOLN.

Offset to the Afternoon Tea—Pleasant Reception—Bachelor Soliloquies, Etc.

A BACHELOR'S SONG. It is not often the JOURNAL breaks over the line and inserts poetry in its columns, but the following, written by a young lady and sent as a valentine last February to a certain old bachelor now living in Salem, then living in the mountains, so nearly strikes the old bachelors' soliloquy that it will do for a heading for the social column:

PLEASANT PARTY. Thursday evening Miss Ella Arbergast, at her home on High street, entertained a large party of her young friends in honor of Miss Fay, Ethel and Lena Thompson, friends and guests of hers from Portland. The company enjoyed the evening most completely, every feature being peculiarly well adapted for engendering pleasure.

THE STANDING LEGEND. Salem society men have been suppressing their outraged feelings not a little late, because their presence has been dispensed with as so many large, fashionable swell gatherings, conducted by the ladies only and defied as afternoon teas.

THE SEVERING EDITOR IN TOWN. Fashion, those fickle, fantastic folk, whose will thou end in thy head never? Only this week while kneeling around Salem residing the new signs and watching the bustling electric cars and wondering when the motor will start, the scribble of the Appeal was worthily shocked.

SKATE CARDS.—F. O. Baker is arranging score cards for the baseball games and taking ads to put on them. All desiring same, please hand copy to Mr. Baker.

SEE THE BEST. When you are in Salem you do not want to put up with anything but the best. You want to visit the finest stores and see the biggest bargains. To do that in clothing, Johnson, Haskilly & Co's., is the place to visit.

apparent charm for old and young, male and female. While she has proven especially attractive to Salem young men, she is equally popular with all the young society ladies. No jealousy has arisen between this latest popular addition to our Salem society circles and the native fair ones, not a few of the most gallant beaux having taken their sweet ones to different parts of the city Sunday afternoons and to entertainments in company with this later attraction, and only the most agreeable results have followed.

PERSONAL. Miss Rose G. Scheeland, who has been with Mrs. M. E. Wilson as trimmer in the millinery department the past three years, took the afternoon train for her home in Portland, to remain until the winter trade opens.

PERSONAL. Mr. Fred Wilson, of The Dalles, who has been visiting with Miss Edna Moody the past few days, took this afternoon's train for home.

GEN. BAKER'S SORROW. Tuesday night the Women's Relief Corps of Sedgwick G. A. R. Post and a few of their gentleman friends gave Surveyor General Ryans a surprise at his residence on Commercial street, the event being held in the General's dining room.

BEAUTIFUL PLACE.—Spirity, the popular artist, is now nicely housed in her delightful suite of large rooms in Bush's new brick block, corner of Court and Commercial, where she is fully prepared to make customers comfortable and has all the equipment to make pictures of all styles and thoroughly satisfactory.

THE SEVERING EDITOR IN TOWN. Fashion, those fickle, fantastic folk, whose will thou end in thy head never? Only this week while kneeling around Salem residing the new signs and watching the bustling electric cars and wondering when the motor will start, the scribble of the Appeal was worthily shocked.

darred brazen, so to speak. We know that some people can't stand the sight of undressed statuary without getting red in the face, but there is a vast difference between the live and the dead figure. To the point. As we sauntered along craning our necks and wondering how Salem managed to get along so well, to be so far from Silverton and its railroad prospects, we beheld a young man coming toward us with a sweet looking girl hanging onto his arm. She was a pretty girl, but Oh! my, how she was dressed.

PERSONAL. Mr. L. Greenbaum, of the Capitol Adventure Co. force, will start Monday for a visit of a few weeks in San Francisco. He goes to Yaguina first and by steamer from there.

PERSONAL. Mrs. Grant, of Oakland, California, who has been visiting some days with Mrs. Gov. Moody, went to Portland this afternoon to visit with her son, Mr. Geo. Grant.

PERSONAL. Mr. W. J. D'Arcy, clerk in the Oregon state land department, took the afternoon train for a Sunday visit in Portland.

PERSONAL. John Holman came down from Albany today for a home visit over Sunday.

PERSONAL. Mr. H. B. Holmes, of Portland, is in the city for a Sunday visit with his family.

A RICH REGION.—A brace of JOURNAL reporters took a spin yesterday afternoon out over the Garden Road and through Englewood. No section is making the elegant and substantial progress that this is, but old nature is fairly outdoing herself. Thousands of dollars worth of vegetables and small fruits pour into our city weekly from this section. It is a marvelous treat to go out there and take in fully the fruit growing capacity. Its soil was long ago chosen by the gardeners as the choicest of all. It is doubtful if on all the Salem prairie there is such a dark fine growing soil as is found on the Garden road. Nursery men declare that there is no soil in the state that will produce the growth on young fruit trees and vines that this will, the hundreds of thousands of young fruit trees put out here this season attesting the fact. Ten feet high and over an inch in diameter is a common growth for two years on young trees in this soil and can be seen by anyone. Hundreds of acres in this region will be put out to Bartlett pears, peaches and other fruits this fall, the land planted to the former, coming nearest to proving a gold mine for the happy investor on the Garden Road.

