The Boys Hooded.

Much interest centering in the result of the ball game played at McMinnville today, the JOURNAL, while sorry that the news is not better for our Salem boys, is glad to be able to present its readers the following dispatch, just received:

STREET CARS FOR SALEM.

The Oregon Land Company yesterday sent five horse cars up to Salem to be run between that city and the fair grounds during fair time.

THE WHEAT MARKET.

The wheat market is attracting considerable attention just at present on account of the different prices paid in the various towns of the valley.

FAIR BOOMING.

Mr. E. M. Waite, marshal of the pavilion, informed a JOURNAL reporter this morning that applications for space in the pavilion at the coming state fair are rapidly coming in.

A FULL COURT.

Supervisor Boothby is working hard to get a full court for Salem. The matter has virtually been turned over to him and he proposes to see that everyone belonging to Salem is enumerated.

CITY FATHERS.

Ordinances Granted—Bills Read—Improvements Considered—Other Matters.

The city council met last night with Mayor Williams in the chair and all the members of the council present, except Edes, who had sent in his resignation.

The committee on streets and public improvement reported that he had advertised for bids for the construction of a sewer through block No. 8, to connect with the Ferry street sewer, and had received two bids: Arvey Mason $220 and Smith & Robinson $221.60.

The committee on fire and water recommended that two hydrants be placed on the corners of Center street near the Academy of the Sacred Heart; the report was adopted.

The city surveyor reported that he had examined the sewer running through block 70 and recommended that certain manholes in that vicinity be removed; the report met with the favor of the council.

Notice was handed in from the Oregon Land Company that Andrew Coss had resigned the position of engineer and that the company had elected Elsworth Nichols to fill the vacancy.

An ordinance was read regarding the construction of a terra cotta sewer through block 8. The bill was read the third time and passed.

The petition from the city marshal asking for an additional police force during fair week was granted, and Doc Gibson, Ed. N. Edes, Cass Sargent, and Chas. Pugh were elected special policemen for the occasion.

Quite a number of bills against the city were read and referred to the proper committee.

The committee on accounts and current expenses reported favorably on the following bills against the city:

TAXES DELINQUENT.

E. J. Swafford, city tax collector, reported that of the $15,000 taxes levied, there had been paid only $1900.

STREET RAILWAY PETITION.

The Capital City Railway company petitioned the council for a right of way over the following streets: On Liberty street, from its present terminus to the southern limits of the city, and from center of Chemeketa street to the northern limits of the city; on Capital street, from the northern to the southern limits of the city; on Fourteenth street, from Chemeketa street to the southern limits of the city; on Eighteenth street, from center of Chemeketa to the northern limits of the city; on Summer street, from Chemeketa to State street; on State street, from Summer to Capital street. The petition was referred to the committee on streets and public property.

A petition was read asking for a sidewalk on Winter street from Union street to the north boundary of the city. Referred to the committee on streets and public property.

STREET SPRINKLING.

When the question of street sprinkling during fair week came up a difference of opinion prevailed.

THE RAGING FLAMES.

Tae Dye Works Go Up in Flames Yesterday Afternoon—The Loss Not Heavy.

At five o'clock yesterday afternoon a cry of fire was heard and on looking out the rear part of the dye works of Ad Waldemar Nelson, just two doors south of the JOURNAL office, was found to be in flames.

The alarm was immediately turned in and in less than fifteen minutes after the fire was discovered four strong streams were checking the flames.

No ASSIGNMENT.—Sheriff E. M. Croisac came down from Galesville yesterday afternoon where he had been to lay an attachment on the store of D. A. Smith. The attachment is for a note of $3,000 held by Ladd & Bush of Salem.

THE BUILDING ON THE south of the dye works was occupied by the Singer sewing machine agent and a few lodgers in the rear. The machines were removed with little or no damage.

THE FIRE COMPANIES did splendid work last evening and Salem should be proud of her department.

COSTLY RIDE.—Dr. Frank Griffith started for a buggy ride this morning, which he says was the costliest for the length of it that he ever "enjoyed."

DROWNED AT BUTTEVILLE.—A stranger who had arrived at Butteville the first of the week was drowned Wednesday night while crossing the Willamette river a short distance below Butteville in an old scow.
