WILL DECIDE IT.—At the First M. E. church in this city the Methodist people of Salem are deciding whether women may be admitted as lay delegates to the general conference of Oregon.

NOT A GOOD RECORD.—James Marion Reeves died at the poor farm yesterday, and was buried this afternoon. His criminal career is about all that is known of him here.

A RUNAWAY.—Henry Price, driver of the Capital engine team had a small runaway this morning. He was hauling dirt and gravel on Commercial street and when driving back up the street with the empty wagon and the bars for hauling gravel, the horses wanting some exercise began jumping and kicking when "Jim" got his foot over the tug, then he began to kick in earnest and they started to run.

POOR SIDE WALK.—There seems to be a continual complaint about the poor walks on some of the main streets on Piety hill. These complaints have a good foundation; for some of the walks in that part of the city are simply rotten, and planks are loose and some are entirely out of the walk, which makes it dangerous for pedestrians to pass along the streets after night.

A RUNAWAY DOCTOR.—A San Francisco doctor, who has acquired some fame as a specialist, and who tried to run away from his wife, was overtaken in this city yesterday by his irate better half. She encountered him on the train from Yaquina, and by way of salutation, treated him to a vigorous slap in the face and the passengers to a sensation at the same time.

WANTED.—A girl to do pantry work, and two bell boys, at once. Hotel Wilamette, Salem. 11-17U

Report of Committee at State Fair on These Extra Displays.

To the president and directors of the State Board of Agriculture: The undersigned, as committee to examine and report upon special exhibits, not provided for in the regular premium list, submit the following.

GRANGE EXHIBIT. The display made by Pomona Grange of Marion county is in every way creditable and praiseworthy for the public spirit, general excellence and skill of which it gives evidence.

Your committee, while acknowledging the splendid displays made by the State Board of Agriculture and the State Agricultural college must serve the purpose of convincing visitors from other localities that the productive power of your State in all products of the temperate zone is unsurpassable.

We are led to make this suggestion in view of the fact that this Grange exhibit covering as it does, all departments of home industries from the home made bread dress of a pioneer mother of this state and county, to the bread and other foods of the cultivation of the land.

There were 26 contributors to this Grange exhibit and amongst the number a large proportion of old and honored citizens. The committee is of the opinion that any action of the State Board of Agriculture which would secure the active co-operation of the organization they represent would advance the industrial interests of the state.

A woman 83 years of age sent a bed chamber rug which was placed in the Grange exhibit. The article is remarkable as a home manufacture of the restful time of the maker, who as an individual is still more remarkable as an example of the indomitable home making spirit which often finds its finest examples in womanhood.

Since she was 75 years of age, this woman has made good her title to a homestead right of 160 acres of government land and has made upon it a comfortable home, and while doing so, has secured the duration and high esteem of the best people in her neighborhood for her integrity of character and tireless industry. The rug which draws out this history is made of bare colored rags upon an ordinary grain sack as a base, by the aid of a small hook, something like a crochet needle.

The committee then proceeds to make special mention of the displays made by J. C. Brown & Co., Wm. Brown & Co., Krause Bros., Wirt Bros., Burton Bros., J. W. Crawford, Brooks & Harritt, F. S. Dearborn, C. M. Parmenter, and H. Schornaker, of Salem, and others.

THE BUSINESS CARNIVAL.—The rehearsals and drills that are in progress for the Business Carnival Thanksgiving night, are progressing finely. The banners are all about ready and will certainly present a very fine appearance. Many elegant costumes are being prepared, and there is promise of as fine a display as has ever been seen in Salem.

NEW AND FINE.—Something new and fine—those hand-painted fish and game China sets—just the thing for a choice holiday gift. See them before the assortment is broken, at Geo. F. Smith's, 307 Com'l street.

BOARD OF TRADE.—There will be a special meeting of the board of trade this afternoon at four o'clock. By order of the president.

SHUT DOWN.—The Salem cannal and evaporating establishment shut down last night after more than a five months run. The peeling was all finished yesterday in the forenoon and the other work was about completed in the afternoon. The establishment that has been so active for the past five months is to-day very quiet, and but two or three men are left there. The floors were all cleared up this morning and one or two men will be all that will be left to attend to the shipping of the fruit. The results for the season have been very satisfactory. They have found all the fruit they could well handle. A fair price has been paid for fruit any they find a ready sale for the products of their labor.

