RAILROAD MATTERS RESUME A NORMAL CONDITION.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Aug. 13.—The strike situation remains practically unchanged, excepting that the officials claim it is improved. They say the running of passenger trains has resumed a normal condition and freight trains will be more regularly moved to-day.

ANOTHER ROAD TIED UP.

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 13.—The Delaware & Hudson switchmen and brakemen have gone out and the road is tied up.

THE G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT.

BOSTON, Mass., Aug. 13.—The convention of the 24th National Encampment, G. A. R. came to order in music hall at 11 o'clock. Prayer was offered by Past Chief Chaplain, J. M. Foster. Commander-in-Chief Alger then delivered the annual address. The address was received with frequent expressions of approval. The reports of Adjutant General George H. Hopkins, of Detroit, and Quarter Master John Taylor, of Philadelphia, were presented. They were of routine character.

SPEECH OF GENERAL ALGER.

BOSTON, Mass., Aug. 13.—Following is a summary of the address of General R. A. Alger: He congratulated his hearers on celebrating the twenty-fifth anniversary of the end of the rebellion in the historic city known as the "Cradle of Liberty." He delivered warm words of welcome to General Sherman. He reported the condition of the organization excellent. The total membership born on the rolls is 458,230, against 427,981 a year ago. After referring to disappointments in the ranks that congress had not passed the service pension bill, the speaker continued: "Much missaprehension exists I think concerning the disability bill, passed June 27,1890. Concerning the Gen. Grant monument General Alger said: "I recommend that a committee of five be appointed by this encampment to solicit aid from the general government and from individuals."

AN ORDER FROM HEADQUARTERS.

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 13.—Reed, of the Locomotive Firemen's brotherhood, is authority for the following, "we were all ordered out by an order from headquarters."

ALL THE VETERANS AT BOSTON—THE PRESIDENT'S SPEECH.

BOSTON, Mass., Aug. 13.—General Alger was called upon. He thanked the city and its officers for the courtesy extended. Following General Alger the president was introduced as Comrade Harrison, president of the United States, and greeted with tremendous applause. The president said.

Mr. Chairman and Comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic: I haue had impressions, both pleasurable and painful as I looked upon this great procession of veterans which swept through the streets of this historic capital to day, pleasurable in contemplation of so many of the faces of those who shared together the perils and glories of the great struggle for the Union; sensations of a mournful sort as I thought how seldom we shall meet again.

As I have stood in the great national cemetery at Arlington I saw those silent battalions of the dead, and I have thought how swiftly the reaper is doing his work and how soon in the scattered cemeteries of the land the ashes of all the soldiers of the great war shall be gathered to honored graves, and yet I could not help but feel that in the sturdy tread of those battalions there was yet a strength of heart and limb that would not be withheld if a present peril should confront the nation that you love, I thought it altogether proper I should take a brief furlough from official duties to mingle with you to-day as a comrade, because every president must realize the strength of the government, its defense of war, and the army that is to muster under its banner when our nation is assailed is to be found here in the masses of our people.

On closing, the president left at once and took the midnight train for Washington. There were loud calls for Vice-President Morton, and after considerable persuasion he was induced to say a few words. This closed the speech making, and the hall was quickly cleared.

ACCIDENTS.

SHOT FOR DEER.

LATEST ABOUT THE UNFORTUNATE KILLING OF A PROMINENT PORTLAND BUSINESS MAN.

EUGENE, Ore., Aug. 13.—Mr. W. A. Walker, of the well known agricultural firm of Staver & Walker, Portland, was accidently shot and killed yesterday morning while deer hunting near McKeinzie bridge 37 miles east of here. by a young man named Glenn Powers, who mistook Walker for a deer. Mr. Walker and wife were spending their summer outing on McKeinzie river, where they had been about a week. On Monday evening in company with Frank Whitter of Eugene, Mr. Walker went out for the night's hunt taking a pony, blankets, provisions, etc., with him. Next morning, yesterday, about seven-thirty o'clock the two hunters were returning and were about mile and half from the bridge when a shot came from the brush, and Walker fell, a bullet having penetrated his head. Powers, who lives in that vicinity, was also out for a morning's hunt. Neither Walker nor Powers knew the other was in the mountains. Walker wore a light colored hunting coat which Powers mistook for a deer and as he saw it through brush he fired.

The dead body was carried to the camp and soon started for Eugene, where body arrived at eight this morning. It was embalmed and packed in ice and shipped on the ten o'clock train to Portland. An inquest was held and no charge is made against Powers except that of carelessness.

