A BAD FALL.—Willie, the 11-year old son of Architect C. A. Robert, at the corner of Oak and Summer streets, Albert's addition, met with a painful accident this morning about 9 o'clock.

THE RIGHT MAN.—Intelligence of local interest in Salem was contained in yesterday's Oregonian, to the effect that John W. Minto, a native of this city, for several years a policeman and chief of police here, two years deputy sheriff and four years sheriff of this county, is soon to become chief of police in Portland.

OFFICERS ELECTED.—Capital lodge No. 11, I. O. G. T., of this city, elected officers for the ensuing quarter at its last meeting as follows: John Knight, C. T.; Mrs. J. E. Godfrey, V. T.; Frank Davey, Sec.; Miss Ida Buun, Fin. Sec.; C. W. Scriber, Treas.; E. C. Minton, Chap.; Fred Staiger, Mar.; Mrs. M. A. Miller, guard; Miss Townsend, sentinel; Mrs. N. J. McPherson, supt. juvenile temple.

SMALL FIRE.—At five o'clock last evening the fire bell rang again, to which the department responded with usual alacrity. The blaze was in the back end of a Chinese store and lodging house, 132 State street, which had caught from a stovepipe and would have done considerable damage but for the prompt work of the fire companies.

BAND CONCERT.—The Second regiment band will give a pleasing concert this evening at 8 o'clock at the east end of the electric street railway, at the entrance to the State prison. These concerts, under Prof. Coomer's leadership, are becoming a part of the anxiously expected pleasures of Salem's music lovers.

HELD FOR MURDER.—In the police court in Portland yesterday L. J. Sprague was held for the murder of Thos. Vanhus, who died from injuries received Sunday night in a fight with Sprague in a saloon on Jefferson street.

THE SUNDAY QUESTION.

The Resolutions Which Were Not Acted Upon at the Big Meeting in the Opera House.

Salem, July 29. EDITOR JOURNAL: In the report of the Sunday mass meeting the resolutions which I offered do not appear. They are in full accord with an editorial in the JOURNAL of the 28th, which I had not at the time seen, or feeling that I had editorial endorsement I might have pressed them still more earnestly.

In presenting the subjoined resolutions, I offered (when the business men of Salem would pledge the necessary funds) to see that on one-half the Sunday afternoons of the coming year there should be in the opera house an illustrated lecture on science, history, biography, etc.

Resolved: That, in the sense of the mass meeting held in Reed's opera house, Sunday July 27, that the best and the only desirable way in which the citizens of Salem can discourage objectionable Sunday amusements is for them to open to the public, on that day, such amusements as the moral sentiment of the city will endorse.

WRONGLY INFERRED.—Some seem to infer from the report of the mass meeting in yesterday's JOURNAL that the managers of the Salem baseball club had told the committee who were appointed to confer with them that "they believed it was impossible to conduct a Sunday baseball game on moral principles."

THAT'S A STABLE.—So many persons have been heard to ask during the past week what that new building is which is going up on the south side of the creek near the cannery on Twelfth street, that the JOURNAL will furnish the necessary information for all.

A CRAZY INDIAN.—W. W. Johnson, son of H. A. Johnson Sr., and brother of Geo. W. and the other "Johnson boys," also deputy sheriff of Harney county, came in last evening with a crazy Piate Indian and lodged him in the asylum.

ANNOYING DELAY.—Mr. Toner, of Lincoln, started thrashing in Spring Valley yesterday, with his new machine and a good prospect of a long run. They had been at work but a few hours when a serious breakdown occurred on the engine, necessitating a delay of a few days while it is taken to Portland to be repaired.

SMALL BOY'S PARADISE.—Doubtless no one forgets that to-morrow will be circus day. It might be well, however, for people to have their eyes open for skinning games, as there is said to be a hard crowd following this show the present season.

WELLS! WELLS!—Wells driven; wells dug; wells repaired; on fair terms. A. Dart, South Salem. If

AMONG THE ROLLING STONES.

J. L. Mitchell, secretary of the board of trade, and Clara B. Irvine, reporter on the Statesman, returned yesterday afternoon from a trip to Silver Creek falls, both suffering somewhat from their experience. Mr. Mitchell's ailment being most apparent to the naked eye. It seems they, with others, had been exploring a cave at the bottom of a deep canyon, the abrupt sides of which they were climbing, when the head man of the group, some forty feet in advance loosened some rocks with his feet and they went thundering down.

GOOD FOR EVIL.—When the supervisor of the census sent out his "estimate" of population for Salem among other points, the Oregonian took pains to coldly and cuttingly make the fact prominent that Salem's population failed to reach anywhere near what had been claimed.

MILITARY MOVEMENTS.—A good many members of companies A, F and E, Second regiment O. N. G., have recently received their discharge, having served the time of their enlistment, but many are re-enlisting, and those who are not their places are taken by new recruits, so the regiment will remain at its usual strength of numbers.

GETTING WELL.—Andrew Snyder, who had such a narrow escape from death at Aurora, yesterday, as detailed in the JOURNAL's telegraphic columns, is reported by W. S. Hurst as getting along nicely, with no danger of serious results.

WATERMELON SOCIABLE.—The ladies of the Christian church will this evening give a watermelon sociable at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Herren, on Front street, and a really pleasant time is expected.

PERSONAL MENTION.—Deputy Sheriff Wrightman is in Mt. Angel on business to-day. B. J. Sharp, of the Oregon house, is a business visitor in Oregon City to-day.

Mr. John A. Shaw, of the Mill City lumber mills, passed up the road from Portland last evening. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kuhn returned this afternoon from their sojourn in the mountains. Mr. John A. Shaw, of the Mill City lumber mills, passed up the road from Portland last evening.

Mr. T. Holverson started this afternoon for Chicago to purchase a fall and winter stock. He will come home by way of Kansas, where he has some business to transact. Mr. T. Holverson started this afternoon for Chicago to purchase a fall and winter stock.

THE CONTRACT SIGNED.