IN PROBATE.—In the matter of the estate of Jas. Stanley, deceased, Alonzo Gesner was appointed trustee to take charge of the residue funds of the estate. He furnishes bonds to the sum of $5200, the same being approved. Geo. Williams and J. A. Baker security on bonds. In the matter of the F. E. Eldridge estate, D. C. Sherman appointed guardian of the minor heirs, approved by the court. Order for the sale of real property, which was also approved. In the matter of estate of E. H. Bellinger, Mrs. M. A. Bellinger, administratrix, petitions the court for an order to sell real property. Time set for hearing December 2nd, 1890. In the matter of the estate of T. H. Young, deceased, Walter Tooz, administrator, presents to the court his first semi-annual account, the same was approved, also reports the sale of personal property belonging to said estate.

DANGEROUSLY ILL.—Sheriff E. M. Croisan received a letter to-day from Red Bluff, California, inquiring if there was a family near Salem by the name of Engle. It says there is a young man at the National hotel there who is dangerously ill, by the name of W. E. Engle, and that his parents live near Salem. The letter was handed to the JOURNAL. There is a family by the name of Engle, near Woodburn, but whether they have a son in California is not known here.

CROSS WALKS.—Street Commissioner Graham is having some much needed cross walks put in on some of the main streets. Wednesday afternoon the workmen completed a new walk on Commercial street in front of the postoffice. To-day a cross walk is being put in on the east side of Commercial street across Court street. Let the good work go on until it reaches the poor walks on Piety hill.

A SURPRISE.—A large number of people who have been buying shoes in Salem for years are daily surprised when they come from Ben Forstner's store with some of those superior shoes kept there, which they sell as low and often lower than common stock. It will pay you to investigate the matter. It

COMPLETENESS.—The barber shop and bath rooms of Frank Howe, on Commercial street, are about the most complete in the city. For a good shave or hair-cut, you will always find Frank prepared. A good boot-blacking stand makes his shop one of the best all-around establishments in the city.

IN AN ELEVATOR.—Two Salem lawyers were prisoners in the Wilamette hotel elevator the other night. The water supply was cut off and the boy who operated the machine crawled out but the limbs of Blackstone were too heavy in avoidance to escape. They philosophically lit their pipes and waited until the water was turned on.

CONDITION OF THE WRECKED.—Mr. Dodd, who is in the Eldridge block, is reported in a more hopeful state this morning. No operation can be performed on him at present. He is receiving the most careful attention of our best physicians.

TO ACCEPT.—The school board is this afternoon inspecting the New North Salem school house, to take it at hands of contractors. If accepted it will be furnished and opened Dec. 1st.

TEN DOLLAR REWARD.—Will be paid for the arrest and conviction of the parties who tamper with and destroy our bill posters. Hirsch & Patton, the original bill posters. d-2t

CARD OF THANKS.—The family of the late Mrs. S. C. Buser, wish to sincerely thank their friends, both at Macleay and Salem, for the devoted assistance rendered during her illness, and at the time of the funeral.

TWO MORE.—County Clerk Babcock was called on this forenoon for two more marriage licenses. They were granted to Miss Maude M. Smith and R. R. Willard, and Emma Coleman and W. Murphy.

Made Happy.—No man, woman or child is so happy as the one who gets his money's worth; hence the smiling faces always visible at Farrah & Co's.

FOR SALE.—Two car loads of straw almost as good as hay for feed at McCourt's feed store, 91 Court street. 11-15U

The ceremony was performed in the presence of a number of friends. This young couple were raised in Salem and are well and favorably known to the people of this city. They have been conducting the Salem candy factory on State street for some time under the firm name of Jones & Bernardi, and have built up a good business. They have a neat suite of rooms ready for occupancy in the new Bush block.

A Deadly Weapon. Carelessness in purifying the blood leaves you at the mercy of that insidious enemy blood poison, which sooner or later will strike its fatal blow. Hibbard's Rheumatic Strap has no equal as a blood purifier, and should be taken by every person in the spring. Its efficiency has been proven by thousands of testimonials like the following: "Gentlemen: I have been a great sufferer for over ten years, and like the following: The saltiness of my skin disgusted me, and the neuralgic pain was so severe that it contracted the muscles of my face. The almost doctors gave me no relief, but I am now entirely cured by Hibbard's Rheumatic Strap, and wish to recommend it to all who suffer from blood poisoning. Mrs. A. D. Noble, Cor. Mechanic and Madison Sts., Jackson, Mich.
