HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—A rather unusual incident in the line of crime in Salem is reported from Saturday night. As J. S. Krigbaum, who works at the penitentiary, and Clell Hayden, of Polk county, who was in the city over night, were going out State street about midnight, and had reached between Capital street and the railroad track, three or four men jumped in front of them from the shade, presented revolvers and commanded them to throw up hands and make no noise. This edict was obeyed and Mr. Hayden was relieved of his watch and some $20 in money, while Mr. Krigbaum's possessions constituted only a revolver, which was also appropriated. The robbers proceeded ahead and turned south on Twelfth street toward the cannery. Joseph Howard and Krigbaum's brother were a few blocks ahead of the other two, waiting for them and had turned back to meet them, and saw the robbers going south after the occurrence. When the affair was reported to them none of the four being armed, it was considered useless as well as dangerous to make pursuit. The place of the attack was dark, there being large shade trees in the locality, so the robbers could not be observed closely, but Mr. Hayden says two of them spoke with a German brogue. This, however, could easily be assumed for the occasion, and probably the perpetrators will never be discovered.

VERY BAD CONDUCT.—It is reported that very bad behavior characterized the crowd who attended at the corner of State and Commercial streets last night to hear some street preaching by some women from East Portland, who claim to be entirely different and distinct from the Salvation army, but whose methods and style of harangue would proclaim them at least second cousins to that noisy organization. This street preaching and its results are certainly a travesty on the worship of God, but at the same time no person is obliged to listen to it if there is a wish to avoid it, and those who do listen to it have no right to abuse the speakers. This is a free country and a man or woman not violating human or divine laws and not trespassing on the rights of others should be unmolested. It is a sad commentary that a street fakir can hold a crowd half the night and gull them out of their money, with no interference or disturbance, but some unprotected preacher of the gospel as he or she sees it—no matter how mistaken we may consider them—cannot occupy a street corner or box for a little while without being insulted and abused. The better sentiment of the community would enjoy seeing the disturbers brought to justice if the city officers could see it in that light.

PHYSICAL AILMENTS.—A. B. Brown, engineer at the water works, whose mishap Saturday was recorded in the JOURNAL, is resting easy and will be all right in a short time....Newton Tanner, whose accidental shooting occurred Saturday and was told of in these columns, is still in a doubtful condition, but is doing very well. Last evening he was in great pain and had high fever, the result of too many persons around him, but to-day the signs are more hopeful, though he is not by any means out of danger. The weather turning so much warmer just now will necessitate greater care with him and will involve greater difficulty in resisting inflammation....Mrs. C. A. Patrick is quite sick at her home on Capital street, Albert's addition....Geo. D. Goodhue's home on Winter and Mill streets, has been invaded by scarlet fever, all four of their children being down with it, but with good care no serious results are feared.

FILED.—Instruments were filed with the secretary of state to-day incorporating the Boston Shoe and Leather Co., of Portland, Oregon; E. A. Forbes, I. A. Macrum, W. V. Spencer, Eugene Protzman, Frank Dekum, A. P. DeLin, L. L. McArthur, B. A. Daket, J. P. Cook and C. N. Wait, incorporators; object to manufacture shoe and leather; place of business Portland.

SHERIFF'S COUNCIL.—Some twenty or more sheriffs from different counties of the state are in session this afternoon at the circuit court room, but their business is as yet secret and a full list of those present was not obtainable in time for this issue.

SABBATH DESECRATION.

A Determined Effort to Maintain the Sacredness of the Lord's Day—Christians in Council.

There has been a great deal of earnest talk going on for some time in this city in relation to what christians and other strict observers of the Sabbath consider a desecration of that day dedicated to rest and the service of the Lord. This agitation culminated in the calling of a meeting yesterday afternoon at the Presbyterian church, to which were invited ministers and members of all christian churches of the city, to compare views and devise means whereby harmful and scandal giving amusements on Sunday might be brought to an end.

The invitation met a response from nearly all denominations and an earnest, intelligent meeting was the result. Among those representatives present were noticeable: Presbyterian—W. N. Ladue, J. A. VanEaton, R. S. Wallace, Dr. Black, Mr. Ferguson; Christian—Rev. Johnson, J. H. Bridgford, Mr. Osborn; Congregational—Rev. C. L. Corwin, Rev. D. B. Gray, C. L. Parmenter; Catholic—Rev. J. S. White, W. M. Kaiser, and others; Methodist—Rev. W. Rollins, Prof. S. A. Starr, W. T. Rigdon; Episcopal—Prof. J. A. Sellwood; Evangelical—Rev. E. S. Bollinger; Baptist—Mr. Morrell. Of course, there were several others, among whom were some ladies, but the above embrace those well known to the JOURNAL reporter in attendance.