LABORER UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF LIQUOR MANGLED BY A TRAIN.

PORTLAND, Or., Aug. 13.—George Strachan, a stone cutter at a quarry six miles east this city on the Union Pacific was run over by train near there to-day and instantly killed. The man was standing on the track and it is said was under the influence of liquor. The engineer claims that he did not see the man until it was too late to stop the train. The unfortunate man was mangled terribly, both his legs and arms being entirely severed from his body. He leaves wife and four children.

Mr. W. J. D'Arcy took the afternoon train north and will probably "tent on the beach" below Astoria before his return.

Upright Judges.

The last election in Oregon put a quietus to the political life of W. W. Thayer, one of the justices of the supreme court of Oregon and the Oregonian and other newspapers are congratulating the people of the state upon their good fortune. It is charged that Judge Thayer, backed by his democratic confrere on the bench, had been run by a coterie of Portland lawyers, who could generally get what they wanted in the way of reversing the opinions of the lower courts. On trivial technicalities, time and again new trials were granted to murderers and other criminals until the people sent him into political oblivion. One of the members of this noted firm of attorneys came to Thayer's rescue in a communication to the Oregonian, but it appears to have not much weight, as it is shrewdly suspected he got some of the pork. We are thankful that so far, no such fault has been found with our supreme judiciary and may the day be far distant when it can be done so with justice.—Catlilamet, Wn., Gazette.

HURRAH FOR MITCHELL!

A Census Recount Ordered—Good Work by the Board of Trade—Trains to the State Fair.

At the special session of the board of trade last night, the great subject of rejoicing and excitement was the following dispatch received by President Wright after supper from Senator Mitchell:

"A re-taking of the census of the whole of Salem has been ordered to be done entirely independent of Supervisor Kelly, and under the direction of a special agent to be named by you and your mayor, acting in co-operation with John D. Leland, a special agent of the census office, who leaves for Oregon to-night. Telegraph me the full name of one of your citizens agreed to be appointed for this work."

The following congratulatory telegram was forwarded to Chairman T. F. Osborn, of the Portland chamber of commerce:

"Congratulations on re-count just ordered. Good work and perseverance tell."

The following resolution of thanks for his indefatigable work in the matter was adopted and ordered forwarded to Senator Mitchell:

"Resolved, That the board of trade of the city of Salem, on behalf of the people of the city, desire to express sincere thanks to Hon. John H. Mitchell, United States senator for Oregon, for his untiring and finally successful efforts in behalf of an honest count of the population of Salem, and to assure him of our profound appreciation of his zealous interest in our welfare."

The board instructed the secretary to communicate with Manager Koehler, urging the necessity of running trains between the city and fair grounds during the coming state fair, in order to accommodate the immense crowds that will be in attendance.

President Wright, of the board, and Mayor Williams consulted together this morning and after canvassing the city over in their minds and advising with prominent business men, they decided upon W. F. Boothby, an old resident and interested capitalist as the right man to take charge of the work of the new enumeration. Mr. Boothby is in every way capable and reliable; has a good knowledge of the city, a cool head and sound judgment. He will see the work well done.

The following dispatch from here is found in to-day's Oregonian:

SALEM, Aug. 11.—Ed. Oregonian. —I see by to-day's issue of the Oregonian that David Simpson, school clerk, certifies that he found over 12,000 in district 24 on March 1, but he offers no proof to substantiate his assertion. I assert that on the 1 day of June there was not, by actual count, 12,000 inhabitants in the four precincts, let alone in district 24. Proof: The vote for governor in the four Salem precincts, vide official returns, was 1890. On the basis of five to one, gives a population of 9450 for the four precincts. The vote for governor in the city, including addition, was 1408; on the same basis gives the city a population of 7040. Assertions amount to nothing: facts count. LEWIS M. BAKER, Enumerator district 107.

"Struck the Golden Mean" As a Blood Purifier.

The Detroit Free Press says: "Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup, prepared by the Chas. Wright Medicine company, of this city, has struck the golden mean, in the treatment of all blood diseases, and its success is an evidence that an honest, pure and valuable medicine, is not incapable of attracting the attention of every family. There seems to be but one opinion as to its merit as a family medicine."

This is the real secret of the success of this [illegible] remedy. Its perfect and speedy [illegible] in removing all impure and poisonous matter from blood. No home should be without it, as a thorough and effectual blood purifier for young and old. For sale by Smith & Steiner.

WHAT IS A TUBULAR WELL?

