EXECUTIVE MEETING.—The meeting at the University was not a board of trustees meeting at all. It was a meeting of the executive board which is comprised of the resident members of the board. A JOURNAL reporter found no trouble in finding a place at the meeting and the members talked freely as to what was done. The business was the usual routine work of such a board which has the management of a school to look after. The question of removing the school was not mentioned, as it was not in the province of the executive committee to handle that question. When the board met in Portland a few weeks ago and the meeting was decided illegal, some talk of holding a meeting in Salem with the executive board was had, though no call was issued to that effect. To hold a special meeting requires a signed request from seven members of the board. A special meeting will probably be held in this city in a few weeks to look into the interest and welfare of the school. Many of the people of this city thought there was to be a meeting of the trustees last night, but this was not so regarded among themselves.

THE SWISS.—Do not fail to attend the Swiss entertainment at the G. A. R. fair, which promises to be of unusual interest. Miss Grace Scriber is known to be an efficient manager and is assisted by one who has been a resident of Switzerland and speaks the language fluently. The singing, costumes and tableaux will be true to nature. One evening of the fair, visitors will be entertained by the royal ladies of Egypt. The peculiar and many colored costumes of the ladies and their waiting maids, the music strangely weird and monotoned, the refreshments served in oriental style will present a novel and interesting sight. Miss Crawford has spared no pains to make this department a success.

CHANGE OF VENUE.—Sandy Olds has at last succeeded in obtaining a change of venue from Multnomah to Washington county. The change was granted on the ground the people of Portland were so prejudiced against him that a fair and impartial trial in that county was impossible. This is not true, but it is one of the tricks of the defendant to delay the trial. The case will now be heard before Judge Frank J. Taylor, of Astoria, instead of before Judge Stearns as heretofore. The people in general think he has gained little by the change.

THE ALBANY LADIES' AID.—A committee of ladies from Albany are in attendance upon the legislature to present the matter of an appropriation for the orphans' home and hospital at Albany, an institution under the control of the Ladies' Aid society, of Albany, which has a building erected and enclosed, and desires aid to complete and endow it. The object is a worthy one and should receive the same state aid that similar institutions in Portland and Salem receives.

THE CROWNING.—Remember the curtain rises exactly at 8:20 this evening. At 8 p. m. music by the orchestra. You may never again have the opportunity of hearing and seeing the crowning of the Queen of Fame. Rehearsals have been held every night this week at the opera house, and everything is in trim condition.

NEXT WEEK.—T. Holverson will open up next week a special sale of hosiery, underwear, knit and muslin goods. These goods will be sold at the lowest prices ever known in Salem. Customers should be on the alert for these rare bargains.

CHOICE BUTTER.—Messrs. Fishburn & Co. are handling fine butter for family trade. They have just received an invoice of Wisconsin dairy that can't be excelled. They have secured the entire output of K. L. Hibbard's "Waldo Hills Dairy," which they receive every Friday and are now taking orders for regular customers. 1-22-2t

The speaker announced as the SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON RULES.

Reps. Parquet, Manning, and Coleman.

SENATE MESSAGES.

Senate resolution for a joint committee of Oregon and Washington legislatures to ascertain propriety of improving the Columbia.

Rep. Armstrong inquired if adoption of this resolution involved any expenditure of money. He suggested that all such matters be properly referred.

Rep. Montgomery objected on the ground that it was an interference with a work already undertaken by the federal government.

Rep. Miller moved reference to com on commerce.

Rep McCoy argued that it was simply a request for a conference.

Rep Jennings objected as it involved $200 mileage to pay.

Rep Paquet moved the resolution be printed and made special order for Monday at 2 p m.

Rep Barnes argued that this resolution was of greatest importance, Eastern Oregon was at the mercy of a single railroad which absolutely declined to transport the produce from there, and the people were suffering. The people of the upper Columbia had paid tribute to Portland long enough, and it was time the rivers were opened and the people given their natural rights and commercial freedom.

Rep Minto argued strongly for a cheaper way for the people of Eastern Oregon to get their products to market.