W. M. Kaiser was elected to preside and Prof. Starr to act as secretary, after which Col. Ladue stated the object of the meeting; that it was in response to the protest of the christian people of Salem, and many who are not identified with any church, who feel that the wholesale, systematic manner of providing boisterous games, excursions and band concerts for Sunday so-called amusement, is a detriment to the best interests of the city, in that it is demoralizing, degrading and dangerous to the growth of the community; a disturbance and scandal to those who would have the day spent quietly and sacredly, and a source of great annoyance and dread to the mothers whose boys are liable to be enticed thereby into dangerous company and bad habits.

After a prayer by Mr. Corwin, Mr. Rollins addressed the meeting, calling attention to the gravity of the situation, but being at a loss to divine just the best means of getting rid of the evil. He would approach the matter carefully and in a Christian spirit, endeavoring by reasoning and friendly argument to enlist the co-operation of those who are engaged in the enterprises that are benefited in a pecuniary sense by the offensive practices, and thus secure their discontinuance.

W. T. Rigdon agreed with Mr. Rollins in the main and made some additional suggestions as to the manner of procedure.

Rev. J. S. White was called upon and said he probably could not go so far in the matter of condemnation as most of the gentlemen present. He could only speak of the position and teaching of the Catholic church in such matters. That church did not expressly condemn Sunday afternoon amusement for the recreation of the body or mind, except where the surroundings or tendencies were evil; such as waste of time and neglect of religious duties; waste of means, evil company, blasphemous or obscene language, boisterous behavior, betting or other demoralizing accompaniments. In so far as these characterized the practices they were subject to extreme condemnation, and inasmuch as the tendencies of the current amusements recently provided for Sundays here are in that direction, he was in full accord with the effort to counteract and discourage them. He would not object to quiet, harmless games or amusements in the privacy of the family lawn, orchard or parlor, but the public excursion, concert or ball, ground is not conducive to that reverence or moral behavior appropriate to the holy Sabbath.

Earnest and vigorous remarks were made by Rev. Mr. Johnson, Col. Ladue, Prof. Starr, Mr. Bridgford, Dr. Black, Mr. Corwin, Mr. Bollinger, Mr. Osborn, Mr. VanEaton, Mr. Gray and others, all tending toward the same conclusion, the predominating idea being to achieve the desired result without acrimony or ill feeling; without any desire to attempt intimidation or brow beating, but to appeal to the people's better nature for a sustenance of that grand good name always enjoyed by Salem as a city of christian practice, cultured education, moral surroundings, and all that goes to make the most desirable city of happy, comfortable homes on the Pacific coast.

After a prolonged discussion, a committee consisting of W. T. Rigdon and J. A. VanEaton was appointed to present verbally to the projectors of Sunday amusements, the sentiments of the meeting, and an earnest appeal asking for the discontinuance of desecrating practices. Chairman Kaiser and Col. Ladue were also appointed a committee to procure the opera house and prepare a program for a mass meeting of all persons interested in the observance of Sunday, to be held next Sunday afternoon, for such further discussion, organization and action as may be necessary. The attendance at this meeting will not be confined to church communicants, but all who revere the commandment to "keep holy the Sabbath day," are requested to lend their presence and influence.

MORE CEMENT WALK.—The plank walk on State street in front of the Cook hotel lot has been torn up for the purpose of having laid a fine cement walk, the usual width. The property belongs to Mrs. Geo. A. Edes, who deserves great credit for her public spirit in thus pushing neat and costly improvements. Let the good work continue all along State street.

LUMBERING IN SALEM.

A Fine Opening for Another Good Mill in the Capital City.

The Salem lumbering mills are unable to supply the demand for material for the building industry that is now going on in the city. The contractor for the North Salem school building was compelled to go to Mill City for the lumber for that structure and others go to different points for their building material, some even as far as to Portland, and pay three or four dollars a thousand for freight. Lumber can be made as cheap in Salem as in Portland, or at least should be.

The building industry in Salem will be heavy for the next decade; and her mill capacity is inadequate to furnish the required amount of lumber for a business that is growing every day. There is a fine opening for a good saw mill to be started right here in Salem. Logs can be rafted and towed to Salem from both the coast range and the cascade mountains at a small cost as compared with the expense of shipping the lumber by the railroad or by river crafts.

