CANADIAN TRAGEDY.

SHERBROOKE, Quebec, Dec. 19.—Sheriff Webb died suddenly of heart disease this morning. The excitement attending the execution of Beni LaMontagne was probably the cause. The death of the sheriff delayed the execution but a few minutes. LaMontagne was hanged shortly after. In July, 1888, LaMontagne went to the house of his brother-in-law, Napoleon Michigan, enticed him to the door, shot him twice, cut his throat, slashed his body and dragged him back into the house and set it on fire. The wounded man dragged himself from the flames badly scorched, but died after a few weeks. The murderer's sister, Leda, wife of the victim, was arrested for complicity in the crime. It came out at the trial that Leda and her brother had been living in incest. She was acquitted but her brother was convicted.

TRAGEDY AT FRESNO.

FRESNO, Cal., Dec. 19.—Another atrocious murder was committed here yesterday afternoon, when Dr. F. O. Vincent shot and killed his wife. Owing to drink, Vincent has been going steadily down for months. His wife, who was a model woman in every respect, has worked industriously to support not only herself but her husband, and his ill treatment toward her became at last unbearable so that she sued for divorce. Vincent insisted she withdraw the suit, but to no purpose. He went to her house to-day and demanded that the suit be withdrawn.

but she would not consent to thereto. He then began to use force and attempted to make her swallow something from a vial which he produced. Falling in this he drew a revolver and shot her four times, each shot taking effect, and one ball is thought to have passed directly through her heart. She died almost instantly. Vincent was at once arrested and taken to the county jail, where, from his actions, it is thought that he had taken poison after killing his wife. The effect of the dose, if he had taken any, soon passed away, and he walked about. The murderer says he has done the best thing possible under the circumstances. The jail is strongly to prevent any possibility of lynching.

Sympathetic Portland.

The Oregonian, in speaking of the Columbia river recently said: "The rivers are free to local enterprise. No right of way is necessary in order to use their channels in the interests of commerce. The methods heretofore pursued have been to growl at and pile-up complaints against the transportation companies for lack of adequate facilities for conducting the traffic of the inland Empire; for exorbitant freight and passenger charges and for several locations to the people's interests. Years of these complaints have failed, for obvious reasons, to bring relief. If the people who have lodged them can do better for themselves than the existing transportation companies can do for them the rivers are theirs, let them show a determination to use it. If they will not do this, it is clear that to continue the old line of querulous fault-finding is but a waste of time and energy. Prudence must suggest to them the wisdom of striving to possess their souls in patience, while they tell to the child on their knees, tales of the wonderful prosperity that will be the inheritance of those who live to see the canal and locks at the Cascades completed."
