WASHINGTON.

WILLIAM SPRAGUE'S DEATH.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—News of the death by suicide of William Sprague, Jr., was a great shock to many friends of the Sprague family here. When the reporter called at Edgewood, the home of Mrs. Kate Chase, the young man's mother, he found the latter at lunch. Mrs. Chase had not received the sad news, and when told of it, her grief was very affecting.

"I cannot conceive that he killed himself," she said. "If it is true that he met a violent death, it surely must have been an accident."

She said that her son had done work for several illustrated papers. He had also been employed on Pittsburg newspapers. He had been in Chicago for some time prior to leaving for Seattle, starting from the former place about the 29th of last month.

"I received a cheerful letter from him from Chicago only a few days before he left that city," said his mother. "There was nothing to indicate that he was not feeling well and happy. The day before he left Chicago he sent me a postal card in which he gave encouraging news about his new field of duty on the Seattle Journal."

The young man was 24 years old, and was well and favorably known in this city, although he has not resided here for several years.

POLITICAL.

ARIZONA'S GOVERNOR.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—The appointment of John N. Irvin, of Keokuk, Iowa, as governor of Arizona a few days ago, recalls an incident in his experience as governor of Idaho under President Arthur. He was called home by a death in his family, and remained in Keokuk several months settling up the estate. The treasury of the United States sent him his salary regularly, but the governor declined it, saying he had not earned any money from the government while at home about his private affairs, and sent the checks back to Washington. This presented a new question for the treasury officials. No one ever had made such a complaint before. They did not know what to do with the money. Finally it was placed to the credit of the conscience fund. This made the governor indignant, and he forthwith forwarded to the department an emphatic protest. He was unwilling that any money which he sent to Washington should be placed in the same fund with that surrendered by repentent thieves. Then the amount was placed to the credit of the public debt of the United States. His is the only case of the kind on record.

THE PRESIDENTIAL PARTY FINELY RECEIVED IN KANSAS.

ATCHISON, Ks., Oct. 10.—The president arose early this morning and when St. Joseph was approached he and his party had only time to hastily take a cup of coffee before entering the city. At the Union depot an immense crowd was assembled. Conspicous in the assemblage was the Custer post of Grand Army of Republic, who acted as their escort until a neighboring hotel was reached, where a public reception was held.

REACHED ATCHISON.

ATCHISON, Kas., Oct. 10.—This place was reached at 8:45, where a large crowd had assembled.

ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION OF BRECKENRIDGE.

MORRILLTON, Ark. Oct. 10.—In regard to the attempted assassination of Breckinridge, it is believed the dastardly deed was inspired by the very threatening speech made to the republican district convention by Powell Clayton. Clayton is reported to have said Breckenridge has usurped the seat to which John M. Clayton was elected, and he now has the audacity to come before the people and ask for reinforcement. He said:

"So help me God, it shall never be given him. He is responsible or indirectly so, for J. M. Clayton's assassination, and the state of Arkansas will never be cleared from the stain of that murder so long as Breckenridge remains in congress."

NOT ENOUGH PAY.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 10.—In regard to the resignation of J. T. Carey, district attorney for Northern district of California, Mr. Carey stated last night that he had decided to resign because the office was not sufficiently remunerative for the amount of labor necessary for the proper performance of his duties. He also stated that his resignation was actuated by the fact that the government was indebted to him in the sum of $6000.

STATE.

HUNT'S EMBARRASSMENT.

PENDLETON, Or. Oct. 10.—Suits have been filed in the clerk's office of Umatilla county against G. W. Hunt, general manager, on two promissory notes given by him to the Pendleton Savings bank and D. W. Bailey.

The amount of the indebtedness aggregates something over $10,000, and the sheriff levied on all the property possessed by Mr. Hunt in Pendleton. This included several town lots presented him by the city, depot buildings and yard. This will be sold to secure payment on the amount due, unless Mr. Hunt arrives soon and liquidates the notes.

It is also stated that a large amount is due employes at Pendleton and along the line of Hunt's road and that a mechanic's lien on the depot in that town has been placed there by the painter who decorated the building. In all 72 writs of attachment have been issued and a large ranch near Foster, owned by Hunt & Caviness, has been levied upon by the sheriff.

In conversation with J. C. Leasure, attorney for the road, your reporter to-day learned that no trouble is anticipated; that Mr. Hunt left New York Sunday night last for this city and will arrive in a few days and there is little doubt that all obligations will be settled immediately upon his arrival.

EVANGELICAL MINISTERIAL CONVENTION.

