Dates of Coming Events. Friday and Saturday, Nov. 7 and 8, Eddie Abbott, boy magician, Reed's opera house.

ON THE RIVER.—There is considerable interest manifested as to how many boats will be operated on the Willamette river during the coming season.

NEEDED WAREHOUSES.—Now as the boating season is soon to be here, the question of warehouse accommodations is being discussed in the business centers.

FROM FLORIDA TO OREGON.—The secretary of the Salem board of trade is in receipt of a communication from a gentleman away down in Florida stating that he will head a party of fourteen families who leave there the early part of November for Salem, Oregon.

ABOUT EMINENT PERSONS. The queen will reign in Holland. Adelina Patti has taken a chill in London.

PRETENDITATEUR.—Never before in the history of our theatricals has there been such enthusiasm shown as that of last evening at the opera house.

Life is Misery. To thousands of people who have the taint of scrofula in their blood the agonies caused by the dreadful running sores and other manifestations of this disease are beyond their comprehension.

A Word to Ladies. Ladies who use a beautiful clear skin, free from pimples, boils, blotches and other eruptions, should commence at once to use Dr. Gunn's Improved Lotion.

MEANS BUSINESS.

A Chance For Salem to Secure a Valuable Manufacturing Establishment. F. M. Hudson & Sons, of Blanchester, Ohio, writes to the mayor of this city, under date of Oct. 27, 1890, inquiring what inducements Salem would offer a manufacturing establishment, should they conclude to put one in here.

Your city being centrally located for a shipping point, both in Oregon, Washington and California, I think it would be a good point to establish a manufacturing interest. Would your city offer any inducement for an enterprise that would build up the city? Such an establishment would give employment to about 200 hands and would soon call for other manufacturers either by our selves or other parties.

Mr. Williams seeing the opportunity in which this letter was written took the trouble to look up a directory of manufacturing interest in the United States and found that the firm of F. M. Hudson & Sons were a wealthy firm of high standing, and carry on an immense business in the East.

The letter seemed to have an earnestness about it that portended a meaning of business. These gentlemen have not pumped a dime of money into the city. They have first considered the location. They have endeavored to select a place in the center of this great Northwest coast, and Salem seems to have been selected as that point.

NOT TILL NEXT WEDNESDAY.—The Journal reporter was led to make an erroneous statement yesterday in regard to the wedding of Ralph E. Moody, owing to the statement having been given out before that yesterday was the day for that happy event. The wedding will not take place until next Wednesday, November 12th.

THREE TIMES MARRIED.

The Journal had an account of how a man gained the affections of a young lady who lived near this city, and that the rumor was current that this same man, who went by the name of C. W. Wilkinson, had been married before. The Albany Democrat quotes the Journal and concludes with the following remarks which throws a little more light on the subject: "The Democrat learns that instead of once he had been married twice before; but secured a divorce from his first wife. Our informant did not know as to No. 2. No. 3 is certainly unfortunate."

A VALUABLE CARGO.—The clearance papers of the German ship Renee Rickmers show that she has a cargo, the total value of which is $192,728. A good portion of the cargo was loaded at this port. The vessel entered here from Portland with 6,000 sacks of wheat and 25,288 half sacks of flour, the total value of which is $78,943. The cargo put on the vessel here is valued at $118,785, and consisted of 20,701 cases of salmon, and 5,662 sacks of wheat.—Astorian.

A NOTED LECTURER.—Hon. William Jackson Armstrong, the brilliant and eloquent orator of Washington, D. C., will appear in the University chapel on next Tuesday evening. The subject for his lecture will be "Italy and Garibaldi." Mr. Armstrong is one of the most polished and entertaining speakers now traveling. He has just returned from an extended trip through Europe, where he has lectured in all the leading cities. Everyone in Salem should make a special effort to hear him.

