Dates of Coming Events.

Tuesday, Nov. 11, W. J. Armstrong's lecture, "Italy and Garibaldi." Wednesday, Nov. 12, "Hearts of Oak" at Reed's opera house.

A NEW LYCEUM.—The new lyceum which has been talked of in this city for some time has been perfected and was duly incorporated Saturday afternoon under the general incorporation law of the state.

AN OPEN AIR CONCERT.—Yesterday afternoon the Second Regiment band gave an open air concert in Willson avenue. A large number took advantage of this opportunity to hear some excellent music.

MIXED DATES.—The Oregonian Nov. 8 has a telegram from Hillsboro, Or., Nov. 7, giving an account of an altercation between two neighbors in which H. F. Johnson was shot by Henry Huber.

FILINGS AND APPOINTMENTS.—The Portland Amateur Athletic club filed articles of incorporation in the secretary of state's office today.

VERY COARSE WIT.—Clara Morrie must be conceded to stand alone. If she were to play on a bare platform, devoid of stage accessories and costumes she would make her hearers forget everything save her intense, magnetic, dramatic realism.

STATE BAR ASSOCIATION.—At Portland Saturday the State Bar association met at the Federal court room for the purpose of perfecting organization and electing officers for the ensuing year.

NOT YET.—Hon. J. Q. Wilson was accused by a JOURNAL reporter in regard to his accepting the office of stock inspector of Marion county, and was informed that under no consideration would he accept the office.

NEW PIPE ORGAN.—The First Congregational church, of this city, yesterday used for the first time in public service their new $600 pipe organ which was put in the church during the past week.

HE HAS THE BUZZ.—On both stock and prices there is one dealer in the city who takes no back seat for Portland, and that is Buren in the furniture line.

SAD TIDINGS.—From different parts of the country come sad tidings of the death of democrats from excessive joy over their great victory.

LADIES.—Your hat may be perfect, your dress may fit your waist, but the paper on the wall, but you will never be entirely happy until you get one of those perfect fitting shoes at Klein's.

REV. MR. CLINE PROTESTS.—Rev. Mr. Cline, of the M. E. church, prefaced his sermon last evening in a protest to the band giving concerts in the avenue on the Sabbath.

INSTRUMENTS FILED FOR RECORD.—Henry Heckman to Era Parker, 2 acres in T. 5, R. 1, E. 330. G. M. Sillitoe and wife to M. C. and J. D. Smith, 233 acres 1.5, R. 2, W. 10200.

A GREAT PLAY.—The "Hearts of Oak" which will be presented at the opera house on Wednesday night by Mr. James Herne and his admirable company, is one of the most admirable and successful plays now on the American stage.

BEFORE BUYING RING OR EMBLEM pins, go to the Court street jeweler and get prices.

HALLOWEEN GATE.—Someone who lost a gate on Halloween could find the same by looking near North Mill creek on asylum avenue.

A RAY OF HOPE.—For all who are held by the chains of scurvy or other diseases of the blood comes from Hood's Sarsaparilla, which by imparting the elements of good health and strength to the vital fluid, dissolves the bonds of disease and sets the captive free.

She came here in very poor health and now returns to her home as strong as ever. Mr. G. Steiner accompanies the happy family as far as Portland. They take a box of beautiful fresh strawberries along as a souvenir of Oregon.

LUCKY ACCIDENT.—A small boy who lives out on the asylum avenue came near receiving what might have been a severe wound yesterday afternoon. He with several other boys was running after the street car, and jumping on and off the car, when this boy in some manner slipped and fell under the car, the wheel caught the heel of his shoe and passed from that over his small toe bruising that member of his foot considerably. Had his foot passed a few inches further under the car his leg would doubtless have been broken.
