THE NEW YEARS JOURNAL.

The work of gathering the statistics and material for a special issue of the JOURNAL on the above date is well in hand.

The statistics will embrace every department of business activity and no pains will be spared to make them a complete and reliable showing of what Salem has accomplished during the past year.

FOR ONE YEAR.—Jas. G. Birdsey, sheriff of Jackson county, was in the city Saturday afternoon.

DEATH CLAIMS ANOTHER.—R. F. Dodd, one of the victims of the Lake Latish disaster died Saturday evening at 9:30 at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland.

THE BRIDGE WORK.—But little remains to be done on the long span of the bridge. The plank for the floor is now all in and the railings are about completed.

TEARING THEM DOWN.—The old wooden awnings that have marred the looks of Commercial street from time immemorial are being torn down today.

A MUSICAL TREAT.—Messrs. Bischoff and Moutanell, late of the celebrated Spanish Students company, will discourse a fine program of their original and sparkling music in the rotunda of the Willamette hotel this evening.

IN PROBATE.—In the matter of the estate of L. H. D. Boudy, deceased, George W. Smith, the administrator, presented his inventory to the probate judge showing the total value of all property to be $23,256.

DOORS CLOSED.—But inside Sroat & Gile, the good luck grocers, are found busy showing customers their new line of delicacies.

A CARNIVAL.—The spirit still prevails, and if you want to see a regular carnival, go behind the happy faces at S. Farrar & Co's holiday groceries.

WHERE THEY GET IT.—The question is often asked mentally, when we see carefully dressed men with a still hat and overcoat, where do they get the latest style?

AN OLD TIMER.—C. J. Hills, one of Lane county's oldest pioneers, killed a fine elk while out hunting with two of his sons on Fall creek.

IN THIS COUNTY.—C. C. Anderson, who is responsible for the accident at killing of Mrs. Sarah Hester at her home farm near Dayton, is supposed to be in this country.

REVIVAL MEETINGS.—Revival meetings will be held in the M. E. church this week, beginning this afternoon.

THE FARMERS' ALLIANCE.—A good attendance was present at the discussion of the Farmers' Alliance by the Alka-Hesperians Saturday night.

THE NEW PRESBYTERIAN PASTOR.—Dr. Gwynne and family arrived from their former home in Dakota, Sunday morning.

TO RELEASE THE PUGILISTS.—Deputy Marshal John Durham started around today with a petition for the release of the pugilists.

PRISON LIBRARY.—The JOURNAL'S appeal for books for the prison library is already having its effect.

FLEECY CLOUDS.—Those fleecy clouds look beautiful at a distance, but are in reality rather cold.

AN OLD TIMER.—The Walls Statestman begins the thirty-first year of its existence with this week's issue.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

Wm. M. Molson, of Rieckreall, is in the city today.

The genuine Oxford teachers' bibles at Patton's book store.

J. L. Cowan, president of the Linn county national bank, is in the city.

Chas. Benson, of Sublimity, is in the city today doing business at the court house.

Bagster's comprehensive reading bibles, with all the concordances at Patton's book store.

Mr. and Mrs. Judge Bonham entertained a few intimate friends at dinner yesterday.

Mr. Arthur H. Breyman, of East Portland, was in the city over Sunday, the guest of his brothers.

In the matter of the estate of Ella Strong, deceased, Amos Strong, executor, petitions the court for an order to sell real estate, hearing set for February 2, 1901 at 10 o'clock a. m.

R. S. Cates, of Kingman, Kansas, passed through Union on Wednesday's train from Washington and Northern Idaho where he has been for the past six weeks examining lands for eastern loan companies.

One-cent postage is being urged a good deal lately, but the west is not much interested in any such proposition just now.

Health, health and success in life depend more than we think on purchasing the right kind of boots and shoes.

Major Crust—"So you refuse me, Miss Fondant?" Miss F.: "I am very sorry, Major Crust, but your son just proposed and I accepted him."

The Independents, W. at Side announces that Hon. J. R. N. Bell has bought a half interest in t at paper.

SOCIAL OBSERVATIONS.

Monday Observations That are Neither Else Nor Later.

Land is still to dry to plow in many places. The overland was an hour late this morning.

Greatest stock of holiday goods ever shown in Salem at Patton's. There is an unusual activity in tree planting in and about Salem.

How hard pride will fall depends upon the altitude of your vanity. Prepare to take in Silverton Fruit growers meetings this week.

Two inches of snow fell in Harney valley, Eastern Oregon last week. The low prices of juvenile books at Patton's book store will surprise you.

Vermont has voted $30,000 towards giving that state a good showing at the World's Fair. China Pressants are seen daily within the city limits running at large.

The people are watching close to see what the new city government will be like. Prang's cards and holiday goods—largest stock in the city at Patton's book store.

There was good grouse hunting three years ago where East and North Salem now stand. See that you report your improvements for the JOURNAL New Year's edition.

The opening of the big Salem mills and bridge will be great events for our city. Bishop Becker addressed the convicts and a number of visitors at the penitentiary Sunday.

