CRIMINAL.

OFFICIAL BLACKMAIL IN SAN FRANCISCO.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—The Chronicle this morning says, according to positive statements of men of wealth and good reputation, two of the chief deputies of the coroner on Thursday night last tried to blackmail the family of a citizen of Fresno who had been killed by a local cable car, into paying them twelve hundred dollars, accompanying their demand with an offer that they would fix the coroner's jury so that it would incriminate the Market Street Cable company.

A DESPERATE MURDERER CAUGHT.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., July 29.—Dominico Cella, alias Joe Smith, murderer of John Dilets, a fruit merchant, was safely lodged in the county jail at one o'clock this morning. Chief of Police Thomas Delaney and Sheriff W. J. Jones arrested the murderer under exciting circumstances. When the officers demanded his surrender the only answer was a sheet of flame and the whizzing of a rifle bullet between Delaney and Jones. Two loads of buckshot and a rifle bullet was the reply. Cella uttered a yell and fell to the ground. He was slightly wounded in the calf of the left leg, two bullets went through his hat and one struck the neck of his rifle. On his way to this city he cooly told the minute details of the terrible tragedy. He said that Dilets owed him $800 and refused a settlement on any terms. In a moment of passion he hit his employer on the head with a hammer, when the two clinched. Cella snatched a razor from a table and with two slashes nearly severed his head from the trunk. He calmly picked up the body and laid it on the bed, and took the keys from his pocket and ransacked the murdered man's chest for money. He said that all he got was fifteen dollars from the till in the store. Cella, with clothes all covered with blood, left the house at the dead hour of midnight and escaped to the woods; there he exchanged his clothes for a suit that he carried along and threw the old ones into the bay. The razor was thrown into the woods. He says that he knows his fate will be that of a murderer.

FIRES.

TEN HORSES BURNED TO DEATH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 29.—The stable and dairy of the Dolores Street Milk ranch, owned by Benedict Bros., was consumed by fire this morning. Ten horses were burned to death. The fire is supposed to have resulted from the explosion of a coal oil lamp. The damage is estimated at seven thousand dollars.

DIABOLICAL INCENDIARISM.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, July 29.—Incendiaries set fire to the residence of Rev. David Plumb, in Gale, Indiana, this morning. Plumb was fatally burned and his wife and three children perished in the flames. Plumb is a prominent Methodist minister.

SERIOUS LUMBER FIRE IN MICHIGAN.

EAST SANGINAW, Michigan, July 29.—There is a terrible fire raging here. It caught in a lumber pile, supposedly from some one smoking, at 2 p. m. Owen Hutchinson & Co. lost $40,000 worth of lumber; H. B. Nease, Son & Co's mill office and yards, $65,000; Bryan & Ryan's plant, $150,000. The wind is blowing a gale and there is great danger that the fire will spread.

FOREIGN.

THE INSURRECTION SUBDUED IN ARGENTINE REPUBLIC.

LONDON, Eng., July 29.—The following cable dated Buenos Ayres, July 28, 2:20 p. m. has been received at the legation of the Argentine Republic, this city: Announcing that the insurrection has been completely subdued and the president of the republic and the national cabinet are giving orders from the government house.

BOUND TO FIGHT IT OUT.

LONDON, Eng., July 29—Private dispatches from Buenos Ayres dated the 28th 9:30, p. m., state that there is no change in the situation and no chance for compromise between the factions. The latter dispatches say it must be fought out.

MISCELLANY.

STREET CAR STRIKERS WIN.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., July 29.—The street car strike was settled last night, the company acceding to the strikers' demand and they resumed work this morning.

REPUTATION GONE IN SALEM, SURE.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—The Examiner says editorially this morning: The allegation that Portland has only 35,361 inhabitants will finish the reputation of Mr. Porter's hired men in Oregon. According to these figures Portland has been going down hill for five or six years. Even San Francisco has less cause for complaint against the census than exists in Oregon.

PARAGRAPHS.

The chamber of commerce in St. Paul adopted resolutions yesterday protesting against a recount of the census in that city.

Two steamers collided at Baltimore yesterday in which several lives were lost. One of the steamers was an excursion boat and had 1500 passengers on board.

Arthur Upham, of Connecticut, and Bob Fitzsimmons, of New Zealand, fought a prize fight in New Orleans last night, which ended in Upham being knocked out in the fifth round.

The senate bill to pension all surviving officers and men of Powell's battalion of Missouri mounted volunteers, raised during the war with Mexico, passed.

Tacoma had a $100,000 fire yesterday. Two of her best industries are now in ashes. The fire originated in the dry kiln of Johnson's sash and door factory.

Four boys were badly injured at San Diego, Cal., yesterday while playing with giant powder. Two of them will probably lose their eyesight while the others have their faces filled with particles of powder and iron.

It is reported that Wall street is considerably affected by the news of the revolution in the Argentine Republic. Much British gold has gone to South America recently, the deficiency being supplied from this country and France.

