JAMES LEONARD DISAPPEARED SATURDAY AND HAS NOT BEEN SEEN SINCE.

SEATTLE, Nov. 7.—Where is James Leonard and what was the cause of his disappearance? are questions that are worrying his wife and friends.

Three weeks ago Leonard secured a leave of absence and went to Victoria. Before doing so, however, he wrote to his wife, who was visiting friends outside of the city, that he was on his way to leave her, but gave no reason for his sudden and startling resolve.

Three weeks ago Leonard secured a leave of absence and went to Victoria. Before doing so, however, he wrote to his wife, who was visiting friends outside of the city, that he was on his way to leave her, but gave no reason for his sudden and startling resolve.

Last Friday Leonard resigned his position of agent and William Dalves was appointed in his stead after the books and affairs were inspected and found to be all right.

Saturday morning Leonard appeared at the office of Lilly, Bogardus & Co., foot of University street, and paid Mr. Lilly, of whom he had rented a house in Ballard for a year past, a month's rent in advance.

Mrs. Leonard, who is left alone with a baby and is provided for beyond the month's rent paid in advance for the use of her home, again came to the city Monday and made numerous inquiries about her missing husband, whom she fears has left her for good.

The affair has caused quite a sensation at Ballard, some of the neighbors intimating that Leonard has transferred his affections to another woman, with a few fear that he has met with foul play, there being no known cause for his absence, or even for his resignation of the position of agent.

A TOUGH EX-MAYOR. MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 7.—Ex Mayor Cottrell, of Cedar Keys, who a few weeks ago terrorized the Florida federal officials and escaped to Alabama, a fugitive from justice, was shot in the head and instantly killed at 11 o'clock yesterday by Chief of Police Gerald, of this city.

Cottrell was drunk last night and was arrested by the police. He refused to fight a duel. The chief, who, in consequence of the threats of Cottrell, had armed himself with a double-barreled gun, was sitting in his office when Cottrell drove up in a cab. After a few words had been exchanged between them, Cottrell fired with a result given above.

CATTLE DEALER SHOT. KANSAS CITY, Nov. 7.—B. A. Greener, a well-known cattle dealer, was shot and fatally wounded by Charles Clifford, a New York traveling salesman, at the hotel Andrew Greener had paid considerable attention to Mrs. Clifford, and her husband suspected their relations were not entirely innocent.

This afternoon he saw Greener enter his apartment, and going up tried to get in the room. The door was locked, and on trying it he heard a scuffle and then the key was turned. When he rushed into the room Mrs. Clifford explained that Greener had made insulting propositions to her. Clifford thereupon drew a revolver and shot Greener four times.

Greener, in an ante-mortem statement, said he went to see Mrs. Ball, the land lady, to pay his board bill. She was out and Mrs. Clifford asked him to have a drink, saying she would get Mrs. Ball. After they had had a few minutes, Clifford jumped in and ordered him to throw up his hands. Greener started to walk out when Clifford shot him. He claims it was a blackmailing scheme.

REPUBLICANS LOSE MANY LEGISLATURES

California the Banner Republican State This Year—Other News.

NEBRASKA. OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 7.—Seventy-one counties in this state give the following vote for governor: Boyd, Dem., 65,142; Richards, Rep., 61,040; Powers, Alliance, 59,594.

There are eighteen counties yet to hear from. These gave a vote for Harrison two years ago 14,065, Cleveland 8405. With the exception of Salina and Clay, these counties are all located in a remote western section of the state, and it is doubtful whether they will vote as it did in the last presidential election.

A fair estimate of the total vote of these counties would be 18,000. It is difficult to make a reliable forecast as to what these counties have done this year for either of the three gubernatorial candidates. The total vote of the state will be from 205,000 to 210,000 and the candidate who receives 70,000 votes is certain of election.

Boyd is now in the lead, but still lacks 45% of that number. The chances are that his vote will exceed 70,000, because the Alliance in the western part of the state is chiefly republican.

CALIFORNIA. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—Returns from 1354 precincts in California, including 203 precincts in this city, give Markham, republican, for governor, 85,203; Pond, democrat, 80,879. Markham's plurality, 15,344. These figures include the vote from a little more than two-thirds of the total number of precincts in the state.

