ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING.

Newt. Tanner Dangerously if Not Fatally Wounded by His Own Revolver.

A little before noon to-day Newt. Tanner, a young man of 23 years of age, son of J. A. Tanner, a few miles southeast of the city, was the victim of an accident that may cost him his life, though there are hopes that it may not be so bad.

THRILLING EXPERIENCE.

A Good Grip and Coolness Saved the Life of Engineer Brown, of the Water Works.

Mr. A. B. Brown, the faithful and efficient engineer at the Salem water works, had a very narrow escape this forenoon from what easily might have proven a terrible if not fatal accident.

DEVILISHNESS LET LOOSE.

A Vigilance Committee Needed to Stop the Work of Fire Fiends or Maniacs.

Some sort of happy accident interfered last night to prevent another barn conflagration on Piety hill, Martin Rowley, of the hardware firm of J. C. Brown & Co., who resides in what was formerly the Mrs. Henrietta Piper property, northwest corner Center and Capital streets, has a barn standing on the alley at the west end of the lot.

QUAKER EXCURSION.

The steamer Orient left Butteville at five o'clock this morning headed for Salem.

SURPRISE PARTY.

Friday after tea, the members of the Woman's Relief Corps gave Mrs. L. M. Baker a genuine surprise by about a score coming in on her unaware.

FROM SAN FRANCISCO.

Mrs. Frank McDowell returned this morning from San Francisco, where she has been enjoying a few weeks. She reports leaving Miss Laura L. G. Allen, Misses Ellen and Julia Chamberlin enjoying themselves in the city of the Golden Gate.

MR. BROWN'S STANDING.

Mr. Brown was standing on one side with a small rope attached to either end of the piece of leather. He threw one end across, but instead of reaching the man on the other side it caught on the running cable, wound around it and quickly whirled upward and over the wheel above.

CHOICE FRUIT.

S. A. Clarke shipped one hundred boxes of peach plums to Helena, Mont., by express. They were all as large as the average peach, and were wrapped in paper. Next week he will ship a carload of plums and peaches to that market, where he gets a big price for all his fruit.

BLACK BEAUTY.

Copies of this famous book, recently adopted as a supplementary reader in the Boston public schools, can be had at Patton's book store on State street. A man bought one the other day thinking it was sensational literature, but we hope became interested nevertheless. It is called the Uncle Tom's Cabin of the horse and the almost entirely about horses is as pure and entertaining a book as has ever been written. Get one.

SHORT FRUIT CROP.

Ashland Tidings says: Ashland will ship all the peaches that are sent out from Southern Oregon this year, and the bulk of them will go to the Sound country. Owing to the late frosts there will be by no means a full crop, but in the neighborhood of 15,000 boxes of peaches will be shipped from Ashland during the season. In the lower valley, the crop is at most an entire failure.

A LAME FOOT.

C. F. George, the painter of Henry Downing's new house, had the misfortune to pierce one of his feet very badly with a nail last evening. He jumped down from a scaffold about six feet high, and landed on a nail protruding through a plank, which had been left by the carpenters. He will necessarily have a lame foot for several weeks.

SLIGHT BREAK DOWNS.

The Albany local train, which should have come down at 6:38 this morning, broke an eccentric when two miles this side of Albany and was disabled. The overload was compelled to push her in to Jefferson and idled back her, losing twenty minutes in the operation.

TOM TONGUE'S GOOD LUCK.

The Hillsboro Independent says: The two horses Kitty Ham and Hannibal, Jr., belonging to Thomas H. Tongue, of this city, have been pretty successful at the Tacoma races. Hannibal was second in two races, forcing his opponent in one race to trot in 2:28. Kitty Ham was entered in three races. She won two beating Alta, Maud Knox, Stenwinder and Syphon. The Altamonts seem to be playing in hard luck this year. Five of them have started at Portland and Tacoma in eight races and have won only one.

SPORTING NOTES.

The first game of baseball here between the Salems and McMinnvilles is in progress this afternoon and is furnishing excitement for a large crowd. The foot race between Mead and Chambers, which was set for to-morrow morning has been indefinitely postponed, on account of the refusal of the managers of the ball grounds to let races be run there. The day will be pretty well taken up with baseball, the hack and express men playing the dray and truck men in the morning and the big game, McMinnville vs. Salem, in the afternoon.

