ABSOLUTELY PURE

A CLEAN DAILY PAPER.

An esteemed subscriber sends the JOURNAL following note; of date 6th Jan:

In yesterday's issue of the JOURNAL, a whole column is given to an article with the caption: AN AWFUL CRIME. The ugly facts on which the article was based were gleaned from the proceedings of a court, sitting, for decency's sake, with closed doors. Does the JOURNAL do well by parading before the best families in the city, particulars which the court thought harmful to the public? If Salem is the moral city its reputation calls for, it deserves at least one clean daily paper.

A clean newspaper is one that is clean in its sentiments and tendencies, and reasonably clean in its news department. It is an impossibility to conceal all the indecencies and immoral crimes that are committed. In this case a full report was given in the most careful language possible, at the special request of the prosecuting attorney. The influence of publicity was especially desired by the public authorities and the people in the vicinity where the crime was committed.

The City Finances.

EDITOR JOURNAL: The report of the city treasurer contains some surprising items. That of the floating debt of the city in the shape of "uncanceled warrants" drawing eight per cent interest is among them. And the idle balance of $6,755.59 in cash in the city treasury is not the least of them. If the treasury is administered in the interest of the city why have not $6750 of these warrants been collected, paid, and interest thereon stopped? And why has not the $1,685.78 "uncollected sewer assessments" been collected and applied on that many warrants and the interest upon them stopped? The city has paid the contractor for the sewers in its warrants, and the contractor has had them endorsed "not paid for want of funds," making them draw eight per cent interest. The parties whose "sewer assesments" are not paid pay no interest. Why are they not collected at once, and applied on the warrants?

The rapid accumulation of the city's floating debt, notwithstanding a considerable increase in the revenues, and the raising of the levies to the highest limit allowed by the charter, does not reflect credit upon the outgoing city government. DOES W?

About the Monmouth Normal School.

ED. JOURNAL: There will be an effort made the coming Legislature to get an appropriation through for the Monmouth school which should be defeated. The school at Monmouth is as much a sectarian school as the Willamette University or the McMinnville College, the state is supporting two schools; "the State University, at Eugene and the Agricultural College at Corvallis;" We think the the college at Mt. Angel has just as much right to ask an appropriation as Monmouth school.

A READER OF THE JOURNAL.

Strong Grounds for Divorce.

Oregonian, 6th. Mrs. Adda D. Bush has begun action for divorce in the circuit court against Daniel E. Bush, a well-to-do farmer living in Washington county. The complaint filed by Mrs. Bush is a voluminous document, and sets forth in detail the many causes which have led her to ask for the separation. The parties to the suit were married in this city February 7, 1888, at which time the plaintiff was engaged in the hairdressing business. Mr. Bush, in addition to following the occupation of a farmer supplied the metropolis with firewood. Previous to the marriage, according to the allegations of the plaintiff, the defendant was "lavish in his affections and bland and fawning in his manner. He was so apparently solicitous for her welfare that he would not let the winds of heaven visit her too roughly." But after the marriage this, she claims, proved to be but "guile, deception and hypocrisy." The defendant became cruel and inhuman in his treatment of her, and was "demonical in his nature and perverse in his disposition." At divers times and places he treated her, in the presence of many witnesses, in a disgraceful way and addressed her in the vilest language. His remarks, she alleges, insinuated her unfaithfulness and were often threats against her life. She asks, in addition to a decree of divorce, for a lawful division of the property, $2500 worth of which is in her name.

Assembling Legislators.

The legislatures of many states are in session. In Idaho Mr. Ballantine has become a watch-dog of the treasury. In California both houses are in session. The saloon and restaurants in the capitol building was ordered removed. The governor favors a $1,000,000 appropriation for the World's Fair exhibit from California.

South Dakota has elected and Independent for speaker. In Minnesota the deadlock over election of Speaker continues, tho' the alliance nominees all or offices in the senate were elected. In Ohio and Delaware organization is completed.

CONNECTICUT.

HARTFORD, Conn., Jan. 7.—The general assembly meets to-day. In the senate the democrats have ten majority, and in the house the republicans have sixteen majority. The official returns of the last election show a majority of twenty-six votes for Morris, the democratic candidate for governor. Several hundred prohibition votes throughout the state have been cast out, and other votes of both parties have been cast out for various causes. The republicans insist that the matter be inquired into, while the democrats in the senate insist that Morris is elected. There is every prospect of a deadlock in the legislature.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

CONCORD, N. H., Jan. 7.—Both houses were called to order about noon. In the house Clerk Jewett proceeded to call the roll of members prepared by him. He included in the roll the names of all "if entitled" members. The roll prepared by Clerk Jewett contains names of 179 republicans, and 158 democrats. The democrats made no effort to obstruct proceedings.

