AN IRONCLAD CONTRACT.—

The bridge over the Willamette river at this city was built in accordance with an ironclad contract on one side at least, and the paying for the work is as binding. It seems there is being an effort made, especially by some country papers, to have Marion county bear the burden for this great benefit to Polk as well as to Marion county.

JEALOUSY OF SALEM.—

The Sunday Oregonian gives social notes from nearly all the little towns in Western Oregon and Western Washington. Salem is intentionally omitted from the number.

MORE OIL PROSPECTS.—

At a public meeting in Hubbard last week the citizens decided to have the town incorporated. The oil boom has given the town a metropolitan air, and a hundred dollars a front foot is being asked for corner lots.

NEWBERG OFFICIALS.—

The following are the city officers elected last Monday at that place: Mayor, G. W. Williams; Recorder, T. H. Howard; Marshal, L. C. Washburn; Street Commissioner, Ira Vantrass; Surveyor, F. E. Holson; Treasurer, Moses Votaw.

THIRTY ARTISTS.—

William B. Dunnington, the grand comedian, has secured the assistance of five minstrel artists late of McCabe & Young's minstrel troupe of San Francisco.

A PROPER MOVE.

A Willamette University Benefit Meeting of the Citizens of Salem To-Morrow Night.

A call has been issued by Geo. P. Hughes, A. N. Bush, Dr. J. Reynolds, Geo. B. Gray and Dr. L. L. Rowland, trustees of leading Willamette university, for a meeting of the citizens of Salem in the parlors of the Capital National bank on Tuesday evening, for the purpose of devising some plan for the relocation of that institution.

It has become evident to the trustees as well as many of the business men of this city that the grounds now occupied by the school are too valuable and will soon be too small to afford the necessary accommodations that such a school should give.

A STRONG DELEGATION.—

An enthusiastic meeting of citizens was held in East Portland Saturday night to discuss the bill now before the legislature to amend the city charter, by which the city will own her own water works.

THE LEGISLATURE.

HOUSE—AFTERNOON. SALEM, Jan. 25, 1891.

House met at 2 p. m. After prayer by Rev. Brown and journal read, the house proceeded to consider.

THE SPECIAL ORDER.

H B No 49—By Montgomery, for amended Portland charter, relative to police. Re-committed to Com on elections to amend.

Rep Moore, of Benton, was added to Com to visit school for blind.

The house took up the regular order of introduction and first reading of bills.

SENATE—AFTERNOON.

After roll call Rev. Whitaker opened the session with prayer. Senators Willis, Fulton and Hatch were excused.

The journal was read and approved.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

No 134—By Hilton, to create and aid district agricultural societies in Eastern, Western and Southern Oregon. Referred to a special committee consisting of the senators from the interested counties.

No 135—By Matlock, to amend the laws of Oregon.

No 136—By Cogswell, to incorporate Prineville. Considered engrossed and ordered to 3d reading.

No 137—By Fullerton, to incorporate Roseburg. To Com on corporations.

No 138—By Moore, to protect laborers in logging camps.

No 139—By Weatherford, to incorporate Lebanon. To Com on corporations.

No 140—By Raley, to amend laws in relation to usury.

A message from the governor was read recommending a joint resolution to be passed authorizing the building of a portage railway at the Dalles at a cost of $431,500, and denouncing the boat railway as a scheme to delay the opening of the Columbia river. Referred to committee on federal relations and ordered printed.

Songs of Nations.

This popular concert will be given in the University chapel Wednesday evening, Jan. 28th. The nations will be illustrated by costumes, flags and decorations. The following is the caste of characters: Italy, Miss Willis; Columbia, Miss Harris; Britannia, Miss Adams; Germania, Miss Coombe; Ireland, Miss Shafer; Scotland, Mrs. Smith; Jonathan, H. C. Epley; Johnny Bull, W. A. Ginn; Patrick, B. L. Steeves; Deltoche, F. A. Legg. Readings by Miss Ames, and chorus of fifty voices.

A JOKE.—

A state house rat who happened to be born in Indiana, being asked by a senator why the state went democratic, explained that "it was because they raised so many hogs." An old farmer standing by, and hearing the conversation chirped in: "Pears to me, they have been raised a considerable smart of hogs in Kansas and Nebraska, lately."

