CRIMINAL.

A STOCKTON PREACHER CREATES A SENSATION BY SOME DISCLOSURES.

STOCKTON, Nov. 19.—The most profound sensation ever created in church circles in this city was the result of some startling remarks made Sunday morning by Rev. D. L. Munroe from the pulpit of the Presbyterian church, the largest and most fashionable in the city. Unexpectedly Mr. Munroe started to make a confession of sin to the fashionable congregation before him. He said that God had commanded him to do so. Ten years ago, he said, and before his marriage, he had improper relations with women upon promises of marriage which he had never intended to fulfill. Since his marriage, he said, he had been pure in action, but not in thought. He then proceeded to tell of female members of his flock, toward whom he had improper thoughts. The list embraced married and single ladies, and he mentioned their names publicly before the congregation. Most of his improper thoughts came when he was walking home from prayer meeting with the sisters. The pastor at the evening service stated that he intended to join the Baptists and spend his time preaching to women of low quarters in Stockton. The startling sermon and public mention of the names of the ladies who are prominent in society is the talk of the town to-day. It will result in an investigation by the trustees of the church. A ministerial meeting will be held to investigate the matter. It is understood that Mr. Munroe will appear and make further remarks.

MISCELLANY.

TROUBLE IN THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

DENVER, Nov. 19.—It is stated there is trouble in the Knight's of Labor assembly, which has existed since Saturday morning. It was caused by the discovery of an attempt to use the order for political purposes. It is asserted that some of the executive officers, during the last campaign issued a circular requesting the Knights to vote for Pattison, democratic candidate for governor of Pennsylvania, and that in other states the same methods were used. The debate was very heated at times, but to-night a very satisfactory explanation was made and the matter settled.

At the evening session Grand Master Workman Powderly, General Worthy, Foreman Cavanaugh and Secretary and Treasurer Hayes were re-elected. Powderly's salary was cut from $5000 to $3500.

A HEAVY DAMAGE SUIT.

TUSCON, Arizona, Nov. 19.—Wm. Sreckendorf, commissioner to the World's Fair from Arizona, has brought suit against U. S. Marshal Paul, for $25,000 for refusing to permit him to go to the polls on election day after he had voted.

A MYSTERIOUS BULLET WOUND.

PARIS, Nov. 19.—General Silverescoff, Russian agent in France, died to-day from the effects of a mysterious bullet wound in his head. Evidence tends to prove murder committed by nihilists and that the act is one of political vengeance.

THE IRISH ENVOYS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—T. P. Gill, M. P., this afternoon said the Irish envoys to this country would not issue a manifesto but reiterated the statement that they will support Parnell under all circumstances, O'Brien and Dillon, Gill thought would not appeal from the British court unless it might be to gain delay. LA SOUVENIR.

A Word From Captainf Jack Crawford, the Poet Scout, of New Mexico.

The following autographs were given to Commander D. C. Sherman's three daughters by Capt. Jack Crawford. The girls called on him while he was at The Willamette the few days following the wreck.

SALEM, Or., Nov. 14, 1890.

"To Stella:"

Here's a tribute of friendship, dear Stella!
Though bare of the polish of art;
A rustic bouquet from a fellow,
Whose songs leap right out from the heart.

I fling it to you, as the daughter
Of one of the boys who survive;
And I'm glad to—because I had ought 'ter
Be thankful I'm here and alive.

Faithfully your friend.
J. W. Crawford, "Capt. Jack."
Dept. of Justice.

SALEM, Or., Nov. 14, 1890.

"To Lotta:"

You've heard of the sailor no doubt
Who was shipwrecked and cast on the shore.
But you never heard tell of the old Poet Scout
Who was train wrecked right close to your door.
Well I am that fellow, but 'twixt him and me
Is this difference: he clung to the wreck
And watched for a sail 'neath the shade of a tree
While I—Well, I'm still upon deck.

Fa thfully yours,—
J. W. CRAWFORD, "Capt. Jack."

"To Bessie:"

In the language of that murderer of classic verse——
If at first you don't succeed,
In anything you try,
Just keep a rigid upper lip
An' you'll get thar' by an' by.

J. W. CRAWFORD, "Capt. Jack."

It is a Mistake

To try to cure catarrh by using local applications. Catarrh is not a local but a constitutional disease. It is not a disease of the man's nose, but of the man. Therefore, to effect a cure, requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, acting through the blood, reaches every part of the system, expelling the taint which causes the disease, and imparting health.

A PANIC IMPENDING.

The New York Stock Market Trembling.

WHEAT STILL DECLINING IN CHICAGO.

The Bank of England Declines to Discount Any Baring Paper.

IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Wall street is day by day nearing a collapse. At 1 p. m. to-day, after an exciting opening the market is rather heavy, but close to the best price of this morning.

LATER.

After verging close upon a panic the market closed with a better tendency all around, as usual.

THE BARING'S BILLS REFUSED.

LONDON, Eng., Nov. 19.—The chief cause of the depression in the stock market this morning was the refusal of the Bank of England to discount bills of Baring Bros. & Co. before maturity.

LONDON FINANCE.