IDAHO AGAINST THE FORCE BILL.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The elections bill advocates say that Shoup and McConnell voted inadvertently, and had no desire to defeat the elections bill. They were, it is explained, in the restaurant when the silver senators rushed in upon them and said, "Here is an opportunity to help silver," and rushed them up, when they voted "aye" without understanding the effect on the elections bill. A republican paper severely scorched all republicans who voted with the democrats and has this to say of Shoup and McConnell:

"The friends of the elections bill never for a moment supposed that Mr. Shoup and Mr. McConnell, after the contest that had been made in the senate for the admission of Idaho, would be such base ingrates as to vote against their party. It was not believed that they were men capable of doing such a thing, but it seems that the friends of the bill were mistaken. The democrats raised objections to the admission of Mr. McConnell, and they proposed to debate the matter when it came up, but to-day Mr. McConnell was sworn in without a democrat raising a single word of objection, and this was thought by republicans not in the secret to be a remarkable thing. But the explanation was furnished two hours later, when the Idaho senators voted with the democrats against the bill to which the republican party stood pledged in three successive national conventions."

STATE BOARD OF COMMERCE:—The state board of commerce will hold a meeting in this city, beginning Jan. 15th inst., and will probably be in session two or three days. The executive board will hold their business meeting in the rooms of the Salem Board of Trade and the convention will indeavor to procure the opera house for the meetings. If all the delegates who have been appointed by the various boards of trade of the state attend, the number will be about 150. The convention will consider the internal improvements and the matter of state appropriation for the Oregon exhibit at the Chicago Columbian Exposition, also the matter of inducing desirable immigration to Oregon.

Oregon State Agricultural Society Warrants.

All persons holding any of the above warrants, will please send them to, or deposit them with Geo. W. Watt, at Salem, Oregon, on or before January 15, 1891. A pro rata payment will be made upon all of said warrants presented on or before said day. Payment will be made after Jan. 15, 1891. J. T. GRIBBON, Secretary Oregon State Board of Agriculture. 11-22-w-d&w

The Pulpit and the Stage.

Rev. F. M. Shrout, Pastor United Brethern Church, Blue Mound, Ark., says: "I feel it my duty to tell what wonders Dr. King's New Discovery has done for me. My lungs were badly diseased, and my parishoners thought I could live only a few weeks I took five bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery and am sound and well, gaining 26 lbs in weight."

Arthur Love, Manager Love's Funny Folks Combination, writes: "After a thorough trial and convincing evidence, I am confident Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, beats 'em all, and cures when every thing else fails. The greatest kindness I can do my many friends is to urge them to try it." Free trial bottles at Fry's drug store. Regular size 50cents and $1.

Capital National Bank.

We publish in another column the report of the condition of the Capital National Bank of Salem, as called for by the comptroller of the Currency at the close of business, on the 19th day of December, A. D. 1890, showing a very prosperous and safe condition, and in comparison with former statements, showing a remarkable growth in its business. Notwithstanding the present stringency in money, the world over, the item of deposits in this bank show a gain of over $50,000, compared with their statement as published one year ago, aggregating now a quarter of a million dollars.

Able management, and courteous treatment of its customers, has made this the leading bank of the city. President Wallace, and Cashier Albert are wide-awake, enterprising citizens and both take an active part in all meritorious enterprises looking to the development of the rich resources of the Willamette valley.

A Michigan Central Railroad Employe Wins His Case, After Seven Years' Contest.

While employed as agent of the Michigan Central railroad company, at Augusta, Mich., my kidneys became diseased, and from an impoverished and impure state of the blood, my general health was undermined. I consulted the leading physicians of this city and Ann Arbor, and all pronounced my case Bright's disease. In Oct. last I began taking Hibbard's Rheumatic syrup, and am to-day a well man. It affords me pleasure to render suffering humanity any good that I can, and I wish to say that I think it the greatest blood, kidney and liver medicine in the world.

A New Year's Gift

Which will be acceptable to all horsemen. $2 a set has been the ruling price heretofore, but of late I am informed some are favored at $1.50. Believing that all are equal and should share alike, all teamsters and farmers will hereafter be served at my shop at the new price, $1.50 per horse, cash in hand, I have a large stock of shoes, and I have a large patronage, gained by superior mechanical skill during 3½ years in Salem. A four years' apprenticeship, four years in a veterinary school, several years in steamboat work, railroad shops, etc., enables me to do any piece of forging needed—mill work, threshers, reapers or anything else. In the same shop will be found a superior wagon maker in the person of J. H. Elgin, who will do all work in his line in the best possible shape at lowest rates. JOHN HOLM,

Cor. Commercial and Chemeketa.

