PROSPERITY IN THE AIR.—

Matt. Brown, of Silverton, is in the city today and in conversation with a JOURNAL reporter, expressed great enthusiasm over the present and future prospects of his immediate neighborhood and this country generally. He says there are now some fifty Chinamen at work on the proposed line from Silverton to East Portland and a hundred or more are engaged up the road from Silverton widening the narrow gauge to standard width. Also that negotiations are now in progress at Silverton for depot grounds and other conveniences and that in a short time there will be a large force of men working on and about there. Mr. Brown, who is an old time and observing settler, wisely says this country was never in as good condition as at present. While there is no boom, there is evidence of a healthy state of affairs everywhere. He has been in the habit of placing a good deal of money at interest in the past, and he says there is not one man seeking to borrow at present for the five there were a year ago; on the contrary many are numerous who come to him and ask if he cannot place a few hundred dollars for them, which they have lying idle in the banks; in other words, money is plenty and few borrowers. He also remarks that we are getting a more substantial class of citizens than at any previous time; the newcomers are people of means, intelligence and thrift, who have seen over-boomed points north and south of us and have selected the solid, steady growing valley around Salem for a future home. Mr. B. predicts that in a comparatively few years this part of the valley will be dotted with most beautiful homes of five to fifty acres, where fruit, vegetables, fine stock, dairying, poultry raising and the like will be the predominant farm industries, and handsome residences, fine barns, neat gardens and fences will be seen on every hand. The signs of the times all point to an early realization of Mr. Brown's views.

SHOULD RECEIVE ATTENTION.—

Again the narrow grade south of the covered bridge on Commercial street has been a reminder to the authorities that it is too narrow for comfort or safety without substantial railings. J. G. Fontaine was driving along there in his light buggy yesterday, having a second horse tied alongside the shafts, and when a short distance south of the bridge the loose horse being touched by the wheel, ran around in front of the driving animal, turning him to one side. Mr. Fontaine saw disaster ahead and turned the horse square around so they would go straight down the grade rather than have the buggy upset. Down they all went pellmell and Joe was thrown out on his face, but he held to the lines and the horses, being gentle, stopped at his word, thus saving himself and the rig from further injury. The side of his face was skinned and bruised, but not seriously. That grade has long been an invitation to death and several have had narrow escapes there. One of two things should be done: The grade should be widened or a heavy railing should be put up. One bill of damages would more than make the necessary fixtures.

BAD ACCIDENT.—

While coming from the 11 o'clock train this morning an express team of Lee & Renule's driven, by W. H. Lee, broke through the culvert near the Woman's college on Winter street, resulting in severe and serious injury to both horses and the breaking of the wagon tongue. The horse that went through the culvert tumbled over his head, cutting a bad hole in his forehead and receiving several other bruises. The other animal, which is only a colt, became frightened, tore around and kicked terribly and skinned himself all around the head, legs and body. This culvert has been in bad condition for a long time and it is said the authorities had notice of it, but it has been neglected. It is on the principally traveled street for teams to and from the depot, and it is unfortunate that it should have been allowed to remain so dangerous. The team, presented a pitiable appearance when taken home.

APPRECIATIVE ACCOMMODATION.—

It is not at all obligatory that our efficient postmaster and his clerical force should keep the post office open to such late hours to oblige the public. We the people appreciate such kindness and feel under many obligations.

BASE BALL BOOMING.

Latent Muscles and Cobwebbed Knowledge Being Brushed up and Brought to the Front.

One of the most enjoyable ball games of the season was played last evening after six o'clock at the grounds in Simpson's addition south of the electric street car line, between the blacksmiths and real estate men. It wasn't particularly way up on science, but for sparkling fun and general jollification it was immense, and it was a happy contrast to some of the games recently, in that there was not a particle of ill-natured kicking at the umpire, Al Nash. Every fellow took his medicine and grinned over it. The features of the game were John Knight chasing long flies over fenge plowed ground with dog fenge three feet high, and Marshal Ross covering second base; in fact "Jimmy" covered the whole field—with roars of laughter all the time. The five innings were played in an hour and a half, resulting in 17 tallies for the disciples of Vulcan and 15 for the friends of the immigrant. Fisher, of the latter, says he had as poor luck catching balls as he has had all his life in catching any of the fair sex, and Henry Downing says he couldn't run even as well as he did when a democratic candidate for the legislature. The game at Highland between the grocery and dry goods clerks resulted in a victory for the yard stick men by a score of 30 to 23 in five innings, and was full of jolly fun.

