THE BRIDGE AGAIN.

Twenty-five Thousand Dollars Extra Must be Paid for an Imperfect Bridge.

W. A. Grondahl has again endeavored to impose his gail on the people of this community in his report to the joint session of the Marion and Polk county courts.

He says the people are to be congratulated on having the bridge completed so soon and to get such a perfect structure as that which now spans the Willamette river at this place.

He further says that the settling of the old concrete piers has thrown the strain on the piers to the west, but this was expected, and that this one defect adds to the strength of the structure.

It is very probable that he has added all the defects together and in the product he finds a perfect bridge.

The exact cost of the bridge, if his report is accepted, will be $84,402.29. When Marion and Polk counties advertised for bids for the construction of a bridge over the Willamette at this city, a specified contract was made that a bridge, much better than the one now standing, should be built at a cost of $60,000.

Below is given the specified cost of the bridge as it now stands.

THE LEGISLATURE.

(Conclusion of Jan. 12th report.)

Mr. Paquet, of Clackamas made a brief and very appropriate speech in presenting Hon. T. T. Geer, his successful competitor, for Speaker of the house, who then received the entire republican vote.

The democratic caucus nominee, Hon. E. P. Coleman, of Lane, likewise received the entire democratic vote, and a complimentary vote from Mr. Geer.

A committee of three escorted the Speaker elect to the chair.

Mr. Geer briefly addressed the body, thanking them for the distinction and display of confidence shown. He suggested that they were confronted by a great work and the necessity of performing it in a period of time entirely inadequate for the business before them.

Another waste of time was the introduction of an almost endless number of bills, which should be confined to not over a few dozen subjects. He felt confident of their co-operation toward a successful session, and awaited their further pleasure, and was administered the oath of office.

Merritt, of Jackson, now presented the republican caucus nominees for the other offices to be filled.

A resolution by Representative Paquet was adopted, authorizing the secretary of state to supply members with Hill's Annotated code of Oregon laws, session laws and journals of last session.

The press reporters were extended the usual courtesies of the house and ordered supplied with stationery. Four newspapers were also voted to each member. The house adjourned to 10 a. m.

Also resolved that the secretary of state supply members each with 200 2-cent stamps, and 100 newspaper wrappers.