Colonel Markham, in a letter of congratulation, to Chairman Stump, of the republican state central committee, to-day, says: "We have won victory that will be handed down in the history of this state unsurpassed, and when we see what has happened to our party in the East, we have a right to demand double congratulations from every republican state in the Union for our fidelity to the party."

Complete returns from more than one-half the precincts in California outside of San Francisco and from about two-thirds of the precincts in this city give Markham republican, for governor more than 10,000 plurality over Pond democrat, and also show that the republicans have carried the entire state ticket by generally a similar plurality.

The entire republican ticket in this city, with the exception of one minor office is undoubtedly elected by pluralities ranging from a few hundred to 4000. Returns from precincts heard from give Sanderson, republican, for mayor a plurality of 2500 over O'Donnell, independent.

There seems to be no doubt that the republicans have elected five out of the six congressmen in the state, and the indications are that the entire congressional delegation will be republican, though the contest in the first district is close.

Returns from a little less than one-half the precincts in the first district show that Barham, republican, is leading by 116 votes. The legislature, which will elect a United States senator, will have a large republican majority in both branches.

Indications are that the democrats have elected but three out of the twenty-two assemblymen in this city, and that the five senators from San Francisco are all republicans.

THE FARMERS' ALLIANCE. WASHINGTON, Nov. 7. Oregonians special.—There are not enough Farmers' Alliance men elected to congress to even constitute a balance of power, and those who have been chosen will probably act with the different political organizations of which they have hitherto been a part.

They will not be able to shape any legislation or to demand places on the committees in consideration of their votes. The Farmers' Alliance, which has contributed to the election of the democrats in so many districts, get nothing out of it, as the democrats will continue to act with the old party, and the democratic majority is all-sufficient to control all legislation.

Most of the Farmers' Alliance men chosen in the South are more democratic than Farmers' Alliance, while only a few of those in the North will hold aloof from the parties with which they have heretofore been identified.

MILLS WANTS TO BE SPEAKER. CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 7.—Roger Q. Mills announces that he is a candidate for speaker of the next house.

IN MONTANA. HELENA, Nov. 7.—The Journal, republican, concedes the election of Dixon. The state senate will be democratic by one majority.

SPECIAL SESSION IN MASSACHUSETTS. BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 7.—A special session of the legislature in December, which is now republican by thirty-three majority. They will then officially recognize the new census returns, and admit the new members, which will give them a majority in the legislature.

GEN MILES DESCRIBES THE INDIAN HALLUCINATION OF A MESSIAH. ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 7.—General Miles, commander of the division of Missouri is here on the return from his Western tour. Regarding the onces and nature of the religious craze existing among Indian tribes he says: "I have learned that this craze extends to sixteen tribes. The Snake Indians being the only tribes to repudiate it. There is no doubt many of the Indians holding this belief in an Indian Messiah are sincere. Several small parties of Indians have gone westward from their tribes to some point which as near as I can locate, is in Nevada. There has been shown somebody disguised as a Messiah, and they have talked with him."

"I cannot state positively, but it is my belief that the mormons are the prime movers in this imposture. They have had missionaries at work among the Indians many years, and have made many converts. It is noteworthy however that this so-called Messiah tells the Indians when he comes to resign over them that firearms will no longer be used or necessary. He tells them also that with his coming the dead Indians will all be raised to life, that the buffalo will return and will draw a line behind them on which they will gather all the Indians and then they will roll the earth back upon the whites. Those who have seen the Messiah say he is muffled up and disguised so they cannot see his face, but I believe he is a full-blooded white. The situation is not alarming in any way and I do not know whether any action will be taken by the government regarding the matter until after I make my report."

The fire originated in the basement of the Budd house, which was filled with sleeping guests. The guests were awakened and ran out into the streets in their night clothing, while many crested by the fire jumped from the windows. Among these were two ladies and a child, both were badly injured. William H. Hahn jumped from the third story window. He fell on his back and was fatally injured. Five other guests are missing. It is believed they have been burned to death while sleeping.
