BALEM SHOULD SECURE THE SCHOOL MILTON, Or., Jan. 6 .- The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Seventh Day Adventist educational society was held to-day. A special committee was chosen to consider the plans for establishing a new college in the Northwest. Spokane has already offered donations of land and cash valued at thirty-six thousand dollars. Walla Walla is also making strenous efforts to secure the school and with good procpects of success.

TRAGEDY AT SNOHOMISH.

SNOHOMISH, Jan. 6.-Special to Scattle Telegraph; David Montgomery, a farmer living two miles east of this city, shot and mortally wounded Oscar E. Trask, a promishots. All took effect, one in the breast, three in the abdomen and one in each wrist. Trask is not expected to live through the night. Montgomery is a peaceable and respectable citizen and has the sympathy of the community. Trask has a bad record. About a year ago he knocked a drunken man down and jumped on his face with spixed driving shoes. Later he assaulted a bartender but was shot at and narrowly escaped death. Afterward, while abusing one of his workmen, he was severely stabbed. Thursday last he assaulted Montgomery on the streets of Snohomish with a slungshot, but the latter beat him off with stones. The two men met to-day about a mile from town with the stated results. Mourgomery gave himself up and is in the custody of the sheriff. Much excitement is caused by the
