POLITICAL.

INDIANA DEMOCRATS ARE CROSS.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 28.—The Indiana democratic state convention met to-day, ex-Gov. Gray presiding. The platform was adopted denouncing Dudley and alleging that Harrison and Morton carried the vote in 1888 by fraud, and that the national administration of Benjamin Harrison has made itself an accessory after the fact to those crimes, by shielding criminals from punishment and even by rewarding them for their knavery, and there has been brazen prostitution of the machinery of the federal courts for the district of Indiana, by its judge and attorney to the service and protection of conspirators against suffrage, which constitute the most infamous chapter in the judicial annals of the republic. Claud Matthews, a farmer was nominated on the second ballot for secretary of state.

DAKOTA REPUBLICANS.

MITCHELL, S. D., Aug. 28.—The republican state convention reassembled this morning. The platform endorses Harrison's administration and asks that the government assist in the establishment of irrigation; endorses the desirability of the pension bill, and the Australian ballot system; pledges the party to the strict enforcement of the prohibitory law.

NEBRASKA PROHI'S

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 28.—The Prohibition State Convention to-day nominated B. L. Paine of Lincoln, for Governor and G. W. W. Cobny, (colored,) of Douglas county, for Lieut. Governor.

FOR PURE LARD.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 28.—The house to-day finally sustained Reed's decision that the adulterated lard bill was unfinished business, and it was passed by a vote of 126 to 31.

MICHIGAN SILENT ON THE FORCE BILL.

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 28.—The Republican State convention to-day adopted resolutions commending the Harrison administration and the course of Speaker Reed. The platform declared for a free ballot and a fair count but was silent on the Force bill. The silver bill was endorsed and a revision of the tariff was demanded. The resolutions fully commend the main features of the McKinley bill. James M. Turner of Lansing was nominated for Governor.

WASHINGTON

LAND GRANT FORFEITURE.

The conferrees on the land grant forfeiture bill have agreed upon a compromise measure, and congressional action on the subject is now only a matter of form.

ARIZONA'S GOVERNOR.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 28.—Governor Wolfley, of Arizona, is in the city. It is rumored his resignation has been requested by the administration, but he and Secretary Noble both refuse to talk on the matter.

CRIMINAL.

A PINKERTON REPTILE NEARLY KILLS A POLICEMAN.

THE STRIKE MAKING BEEF HIGH.

BALTIMORE, Md., Aug. 28.—The housekeepers, hotels and boarding-houses are feeling the effects of the strike of the switchmen in Chicago. The price of Chicago dressed beef has advanced from fifty cents to one dollar per hundred. It is said that if the strike is not soon broken the price will go still higher.

THE RAILROAD STRIKE EXTENDING.

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 28.—The switchmen in the employ of the Lake Shore road struck last night, completely tying up all business of the road as far as Chicago is concerned. The trouble grew out of the stock yards trouble.

COMBINED EFFORTS OF LABOR.

BOSTON, Mass., Aug. 28.—The effort to form an alliance of labor and social reformers resulted last night in a large gathering of Trade Unionists, Knights of Labor, Socialists, Nationalists and Single-tax men. The purpose of the proposed alliance is to bring about a better understanding that more practicable and effective work may be planned and carried to a successful termination.

POLK COUNTY PIONEER DEAD.

INDEPENDENCE, Or., Aug 28.—James W. Suver, a pioneer of Polk county, and one of her wealthy citizens, died at Suver station Tuesday, in his 76th year. He came to Oregon in 1844, and married Miss Pyburn, of this county, in 1851. He leaves two sons, Marshal and Green B. Suver, and a daughter, Mrs. Fugua, of Parker's station. He was sick only ten days.

REFUSES TO HEAR THE MEN'S GRIEVANCES.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28.—The refusal on the part of the Southern Pacific officials to treat with the grievance committee representing the train-men on the various divisions has angered the members of the committee and the outcome cannot be predicted. Superintendent Fillmore said the company had decided upon an entire reconstruction of the pay system. The new rates will go into effect October 1, and will extend to conductors and brakemen on both passenger and freight trains and to the switchmen. While the company will virtually concede all demands of the men, it will treat them only as employes, and not as representing various labor organizations.

A Deadly Weapon.