Rain or shine, young or old, sitting or standing, Caterlin takes the best photos for the money. The best made dining tables, some of the square extension patterns, Eastern made, richly upholstered bed lounges—all at Bore's.

There will be many novel attractions at the Kirmess given by the Congregational society Friday this week. In Kansas one person in seventy draws a pension, in Ohio one in sixty-five, and in Indiana one in forty-seven.

This is a government of, for, and by the organized few. It is time for the industrial masses to organize now.—N. W. Reform Journal.

It is a comfort to know that there is one place where you can find a complete stock of carpets, oil-cloths, lace curtains, window shades, curtain poles and fixtures. That is at Lunn's dry goods house.

Oliver Wendell Holmes says: "The human race is divided into two classes—those who go ahead and do something, and those who sit still and inquire, 'Why wasn't it done the other way?'"

The number of new houses built in East Salem this year, from the Garden road south, will astonish the oldest inhabitants. It is no longer a secret among well informed buyers that the best and most elegant stock of ladies' shoes in the city is at Denham's state street shoe store.

A great many quiet sales of real estate are being recorded, and all the time prices keep firm. The new perfume, Carnation pink, and rarest scented powders for making up gifts, at Brooks & Cox's State street drug store.

James Moore who has been residing at the capital city the past year, has returned to Burns.—Harney Items

An opportunity is offered The Dalles to secure a woolen mill for the bonus of a building site and $15,000 in cash. This offer is made by the Massachusetts Woolen Manufacturing company.

The city democracy will not contest Lamoroux's seat in the city council and Mr. Lamoroux will make a good alderman. That collection of loose advertisements to be mounted to order advertised elsewhere by Sherman Thompson & Co., is a great sight.

One-cent postage is being urged a good deal lately, but the west is not much interested in any such proposition just now, however it may be later on. What the west wants is better service.—EX.

Health, health and success in life depend more than we think on purchasing the right kind of boots and shoes. See Klein about this matter and you will invest to great advantage.

Dallas Observer: A prize fight, one night last week was stopped by sheriff Croisan and his deputies raiding the tent wherein it was going on. The officers should receive a gold medal for their action in this as it is a brutal practice and should be frowned down in all quarters.

Major Crust—"So you refuse me, Miss Fondant?" Miss F.: "I am very sorry, Major Crust, but your son just proposed and I accepted him."

be a boom for North Salem property owners, and a blessing for the whole city by clearing out Mill creek and flooding it with a good flow of water. The date of the "Red Riding Hood" cantata has been changed from Friday 12 to Saturday Dec 13. Remember the date.

Let all the children see the Grand march by the 42 children and bear the choruses. The Bionnell solo by little Lois address and the choruboyen little girls will astonish every body.

Hear little Lena Button ring the "Buttercup" solo Saturday, Dec. 13 in the "Red Riding Hood" cantata. She has a Phenomenal voice for one so young.

It is a fact that railroad earnings have been larger this year than last, and yet the market quotations of railroad stocks are lower now than they were then.

The republicans will have ninety-two members in the next house. The republican hope is '02. McCrow & Willard will take your orders for the choicest meats at telephones No. 10 and 32.

A new line of toilet cases, just opened at F. S. Dearborn's. Cuff and collar sets, brush and comb sets, manicure sets, etc.

Just opened a fine line of Prang's Christmas cards and books, drop in and see them—at Dearborn's 233 Commercial street. Everything from a collar button to a suit of clothes and an outfit of the choicest winter bedding can now be had at the Thos. Kay Woolen mills. They have all the latest styles of furnishings.

THE EVENING CAPITAL JOURNAL of Salem, is one of the ablest edited papers in the state and is a credit to Salem.—Albion Press.

A Plan For debt Greenbacks. Rock Rapids Reporter: If we need an increase of the circulating medium why not increase the green back issue. Not by irredeemable paper as Farmer Westfall advocates, but an increase based upon specie. The present law limits the issue of greenbacks to $46,000,000. If the limit was placed at $1,000,000,000, and the increase made gradually, based upon a specie deposit of one to three, a way would be provided for an increase of nearly $700,000,000. It would be perfectly safe and simply cost the printing of the bills. But how will the coin reserve be provided, some will ask? If in no other way, call in the gold and silver certificates now in circulation, and issue greenbacks in their stead. Every dollar of such certificates calls for a dollar deposited in the treasury, so that three dollars in greenbacks could be issued in lieu of the gold and silver certificates now in circulation? The late pension law and the more liberal construction that is being placed upon prior laws will provide a way of getting out $50,000,000 or $60,000,000, probably. Building up a merchant marine such as will be necessary to properly conduct our trade with foreign countries will call for some millions more. There are many internal improvements actually needed. If they can be made and cost the government nothing who will have any occasion to kick. If a government building is put up, costing $500,000 or $500,000 every laboring man in the city will be benefited thereby and its beneficial influences would be felt in every branch of trade. The same can be said of every locality in the United States where such improvements are needed. Bear in mind the fact that whatever creates a demand for labor is a benefit to the laboring class, and that they are the classes that need favoring if any.

The wise woman is saving up her dimes and two-bit pieces to make a little little sum to get one of those lovely articles of furniture at Bureau's. Prices are very low.
