THE INSURANCE POOL.

The long-expected reduction in insurance rates for Ashland upon the completion of the excellent system of water works put in by the city at a large cost has not yet been announced. The rates demanded here now are simply an outrage, and it is a wonder that the people have borne them so patiently. Of course it is generally accepted as a fact that there is no escape from the clutches of the Pacific coast insurance monopoly; but it is not wise to accept this conclusion without seeking for some remedy. One way to escape is open certainly, and that is for the people to bear their own risks, and many feel like doing this very thing, now that the risk has been so greatly lessened and there has been no corresponding concession made by the insurance companies.

The people are at last waking up to the situation, and some of our leading citizens who have the welfare of the town at heart have taken steps to make a formal and forcible appeal to the insurance trust to do its own interests as well as those of this city the justice to make an immediate reduction of the rates. Should this appeal be ineffective, it is understood that some other plan will be tried without delay. Our citizens should stand solidly together in this effort to obtain justice in the insurance business.—Ashland Tidings.

THE PARTY THAT THRIVES BEST ON DISCONTENT AND UNHAPPINESS.

One exchange has discovered Governor Penoyer's strong point—he would present the invincible source of political power of which the democratic party has enjoyed a monopoly. Says the Yamhill Reporter:

"There is no question that he has many strong points of personality that commend him to the masses of the people, before such as Cleveland and Hill and other eastern competitors who worship at the shrine of the golden calf on Wall street. So far as a party record is concerned, the governor has one that is democratic from away back. The times have fallen into such lines that in order to win the democratic party must have a candidate who in addition to possessing a record must be a leader capable of marshaling all the elements of popular discontent and unhappiness in the land and forging them into a solid wall of democratic votes. Neither Mr. Hill or Mr. Cleveland can command more than the nominal and machine power of the party. Neither could inspire popular enthusiasm in any section, except the solid south.

THE SUPERVISION WHICH IT PAYS CONTRACTORS TO HAVE.

That much talked of and blasted steel bridge across the Willamette river at Salem has been completed at last. The total cost of the bridge is $84,402. The contract price was $80,000. There was $24,402 added to the contract price by extra work done, extra material, etc.—Dayton Herald.

It should be remembered that the counties employed Engineer Grondahl to supervise the construction in the interest of the people and paid him $2500 for a few months work, he spending only enough time here to occasionally confer with the contractors. This is called proper supervision of public work.

ITS TERRITORY ENLARGED.

The news that the Oregon Improvement company is to be lifted out of the financial slough of despond is welcomed by our people. The extensive operations of the company have been of great benefit, and it would be a very serious disadvantage if it were permanently crippled.—Seattle Telegraph.

It seems Mr. President of the Oregon senate is working very hard to benefit one state at least—Washington. His corporation political bossism is extended to that state now, and the people thereof should rejoice.

There is Catarrh in all sections of the country, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, but constantly failed to cure with local treatment. This has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Kelly's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. For circulars and testimonials, Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sent by Druggists.

SUGGESTED COMMENT.

Is the state chamber of commerce the fourth house?

The Freewater Herald is a very interesting East Oregon paper.

The Woodburn Independent has been effectively advertising the JOURNAL.

Any plan is better than a plan to have no exhibit from Oregon at the World's Fair.

Will the advocates of a single railroad commissioner allow the people to elect him?

What will the legislature do for Oregon to secure open rivers and regulation of rates of freight?

An irate Democratic Exchange refers to the Oregonian as "a paper made up out of lies in fine print."

The way to ensure a good growth for East Salem is to ensure the extension of the electric line to the fair grounds.

Ex-Senator Wagner is the legislative correspondent of the East Oregonian, which ensures that paper an interesting resume of state house doings.

Governor Penoyer has no doubt found a very large sized brick under the Cleveland presidential hat, which he kicked so vigorously the other day.

If Mr. Cleveland's opinion could be obtained on the proposition to give Mr. Penoyer a second place on the presidential ticket he would no doubt call it an "infamous outrage."

The Albany Democrat is something of a democrat paper and at times falls to moralizing. It says, Fitzsimmons, the pugilist, neither drinks nor smokes. Dempsey is reported to have been living fast.

There's a sermon for you.

With good committees and a fairly intelligent house of representatives, there is no good reason why that body cannot originate and pass measures in the interest of the people. The senate is hardly to be considered as responsible to the people.

Arrangements have been made by a number of Oregon papers with Geo. W. Williams, the great historian of the negro race, for articles bearing upon his experience in following in the footsteps of Stanley in the heart of Africa.

The Oregonian's articles on the Penoyer presidential boom are easily understood by those really friendly to the governor. Editorially it commends him to his party. In its news columns it prints interviews with democrats most unfavorable to him.

It is for the legislature to say whether Oregon shall lie fallow during the year of the Columbian quadro-centennial, or reap a rich harvest of wealth, progress and immigration along with the other states. The governor says let it lie fallow.

Corporationists say our railroad commission is "over-officious" and should have "kept within the law and confined its reports to those it is required to make to the legislature." No-commission men say the commission does nothing at all. Both are unfair and unjust. The present commission has made no report and fair-minded people will await the report.

SENTIMENT OF THE PRESS.

