STATE OF AFFAIRS IN SAN SALVADOR.
 LA LIBERTAD, Aug. 1.—Full communication with the interior has been restored. Advice from the capital of the state say that General Ezeta was ordered from the frontier with about 2,000 men immediately upon the outbreak of the revolt headed by General Rivas. General Rivas' forces had captured the artillery and the barracks had but few troops in charge which had fought desperately before this surrendered. The Indians then pillaged several houses and a panic ensued. Rivas' forces were finally defeated and peace was restored.

GREAT STARVATION IN SOUDAN.
 CAIRO, Egypt, Aug. 1.—Famine prevails in Soudan. In some parts of the country deaths from starvation average one hundred daily. Nine thousand acres of rice and cotton lands in the province of Gerbieth have been covered with an inflow of salt water and the growing crops destroyed.

CRIMINAL.

THE FREDERICKSON CASE.
 ASTORIA, Or., Aug. 1.—The trial of Jno. Edwards, Edward Gilson and John and Geo. Rose was begun in the superior court at Oysterville, Wash., yesterday. This is the case which caused so much excitement in Western Washington last winter, when lynch law was strongly talked of being applied to the perpetrators of the vile crime of murdering Wm. Frederickson and wife for the sake of getting a quarter section of land on which Frederickson and wife were living and holding under the pre-emption land laws of Washington.

A FORMER HUSBAND AS AN INCITER OF MURDER.
 SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 1.—A statement is published that Miles Fawcett, for whose murder Josiah Potts and his wife Elizabeth were hanged at Elko, Nev., last June, was married to the woman under name of Mrs. Elizabeth Atherton in this city in March 1887. Fawcett subsequently found that the woman had previously been married to one Potts who was living at Carlin, Nev., which was one inducement to his murder.

CHICAGO'S REIGNING SENSATION.
 CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—The pool room war is still on, and is becoming more serious from day to day. Master in Chancery Windes this afternoon issued an injunction restraining the municipal officers from interfering with the selling of pools at West Side race track. Mayor Creger says he will stop pool selling throughout the city, law or no law. Several private detectives who served warrants on the down town pool rooms were severely drubbed this afternoon.

FISHING SEASON CLOSED.
 ASTORIA, Or., Aug. 1.—Yesterday virtually closed the fishing season on the Columbia. The laws of Washington allows the fishing to continue until the tenth of August, while in Oregon the season closes the first. But few if any boats will run after to-morrow, and probably all the canneries on both sides of the river will close in a few days. The pack will close in a few days. The pack is said to be 30,000 cases short of last year. The entire pack of Columbia year. The entire pack of Columbia river spring catch is estimated to be less than 300,000 cases, while last year's pack was about 330,000 cases. The fishing industry seems to be growing less each year on the Columbia river.

ANOTHER STRIKE.
 CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 1.—Members of the B-8 Carpenters and Builders' association commenced a war this morning on their former allies of mousing. The men of the Carpenters' union began the lockout. The cause gives the alleged failure of the carpenter's council to fulfil their agreement not to work for the old Master Builders' association.

TEST HERE CASE.
 CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 1.—Under a recent decision of the supreme court of the U. S., the big brewers of Chicago, St. Louis, and Milwaukee have combined to fight a license law as applied to them, and which compels them to pay tax in the city where beer is made and wherever it is sold. They will make a test case of the matter, carrying it to the highest forum.

PARAGRAPHS.

The report comes from Minnesota saying that the wheat yield is good and is being housed in good condition. Both North and South Dakota will house a good crop of wheat. Kansas reports a poor yield of wheat and in western and middle parts of the state the corn crop is almost an entire failure. Some fields will not return to the owner as much as the seed used in planting them.

A Bear Story.
 The Grant County News is responsible for the following: A bear made a visit to the sheep camp of Kenneth McRea away up in the wilds of the mountains south of this valley at the wretched hour of midnight and watched the somnolent beauty of the two herders for the space of a while, and then not finding any salt bacon or fresh mutton hanging in the camp, he concluded to sample a herder or two by way of whetting his appetite. He therefore approached one of the sleepers, pulling him out of the blankets. Of course the herders yelled as only frightened sheep-herders can when grim death is fastening its teeth about them. Their cries struck terror to the heart of the bear and he ran away after scratching and he ran away after scratching and he ran away after scratching. It is safe to predict that they have not slept on the ground in open air since that memorable occasion.

WHY DID HE GO?
 A St. Louis Merchant's Trip to the Postoffice, and the Result.
 California's last sensation is beginning to take hold of St. Louis. J. V. S. Barrett, to take hold of St. Louis. J. V. S. Barrett, the nominated merchant of 22 and 24 the North Commercial street, was one of the first to get Jap's Vegetable Anaspartilla in his hands. His effort was such a great surprise that he went over to the postoffice and told his friend, Thom. F. Calkin, of the registry division, who was also kept with headaches. The following letter details his friend's experience also:—
 PORTLAND, ST. LOUIS, Feb. 26, 1890.
 J. V. S. BARRETT, Esq.,
 22 and 24 North Commercial St., St. Louis.
 Dear Sir: You ask me, did I get on your advice? I did, and have to thank you. For years I have suffered from indigestion and headache. Taking your advice, I purchased a bottle of Jap's Vegetable Anaspartilla. Before I had finished it I could eat almost anything with impunity, and have been very much improved. I give you credit for your advice and Jap's Vegetable Anaspartilla.
 Yours truly,
 THOMAS F. CALKIN,
 Reg. Div. Registry Division, Postoffice.