HELD BY THE ENEMY.—The play to be presented by the Chicago Comedy company at the opera house tonight is the celebrated piece, "Held by the Enemy." This is the best play produced by that fine company. This evening closes their week's engagement here. All their presentations have been good, though the attendance has not been what was deserved. The company have not neglected any part of the performance on account of a small audience, but have put the same efforts forth as when the house was well filled. Tonight a big house should greet them in the fine piece, which is always received with applause.

NOR YET.—Postmaster A. N. Gilbert, of the Salem post office, notified at the JOURNAL office this morning with a letter directed to Hon. Phillip Metchen, State Treasurer, and stated the office was flooded with letters directed to the newly elected state officers. It seems that it is not generally known that the state officers do not assume the duties of office until the 12th of next January. Mr. Metchen is not state treasurer, yet, for Mr. Webb will hold down that position for a half a year to come.

AFTER MANY YEARS.—Hon. T. T. Geer, of Madras, was at the early morning train to meet his mother, Mrs. Trumbull, of Oakland, California, who he had not seen in twenty-five years, but he had no difficulty in recognizing her at first glance through the window of the Pullman. She is a well preserved lady of about sixty, and will without doubt enjoy a pleasant time visiting with her son and other Oregon relatives.

STUMP PULLER.—Klute Bros. of Sigourney, Iowa, have a stump puller at work out near Yew park, with which they claim they can pull up or break off a fir tree two feet in diameter. They do this with two horses and hitch to the tree from a few feet from the ground. This is not given gospel, but is their statement.

FOUR DAYS.—Richard Row is the official name of an imbecile who lodged last night in the city jail and by order of Judge Cline this morning is to continue to board there for four days.

RELIGIOUS SERVICE. M. E. CHURCH.—Morning service 10:30, subject: "We gain the higher by the sacrifice of the lower."

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.—"Tilling the Human Heart," and "The Race for a Crown," will respectively be the morning and evening themes of Elder J. B. Johnson at the Christian church. Services 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 12 m.

EVANGELICAL.—Sunday School at 10, morning preaching at 11, "Simplicity of the Gospel" and "Lessons from the ark" are the subjects. Every body cordially invited. E. S. Bollinger, pastor.

BAPTIST CHURCH.—Services at 10:30 a. m.; subject, "Changed Experiences;" and 7:30 p. m.; subject, "Lot's Wife;" Sunday school at 11:45 a. m. Young people's meeting at 6:30 p. m.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—Services 10:30 a. m. Sunday school, 12 m. Christian Endeavor, 8:30 p. m. No evening service.

DUNKARDS.—Joseph B. Early will preach in the C. P. church of Salem at 8 o'clock p. m. to-morrow. All invited.

KIND, YET, WHAT?—The Woodburn Independent man can never say a nice thing without throwing in a little acid or coals-of-industry, or some other to spoil all the good effect. Here are his kind words about Salem's Fourth: The Fourth at Salem was a success. Of course, like every other public affair, it had its drawbacks, but generally speaking it was a grand success, the best in fact, that Salem ever had.

BASEBALL.—At four o'clock this afternoon will be called the game of baseball between the Vancouver and Salem clubs at the grounds of the latter in Highland, and an exciting contest is expected, which will be repeated to-morrow afternoon at the same place. The Vancouver club arrived last evening, and are a well built, active looking lot of fellows, who have every appearance of good players.

SLATE WRITING MEDIUM.—Mrs. Bruce, a good slate writing medium, has rooms at the residence of Mrs. Holland—the Harbor premises—and will give sittings for a few days only.

Save on Groceries. Try the Capitol Adventure Co's new grocery store for bargains in that line. Fresh groceries, provisions, oranges, bananas, candies and vegetables always on hand. Best delivery rig in the city.

CEPID.—That is the name of Farrar & Co's new private brand of tea. It is extra good. Try it.

NOTARIES.—H. H. Hewitt, of Albany and Thos. Ward, of Portland, had their commissions as notaries public renewed to-day over Gov. Penney's signature.

THE BEST LIGHT. That is what we want on any subject, and two are electric lights make a store at night just as bright as day. This is important in selecting clothes and you get the benefit of it at Conrad's.

HEADRICK.—At home in Salem, corner High and Marion streets, on the morning of Friday, July 11, 1890, to Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Headrick, 8:00.