EAST PORTLAND, Or., Oct. 10. Special to the JOURNAL.—The Oregon conference of the Evangelical association met in ministerial convention in the Second Evangelical church, East Portland, Oct. 8. All the members of the conference but three were present. On Wednesday evening Rev. M. Burlingame preached a stirring, practical sermon on "Consecration," which was followed by special consecration services. Some eight or ten persons presented themselves for special consecration to God and his service. The entire service was deeply affective.

On Thursday morning the convention was properly organized, Rev. H. I. Bittner, of East Portland, presiding, and Rev. J. B. Fisher, of Albany, acting as secretary. Rev. N. Shupp, of Independence, and E. Erich, of Seattle, were appointed a reportorial staff.

The president conducted the devotional exercises, and delivered a very appropriate sermon, calling attention to the mental, moral and spiritual importance of the ministry, the importance of their work, and the glory following it.

The first topic of the arranged program was then taken up Rev. A. Ernst, of Milwaukee, delivered the opening address. Topic, "The Pernicious Influences of Worldly Amusements in the Christian Church." The speaker showed that many are entirely worldly in their nature, and sap the spiritual powers from the Christian church, as poison in their effect.

The second subject "The Call of the Ministry in the Light of the Holy Scriptures," was represented by J. Erich, of Seattle. The speaker claimed that the call to the ministry was the most important and responsible of all calls; that the call is of God, and not of man, and an exclusive one, that like the poet is not a made one, but a born one. He is Christ's representative, the shepherd of His flock. That the fruit of conversions is an evidence of his call.

The first half hour of the afternoon session was occupied in devotional services conducted by Rev. I. B. Fisher.

The regular program was then taken up. The subject, "The Heart of Man" from a moral standpoint was discussed by Rev. N. Shupp of Independence. He presented the heart as being the seat of moral affection, or sensabilities. As utterly depraved in its natural condition, and utterly unable to turn unto God of its own power. In its redemption relation it has power to choose between its great suitors vice or virtue, and under the light of truth as competent of understanding God and his will in a relative; that it may be made snow white, and a treasury of God's sweetness, and a temple of the holy one.

The subject of "Lay Delegation in our Conferences and their Representation," was represented by Rev. J. E. Stoops, of Medical Lake, in the form of a communication. He opposed Legalication, which was generally sanctioned by the convention.

Rev. L. S. Flaher, of East Portland, opened the subject "Woman's Work in the Christian Church vs. Home Duties." The speaker would license women and send them out full fledged ministers. He cited to the great work done by the W. C. T. U. as evidence of her competing. He would place her on an equal with man. REPORTER.

MISCELLANY.

PARTICULARS OF THE DISASTER AT SEA.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 10.—The steamship Belgic arrived this morning from Hong Kong and Yokohama. Concerning the loss of the Turkish frigate Ertougroul, the Japanese papers place cause of the disaster to an explosion of boilers caused by an inrush of cold water from an opening made by vessel striking against the rocks during gale. Up to the 21st of Sept. 130 corpses have been recovered.

CRIMINAL.

THE INMATES OF WHITECHAPEL CUT OFF FROM THE REST OF SEATTLE.

SEATTLE, Oct. 10.—The Telegraph says: Chief of Police Monroe has struck upon a novel plan for preserving order in the notorious White chapel district. He has ordered the place quarantined. In accordance with such orders an officer has been placed at each one of the various streets, alleys and byways leading into that district commonly known as Whitechapel, being bounded by Jackson, King, South Third and South Fourth streets.

Just after the great fire the hosts of criminal, male and female, who up to that time infested Washington, Main and Jackson streets were driven to the winds. Persistent in their efforts to lead sinful lives they scattered about through the residence portion of the city.

With this a wail went up from the respectable people. Chief Butterfield who was at that time at the head of the police department inaugurated a series of raids. He was persistent in his efforts to relieve the good people from these most undesirable neighbors. Seeing this certain owners of Jackson street began building small houses known in the vernacular of Whitechapel as "cribs." These "cribs" were a profitable investment. They were built by the hundreds. In the meantime Butterfield kept up his raids. Chief Mitchell, who followed Butterfield as chief, pursued the same policy in that regard. In a very short space of time all this class of the degraded women were "bunched" in that district which has since been known as Whitechapel.

From that on it has been little less than a nest of robbers. Nine-tenths of the women in the place are known to the police authorities as thieves and pickpockets. Robberies have been committed there in broad daylight as well as in the darkness of night. All efforts of the police authorities to stop these women in their thievery has been of no avail. Conviction seems impossible. Men have gone into those alleys with hundreds of dollars and walked out half an hour later penniless. Arrest followed, and as fast a discharge of the accused.