Rep Welch opposed making it a special order. He wanted open rivers as early as possible.

Rep Johnson moved to make special order Friday at 10 a. m. Carried.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

Hon. R. P. Earhart, of Portland, is in the city.

Judge Kelsey returned to his home in Corvallis to-day.

W. L. Hufford, of Corvallis, was in the city to-day.

Hon. Phil Metschan came up from Portland this morning.

Miss Moore, of Corvallis will be clerk of the house committee on roads and highways.

The number of prisoners confined in the penitentiary has hovered around the figures "329" during the past week.

Some of Portland's political bosses are in Salem, endeavoring to hang amendments enough to the bill on the Australian ballot reform, to sink it.

Hon. T. C. Sels, who was one of the state senators in an early day, but now a resident of Canyon City, is in the city, the guest of State Treasurer Metschan.

Presiding Elder J. Bowersox, of the Evangelical church, went up to Sweet Home this afternoon, to investigate the recent troubles in the church at that place.

Fog was so thick last evening that that the up-river boat from Portland was obliged to "hang up" thus delaying the arrival of considerable freight for this city.

The JOURNAL is happy to note that the citizens of Salem are taking a hearty interest in the Grand Army fair. A great success is expected and many unique features are being announced. This is as it should be, for the maintaining of this organization in a strong condition is the source of great good to our city. Let the loyal work go on.

—WILLAMETTE MINSTRELS.—The Willamette Jubilee singers and minstrel troupe are looked for at Reed's opera house January 27th. This troupe appears under the management of Wm. B. Dunnington, who is well versed in how to entertain an audience. The company is composed of the best minstrel talent in Portland and Salem and has some excellent singing by the best minstrel singers in the northwest. Don't fail to see them and hear something you have not heard before, on Tuesday night next.

RIVER NEWS.—The Three Sisters came up this noon, from the disabled Northwest, with her load of freight. The Manzanillo went up the river this morning after another load of freight for Salem. The Hoag will work for a few days longer below, before coming as far up as Salem. The Three Sisters will go up to Independence this evening.

Legislators and strangers in the city will do well to sample the meals at Strong's restaurant before making permanent arrangement for board. Regular meals only 25 cents.

TEMPERANCE ALLIANCE

The Biennial Meeting Held in This City—Much Interest Manifested

The State Temperance Alliance met at the M. E. church yesterday afternoon with a fair attendance, with Rev. C. C. Bateman, of Oregon, City president, in the chair.

The meeting was opened with singing and prayer by Rev. H. Gould.

Rev. H. Gould, Rev. H. Brown and Miss Gill were appointed as a committee on credentials. While the committee was making up its report, singing, interspersed with short speeches, occupied the time.

The committee on credentials reported the following delegates entitled to seats.

DELEGATES IN ATTENDANCE.

H. S. Jory, J. P. Robertson, Wm. Petit, Mrs. E. J. Harris, Salem; Miss Nellie Rogers and J. M. Wagner, Liberty; C. T. Miller and Jacob Voorhees, Woodburn; J. P. Cole, Aurora; Wm. Nutter, Turner; Leslie Butler and Henry Brown, The Dalles; M. Hosford and Jane Massey, Brooks; T. Atchison, Oakville; Miss Ida Cole and Miss Lillie Gill, Scio; Prof. Anderson, W. F. Foster, Mrs. Gillespie, George Hatch, Dexter Field, Herman Polfe, Mrs. Ramp, Mrs. Fisk, Mrs. Scriber and Thos. VanScoy, Salem; Mrs. M. Cyrus, Scio; Dr. Harrington, Portland; Rev. C. E. Cline, J. H. Roork and S. P. Wilson, Salem; R. D. Mitchell, Hillsboro; R. C. Ramsby and Small, Silverton; Lucinda Harris and W. Harris, Brooks; S. Brown and S. Condit, Aumsville, M. Campbell, Canby; A. W. Baird and Mrs. W. W. Morse, Oregon City; Miss Ollie Smith, Rev. H. Gould, Mrs. H. Gould and Mrs. Jane Witherite, Jefferson; Rev. C. C. Bateman, H. E. Cross, Mrs. Helen McCown and Mrs. Lottie Baird, Oregon City; S. Layman, P. L. Kennedy, Mrs. Dora Kay, Mrs. Nettie Carter and Edith Hall, Woodburn; Mrs. A. L. Duger, Mrs. E. E. McKinney, E. W. Robertson, and J. C. Walgamut, Turner; Mrs. E. M. Vandervort, R. D. Holman, A. T. Yeaton, J. Kingsler and Mrs. Miller, Salem.