OTHER AMATEUR GAMES.

An interesting game of baseball is expected to come off at Highland next Monday afternoon between the lawn tennis clubs, the members of the Avenue club having challenged the Marion club and the same is accepted. These nines will be constituted as follows: Avenue club—Hugh McNary, Lee Steiner, J. B. Giesy, Joe Albert, Jack Westcott, John Phillips, Otto Wilson, George G. Brown and Joe Baumgarten; Marion club—J. C. Willman, Harvey S. Jordan, Frank S. Dearborn, W. J. D'Arcy, Henry Myers, Dr. J. M. Keen, Hugh H. Thompson, I. A. Manning and H. P. Boise, Jr. The Avenue club are requested to meet for practice at Wilson avenue ball grounds this evening at 8 o'clock. The employees at the state prison yesterday sent a challenge to those of the asylum for insane for a champion game, which was accepted and the contest will take place in the near future. This will be a game worth looking at. Due announcement of the time will be made in the JOURNAL.

The druggists are organized for the new contagious warfare and are anxious to meet some antagonists on the bloody sands to-morrow afternoon. They may be accommodated by the real estate men.

LATER.—The baseball game between the druggists and real estate men is arranged for to-morrow at Simpson's park. It will be called 2 o'clock.

THE PROFESSIONALS.

The games commencing Saturday afternoon between the Salems and McMinnvilles will command much interest, the latter club having defeated the former in the first two games. It is not thought they will have such easy work hereafter. Manager Jay C. Smith is now arranging a series of games with the McMinnvilles for the whole season, half to be played here and half at McMinnville. The home club is in excellent trim and is fully able to hold its own with any ball tossers in the state outside of Portland's regular professionals.

MISTAKEN JURISDICTION.—

It will be remembered that a short time ago one Alfred Aplin was accused of an assault with a deadly weapon at St. Paul, this county; that he skipped out, was traced to Winlock, Wash., and brought back by Constable Boutin, of St. Paul precinct. Well, when brought back, he was arraigned Monday before Justice Wm. Trevor and there pleaded guilty as charged in the information. The justice proceeded to exercise a power not vouchsafed to the office by law, that of final adjudication of such a charge, and assessed the accused a fine of $200 and costs. This man couldn't pay, so he was brought by Officer Boutin to the county jail, arriving here yesterday, but Sheriff Croisan refused to accept him under the commitment and had him remanded back to Justice Trevor with information that he had better withdraw his "final" judgment and bind the man over to circuit court, which alone has original jurisdiction of felonies.

THE STEEL BRIDGE.—

Work is being pushed on the big steel bridge across the Willamette at this place. There are now about 25 men at work on the timbers and piling the river. The people of Polk county are watching the work with much interest, especially woodmen, who find a sale for their wood in Salem. The usual price paid for wood at wholesale is $2.50 to $3.00 for fir and $3.50 to $4.00 for oak; and when fifty cents a load must be paid for ferryage there is but little profit left, nor can a ferry be maintained at a less charge than is now made. All this will soon be done away with by the finest steel bridge that spans the Willamette.