It is a fact that of the many hundreds, yes, thousands of robberies that have been committed by these women, all failed of conviction except one. This one single exception was in the case of a negro woman, an inmate of the place. She was held on a charge of robbery to await the action of the superior court, but in the meantime dug out of jail and escaped.

Of late the robberies have increased, as also the numbers of women. The women have become more bold, if possible, in their thieving and robbery.

Every imaginable device has been tried, apparently, but failed to put a stop to such work.

Chief Monroe stated yesterday that as it seemed impossible to secure a conviction in the justice court he had decided to try other means. He says not a man is allowed to go into the notorious district and that the quarantine will be kept up. He seems to think that if the women cannot be run out of their places they can be starved out. As yet he has not decided whether the quarantine will be permanent or not, but he says the stealing must be stopped.

All day yesterday and last night Whitechapel was as quiet as a graveyard. The women displayed no great amount of annoyance at the action of the police. Many picked up bag and baggage and left for other parts of the city. In the meantime the quarantine is still on.

FOREIGN.

DILLON AND O'BRIEN COMING TO THIS COUNTRY DESPITE THEIR ARREST.

DUBLIN, Ireland, Oct. 10.—The case of O'Brien and Dillon, charged with inciting tenants not to pay rents, was again called at Tipperary this morning, but neither of the defendants was present. Both are members of the committee appointed to visit America for the purpose of soliciting aid for the national cause. A rumor is current that they have forfeited their bail of one thousand pounds each in the conspiracy case. They sailed yesterday from Queenstown for the United States.

SOME EXCITEMENT.

Much excitement prevailed in Tipperary when it became known that O'Brien and Dillon had abandoned their defence and left the place. Upon confirmation of the rumor that they had left the country their bail was escheated and was paid by the National League.

FAREWELL GREETING.

Warrants have been issued for the arrest of the missing nationalists. Dillon and O'Brien.

Tommy LaFlesh, aged 15, went out to shoot a hawk near Henley, Cal., Wednesday evening, but did not return. After hunting him all night, he was found at 7 the next morning dead. He had a 22 calibre rifle, and accidently shot himself through the heart while climbing a bank.

Luke E. Donnelly, a well-known merchant and business man of San Francisco, died at the Occidental hotel. He has been ill but a short time. Ignatius Donnelly, of Minnesota, author of the celebrated "Cryptogram," is a cousin of the deceased. Donnelly leaves property valued at $100,000.

The trestle bridge over Putah creek, two miles south of Davisville, Cal., was destroyed by fire. The fire was no doubt incendiary, and seems to be the work of parties who have heretofore made several attempts to wreck the Oregon train, which has a very heavy travel. The burned bridge was over 800 feet long. Telegraphic communication was badly interrupted, as both the wires of the Western Union and Pacific Postal companies were all destroyed; but to day they are being rapidly repaired.

James Brennan took six of his friends out fishing on Oct. 7th. For some reason they took a shotgun along with them. While they were well out in the bay a sea gull flew near. Brennan grabbed the gun and shot. Instead of shooting the sea gull he shot a hole in the bottom of the boat. The shot was taken for a joke at first, but when they found that the water came in the hole faster than they could bail it out it became a serious matter. Three of the men could not swim so the rest jumped overboard and hung onto the side. Luckily another boat was at hand which rescued the entire party.—Tacoma News.

"Don't Care to Eat."

It is with the greatest confidence that Hood's Sarsaparilla is recommended for loss of appetite, indigestion, sick headache, and similar troubles. This medicine gently tones the stomach, assists digestion, makes one "real hungry." Persons in delicate health, after taking Hood's Sarsaparilla a few days, find themselves longing for and eating the plainest food with unexcepted relish.

Dyspepsia

Makes many people miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. Distress after eating, sour stomach, sick headache, heartburn, loss of appetite, a taint, "all gone" feeling, bad taste, coated tongue, and irregularity of the bowels, are the more common symptoms. Dyspepsia does not get well of itself. It requires earnest, persistent attention, and a remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acts gently yet efficiently. It tones the stomach and other organs, regulates the digestion, creates a good appetite, and, by thus overcoming the local symptoms, cures the

WHAT IS A TUBULAR WELL?

Be Sure to Read and Get no Other

A genuine Tubular well is constructed by putting down a three inch iron pipe, with no openings except top and bottom. No dirt can get in and only pure water can be got out. This is the only kind of well that worms and insects cannot get into, that is absolutely surface water proof, and that is forced through the cement strata to the pure living water. It is positively the only kind of well that is worth building in this country. James A.