Salem is now using an immense amount of lumber, and a good mill could even now find ready sale for all the lumber that it could turn out. It is not a case of luxury, but one of simple necessity, to fill the demands of a steady growing city. The opportunity that Salem now has for a saw mill can not stand open long; some one will take hold of the matter and supply her with a much needed mill.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Rev. P. S. Knight returned from Eugene this morning.

S. P. Bach, a merchant at Lebanon, is visiting Salem friends.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Vandyn returned this afternoon from a visit at the coast.

Joe Farrar came home to-day from Seal Rock. He's browned up in good shape.

Surveyor General Byars returned this morning from a business trip to Douglas county.

Mr. David McCully departed this afternoon for Wallowa county, where his sons reside.

Irvin Watson, of Portland, spent Sunday among Salem friends, returning this morning.

Mr. J. H. McNutt, of San Francisco, spent Sunday in the city, guest of T. McF. Patton.

Mr. A. H. Wright went up to Mehama to-day to enjoy mountain air and scenery a month or so.

M. C. Starr has just returned from a trip to Benton county and reports excellent crops there and all along the road.

F. J. Catterlin and family will take up their summer quarters for a while at Netarts bay on the Big Nestucca.

Major Williams and Wm. England return to-day from Wilhoit, where their families will sojourn a few weeks.

Dan J. Fry, J. B. McClane and families started this morning by team for Slab creek on the Little Nestucca, for a summer outing.

Hon. Wm. H. Holmes and family took last evening's train south, bound for a few weeks in the mountains on the upper North Santiam.

Messrs. C. S. McNally and R. M. Pinkerton, accompanied by Frank Miller and D. C. Sehell, of Albany, took a drive to Independence this morning on business.

Misses Ethel, Fay and Tot Thompson, of Portland, and Mrs. Arbagast and daughter Ella, of Salem are visiting friends in the vicinity of Jefferson, says the Review.

Nick Haas, John G. Wright's accommodating salesman, took last evening's train for Ashland and other Southern Oregon points to close up Mr. Wright's garden seed business for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Hopkins, of Albany, returned home last evening after a visit with Mrs. H's mother, Mrs. E. C. Small, and sisters, Mrs. Geo. Pearce and Mrs. A. S. Brasfield.

Miss Grace Scriber left Tacoma this morning, and will arrive in Salem this evening. Miss Scriber has been in attendance at the New England Conservatory, of Boston, since last January. Her many friends will welcome her back to the "city of peace" again.

Mr. I. W. Gardiner, of Los Angeles, arrived in the city this morning and is renewing old acquaintance at this, the scene of his former mercantile labors. He reports Miss Nellie Gilbert enjoying good health and pleasure with her sister, Mrs. Gardiner.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ford and family will start to-morrow morning for Upper Soda, on the South Santiam, where they will enjoy themselves three or four weeks. They are well provided with fowling apparatus and fishing tackle, opportunities for using which are plentiful in that region.

BASE BALL.

A Hard Contested Game on Both Sides.

SALEM VS. McMINNVILLE.

McMinnvilles Won Saturday's Game by a Scratch; Salems Take Sunday's Game.

The game of base ball at Highland park ground Saturday afternoon between the McMinnvilles and Salem was the event of the season, both clubs playing up to a science, but the visiting nine carrying the game in a score of 6 to 5.

The Salems stood one tally ahead until the last half of the ninth inning when the visitors did some fine playing and scored two tallies which gave them the game. The following is the official score of Saturday's game:

YESTERDAY'S GAME.

The game yesterday started out with some wild playing on both sides for the first two innings, then it settled down to a hard game and was played with a great deal of skill. The Salem boys started out in the lead which they kept up to the last.

Coleman and Hausworth are both good pitchers and put up strong balls. McCarthy leads in catching, while Burnheim can't be beat for first base, and Howard is an excellent short stop.

The game closed yesterday with a score of 9 to 8 in favor of the Salems, the following is the official score:

OBSERVATIONS.

Howard is the best shortstop in the league.

Burnheim never lets a ball pass first base.

McCarthy is the best catcher that has played in Salem.

The McMinnvilles do better fielding than the home team.

There is too much hollowing from those in the grand stand.

The umpireing for the last two games was a fair one.

The Salems are a strong nine now.

OTHER GAMES.

The real estate men of Albany, a club of stalwart fellows, arrived to-day by the 1 o'clock train, and met their brothers of this city in the same trade, for a contest at Simpson's park, and the same is now in progress.

The game between the Avenue and Marion lawn tennis nines, which was to have been played to-day, is postponed to Wednesday.

