A DOUBLE POISONING. HALIFAX, Dec. 11 .- In the latter part of July last, a man and his wife arrived at Hubbard's Cove and took up their residence at the house of Josiah Miller, a well-to-do fisherman, whose wife was a sister of the newly-arrived woman. With the xception of frequent visits to the United States, made by the man, the pair have sejourned at Hub-bard's Cove ever since. They spent money like water. Whenever funds ran short, the man would start off for Boston and return in a few days with a fresh supply.
