The Journal New Year Edition.

The JOURNAL will issue a handsomely got up special edition on the advent of the new year. It will contain a carefully compiled record of all improvements made at Salem during the year 1890, with a showing of Salem's business.

The edition will contain many special features of interest to every citizen of Salem and will show up the matchless resources of this part of the Willamette valley. It will be especially adapted to advertising purposes and for general circulation to attract those wishing to make investments or seek locations for homes, business, education, manufactures or any other enterprise at Salem. We will not try covering the state.

This extra edition will be printed on fine paper and will be limited to ten thousand copies. Orders for extra numbers and advertisements will be solicited by our representatives during the coming weeks.

HOFER BROS., EDS.

SMALL FIRE.—Saturday evening about dark a small barn belonging to C. F. Lansing, who lives on the Garden Road, northeast of the city, was burned to the ground. The building was worth about $50 and containing six tons hay, which was also consumed. The total loss is estimated at about $160, without any insurance. The fire was caused by the falling of a lantern which Mr. Lansing's daughter had hung up in the barn while she attended to the cow. When the lantern fell the globe broke and the burning oil spread, carrying quick destruction to the inflammable material. The cow was removed, but everything else went up in smoke. The fire spread to the straw around the large barn of Alford Savage but for the timely arrival of neighbors it is probable that, too, would have been destroyed. Mr. Lansing was away from home and did not arrive until the fire was about over. He has been an industrious, thrifty man, and his generous neighbors are going to replace his loss in large extent.

THE FIRST SPAN UP.—The first span of the bridge, over the Willamette at this place, is now up and the plank floor was being put in this morning. The west piers are about completed, and the false work will soon be put in on that side and that on the Salem side will be removed. The iron work of the bridge has all the appearance of being staunch and able to stand any ordinary strain that would be likely to befall a bridge at this point. The workmen have been putting in full time, even on Sundays and some of the time late at night the workmen have been hammering away at the bridge. The weather has been especially favorable for the building interest this fall, and Salem has improved her opportunities.

OLIVE LODGE, I. O. O. F.—Saturday evening in their hall the members of Olive lodge, No. 18, elected officers for the ensuing term as follows: R. C. Redman, N. G.; J. L. V. G., Jos. E. Howard, recording secretary; A. T. Waln, per. secretary; W. G. Westacott, treasurer. The lodge is in a prosperous condition, and is rapidly increasing in membership.

NOTARIES.—The following notaries were given their proper papers Saturday afternoon: S. T. Jeffrey, of Corvallis, Benton county; G. W. Powell, Stayton, Marion county; Wm. A. Daly, Portland, Multnomah county, and Frank H. Snow, Lexington, Morrow county.

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.—A Reward of $50 is offered for the arrest of any person voting illegally or purchasing votes. John Gray, chairman Democratic City Central committee.

Select your holiday presents early and so get the cream of the display. Get something useful and sensible, you can find something suitable, for lady or small gentleman, at the old White Corner. pod

CITY ELECTION.

Considerable Scratching Was Done—The Hard Fight on Mayor and Marshal.

The election to-day was quiet, yet scheming was indulged in freely though silently and perhaps more effectually. The main fight lay between the candidates for mayor and marshal, and the results on these will be very close. There seemed to be many scratched tickets of the republicans for both mayor and marshal. Cabs were busy all the afternoon taking voters to the polls.

At the time of going to press the republicans have grave doubts as to their success on the mayor and who will be marshal is yet very uncertain. The other candidates are about up to the party figures. The aldermen in the third ward will possibly run some ahead of their ticket.

If the complete returns can be obtained in time a JOURNAL extra will be issued giving the result of the election this evening.

CONFISCATED.—Four circulars advertising a lottery of England were confiscated at the Salem post office this morning. They were forwarded to Geo. L. Selboldt, the agent of the government at San Francisco, who will prosecute the company for violating the laws of the government concerning lotteries. This is the first instance of lottery matter sent through the mails being confiscated. If the parties are dealt with according to law it may check the spreading of lottery circulars.

THE SCOTT LECTURES.—Major F. T. Scott had a good audience at the opera house Sunday afternoon, and the M. E. church was filled to overflowing in the evening. The subject of his talk in the evening was, "Our Country and its Homes." Mr. Scott gave an earnest appeal for the home and some worthy thoughts on the prohibition in Kansas.

INDEFINITELY POSTPONED.—The social and dinner party that was to have been given at "The Willamette" hotel has been indefinitely postponed. Those holding tickets will please return the same to Wm. Brown & Co. and receive their money. By order of the committee.

IN PROBATE.—In the matter of the estate Louis Lafore, deceased final account filed, time set for hearing Jan. 5, 1891. In the estate of F. H. Young, deceased, petition for an order to sell real estate, set for a hearing Jan. 5, 1891. In the matter of the estate of Elizabeth Louer, petitions for a guardian ad litum for the minor heirs.

NOTICE.—There are funds on hand applicable to the payment of city warrants endorsed prior to April 19, '90. Interest will cease on such warrants from date of this notice. E. J. Swafford, city treasure. 11-24-1w

"Eureka."

Which being interpreted means, I have found it. Found what? I have found the place to buy holiday goods of all kinds. Smith is the man and 307 Commercial street is the place. He carries the most complete and attractive line of holiday goods ever brought to Salem. His counters are groaning under their weight of the most exquisite art goods. The most elegant house ornaments, the most amusing toys and the most useful toilet sets ever exhibited in this city. His 10, 25, and 50 cent counters are beyond description. You will find everything from a toothpick to a pickled elephant. Prices, well, they are way down, the new tariff does not effect this stock as it was purchased before it struck the country. The public is invited to make an inspection of this stock before laying in their holiday supplies. 11-25-1w

I am now able to work on my farm with ease which I have not done in years, and I advise all persons suffering with rheumatism and other blood troubles, to try this remedy.

KISSED ANOTHER MAN'S WIFE.

"You scoundrel," yelled young Jacob Green
At his good neighbor Brown,—
"You kissed my wife upon the street,—
I ought to knock you down."
"That's where you're wrong," good Brown replied,
In accents mild and meek;
"I kissed her; that I've not denied
But I kissed her on the cheek."

and I did so because she looked so handsome—the very picture of beauty and health. What is the secret of it?"

"Well," replied Green, "since you ask it, I will tell you; she uses Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I accept your apology. Good night."

An unhealthy woman is rarely, if ever, beautiful. The peculiar diseases to which so many of the sex are subject, ar prolific causes of pale, sallow faces, dull, lustreless eyes and emaciated forms. Women so afflicted, can be permanently cured by using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription; and with the restoration of health comes that beauty which, combined with good qualities of head and heart, makes women angels of loveliness.

"Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. It is a positive cure for leucorrhea, painful menstruation, unnatural suppressions, prolapsus, or falling of the womb, weak back, anteversion, retroversion, bearing-down sensations, chronic congestion, inflammation and ulceration of the womb.
