THE M. E. VOTING.—The voting of the Methodist people of this city closed last evening at 8 o'clock. A very light vote was cast, and the people in this city seemed to manifest but little interest in the matter.

THE VOTING IN PORTLAND.—The vote in Portland in the M. E. churches yesterday was small as compared with the number of members. The women there as here cast the majority of the votes.

ARE YOU TO BE AT THE WEDDING?—If so, how shall you dress? A black Prince Albert or a cut-away is always proper.

A VOTE FOR THE LADIES.—The members of the Albany M. E. church, held their election at the W. C. T. U., hall last evening upon the question, submitted by the general conference to the M. E. churches of the United States, of admitting women as lay delegates to the general conference. The result was 29 for and 21 against.—Albany Herald.

A RARE PRIZE.—W. A. Wagner who purchased four of the large oil paintings at the Tojetti—Best sale last evening, was the lucky man to draw the prize picture "Sunset on Mt. Hood." Frank Talkington bid in the largest picture of the collection at $700.

SOME NOTIONS.—Different people have different notions about some things, yet when you want notions that will suit you, go to Ben Foster & Co's, and get what you want at prices that are right.

TAKE WARNING.—The number of people who are fooled by appearances in buying furniture is very large. Buren undertakes to sell articles for what they really are and at fair prices.

THE RAILWAY COMMISSION.

Findings in the Labish Case Will be Made at Five o'clock This Evening.

THE COMMISSION are still hard at work, (Friday noon) at their report of findings in the Labish accident. They informed a JOURNAL representative that they expected to be able to conclude their report by 4 p. m., and would then be able to give it to the press.

A WIDER REPUTATION. It seems the condition of the Labish trestle was known far and wide. One of the carpenters, a prominent Salem man, who was a witness before the coroner's jury, and who was severely censured by the Oregonian for his truthful indictment of the bridge, has received a letter from a brother mechanic and experienced contractor at Union City, Indiana, dated Nov. 13, the morning after the wreck. Here is a copy of it.

"I see by the papers that the overland went through the trestle at Lake Labish last night. I believe you will remember two years ago we predicted that it would give way, and when it did it would not be a freight train that would go down, but it would be one of the overland trains. How true we were. Our indications came true to the letter. I hope none of our friends were injured in the wreck."

AT LABISH. At the scene of the wreck there is great activity to-day, as a large force of men are at work taking out the engine. It had to be taken nearly all to pieces before it could be drawn out of the mud.

THE REPORT. Of the commission is now expected to be complete at 5 o'clock this afternoon. If it is ready for the press at that time the findings will be given in a JOURNAL extra, and will be given the public this evening.

The West Shore is getting out the finest holiday issue ever published in the west. It will be twice the ordinary size of that paper, with illuminated covers and handsome illustrations throughout in colors. It will contain a vast amount of special and general matter appropriate to such a publication, and be a souvenir that all will want to preserve.

DEMOCRATIC PRIMARIES.—The democrats of this city will meet on Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock, in their respective wards to elect delegates to the democratic city convention, which will be held Tuesday evening, Nov. 25th, at 7:30 o'clock, when a full city ticket will be nominated. At the primaries sixteen delegates will be chosen as follows: First ward, which meets at Mauson house, four; second ward, which meets at Dr. T. L. Golden's office, four; third ward, meets in Capital engine room, four; and in the fourth ward, which meets at Ellis & Whitley's stable, three delegates will be chosen.

THE EXCEPTION.—The continued dry weather this fall is not specially a phenomenon in the Oregon climate. While it is an exception to the ordinary course of the weather procedure here, such things have occurred before and the pioneers are not much surprised. The Easterners who have heard that it rains in Oregon from the early fall until a spring will be a little surprised to find that December is here before the regular fall rains set in.