ALL FOR WOMAN'S LOVE.

She Charmed Farmer Jones While Men Fleeted Him.

HE IS LOOKING FOR THE SHARPEERS.

He Does not Care for the Money He Lost, But Wants the Swindlers Punished.

PORTLAND, Or., Aug. 1.—S. W. R. Jones, the alphabetical but unsophisticated farmer of French prairie, Marion county, who let a trio of sharpers do him up for $5000 on a lottery trick, which is nearly as old as the hills he cultivates, came to Portland yesterday morning expecting to find them safe behind the bars of the city jail. He had an idea that they would give themselves up to the police and become conscience stricken and return their ill-gotten swag. When he started for home on the evening train he was a wiser man. Thieves are not built that way. But he consoled himself on one thing.

"They laid me out once," he said mournfully, but spiritedly shaking his fist, "but they can't do it again, you bet they can't. I would just like to see them try it. I would fool them, I tell you."

HE DOES NOT CARE FOR MONEY.
 Farmer Jones is over 70 years old but is as spry as a man of middle age. He is the father of six big well to do sons by his late wife. He divided 1600 acres among them retaining 120 for himself. Besides he has a bank account of about $40,000.

"It is not the loss of the $5000 that makes me feel bad," said Farmer Jones to a reporter, who found him chatting with a group of ex-Salemites, yesterday. He talked good naturedly about the incident and stood the jests of his friends without wincing. "I do not like the idea of being swindled in such a bare faced way. That's what hurts. I want to see these fellows captured and given the full penalty of the law. I will give $500 to anyone who will cause their arrest. I can identify them."

"Do you think they are in Portland?" he was asked.
 "I believe the woman is but I don't know about the men. If the police will stir about I think they will find the woman in a respectable house."

Jones then gave description of the trio who bilked him. The arch conspirator, who said he was Judge Martin, of Tacoma, was described as a fair complexioned man, undersized and stout, 35 years old. He had a stubby mustache, brown hair and regular features. He was very suave and a good story teller and had a pleasant way of poking his thumb into a man's ribs to make him see the point of his yarns. Summer boarders have been known to do the same thing to divert the farmer's attention while some one else was lowering their trunks from the mosquito-infested garret.

Martin's confederate was described as a coarse looking German. He was about Martin's age but heavier and taller. He stood nearly six feet. He can be identified by a scar on his nose.

Jones said the woman was rather tall and light complexioned and had bright hazel eyes, light hair and a pretty mouth, which was wrinkled with smiles whenever he looked at her.

DOCUMENTS FOR THE POLICE.
 Before starting for home Jones called at the police station and left some documents to assist the detectives in their work. One is a note from Martin saying that he and his sister called, but did not find Jones at home. Martin requested him to keep his eye open for a piece of land which might be purchased for a reasonable price. Another is a telegram from Portland, which Martin sent last Tuesday, after he had duped Jones. It reads: "Sister will be over to-morrow or next day. Do not go to town, as I have made all arrangements." The third is Martin's letter of advice to Jones. Here it is:

"PORTLAND, Or., Tuesday.
 MR. JONES:—I sent you a telegram to-day. If you obey it you will be all right and no one will know what an old fool you have been. Me and my partner start for the East to-night with your $5000—a wise man would keep still, a fool will tell everybody how he has been gulled and get his name in the papers so everybody can laugh at him & it will tickle your children to death if they only knew how easily sister and I made an old sucker of you so keep your mouth shut and no one will be the wiser—You can find sister here in Portland but she will keep quiet & will not tell anybody. A still tongue shows a wise head—is a good adage so profit by it. Good-bye."
 MARTIN.

Detective Griffin is satisfied that the swindlers are not in Portland.

NOTICE.
 To Merchants, Mechanics and Laborers.

WANTED
 1000 Families to Settle in the Town of Aumsville.

Aumsville is located in Marion county, Oregon, 14 miles south-east of Salem, in the midst of a rich grain, fruit and stock country. The country tributary to Aumsville produces several good grades of grain yearly, 200,000 bushels of fruit and vegetables, and supports thousands of head of stock. Among its other advantages Aumsville has three miles of valuable water power, a large fertilizer rock quarry on what is known as the Miller place, one mile west of town. It has good shipping facilities, having one railroad and will soon have two more. It has a good 100-barrel roller process flour mill, several good stores, blacksmith shops and fine homes, all in a prosperous condition, a good opening for a woolen mill, fruit dryer and cannery, a tannery and large boot and shoe factory, a large cheese factory. Any man of company starting such an enterprise here could easily obtain milk of 1000 cows.

To anyone who will start a factory of any kind in Aumsville, the people will give every encouragement in their power.

There is also a good opening here for a weekly newspaper. Parties looking for a new home or business location should not fail to see Aumsville. Prices of property are reasonable, and now is the time to locate, for in five years there is bound to be a city here of 10,000 to 15,000 inhabitants. 625-6w

WHAT IS A TUBULAR WELL?
 Be Sure to Read and Get no Other
 A genuine Tubular well is constructed by pulling down a three inch iron pipe, with no openings except top and bottom. No dirt can get in and only pure water can be got out. This is the only kind of well that works and insects cannot get into, that is absolutely surface-water proof, and that is bored through the cement strata to the pure living water. It is positively the only kind of well that is worth building in this country. James A. Roberts, Salem, (residence near Fair grounds) makes these wells. Terms reasonable, 10 years experience. 621-1m-4m-7