Be Sure to Read and Get no Other

A genuine Tubular well is constructed by putting down a three inch iron pipe, with no openings except top and bottom. No dirt can get in and only pure water can be got out. This is the only kind of well that worms and insects cannot get into, that is absolutely surface-water proof, and that is forced through the cement strata to the pure living water. It is positively the only kind of well that is worth building in this country. James A. Roberts, Salem (residence near fair grounds), makes these wells [illegible] years experience. 8-11-1m-d&w

SALEM LAND COMPANY

—Incorporated 1889—Capital Stock $30,000.—

POSTOFFICE BLOCK, -- SALEM, OREGON.

THE TIME IS NOW RIPE!

Our City is a No. 1, and Our Property is the Best.

MONEY TO BE MADE BY BUYING NOW.

Salem is just now offering opportunities for investment such as her citizens will never have again. With advertisements for the Capital City of Oregon reaching two million Eastern readers every week we are bound to have an ocean tide of emigration to our beautiful, healthful and prosperous place.

Salem is the making of a city because it is already a city. It is the second city in Oregon, has state institutions, factories and the best advantages to be found on the Coast. Salem is not a city of wind and platted on unsurveyed land, a community suffering from the nervous excitement, nor nervous prostration, chronic in the boomed towns.

The time money is made on real estate is by buying before the boom. Salem has had no boom, her property is still cheap and there is no possible doubt of her going forward. when the prices have doubled.

One of the factors that will insure a return from an investment at Salem is the numerous crop failures in various parts of theMississippi valley, and even as far east as Ohio, which not only depreciates the securities offered by those sections to investors, but will discourage thousands of settlers, who will gather up their effects and start for a region where crop failures are unknown, and the climate is devoid of extreme heat or cold.

NO DECLNIES.

No honest property has declined a penny in Western Oregon, through what is known as the dull season of July and August, when so many of the well-to-do people of the Pacific Coast suspend work and go to the seaside. Prices have not yielded a particle, but so far as placed on the market it assumes a firm and rigid valuation, that has never been known to decrease, but for five years has steadily advanced, until now prices are far beyond the anticipations of the most sanguine citizen a few years ago.

DID YOU EVER THINK OF THIS FACT?

One general fact is always very potential with thinking men and women, because it is made up of a multitude of other facts all tending one way. That tendency has all been to advances in Salem real estate. Several hundred sales in the past few months all showing sharp advances constitute the general fact of all-around rise in valuations. This is significent to the most dull and at the dull season of the year.

IF YOU LEAVE THE CITY

Even for a month and approach it from any direction, upon your return you will express surprise and the conviction will be forced upon your mind that "she grows." When a city has the room to grow in that Salem has, and is spreading out into the surrounding prairies, but one thing will result—a great city. Americans love to build a city on a sightly place. On a beautiful river, with natural forest, it is no wonder our city spreads out like another Philadelphia. You need not go to Puget Sound cities to see streets lead out through native forests. That can be seen right here in Salem, where miles of aveneus and streets have been graded this year through natural thickets of evergreens.

EXPERIMENTS ARE COSTLY

at all times, but none are so expensive as real estate experiments. In ninety-nine cases out of a hundred a real estate experiment is a clean out-and-out sacrifice, as all know who have tried it. If you are going to do anything at all in real estate that will be satisfactory, get into something that has passed beyond the experimental stage. Salem real estate has, no one doubts that. Whatever doubts anyone may have about any Pacific coast real estate, it does not attach to investments in Salem property. That is certain. You can place money here with a certain assurance of rise. Not a piece of property in Salem held five years that has not advanced one to five hundred per cent. It will do better in the next year than it has in the past It is impossible in justice to make this statement any milder. Well placed confidence in the Capital City of Oregon will repay you ten-fold more than other places that seek notoriety temporarily and will soon have relapsed into oblivion.

THE BEST PULL IS A PULL FOR YOUR OWN TOWN

if it is a good town, and that's what we've got in our splendid Capital City of Oregon. While the city has doubled and quadrupled since the last census, it has not begun on the growth it will reach in the coming decade, and you want to be in to take advantage of it. We handle property on merit and believe in setting forth the steady growth and solid merit of Salem. That is all that is necessary. No over-statement is required.

ENGLEWOOD!

IS THE FINEST ADDITION TO SALEM. It is High, Sightly, Beautiful, good Soil, convenient to the business portion of the City, and cheap, growing right along, new, neat houses, graded streets—a splendid residence locality.