NATURAL GAS.—At Warrenton, a small village some five miles west of Astoria and across Young's bay, on the peninsula between the ocean and the bay, the people have been talking about and boring for natural gas for some time, but have not yet developed anything startling. The boring is being done on a small rise of sandy land surrounded by a marshy tide land. This land has all the appearance of having been formed by the conflicting currents of the Columbia river and the ocean. The well is now about 180 feet deep and a hard sandstone has been struck. The place in general would not be selected for a natural gas deposit.

A WORD TO THE RAILROAD COMMISSION.—Advice comes free and easy, hence the following: The Dailies Times-Mountaineer says that the railroad commission has made an examination of the railroad wreck at Labish, and this will be given to the public in a few days. It would have been wiser if the commission had examined this bridge before the catastrophe occurred, and averted the terrible disaster. There are other lines of road on which the railroad commission could spend some of their spare time and perhaps save life and avert accidents which may happen. By so doing they would win the approval of the people and the gratitude of the public interested in railroad travel.—Albany Herald.

Closing Out Sale. J. W. Crawford is closing out his stoves and tinware, preferring to sell these portions of his stock at great reductions to again moving them.

TITLES PERFECTED.—It may not be known to many that the title to Oregon City property is not as clear "as mansions in the skies," and for this reason many of her business prospects have failed, as well as capital has sought more assured fields and Oregon City has lost prestige among the "pushing" towns of the coast. The site was formerly claimed by Doctor McLaughlin who laid out the town and sold lots until March 4, 1846. He being a subject of Great Britain could not hold land so by an act of congress the lands were transferred to other parties but at the same time all persons who had bought tracts, lots or parcels of lands from the doctor prior to March 4, 1849 were to make their proof and patents were to be issued direct from the government. There being some trouble in the survey of the original claim, the matter has never been fully adjusted, but it is now understood that active steps are being taken to settle the affair for all time to come. Salem too has a claim—the University claim, that never has been properly settled. The real title is yet in the United States although it is built some of the finest buildings of the city. This matter too is also being looked up and the titles will quite likely soon be cleared up.

BOARD OF TRADE.—The Salem board of trade held a special meeting yesterday afternoon. The business of the board is increasing until the business cannot all be looked after in meeting once a month. A communication was read from the state board of trade asking that a petition be circulated for signatures, urging the next legislature to make an appropriation for Oregon's exhibit at the World's Fair. Dr. J. W. Minthorn, John G. Wright and the secretary were appointed a committee to do this work. Five dollars each was voted for the expense of the delegates to the Waterway at Oregon City. The secretary was instructed to make an effort to secure more members to the board. A communication from the secretary of the state board was read in which he asked the advice of holding another meeting of the state board to further consider the subject of legislation.

SUIT FOR LAND.—Mrs. Susanna Goode, of North Dakota, began a suit in equity in the United States circuit court in Portland yesterday, against I. K. Amend, of this county. The plaintiff alleges that in this city, May 15, 1890, she entered into a written agreement with Amend whereby she agreed to buy and he to sell the west half of section 12, township 3 north, range 3 west, containing 320 acres of land with growing crops and farm stock, implements, etc., for the sum of $8000, all to be upon credit. The complaint recites that on June 3, 1890, the plaintiff tendered Amend notes and mortgages duly executed and acknowledged, and demanded conveyance of lands. Amend refused to receive said notes and refused to deliver a warranty deed, and on the 7th of July notified the plaintiff that the agreement was null and void, and forbade plaintiff to enter on the lands. J. A. Carson, of this city is conducting the prosecution for the plaintiff.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—A man by the name of Rutledge, who keeps a boarding house at the Clear Lake saw mill some eight miles north of this city, attempted self destruction last night by taking laudanum. It seems that Rutledge was worried over some financial trouble which prompted him to the rash act. The doctors in attendance thought this morning that there was a chance for his recovery, though he was in a critical condition. Rutledge came here from Kansas a few months ago, with his wife and family and settled at M. I. Jones' mill, where the deed was done.