Columbia: Governor Penoyer in his message says that the refusal of the legislature to make an appropriation for an exhibit at the World's fair would induce a large immigration. His policy is to make Oregon so conspicuous for her want of enterprise that she will become the Mecca of mossaickers.

Baker City Democrat: The mention of the name of Governor Penoyer with the high office of president of the United States is a high compliment to Oregon and a deserving recognition of a worthy man. It shows that ability manifests itself and commands respect wherever found.

Seattle Telegraph: The bill hurriedly passed by the board of aldermen at its last meeting, abolishes the saloon limits and leaves any one at liberty to open a saloon wherever he pleases, comes up in the house of delegates this evening. If that body has any respect for the opinion of the order-loving people of the city, it will kill the measure by a decisive vote.

Roseburg Plaindealer: Hon. John H. Mitchell is the unanimous choice of the republicans of Oregon for United States senator to succeed himself. This is as it should be. Mr. Mitchell is well deserving this compliment. His dignified and statesmanlike conduct and devotion to Oregon's best interests, and the ability with which he has performed his duty as senator has disarmed his enemies and won their confidence and esteem. Mr. Mitchell will be his own successor, a consummation the Plaindealer rejoices to know as the result of his unwavering friends and admirers. Mr. Mitchell is the peer of any man in the United States senate, let him hail from what section he may.

Roseburg Plaindealer: We have not the time to critically examine the provisions of the Gaston railroad commissioner bill, but incline to the opinion that three men, all things considered, are better than one. A powerful—because rich—corporation could not so easily buy three men as they could one. Hence we favor three with authority to do something more than draw their salary.

Free Water Herald: The idea of electing the railroad commissioner by popular vote is a good one and should be adopted. The farmers, being in the majority are the principal patrons of the railroads and casting a majority of the votes will be enabled to elect an officer friendly to their interests and secure for the people of Oregon reasonable rates and fares, as well as immunity from discrimination, which enables favored shippers to control the market price of farm products.

The Dalles Chronicle: Very wisely recommends that the legislature ask congress for an appropriation to build a portage railroad at The Dalles. This is the only thing that will give us speedy relief, we want portage railroads for the benefits to be derived while more permanent improvements are being made, and the governor has sounded a key note that will add to his unprecedented popularity.

Editorial Correspondence State Journal: In the speaker's chair sits T. T. Geer, the tall sycamore of Marion, whose caustic pen has made his bright mind familiar to the readers of the Oregonian. The speaker is very tall and slender and as straight as a telephone pole. He stands behind the desk most of the time thus emphasizing his height. He is just in his ruggings and evidently considers the speaker's gavel one of the working tools of his profession and not a playing thing or a baby-rattle. Hon. John Minto of all members of the house probably represents the longest seivion among the people of Oregon. He is whiteing with years but no man shows a greater loyalty to his people or more fully enjoys their confidence and esteem.

The new Salem bridge was accepted unconditionally, and if it goes out in the first freshet the people will have no recourse against the contractors.—Albany Democrat.

It will be remembered that at least one newspaper protested against these methods of expending public moneys.

GRANGE MEETINGS.—Pomona grange meets with the Salem grange in their hall in this city, on the first Saturday in February. All the grangers in the county are invited to attend. Salem grange will hold an open meeting Wednesday evening at 7 p. m., to discuss matters now before the legislature. The public and especially members of the legislature are cordially invited to attend and participate in the discussions.

Electric Bitters. This remedy is becoming so well known and so popular as to need no special mention. All who have used Electric Bitters sing the same song of praise. A purer medicine does not exist and it is guaranteed to do all that is claimed. Electric Bitters will cure all diseases of the liver and kidneys, will remove pimples, boils, salt rheum and other affections caused by impure blood.—Will drive malaria from the system, and prevent as well as cure all malarial fevers.—For cure of headache, constipation and indigestion try Electric Bitters.—Entire satisfaction guaranteed, or money refunded.—Price 50 cts., and $1.00 per bottle at Fry's drug store.

Office of Salem Steam Laundry 230 Liberty. Branch offices, 209 and 252 Commercial.

Don't fail to get some of those choice vegetables at Jas. Clark's Court street grocery store.

GOOD EFFECTS.—The effects of having the Willamette river spanned by a bridge at this city is already seen by the number of people from Polk county who were in the city Saturday, trading with the Salem merchants. The bridge is not necessarily a blow to the small towns on the other side of the river as some seem to think. The building up of the county will build up the towns. Salem's growth need not be the destruction of any other place.

The Spring Medicine. All who realize the necessity of purifying the blood know that Hilbard's Purifying Blood is the best medicine. It has cured thousands of cases of blood poisoning, rheumatism, skin diseases, and all ailments arising from impure blood. It is a powerful purifier and cleanser of the blood, and its use is recommended by all the leading medical authorities. For sale by Druggists and Grocers.

School Tax List. The school taxes of district No. 24 in Marion county are now due and payable at the clerk's office in No. 263 Commercial street (in the rear of F. S. Dearborn's book store in the Bush Freeman block) Salem. The taxes will become delinquent unless paid within 60 days from this date. By order of board, this 17th day of November, 1890. W. B. SIMPSON, District Clerk.