DEVILISHNESS LET LOOSE.

A Vigilance Committee Needed to Stop the Work of Fire Fiends or Maniacs.

Some sort of happy accident interfered last night to prevent another barn conflagration on Piety hill, Martin Rowley, of the hardware firm of J. C. Brown & Co., who resides in what was formerly the Mrs. Henrietta Piper property, northwest corner Center and Capital streets, has a barn standing on the alley at the west end of the lot.

QUAKER EXCURSION.

The steamer Orient left Butteville at five o'clock this morning headed for Salem. She drew up at Newberg where she obtained most of her list of passengers, numbering about 175. At one o'clock she struck on the bar near the Capital Flouring mills, and at two o'clock tied up at the Union Pacific wharf in this city.

SURPRISE PARTY.

Friday after tea, the members of the Woman's Relief Corps gave Mrs. L. M. Baker a genuine surprise by about a score coming in on her unaware. The evening was given up to social converse and discussing the work of their society. There were present: Mrs. W. H. Byars, Mrs. M. Southwick, Mrs. D. W. Matthews, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Z. M. Parvin, Mrs. S. E. Howard, Mrs. Frank Southwick, Mrs. E. L. Briggs, Mrs. A. B. Buren, Mrs. Carmery, Miss Jessie Southwick, Miss Vera Byars, Miss Leoda Buren, and Master Ralph Matthews.

FROM SAN FRANCISCO.

Mrs. Frank McDowell returned this morning from San Francisco, where she has been enjoying a few weeks. She reports leaving Miss Laura L. G. Allen, Misses Ellen and Julia Chamberlin enjoying themselves in the city of the Golden Gate. The Misses Chamberlin will probably pass through here on their way to Seattle early in August and Miss Goltra will be home the latter part of that month.

MR. BROWN'S STANDING.

Mr. Brown was standing on one side with a small rope attached to either end of the piece of leather. He threw one end across, but instead of reaching the man on the other side it caught on the running cable, wound around it and quickly whirled upward and over the wheel above. The other end caught around Mr. Brown's arm and partly threw him, then caught around his leg above the ankle and jerked him into space, head downward. All happened with the rapidity of thought, but he succeeded in grabbing with hands and arms the heavy round railing which surrounds the deep pit, and there he held himself with a death grip, until the rope broke, when he fell back and climbed to the platform.

CHOICE FRUIT.

S. A. Clarke shipped one hundred boxes of peach plums to Helena, Mont., by express. They were all as large as the average peach, and were wrapped in paper. Next week he will ship a carload of plums and peaches to that market, where he gets a big price for all his fruit. What Mr. C. is doing in the fruit line is only a sample of what hundreds of others can and will do in the near future. The Willamette valley can compete with the world in the fruit business and is bound to lead the coast in this respect.

BLACK BEAUTY.

Copies of this famous book, recently adopted as a supplementary reader in the Boston public schools, can be had at Patton's book store on State street. SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

The Society Lake is very placid, but Individual Movements Are Numerous and Interesting.

OUTRAGE PARTY.

Friday evening Misses Grace and Josie Parrish, assisted by Miss Laura Minto, entertained a number of their young friends at the residence of their father at 404 Capital street. The place was beautifully decorated with Chinese lanterns and evergreens. Dancing, conversation and games were indulged in until a late hour, when a rich repast was discussed, after which the guests took their departure, extending to their young hostesses many congratulations for so enjoyable an evening.

THE GREAT SPRING MEDICINE.

It will be gratifying to all who realize the vital necessity of purifying the blood, to know that Hood's Rheumatic Syrup can be relied upon as a blood medicine. Mr. B. C. Robinson, of Marshall, Mich., says: "I have suffered intensely from biliousness and rheumatism for over three years, and had tried so many remedies that I had lost all faith. Hearing of Hood's Rheumatic Syrup I bought a bottle and it helped me. I have now used four bottles, and it has restored my liver and kidneys to healthy action, and done more to purify my blood than anything I have ever taken. I am pleased to recommend it as a wonderful blood medicine. Very truly yours, B. C. Robinson, Marshall, Mich. Sold by Smith & Spangler."