Two shocks of earthquake were felt at Petaluma, California, yesterday.

At a political barbecue in Day's Gap, Alabama, yesterday the two political parties indulged in a free fight over the division for the speakers. About thirty shots were fired and several persons wounded.

Immense fires are still raging on the east side of the Coast Range mountains in California.

The friends of Wm. D. English claim that the other candidates for governor of California have the press, that they have the votes, which is what counts in the end.

Judge Barnes, a prominent citizen of Ventura, Cal., attempted suicide yesterday by shooting himself, but failed, his head being too hard, the balls glancing around the skull and only inflicting scalp wounds.

A report comes from Washington that there is a growing evidence that both the Blaine and McKinley republicans will finally consent to the adoption of Pierce's amendment to the tariff bill, which retains the advantages of free sugar and opens the way for reciprocal benefits on farm products. Some modifications are yet expected, and some compromise will be made.

Forty-Five Years Bondage.

Gents: For forty-five years I have been afflicted with blood poison, liver and rheumatic difficulties. Part of the time confined to my bed. My blood was badly diseased. Six bottles of Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup did me more good than all the other medicine I had taken. My friends have used it and in every case it has proven a wonderful remedy. I have known of some wonderful cures of dyspepsia and neuralgia. MRS. MARY MIDDLE, Mitchellville, Iowa.

Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup and Plasters are remedies of great merit. I believ they have no equal in the cure of rheumatism and all blood diseases. DR. H. REICHARD, Druggist, Mitchellville, Iowa.

The spring is the time to take Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup for the blood. For sale by Smith & Steiner.

WHY DID HE GO?

A St. Louis Merchant's Trip to the Postoffice, and the Result.

California's last sensation is beginning to take hold of St. Louis. J. V. S. Barrett, the commission merchant of 122 and 124 North Commercial Street, was one of the first to test Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla in sick headaches. Its effect was such a gratifying surprise that he went over to the postoffice and told his friend, Thos. P. Culkin, sup't of the registry division, who was also worried with headaches. The following letter details his friend's experience also:—

POSTOFFICE, St. Louis, Feb. 26, 1890.

J. V. S. BARRETT, Esq.:—

DEAR SIR: You ask me, Did I act on your advice? I did, and have to thank you. For years I have suffered from indigestion and headaches. Taking your advice, I purchased a bottle of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. Before I had finished it I could eat almost anything with impunity, and have been since rarely troubled with a headache of any kind, for which I give due credit to your advice and Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla.

Yours, etc.,
THOS. P. CULKIN,
Sup't Registry Division, Postoffice.

Allen Weir, the former editor of the Port Townsend Argus, is a sort of a Pooh Bah in the new state of Washington. He is secretary of state, insurance commissioner, member of the state land commission, member of the commission to select indemnity school lands, member of the state library commission, member of the commission to select a site for a normal school, sealer of weights and measures, member of the state board of equalization of taxes and of the state board of equalization in the value of tide lands, has to audit the state printing bill, has supervision over the capitol buildings and grounds and is required to furnish supplies to the state officers and library. He comes pretty near having a contract to run the interior department of the state and dosen't leave much for the rest of them to fill. But after running a daily newspaper, it's a sort of a rest to him to fill a dozen state offices.—Astorian.

1000 Families to Settle in the Town of Aumsville.

Aumsville is located in Marion county, Oregon, 14 miles south-east of Salem, in the midst of a rich grain, fruit and stock country. The country tributary to Aumsville produces 400,000 bushels of grain yearly, 200,000 bushels of fruit and vegetables, and supports thousands of head of stock. Among its other advantages Aumsville has three miles of valuable water power, a large fertilizer rock quarry on what is known as the Butler place, one mile west of town. It has good shipping facilities, having one railroad and will soon have two more. It has a good 100-barrel roller process flour mill, several good stores, blacksmith shops and fine homes, all in a prosperous condition, a good opening for a woolen mill, fruit dryer and cannery, a tannery and large boot and shoe factory, a large cheese factory. Any man or company starting such an enterprise here could easily obtain milk of 1000 cows.

To anyone who will start a factory of any kind in Aumsville, the people will give every encouragement in their power.

There is also a good opening here for a weekly newspaper.

Parties looking for a new home or business location should not fail to see Aumsville. Prices of property are reasonable, and now is the time to locate, for in five years there is bound to be a city here of 10,000 inhabitants. 6-20-6w

WHAT IS A TUBULAR WELL?

Be Sure to Read and Get no Other

A genuine Tubular well is constructed by putting down a three inch iron pipe, with no openings except top and bottom. No dirt can get in and only pure water can be got out. This is the only kind of well that worms and insects cannot get into, that is absolutely surface water proof, and that is forced through the cement strata to the pure living water. It is positively the only kind of well that is worth building in this country. James A. Roberts, Salem, (residence near fair grounds) makes these wells. Terms reasonable. 10 years experience. 6-11-1m-d-6m-w