ANCIENT ORDER OF DRUIDS.—Articles incorporating the Constitution of the United Ancient Order of Druids were filed with the secretary of state today, with N. S. Wright, Noble Arch; C. H. Clute, Vice Arch; and J. W. Charlton, treasurer. The capital stock of the organization is $1000; the object is to form a fraternal and benevolent society for the aid and benefit of its members; place of business, Portland.

LAND MARK DESTROYED.—The large locust tree that has stood near the northwest corner of the M. E. church for so many years was cut down this afternoon. This tree has stood there so long it seems like one of the city's oldest landmarks was being removed. One of our old pioneers passing by and seeing the workmen cutting it down, was heard to remark, "The idea, they are cutting down that old tree."

NOVEMBER BLACKBERRIES.—L. N. English sent to the Journal office Thursday morning, a sample of ripe blackberries just cut from the vine. The berries of the vine sent had four or five ripe berries and a few green ones on it. They were of the Evergreen variety, and grew in the open air. While Oregonians are picking ripe fruit, their Eastern brothers are raking the snow drifts from their doors.

HOME FOR THE INSANE.—A. P. Carr, of Turner, was examined by the county judge and Drs. Richardson and Rowland yesterday afternoon as to his sanity, which resulted in his being committed to the asylum for the insane. Carr is an old soldier of the '90's and is now about sixty years old. He imagines someone is trying to do him harm. His insanity was caused by paralysis.

GREAT COATS.—There are numerous stocks of good warm overcoats awaiting purchasers at Johnson, Boothby & Co.'s. Some of them are big enough to wrap a baby elephant in, and of the most enticing patterns. The English great coat, the American duce coat, the double-breasted rusler for everybody work or business, are all found there in tropical profusion and variety, at reduced prices.

NARROW ESCAPE.—The horse car driver who was almost touched by the falling electric light wire on State street Wednesday afternoon had a narrow escape. The wire had a full charge of electric power and there would have been an electricized citizen in Oregon, without any law for electrician ever having been passed in this state.

NEW CROSS WALK.—Street Commissioner Graham is having a new cross walk put in on the north side of High street at the intersection of State street.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

Salem Tea store ad. in JOURNAL. See new tea not for lack of abundance this winter. W. S. Hurst of Aurora, was in Salem this morning on business. Rev. P. C. Hetzler was a passenger North this afternoon.

There is a steam wood saw running at nearly every wood pile in the city. T. H. Hubbard returned this afternoon, from his trip to the Southern part of the state. Senator J. H. Mitchell returned to Portland on the one o'clock train this afternoon.

JOURNAL advertisers get their money's worth out of an ad. in many instances the first day. Westcott and Irwin the new catering firm, are taking to their customers like ducks to the water. Dr. W. S. Mott was called to Portland to wait upon Prof. A. R. Reed, who is very sick with typhoid fever.

James Forsyth started for Ohio this afternoon. He will visit his old home and look after his carriage manufacturing interests. Davidson's fish market has the thanks of the Journal for a fine sample of his "best smoked sardines in the world."

P. J. Duouvan, who has been in the employ of the Globe real estate, started for Ohio this afternoon to spend the winter at his old home. At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Salem Building and Loan association, held last evening, the following were elected directors: Geo. Johnson, J. H. Albert, C. B. Moore, I. L. Patterson, Scott Bozorth, R. J. Hendricks and E. O. Krause. Auditors, Geo. H. Burnett, Geo. G. Bingham, W. S. Buggs. Officers will be elected this evening.

The Home Truths of a Foreign Proverb. The Spanish have a proverb—fennel and capers—"too much is dangerous." It is the same in all languages. Excess in eating and drinking are productive of many evils, and these are among the follies to which this party seems to be prone. The evil to which we refer is intemperance in the use of the grape and the barley. It is a dangerous habit, and one which should be avoided. It is a habit which is not only injurious to the health, but it is also a habit which is a source of shame and reproach to the individual who indulges in it. It is a habit which is a source of shame and reproach to the individual who indulges in it.