$100 Reward. $100.

The readers of the CAPITAL JOURNAL will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by all Druggists, 75c.

School Tax List.

The school taxes of district No. 24 in Marion county are now due and payable at the clerk's office in No. 263 Commercial street (in the rear of F. S. Dearborn's book store in the Bush Breyman block) Salem. The same will become delinquent unless paid within 60 days from this date. By order of board, this 17th day of November, 1890. W. B. SIMPSON, 11-17-tf District Clerk.

Physicians Have Found Out

That a contamination and foreign element in blood, developed by indigestion, is the cause of rheumatism. This settles upon the sensitive subcutaneous covering of the muscles and ligaments of the joints, causing constant and shifting pain, and aggregating as a calcareous, chalky deposit which produces stiffness and distortion of the joints. No fact, which experience has demonstrated in regard to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, has stronger evidence to support than this, namely, that this medicine of comprehensive use checks the formidable and atrocious diseases, not is it less positively established than it is preferable to the poisons often used to arrest it, since the medicine contains only salutary ingredients. It is also a signal remedy for malarial fevers, constipation, dyspepsia, kidney and bladder ailments, debility and other disorders. See that you get the genuine.

A Sure Cure for Piles.

Itching Piles are known by moisture like perspiration, causing intense itching when warm. This form as well as Blind Bleeding and protruding, yield at once to Dr. Boanko's Pile Remedy, which acts directly on the parts affected, absorbs tumors, allays itching and effects a permanent cure, 50 cents. Druggist or mail; treatise free. Dr. Boanko, Philadelphia, Pa. Sold by Smith & Steiner.

Science Overcomes Deafness.

Just now the medical world is discussing the new device for deafness called Sound Disc. No invention of late has attracted so much interest among the medical profession. Its perfection, which is now an established fact, has resulted in the overthrow of many pet theories of there being no relief for a vast number of cases of deafness.

This ingenious discovery was made by H. A. Wales, of Bridgeport, Conn., and coming as it does with the approval of some of the leading Aurists of the world it can hardly fail to prove of great value to both the profession and the afflicted.

French Physicians Favor a Device for Deafness.

PARIS, Jan. 7.—Physicians look with favor upon the invention for relieving deafness, which was recently introduced here by H. A. Wales, of Bridgeport, Conn., and say it is undoubtedly the highest development which science has reached towards aiding the deaf.

CONTEMPT OF COURT.

How the Offense Was Punished by a Georgia Justice of the Peace.

"I stopped at an out-of-the-way cabin in Georgia," said a tourist to the Arkansaw Traveler, "to git er drink of water. I noticed a number of men, in short sleeves and wearing bed-tick suspenders, sitting under a tree. They were gathered about a pine table upon which I noticed several volumes of patent-office reports. I did not know that the assembly was one of solemn ceremony until I asked for a drink of water. Then a gaunt man with a long neck and eyes that wore an expression of dead set looked up and said:

"'Air you from sich a uncivilized country that you don't know how to behave yourself when court is in session?'

"'Excuse me,' I answered, 'I did not know that this was a court.'

"'But it is, sah, and I want you to understand it. You have come up here an' throwd a chunk under the wheels of jestice. A man is drawd up here on trial fur his life.'

"'You don't mean to say that this is a court of such serious jurisdiction!'

"'Yes, I do mean to say it and if you even hint that I don't I'll send you to jail for contempt.'

"'Pardon me; I do not mean to be offensive.'

"'Good thing you don't, I'll tell you that.'

"'May I ask why you are trying this man?'

"'Yes; he stole a set of plow gear.'

"'But is that a capital offense?'

"'I don't know what sort of offense you call a capital, but when a man steals gear in this community why that settles it with him.'

"'Pardon me, but that isn't law.

"'Mout not be in a uncivilized community but it is here.'

"'Are you a circuit judge?'

"'Worse than that; I am jestice of the peace.'

"'But under the law you have no authority to sentence a man to death.'

"'Ha, you dispute my authority! Mr. Constable, arrest this man.'

"A man stepped forward and placed his hand on my shoulder. 'You are under arrest,' said he. 'Try to git away, and I'll hurt you.'