The dictionary will define the word "bargains," but you must come to us for demonstration. J. G. Wright, dealer in groceries, crockery and glassware.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Dr. E. W. Rositer came back this afternoon from a trip south.
 Mrs. Jay Smith was a passenger for the sea coast this morning.
 Mrs. McKey and daughter took the afternoon train for Portland.
 Capt. J. W. Crawford is off to-day for a trip to see old friends at Sheridan.
 County Supt. Yoder was a passenger north this morning, going to Astoria and Ilwaco for a few weeks.
 Rev. E. S. Bollinger's family are camping in the Waldo hills, and the elder takes it in, too, except Sundays.
 Attorney Seth R. Hammer returned this afternoon from a business trip to Eugene.
 Hon. R. P. Earhart was a passenger north this afternoon on his return from Seal Rock, where he left his family for the summer.
 Sheriff E. M. Croisan and wife were off this morning to join the Salem delegations who are breathing the fresh mountain air.
 Prof. S. A. Starr, Rev. M. C. Wire, and Mr. Prettyman of Mt. Tabor, returned last evening from their mountain trip near Nehalem.
 Mr. G. C. Hogan, tailor at Chemsaw Indian school, is now enjoying a vacation of two weeks, and during that time may be found at his store.
 Mrs. E. N. Cooke, Misses Lydia and Zaida Buss and Hal Patton, left for Newport on the Roseburg express this morning, to be gone about three weeks.
 Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Gabrielson and children, and Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Riley and baby took the morning train bound for a few weeks at Willbut springs.
 Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Waite took their departure this morning, on the local train, headed for Mehama for a several weeks' sojourn in the mountains. Mr. W. went only as far as Turner.
 Chas. Morris, who works in the jewelry store of J. H. Haas, was laid up a few days the past week and had to go home near Turner for recuperation, but is again on duty as fresh as ever.
 Mrs. James Aitken and family started to-day for the sea coast at Newport to spend a few weeks. As soon as George takes in the ocean breezes to his satisfaction and returns, Mr. Aitken will go over and rest up.
 Lebanon Express: Harry Singleton, of Salem, after spending a short time in Lebanon for the benefit of his health, returned home Monday, feeling much better. Harry thinks Lebanon air agrees with him, and he likes it better every time he comes up. He also likes the people.
 Mrs. W. S. Arnold was a passenger for Tacoma, Wash. Mrs. Arnold goes over to attend the wedding of her brother, and will remain for a month visiting with friends in the City of Destiny. Prof. A. will act the part of a bachelor during her absence.
 Miss Ella Dearborn, who has been making an extended tour and visit in the East, taking in Washington, New York, Philadelphia, Boston and other points, is expected home this evening. She spent most of her time in Washington, where she was right royally entertained by Oregon friends resident there.
 Miss Hance, dean of the Woman's college, Mrs. Hance, matron, and Miss Minnie Cunningham left yesterday for Willbut springs for a few weeks' stay. In their hurry to get off they forgot a trunk containing some articles very necessary to camp life, which was telegraphed for and will probably reach them to-day all right.

CITY COUNCIL MEETING.

New Fire Cistern -- Increased Tax Levy -- Cement Crossing -- Bridges and Other Important Business.

The city council met in regular session last evening, Mayor Williams in the chair, Councilmen Hirsch, Gray, Lafore, Strang, Edes, Bush and Hutton; Recorder Conn, Marshal Ross, Street Commissioner Graham and City Surveyor Geener present. Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.
 The committee on ways and means reported that they found the quarterly reports of city recorder and treasurer all correct.
 The same committee reported an existing city debt of $25,000 and probable expenses to January 1st 1891, $10,000, a total liability of $35,000, deducting from which a probable income of $14,233.39 from various sources, leaves $20,766.61 to be provided for. A 10 mill tax on the city's valuation, $1,584,700.00 would realize $15,847, leaving still to be carried over to next year $4,919.61. The committee therefore recommended that a tax of ten mills be levied for the current year. The committee gives as reasons for the increased levy, 1st—a decrease of $60,449 in the assessment; 2nd—large and unexpected expenses for lumber and labor on account of the flood; 3rd—an almost entire absence of road tax, which necessitates the expenditures for road and street work out of the general fund. The report was adopted.
 The same committee reported a bid from Blair & Co., New York bankers, offering $20,100 for $20,000 in 6 per cent 20-year bonds, interest payable semi-annually at N. Y., and recommended that the matter be referred to the counties of Marion and Polk. Report adopted.
 The committee on fire and water reported in favor of the building of a 20,000-gallon cistern at the corner of Commercial and Cheneketa streets. The report was adopted and the street commissioner instructed to construct the same.
 The street commissioner asked his report for the past month, and asked that some action be taken to obtain gravel for the streets.
 A petition from J. P. Veech asking for the council to declare certain privies adjoining his property as a nuisance was read and referred to the health and police committee. A motion was passed that all privies, standing where connections had been made to sewers, should be closed up.
 A proposition was read to construct a bridge on Church street known as the "Bush" bridge for $900.47 and also in constructing one on Mission street, east of Mr. Bush's place, $3.50 per lineal foot for a pile structure and $5 per lineal foot for a span.
 The committee on accounts and current expenses reported in favor of paying the following bills and the report was adopted and warrants ordered drawn for the several amounts:
 Salem Gas Light Co. $ 21 70
 E. A. Graham 72 00
 John Knight 10 00
 R. L. Swartz 54 91
 J. C. Brown 87 78
 Alonzo Gesner 49 00
 N. N. Lunde 2 50
 N. N. Lunde 2 50
 Baker & Strang 124 95
 Joe G. Wright 3 85
 Monroe Nye 15 80
 Salem Electric Light Co. 372 00
 S. F. Dearborn 2 65
 S. W. G. 22 50
 R. H. Westcott 2 50
 The committee returned the bills of J. B. Riggs and N. N. Lunde for proper endorsement and recommended that Geo. Kraunchable be paid the amount his cement sidewalk was actually damaged and the amount be taken out of the allowance of fire company being the damage and further recommended that the fire companies be required to drill in the streets.
 W. J. Herren made a verbal request that the council take some action toward fixing Water street along his premises and a motion was made that the street commissioner proceed to have the same repaired and to have the street closed up to impede travel until repaired. Motion carried.
 The street commissioner was instructed to have repaired the bridge on High street across South Mill creek; also the bridge on Church street on the same creek.
 The street commissioner was instructed to have a cement crossing laid on State street between the property of Dr. Jessup and Ed. N. Edes.
 An ordinance bill was presented providing for the construction of an alley sewer of terra cotta through blocks 86 and 87 to connect with the Mar on street sewer, and was duly passed.
 The bill of Baker & Strang for repairs at Capital engine house, $131.83, was on motion ordered paid.
 Bills against city read and referred to committee on accounts.
 On motion it was ordered that the bill for the bridge across the mill race be presented to the mill company and its collection attended to.
 The motion by which the report of the finance committee was adopted was on motion reconsidered and a motion was made that Mr. Lunde be allowed $6 per day instead of $2 as recommended by the committee and certified by the street commissioner who employed him. The vote by yeas and nays was: yeas—Hirsch, Gray, Strang and Hutton; nays—Lafore, Edes and Bush.
 Council then adjourned to the next regular meeting, the first Tuesday of August.

