MAUDE GRANGER IN INHERITED.

To-night the theater goes of Salem will have an opportunity of witnessing an actress, who is a graduate of that famous school of drama, the Union Square theatre, and whose name has been associated with many of the most notable successes of the famous dramatic temple. As an emotional star, Maude Granger is today a leading exponent of this type of the drama, and she is certainly one of the most popular actresses known to the American stage.

BOARD OF TRADE.

The board of trade held a special meeting at their rooms in the Bank block, yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The census report of the city was the main feature of the meeting. It was agreed that the board be made liable for payment of maps of the four precincts. The city will be divided into twenty districts for the enumeration and one man to be put into each district.

IN FULL BLOOM.

T. B. Wait, of South Salem, brought a branch of a pear tree to the JOURNAL office yesterday which was in full bloom. Mr. Wait said the tree from which it was cut did not bear any fruit this summer, but had now put out a full and vigorous bloom.

COME TO STAY.

Mr. C. H. Hershey, of Broken Bow, Neb., who was at Salem several months ago, and has since visited leading points in Washington and Oregon, has returned and will settle among us. This is not surprising, as any person who will investigate on his merits must come to a like conclusion. Mr. H. has not yet decided what branch of business he will enter, but he can, no doubt, find an opening to suit his taste.

THE STEAM CANNING COMPANY.

Can give employment to fifty more women and girls. Apply at the cannery.

SALEM GROWS.

Some Handsome Residences—A Steady Growth—Facts that Speak for Themselves.

It does not require very close observation to note the many improvements going on in Salem just now. There is scarcely a block in town but is having some building or improvements put on it. New residences are going up in every direction, and it is gratifying to know that they are mostly all of a substantial and ornamental character.

MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION.

The Annual Session now in Progress—The Ministers Entertained by Deacon Geo. Smith.

The ministerial association of the Evangelical church convened in this city last evening. An open song social was given last evening at 7 o'clock and at 7:30 Rev. C. C. Poling, of the Lafayette seminary of Yamhill county, preached the opening sermon, which was full of life and progressive thought, and contained some good hints on christian work and how to bring the church into a more closely united organization.

TO THE ASYLUM.

Thomas Fuchs, a farmer near Mt. Angel, this morning brought in Casper Wetzelpeiger, a native of Bulgaria, who has been wandering around that country recently in a demented condition, and had him examined before County Judge Waldo by Drs. Richardson and Rowland, who pronounced him insane and he was committed to the asylum. He is harmless and can speak but very little English, and will answer no questions. He is about 30 years old and has been working for the Benedictine fathers at Mt. Angel a portion of the time since he came from Europe two years ago.

GOOD PLASTERING.

E. C. Cross is having a handsome residence completed on Clemetka street and is bound to have no fault with any part of the construction, no matter what it may cost. It has been found somewhat difficult to get a desirable article of sand for plastering, so Ed. has solved the trouble by importing his from the Columbia river and it is the object of great admiration by those who have seen it. It is absolutely clean and sharp and full of life, and the plaster into which it enters should stand as long as a cement wall.

CALLED OUT.

At 8:30 last night the deep and warning tones of the fire alarm were heard and in a few minutes both companies of the fire department were out and made a quick run to Front street near the big bridge, to only find a pile of straw and rubbish being burned. The department slowly returned, feeling they had done their duty, at least. But they don't care about many such runs for nothing.

SEWER TROUBLE.

The asylum and prison sewer on the flat near D. C. Sherman's has been stopped up for several days and that region is flooded. Men are at work to-day on Court street near Twentieth having opened the same for repairs, and it is reported that half a dozen sticks of cordwood are lodged in the sewer pipe.

SERIOUSLY HURT.

It is learned to-day that Mrs. Brown, who had the fall in the East Salem school building yesterday, is more seriously hurt than was at first apprehended. She is suffering intensely from her bruises, and it is feared the spine has been injured.

ALMOST A FIRE.

A fire set out to burn grass in the yard of Mr. Gordon, on Ninth and Washington streets, yesterday came very near burning both the house and barn, the fire getting within a few feet of both. It was with some difficulty that the buildings were saved.—Albany Herald.

ALIVE.

Salem already shows as much activity as is usually prevalent in the midst of the fall season, all of which indicates that a large amount of business will be done here the coming season.

PROBATE COURT.

In the matter of the estate of Davis Shannon, deceased, M. and W. Shannon, executors, present to the court their final account, which is set for hearing on the 6th day of October 1890.

DON'T FORGET.

—Tax payers should not forget that their city tax is due and will be delinquent after Sept. 30th, after which time a penalty of 5 per cent. will be added.

LOVE'S LABOR REVENGING.

County Clerk Babcock to-day issued a license to wed to Walter W. Elder, a prominent business man of Stayton, and Mary G. Pedigo.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING.

The board of trade rooms were filled last night with clerks and those interested in the early closing of stores. H. S. Bell, was chosen chairman of the meeting and Percy Willis secretary. A motion was carried that the business men be asked to close their places of business at 8 p. m. except for the three winter months, during which the time of closing is asked to be set at 7 p. m. Fred Willgins, Geo. W. Morris and Geo. Wilken were appointed a committee to interview the business men and gain their consent. The clerks think that from seven in the morning until nine at night is too many hours to work, and if all the business men will lend their aid in the work there will be no loss to any one, but will be a gain to the clerks in enabling them to secure a few hours of recreation.