Carelessness in purifying the blood leaves you at the mercy of that insidious enemy BLOOD POISON, which sooner or later will strike its fatal blow. Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup has no equal as a blood remedy, and should be taken by every person in the spring. Its efficacy has been proven by thousands of testimonies like the following:

Gentlemen: I have been a great sufferer for over ten years. My whole system became deranged from diseased blood, and I was attacked with the worst forms of kidney and liver trouble, dyspepsia, neuralgia and rheumatism. My sufferings cannot be described. The soreness of my skin disfigured me, and the neuralgic pains was so severe that it contracted the muscles of my face, partially closing my right eye. The ablest doctors gave no relief, but I am now entirely cured by Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup, and wish to recommend it to all as a wonderful blood medicine. Mrs. A. D. NOBLE.

Its Merits Thoroughly Tested.

Dr. E. S. Holden, Dear Sir: The Etherial Cough Syrup received. I have used this syrup for coughs and colds for several years and can truly say that it is the best, if not the best cough medicine that I ever used or known of. J. S. KERR.

HOWELL PRAIRIE MATTERS.

On Monday the 25th inst, at half past 4 p. m., there occurred a fire on the farm of Dick McNichols. It occurred as follows: At about this time the steam thresher of Leonard & Pooler had just completed threshing for McNichols and Dickinson, and in moving out to W. B. McAllister's field had to go over some very soft plowed land, which caused the engine to throw off some very heavy sparks, which caught in the straw shed some 50 or 75 yards north of the barn, and soon devoured everything therein contained, and by the presence of mind and the energy of the whole force the barn was saved. The loss was about as follows: Leonard & Pooler a strawstacker $200; Dick McNichols dog cart, shed and straw about $100.

There was another rather destructive fire took place on Jacob Schar's place on the east side of Howell prairie on the 26th inst. Part of his land lies alongside of some of John Newsome's land which had been slashed some time last winter or spring. Mr. Newsome had made, or had bought from Mr. Schar some 10,000 rails and had only a part of them hauled out, besides he had built a line fence for nearly a half a mile, all of which was destroyed. Mr. Schar set his slashing on fire on the south side and at the time the wind was coming from the north, but the wind changed on him and made a clean burn of all his slashing, besides burning up Mr. Newsome's fence and rails. The loss is some $200 or perhaps $300, which will fall heavily on Mr. Schar, as he is a man of only moderate means.

Crops of various kinds on Howell prairie, including wheat and oats, never were better than now, and are almost all cut and threshed or will be by the last of next week. Farmers are all feeling well over the good prospect of obtaining a good price for their wheat. The orchards are all loaded with fruit, but in many orchards the codlin moth have almost ruined the fruit. The potato crop is not very extensive, nor will they be very plentiful in this locality this fall. I was in A. G. Jerman's hop yard yesterday and found him very busy preparing to pick them as soon as they are ripe, which will be in about ten days from now; he has his yard wired up instead of poles as usual. This is done as follows: The sprouts in the first place are set about 8 feet apart. In the new process the poles are about 15 feet in length and are set firmly in the ground about 30 feet apart along the rows and there is two tiers of wires strung along the top of the poles, which are held in place by means of some pegs that are placed in the poles at convenient distances, and the hops are carried up those wires by means of some thread or twine fastened to pegs at the bottom of the vines, and in order to pick the hops these vines will have to be lowered down the pole so they can be reached, and after the hops are picked off the vines will be raised back to their place again, which will keep them out of the way. The poles on which those wires are strung are four or five inches through and firmly set in the ground so they will stand almost any pressure that may be necessary to hold up the hop vines.

Beet Sugar.

From Beet Sugar, a trade journal, we learn that the importations of beet sugar to the United States during the month of April, 1890, were 200,000 tons, being 60,000 tons more than were imported in the corresponding month of 1889. The products of the German beet-sugar factories are rapidly supplanting the cane sugars of Porto Rico, Cuba, and of Central and South American republics in our markets.

It seems criminally foolish to waste time in argument about reciprocity with cane-sugar countries while the beet sugars of Europe are driving the cane sugars of the American continent to the wall. Far better were it that we stir ourselves in the creation of a new industry on our own shores. We can grow beets in greater perfection than Germany can; the soils and climates of a dozen of our States are better adapted to their growth than those of any of the provinces of the German Empire. As for skill in manufacture, we ought not to be afraid of any nation in the world. What is lacking? Protection. That is what created the beet-sugar trade of Germany and in a few years changed the condition of the Empire from an importer to that of an exporter of sugars.

Every pound of sugar made in the United States, says the journal from which we take our text, not only means a pound less to import, but also means a greater demand for farm labor and for fuel, machinery, etc., made by the union of American labor and American capital.—Times Mountaineer.