The committee on arrangements reported a program for the evening session, after which the president outlined the work of the coming session. A general discussion of the temperance question was indulged in by the members of the alliance.

Upon motion, a committee of three, consisting of J. P. Robertson, H. D. Jones, and Leslie Butler, was appointed on temperance legislation.

The afternoon session was closed with singing and prayer.

THE EVENING SESSION.

At 7:30 p. m. the session opened with prayer by the president, Rev. C. C. Bateman, after which the congregation joined in singing the national hymn—"America."

After the usual preliminaries of making announcements and taking up a collection were attended to Rev. Gwynne delivered the opening address of welcome in a very able and cordial manner.

The response by Rev. Henry Brown, of The Dalles, was equally good.

President Bateman's address, which lasted fully three-quarters of an hour were very plain and was a good argument for temperance from a republican standpoint. He is a forcible speaker and in his address he touched on the Australian ballot system as being the future means of solving the liquor problem. His address did not favor the enactment of law for prohibitory measures until the public mind was in a state to receive such law and enforce them, or rather, when the laws would execute themselves. He said.

"I do not believe you can legislate for the morality of the people, when the public conscience is higher than the law, the latter will be obeyed without force. When we find that public sentiment is so elevated that it will disparage the selling of liquor, we will find the law executing itself. We should not talk about voting and what man we should put up for office who will advocate temperance; but we should go about denouncing it as wrong and educating the people to despise it and reclaiming those already addicted to the habit. In this way we would accomplish far better results than by calling men cowards who will not vote with us. Men are not cowards who will not vote for more prohibitory measures, who see the laws we have violated every day."

While Mr. Bateman's address was not in harmony with the views of some of the members, yet it was full of sound logic and practical thought. After a few remarks by Major E. T. Scott, recently from Nebraska, the meeting adjourned to meet at 9 o'clock this morning.

The alliance was called to order this morning at 9 a m by president Bateman. Opened with prayer by Rev. H. Gould. Minutes of previous session read and approved.

The following officers were then elected:

President Rev. S. P. Wilson, of Salem; vice presidents, W. T. Rigdon, Salem; J. C. Booth, Roseburg; Leslie Butler, The Dalles; and John Luce, of Grant county.

S. Layman, Leslie Butler and H. Gould, were appointed as a committee on revision of constitution.

E. E. McKinney was elected secretary and treasurer of the alliance.

Rev. C. E. Cline, of Salem, and Leslie Butler, was elected members of the executive committee.

The secretary read his annual report.

Treasurer's report was read by the secretary and adopted.

Upon report of the committee on constitution, the time of meeting was made annual instead of biennial, and the time of meeting was set for the first Wednesday in December, and that the first annual meeting be held Dec. 1891.

Committe on president's address, Rev. H. Gould, Jacob Voorhees and H. S. Jory.

Committee on resolutions. Judge Jo Consila, R. C. Ramsby and Lillie Gill.

Committee on report of treasurer. P. L. Kingsler, S. Layman and B. Harris.

On Motion of E. E. McKinney, of Turner, Leslie Butler and John Knight were appointed as a committee to devise some plan by which the alliance could be provided with funds.

The meeting adjourned to 1 o'clock this afternoon.

TO WED.—Catherine A. McGrath and Thomas J. Conner, and Inez E. Savage and L. Albert McComb were granted licenses to marry by County Clerk Babcock to-day.
