A BATTLE PENDING.

To-Morrow Will Solve the Trouble.

OFFICERS' FAMILIES SENT EAST.

Buffalo Bill Thinks They Must Fight--Cheyennes to be Removed.

A BLOODY BATTLE PENDING.

RUSHVILLE, Neb., Jan 10—A crisis has been reached and a general battle is looked for to-morrow. Circumstances are forcing the conclusion to the hostiles and parleying cannot be longer continued by either side. The Indians said yesterday that General Miles should prepare to fight or get off of the reservation. General Miles, it is said, has given the Indians until to-night to surrender and if they do not come in by that time he will close in on them. All night last night signal lights were seen flashing between Pine Ridge and Rose Bud agencies by the hostiles. That preparations are being made for a fight, every one here anticipates, and the bloodiest battle the country has ever seen. The wives and families of the officers who were at Pine Ridge agency were sent east last night.

BALL OPENS TO-MORROW.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 10.—A dispatch from Rushville, Neb., says Buffalo Bill is reported to have made the statement to-day that the "ball will open to-morrow."

STANDING ROCK INDIANS LOYAL.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 10.—The Indian Bureau has received a telegram from Agent McLaughlin at Standing Rock, denying the rumor of trouble at that agency. He says the Indians are to be depended upon for their loyalty to the Government.

SCHEME FOR THE REMOVAL.

Washington, D. C. Jan. 10.—Secretary Procter to-day received a telegram from General Miles as follows: "The commission which was appointed to consider the condition of the Cheyenne Indians at this place and Montana, unanimously recommend the removal of the Indians to Keogh.

There are already 250 men at Fort Keogh, and the men enlisted as scouts came south east under Lt. Casey and were joined by all the able bodied men from the agency to the front. They have done the most valuable and hazardous service in fighting and harassing the hostile Sioux. These men are now in danger from the Sioux.

THE SITUATION AT POCATELLO.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 10.—General Schofield received the following telegram from General Miles dated Pine Ridge yesterday: "Quite a number of Indians came in to-day in small parties and gave assurance of a large movement in this direction to-morrow for the purpose of surrendering. The troops have been directed to follow. Prospects at present look favorable as far as I can judge from indications."

A telegram from General Gibbon also dated yesterday says: "The following just received from the commanding officer, at Boise barracks, state Adjutant General Curtis wires the governor from Pocatello as follows; Fears of an Indian outbreak is greatly exaggerated and without just foundation. The first reports were sent by irresponsible parties."

CANADIAN INDIANS HOSTILE.

OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 10,—Frederick White, comptroller of the Northwest mounted police, states that the reports of an Indian outbreak near Deleraine, Manitoba, are unfounded.

SAN MARIOS INDIANS ON THE WAR-PATH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Jan. 10 — The Schooner Twilight, the recent arrival from San Marios Island, in the Gulf of California, Captain Lucas, reports that the Mexican government is having a great deal of trouble with the Indians in that locality, who are being roused into open hostility by depredations of white settlers upon their reservation land. Just before the Twilight sailed three natives and one settler were killed in a skirmish.

POLITICAL.

DUBOIS' ELECTION PROTESTED.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—The vice president laid before the senate a protest from twenty-three members of the Idaho legislature against allowing Dubois to keep his seat. The matter was referred to the committee on privileges and elections.

THE NEBRASKA GUBERNATORIAL SITUATION.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 10. — The gubernatorial situation remains unchanged. Gov. Boyd is recognized by all state officers, while Gov. Thayer still insists that he is at the head of the state government. It is evident that Gov. Boyd's warrants will be honored by the auditor and treasurer, while Gov. Thayer will not be able to have supplies for his military men who are awaiting the settlement of the controversy by the supreme court. In the senate this morning little business was transacted, and an adjournment was taken till Monday afternoon. Several important bills were introduced, but the proceeding was the same throughout.

FOREIGN.

A GAMBLER'S FATE.

MONTE CARLO, Jan 10.—Another suicide has startled Monte Carlo. A gentleman whose name is withheld by the authorities, blew his brains out last night. A letter upon his body contained information to the effect that the writer had lost 800,000 roubles at the gambling tables. It is thought the suicide may bring about the long talked of suppression of gambling.

CRIMINAL.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—Judge Pratt has vacated the order appointing a receiver for the Sugar Trust, and directed that the affairs of the trust be handed over to a reorganization committee.

WHEAT IN KANSAS.

ABELINE, Kan., Jan. 10.—The farmers are more than satisfied with the outlook for wheat. The indications throughout the state that freezing weather and heavy snows have effectually disposed of the Hessian Fly.

STRIKE ENDED.

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—About 1000 steam fitters, who have been on a strike for time in this city, returned to their work to-day. They returned unconditionally.

The Pulpit and the Stage.

Rev. F. M. Shrout, Pastor United Brethern Church, Blue Mound, Ark., says: "I feel it my duty to tell what wonders Dr. King's New Discovery has done for me. My lungs were badly diseased, and my parishoners thought I could live only a few weeks I took five bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery and am sound and well, gaining 26 lbs in weight."

Arthur Love, Manager Love's Funny Folks Combination, writes: "After a thorough trial and convincing evidence, I am confident Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, beats 'em all, and cures when every thing else fails. The greatest kindness I can do my many friends is to urge them to try it." Free trial bottles at Fry's drug store. Regular size 50cents and $1.

THE SITUATION IN McCARTHY'S HANDS.

Other Important European Cablegrams.

PARNELL TO MAKE A GREAT EFFORT.