The World Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited, and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring-time or, in fact, at any time, and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

PECULIAR CIRCUMSTANCE.—

A few days ago Mr. J. D. Adcox, of this city, by chance picked up a copy of the Atlanta Constitution, and in glancing over a solid page of "want" advertisements, his eye unconsciously rested on an item by Amanda Page, seeking a long lost brother, and by reading the same to the end discovered that he himself was the brother in question. He had not seen his sister for thirteen years, and was not aware that she had been married. This is a most remarkable coincidence, and aside from demonstrating the high value of advertising, has been the means of making Mr. Adcox very happy. She is located at Mackerville, Indian Territory.

ACCUSED OF STEALING WOOD.—

J. T. Glenn had James McFadden arrested Saturday for hauling away from his place south of the city, four and a half cords of oak wood. The accused was lodged in jail and the time set for hearing the trial was one o'clock this afternoon, but the city attorney being absent, it was postponed until late this afternoon.

SPECIAL MEETING.—

Pacific lodge No. 30, A. F. & A. M., this evening, Jan. 26, 1891. Work in the F. C. degree. Visiting brethren cordially invited. By order of W. M., J. H. Ross. Will meet at 7:30 this evening.

SAY, ELA.—

Look over my wardrobe and take some of my old clothing down to the Dye Works, 183 Commercial Street, and have them dyed and renovated and we can save enough to buy you a new dress in the spring. All right, dear, I will do so right away.

The Best in the Country.

Dr. E. S. Holden: The Ethereal Cough Syrup cannot be excelled in the market for the cure of coughs, colds, and bronchial affections. Sold by W. M. BORGES' Naps. Large size $1.00, small 50 cents. For sale by all druggists.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

M. Wilkins, the World's Fair commissioner, was in the city today.

Deputy Sheriff Frank Wrightman is again kept away from his post of duty, by an attack of fever.

J. W. Whitney, Southern Pacific adjuster, and Dr. A. D. Bevan, the company's surgeon, arrived in Eugene on Saturday, and are working towards a settlement with the Lake Labish settlers. No claims have yet been settled.

Miss Alice Bowman, of this city, who recently completed a course of instruction in a Michigan medical college, leaves on the overland this evening for St. Helena, California, where she has a position as assistant physician in the Health Retreat in that city.

CHURCH BURNED.—The Unitarian church of Portland was damaged to the extent of $10,000 Saturday afternoon by fire, which originated in the steeple and is supposed to be the work of tramps. The denomination had a very fine church in that city and the loss is a heavy one. Considerable of the furniture was removed through more or less damaged or water soaked from the streams thrown by the engines. The building was insured for $7400, and the seats had $1300, the books, $100, and the $2500 pipe organ had $1000 in insurance.

WELL PLEASED ONCE.—

Our delegation at Salem are doing all they can for the interests of the state. Several bills have been introduced in which the people are vitally interested, and, with a united republican party, these will very likely pass and become laws. Wasco county has never had a better representation at Salem than during the present session.—Mountaineer.

The grandest minstrel troupe ever in Salem at Reed's opera house tomorrow night.

ONLY A SCARE.—

About five o'clock Saturday afternoon the fire department was called out by a smoke emerging from around one of the flues in the Cook Hotel. It proved to be only the soot burning on the inside of the flue. That was the first time the department has been called out this year.

AMONG OUR NEIGHBORS.

A petition is being circulated at Ellensburg, Wash., which calls for the overhauling of the books and accounts of the city government for the past four or five years. It is a movement of the taxpayers, who want to know where their money goes.

The Ellensburg Localizer says: "Three per cent a month was offered on the streets on the 31st instant for money to pay taxes with, but without success. If it is possible the legislature should extend the time, as it would save the people thousands of dollars."

Miss Jennie Johnson, of Colfax, while teaching a young pupil to dance, a few days ago, fell on the floor, and broke one of her ribs.

Assignee's Notice. Persons indebted to the late firm of Cox & Bages, insolvents, are hereby notified that they must settle up immediately or suits will be instituted for collection.

DIED.

HENNESSY.—At the family residence at Look creek, Oregon, Jan. 12th, 1891, Carryl, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Hennessy. Lovingly the little form was laid away to rest, leaving a father, mother and sister to mourn his early departure, which has left a sad vacancy in the little home circle.

HARKINS.—At the family home in this city, Sunday night, Jan. 25th, 1891, the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Harkins.

WAS OVERNIGHT STRAINED than a wrecked constitution, whether the disease be the product of some locality, or decay that seems to follow without apparent cause. An excellent means of checking this gradual drain of the system of vitality is Hood's stomach Bitters, which promotes digestion, and gives confidence as well as strength to the kidneys and bladder, liver and spleen, and throughout, among the bodily ailments which it remedies promptly and thoroughly. Prepared in its own still and bottled by itself.