"I saw, by the determined faces about me, that I was in a serious predicament. 'Gentlemen,' said I, 'you surely would not harm an innocent man. You—'

"'That's enough,' the judge broke in. 'You have come along here and have tried to overthrow our local self-government. Secession was a grave offense, but nothing as compared to this. You have committed treason. Mr. Constable, have you got a rope?'

"I began to beg. I told them that I was their friend. I said I would do any thing for them.

"'I am inclined to excuse your ignorance,' said the judge, 'but what assurance can you give us — what proof that you respect our local rights, generously granted to us by the constitution of the United States?'

"'Gentlemen, I have nothing but good will. I—'

"'What have you got in your saddlebags?'

"'Nothing but two quarts of whisky that I bought for medicinal purposes.'

"'Bring it and give it to us as a pledge of good faith.'

"I did so and as I rode away I congratulated myself upon my escape. Shortly afterwards, upon arriving at a village, I told the story of my adventure. The crowd in the post-office laughed. 'That is a favorite joke of those fellows,' a man remarked. 'They never fail to get a stranger's whisky.'"

FAREWELL SPECIALIST.

How a Melancholy Loafer Makes Himself Useful to Busy Men.

The other morning, says Puck, as the departing Cunard steamship was casting off its lines and swinging out into the stream, an elderly-looking business man hastily embraced a lady who was one of the passengers and rushed down the gang-plank to the wharf.

Going hurriedly up to a melancholy loafer who was watching the busy crowd, the gentleman drew him behind a pile of freight and said:

"Want to earn a dollar?"

"You bet."

"You see that lady in black on the bridge there?" said the citizen.

"Cert."

"Well, that's my wife, going to Europe. Now, of course, she'll expect me to stand here for the next twenty minutes, while the steamship is backing and filling around, so as to wave my handkerchief and watch her out of sight. See?"

"I ketch on, boss."

"Well, I'm too busy to fool around here; stock to buy, biz to attend to. She's a little near-sighted; so I'll just hire you to wave this handkerchief instead. It's a big one with a red border, and as long as he sees it she'll think it's me. Come up to 202 Wall street when they are well off and I'll pay you."

"S'posin' she looks through a telescope or suthin'?"

"In that case you'll have to bury your face in the handkerchief and do the great weep act."

"That'll be fifty cents extra."

"All right. Time is money. Look sharp now! You can kiss your hands a few times at, say, one dime per kiss," and snapping his watch the over-driven business man rushed off.

We print this affecting little incident to call attention to the fact that the man thus employed has gone into the business regularly. He is now a professional farewellier, and business men and others can save valuable time and yet give their departing relatives an enthusiastic send-off by applying to the above specialist any steamship day. Go early to avoid the rush.

Charles Dickens as an Editor.

Dickens is most thought of as a novelist, but his career as editor, if less dwelt upon, was hardly less distinguished in his service, first to Household Words and then to All the Year Round. Except during his brief connection with the Daily News, he was never the editor of a daily journal, but in the record, which his son furnishes in the English Illustrated Magazine, of his methods of editing a weekly journal and of dealing with his contributors, it is found that Dickens set up the highest standard possible, and brought all of his indomitable energy and capacity for taking pains into the service of the weekly magazine. He was the model editor in his chosen field, exacting but considerate, and if his correspondence with all contributors was as kindly as it was with the American lady whose contributions he took in hand and commented on, his relations to his co-laborers must have been choice illustrations of his kindness of heart and of the conscientious discharge of his relations to others.

The English Sparrow.

There seems to be no end to the mischief the English sparrow is capable of. One of the little feathered fiends recently took up his residence in a pipe of the organ in the Catholic cathedral at Louisville, and the organist went [illegible] before it was discovered.

GORMANDIZING,

or overeating, or the partaking of too rich and indigestible food, is a common cause of discomfort and suffering. To immediately relieve the stomach and bowels from such overloading, a full dose of Dr. Pierce's Purgative Pellets is the best remedy. They operate gently, yet thoroughly and without griping, nausea, or other unpleasant effects.

If the too free indulgence in such intemperate eating has deranged digestion, causing dyspepsia and biliousness, attended with a sense of fullness or bloating after eating, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in mouth in the morning, on arising, drowsiness after meals, indescribable feeling of dread, or of impending calamity and hypochondria—then you need to follow up the use of the "Pellets" with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, to tone up the stomach, invigorate the liver, and set all the processes of digestion at work. While curing indigestion, it purifies the blood, cleansing the system from all humors and blood-poisons—no matter of what name or nature, or from what cause arising. There is nothing similar to it in composition or approaching it in results. Therefore, don't be duped and induced to take some subetitute, said to be "just as good," that the dealer may make a larger profit.