DUBLIN, Jan. 10.—Parnell, accompanied by several trusted lieutenants arrived here on his way to Limerick, where to-morrow he is expected to make one of the most memorable speaches in the history of Irish politics. Over a dozen special trains are conveying crowds of people to Limerick.

Strong detachments of police are being sent in there in anticipation of disturbance.

THE BALFOUR FUND.

DUBLIN, Jan. 10.—The Z land Balfour relief fund now amounts to £17,000.

PARNELL'S SISTER

in a public letter defending her brother says:

They do not say why Gladstone is judged only by the last six years of his life. What is there to hinder him and the liberals from repeating after the next election, what they did after 1880? They do not tell us why conservatives may not give us home rule. They do not explain if radical hatred is extinct, why brutal Balfour is where he is, and why the British party, whether liberal or conservative, always receives the mandate to persecute Ireland, nor why, when liberals are out of office, they are the only body entitled to the respect of the Irish race.

IN THE HANDS OF MCCARTHY.

An Irish M. P. The solution of the Irish trouble is entirely in the hands of Justin McCarthy, and there is no doubt that he will do what is best for his country, irrespective of personal feelings. Healy had an interview with McCarthy, immediately after the return of the former from Paris, but it is understood, without raising any pledge as to McCarthy's future course. After arrangements are made O'Brien will probably return to America and resume his tour with the added eclat of Irish leadership, and of having put an end to the internecine conflict.

FAMINE IN IRELAND.

Cork, Jan. 10.—Great distress exists on the sea coast, and many families are almost perishing for want of food. At a meeting of the board of guardians of Clonakility a large number of laborers forced their way into the board room and declared that they were driven to desperation by want; that they had had no work for many months, and their families were starving. The guardians promised to do what they could.

Legal Decisions.

The following Supreme Court decisions will prove of interest to many our readers:

Limitation Clauses in Fire Isurance Policy.—The clause in an insurance policy limiting the time when an action under it may be maintained, runs from the date of filing proofs of loss. Ordinarily a contract of reinsurance creates no liability on the part of the reinsurer and the assured, but if the reinsuring company assured the risk, the insured may sue it directly. When the claim of a mortgage exceeds the amount of the policy, he may sue alone.—Supreme Court of North Dakota.

Premiums on Insurance Policy.—An insurance policy was about to expire, and the company sent to the assured a blank application for renewal requesting him to sign and return, and telling him that what dividends belonged to him should be credited on the new policy. The policy was forwarded purporting on its face that the policy was paid, and no demand was made for the premium. The fact was prima facie evidence that the premium had been paid, or payment waived.—Supreme Court of Wisconsin.

Exemption Forfeited.—If an insolvent debtor denies the ownership of that which he cannot hide and embaresses the officers of the law in their duties, he forfeits his right to exemption out of the assigned estate. —Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

Partnership Agreement Construed.—A partnership agreement contained the folloing clause: "The partnership shall continue for a term of ten years from date, unless sooner terminated by mutal consent, or by notice, which shall be in writing, and delivered sixty days before taking effect." Either of the parties had a right to terminate the partnership without cause at any time on giving the required notice.—Supreme Court of Iowa.

Special Contract By Common Carrier.—A special contract by a common carrier agreeing in writing in consideration of the payment of a sum, in addition to the regular freight rate, to deliver perishable goods at a certain place by a certain date, is an absolute contract which charges the carrier with full responsibility for any damages resulting from his failure to comply with its strict terms.—Supreme Court of Colorado.

Property of Illegal Partnership.—Where a corporation has been dissolved for entering into partnership or trust created for an illegal purpose, and the receiver of the incorporation has been appointed for the pupose of converting its funds into cash, the receiver is not entitled to have an accounting made of the property of such corporation as it was in its nature illegal, but all he can do is reduce to cash the property of the corporation.—Supreme Court of New York.

Employes' Claims Against Insolvent Corporations—Where a corporation in insolvency goes into the hands of a receiver, one who has been employed by it for a term of years which at the time of insolvency has not expired, he is entitled to present a claim to the receiver for the amount of damages sustained by the loss of his position, but under the New Jersey statute concerning corporations such a claim is not entitled to preference over other claims.—Court of Chancery of New Jersey.

Gold is king, and king it will remain. Its title rests upon qualities that have commended it in all ages to the use of mankind. Men have learned that they may depend on it with the same certainty as on a law of nature. So when men say, we must get rid of the gold tyranny, they talk nonsense.—Portland Oregonian.

Yes, gold is king, but it is king by force, and so have all humbugs perpetuated their sway by force. Human kings have been decided useless furniture by all sensible, just men, and so will the gold king be disenthroned in time. Progress has no respect for kings, but it has for men who do not shirk their duty.—Pendleton East Or.

The independent outspoken newspapers are truly the friends of the people. Were it not for them the people's burdens would be heavier. The Salem CAPITAL JOURNAL is one of these. In an editorial entitled. "Let Free Rivers be Made an Issue Until Oregon Has Them" it gives utterance to truths.—East Oregonian.

Albany Herald:—The whisky habit on New Year's day, was responsible, in New York City, for another atrocious murder. An elderly lady was thrown from the window of a tenament house and killed. Either a drunken husband or son were guilty of the crime, by allowing whisky to rob them of all human feeling or sense.

This is a democratic utterance from a republican mouth, and we want to let people know that we sing in the same key.—East Oregonian, (Dem).

The E. O. is a "little mixed" on the above. Would it have us understand that it has a "Republican mouth?" Or that it discusses nonpartisan questions in other than a partisan tone? We opine it seeks to do the latter.