LONDON, Eng., Nov. 19.—The American railway securities are dropping. The Times says that the bank of England has practically in its charge all the Barings affairs.

A FAILURE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19—Joseph Frecker, a dealer in teas and coffees failed to day.

THE UNION PACIFIC.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 19.—It is reported that the Rock Island and St. Paul Roads have made traffic arrangements with the Union Pacific, similar to that betwen the Union Pacific and Northwestern.

HUNTINGTON DEFEATED IN MANAGEMENT OF THE PACIFIC MAIL.

At a meeting of the directors of the Pacific Mail company this afternoon George J. Gould was elected president. This is a decided victory for Gould and a defeat for C. P. Huntington. Last May Huntington caused Geo. Gould's defeat for re-election to the presidency, because Gould proposed to put in steamers between Tacoma, Japan and China. This would be to the advantage of the Northern Pacific and a disadvantage to the Southern Pacific.

CHANGE OF MANAGEMENT.

NEW YORK, N. Y, Nov. 19.—The Wall Street Circular says: We can state on authority that Col. Magee, C. H. Payne and Vice President Lauterbach have practically resigned from the Pacific Mail directory, and Geo. Gould will be president once more, and J. B. Houston vice president. Russell Sage and Jay Gould will go into the board of directors.

DILLON AND O'BRIEN CONVICTED.

DUBLIN, Ire., Nov. 19.—At Clonmel to day a verdict of guilty was rendered against Wm. O'Brien and John Dillon for conspiring to induce tenants on the Smith and Jarry estates not to pay the rent. O'Brien and Dillon were each sentenced to two terms of imprisonment of six months each. The sentences to run concurrently.

BANK RECEIVER APPOINTED.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 19.—Judge O'Brien has appointed Francis Higgins receiver of North River bank.

OREGON.

Warrants are out for the arrest of two sisters of "John Doe" Ida and Amy, at Astoria.

Mrs. Rucker has been sued by C. H. Cooper in the justice court for clothes bought by her husband, Geo. W. Rucker, it being claimed that she should be held responsible for her husband's wearing apparel.—Astorian.

The plant of the Evening Pioneer was sold at sheriff's sale yesterday under a chattle mortgage for $1500, held by I. W. Case. There was only one bidder, D. Morgan, who secured the outfit for $1000. There are many rumors in regard to the paper, but the most probable one is that D. C. Ireland will lease the plant and try and build the Pioneer up again.—Astorian.

A funny mistake occurred in the Oregonian the other day. An advertisement read, "Dr. Prentice will beat Astoria Nov. 9 and 14." Of course there should have been a space between the be and at.—Albany Democrat.

The enumerators that took the first census of Portland have not got their pay as yet, and held a meeting Monday evening to devise some way to get their pay. Those employed under the second count have all been paid.

Foolish Martyrs.

There are martyrs and martyrs. Some were wise in the loftiest, some are silly in the most improvident case. The word improvident exactly applies to the latter class, since they neglect to provide against threatened danger, we commisserate, but we can not respect them. Among the illiest are martyrs to rheumatism, who might have prevented daily and nightly recurring torture by the early use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a blood depurent more efficient in removing the virus of this complaint from the circulation than any thus far brought to the notice of the community and the medical procession. It promotes greater activity of the kidneys. The channel through which blood impurities, productive of rheumatism, gout and dropsy are principally expelled and it imparts a degree of vigor to digestion and assymilation which has a most favorable bearing on the general health.

A Deadly Weapon.

Carelessness in purifyin the blood leaves you at the mercy of that insidious enemy blood poison, which sooner or later will strike its fatal blow. Hibbard's Rheumatic syrup has no equal as a blood remedy, and should be taken by every person in the spring. Its efficiency has been proven by thousands on testimonies like the following Gentlemen: I have been a great sufferer for over ten years, and I was afflicted with the worst forms of kidney and liver trouble dyspepsia, neuralgia, and rheumatism. The sallowness of my skin disfigured me, and the neuralgic pain was so severe that it contracted the muscles of my face. The ablest doctors gave no relief, but I am now entirely cured by Hibbard's Rheumatic syrup, and wish to recommend it to all as a wonderful blood medicine.

Mrs. A. D. Noble, Cor, Mechanic and Mason sts., Jackson, Mich.

SCROFULA

is that impurity of the blood which produces unsightly lumps or swellings on the glands of the neck; causes painful running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; develops sore ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or the many other manifestations usually ascribed to "humors;" and fastening upon the lungs, causes consumption, and death. Being the most ancient, it is the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

How Can It Be CURED

By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the remarkable cures it has accomplished, often when other medicines have failed, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. Some of these cures are really wonderful. If you suffer from scrofula or impure blood, be sure to try Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"Every spring my wife and children have been troubled with scrofula, sores breaking out on them in various places. My little boy, three years old has been a terrible sufferer Last spring he was one mass of sores from head to feet. I was advised to use Hood's Sarsaparilla, and we have all taken it. The result is that all have been cured of the scrofula, my little boy being entirely free from sores, and all four of my children look bright and healthy." W. B. ATHERTON, Passaic City, N. J.