A FALSE STATEMENT.—Superintendent Downing of the state prison, desires the JOURNAL to contradict for him the article clipped in a contemporary from a Portland paper, in which a pretended interview with him is given, where he is made to say that the grocery merchants of Salem had made a combine to swindle the state on these commodities, and that consequently he was in Portland to purchase such as needed for his institution. He says he never made the assertions credited to him, and only recited the fact that the executive council had rejected the bids for supplying the asylum; saying also that he (Downing) was not compelled to advertise for bids for the prison supplies, therefore he was free to buy where he could do the best. Mr. Downing further says he has always bought the necessary groceries in Salem and expects to continue doing so.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.—The State association of the Christian Endeavor societies will meet in annual session in this city for two or three days, the first of October. Arrangements for the meeting are already being made by the various societies in this city. All the delegates from abroad will be given free entertainment while in attendance here, and a special program consisting of select music and literary productions will be rendered, and a pleasant and profitable meeting is expected.

GETTING BETTER.—A letter from ex-Gov. S. F. Chadwick, at Foley Springs, to a friend in this city, brings the pleasing intelligence that Mr. F. E. Hoover, who went there the 1st of July, is fast improving in health, and is now able to get around on crutches and has a good appetite. His friends in this city will learn of his recovery with much pleasure.

LOST A HORSE.—Word comes to the city that Dr. Richardson, who with his family started for Little Nestucca Saturday morning, lost one of his horses that night at the toll gate. It is supposed the extremely cold mountain water after his drive was the cause of a colic, which attacked him during the night and from which he died.

LOSS SETTLED.—Irvin Watson, of the Home Mutual Insurance Co., of which Gray Bros. are local agents, while in the city the past few days settled in full the loss sustained in the burning of Dr. J. W. McAfee's barn Wednesday night. This is prompt work.

HORSES KILLED.—Saturday night's overland train south ran into a band of horses on the track a few miles the other side of Eugene, killing five of them, but the train was not ditched and was only a short time delayed by the accident.

MOVED.—Morgan & Mead have moved their dray and truck stand and stable to the first door north of John Holm's blacksmith shop, opposite State Insurance office, where they have the nicest, most comfortable quarters in the city.

A diagram and picture of the Josephine caves can be seen at the Red corner drug store. A movement is on foot to make them one of the greatest attractions in the way of a resort in Oregon. 1t

THIRTY YEARS' PRACTICE

A Letter from an Eminent Physician.

MR. EDITOR: At the risk of indorsing a proprietary preparation, I have a few words in favor of a new laxative principle. But first, how I came to discover it. A patient asked about taking Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. As sarsaparillas usually contain mercury or iodides I objected, and asked for the formula, which finding purely vegetable, and so mild as to be to my mind almost inert, I consented. Imagine my astonishment when perfect laxative action was reported. It has two great points. First, being purely vegetable, it is (unlike mercury) not cumulative in the system, being easily carried off by the digestive processes and second, it is effective with a less quantity of the cathartic principle than has hitherto been attainable. It in this respect ranks as a discovery, and approaches the ideal, viz: the least medicine consistent with the greatest good. It harmonizes natural laxative action and perfect safety, and should interest both the public and the profession.

A Sure Cure for Piles.

Itching Piles are known by moisture like perspiration, causing intense itching when warm. This form as well as Blind Bleeding and protruding, yield at once to Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy, which acts directly on the parts affected, absorbs tumors, allays itching and effects a permanent cure. 50 cents. Druggist or mail; treatise free. Dr. Bosanko, Piqua, O. Sold by Smith & Steiner.

Re-Opening a Thoroughfare.

In order to guard against results subversive of health, it is essential that the thoroughfare of the system, the bowels, should be re-opened when they become obstructed. If they are not, the bile is misdirected; the liver becomes torpid; billious matter produces indigestion; headaches ensue, and other symptoms which the exciting cause only tends to aggravate. The aperient properties of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters constitutes a useful agent in construction of the bowels, and promoting a regular habit. It is infinitely superior to the drastic catharics frequently used for the purpose, since it does not act violently, but produces a natural effect, which does not impair the organs, the stomach and liver also, indeed the entire system is regulated by it.

WHAT IS A TUBULAR WELL?

Be Sure to Read and Get no Other

A genuine Tubular well is constructed by putting down a three inch iron pipe, with no openings except top and bottom. No dirt can get in and only pure water can be got out. This is the only kind of well that worms and insects cannot get into, that is absolutely surface water proof, and that is forced through the cement strata to the pure living water. It is positively the only kind of well that is worth building in this country. James A. Roberts, Salem, (residence near fair grounds) makes these wells.