A QUESTION.

—The JOURNAL NEWS rustlers have heard a great many prominent residents and tax payers express the belief during the day that it would be much more in the line of justice, equity and economy to provide some kind of adequate fire protection for the residents of Polk than to construct a cistern at present at the corner of Cheneketa and Commercial streets, there being fire plugs and cisterns already in existence within convenient reach of that locality. It is argued that necessities should be attended to first and luxuries as fast as the city can afford them. The JOURNAL is not criticizing the city council but just voicing the remarks heard on the streets.

SAD DEATH.—

A terrible accident, ending fatally, occurred yesterday in East Salem, in the family of James Watt. They had a woman there washing, who left a boiler of hot water standing on the floor and while she was absent from the room a little three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Watt fell into the boiler, receiving scalding injuries, from which she died at noon to-day.

WILL REPORT.—

At this evening's meeting of Protection lodge, A. O. U. W., the delegates who attended grand lodge will report their experience and the condition of the order throughout the jurisdiction, therefore all members should be present for entertainment and instruction.

HAYESVILLE ITEMS.

A few fields of fall wheat will be cut this week, and promise a fair yield. Late sown oats is doing well. Miss M. Kelly, who was quite sick last week with quinsy, is able to be out among her friends again.
 Mr. and Mrs. F. Kelly, of East Salem, are spending a few days of recreation in Hayesville this week.
 It is understood that Miss Lee, of Macleay, has applied for the school here next term. Her application to the board of directors is accompanied by recommendations of the highest character.
 Mrs. A. Kelly harvested her fine crop of peas for the Salem big cannerly last week. It was a grand sight to behold from the highway one hundred pea-pickers hard at work.

CHILDREN OF OUR PEACEFUL VILLAGE.

Are glad to know that the dread of chickenpox has fled, and the echoes of merry laughter from the words tells us that blackberries are ripe and that they are having a jubilee. Quite a number of petty robberies have been committed in this neighborhood of late. Mrs. Byrne's residence was entered, and after the intruders got a good lunch, they took all the small change that could be found, laid down on the bed and had a good rest after their plunder.
 Lebanon Express: An editor is supposed to be a versatile creature, combining the qualities of a clergyman and his antipode, the sportsman, together with the numberless intermediate phases of human nature. He may report a sermon in a way that disarms all criticism, but let him abate so much as a jot or tittle in a dog fight and his career is ended.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE.—

Gen. J. T. Bailey, editor of the Christian Science Journal, published in Boston, will give a lecture at the State house Wednesday evening at 7-45. Everybody is welcome.
